ASU in the 2005 College World Series

The Arizona State University Baseball team returned to Omaha and the College World Series in 2005 for the 19th time in school history, and what a memorable trip it was.

From Jeff Larish's record-tying three home runs against Nebraska, to J.J. Sferra ending the ESPN "Instant Classic" with his 11th inning bloop single, it was a remarkable run to third place for the Sun Devils. ASU finished 3-2 in the CWS, giving them 58 all-time wins in College World Series play, third most in history. In addition, the 19 trips to Omaha are the fourth most by any school. Arizona State was also well represented on the All-College World Series team. Jeff Larish, Travis Buck, Colin Curtis and Joey Hooft all earned spots on the All-CWS squad.

ASU AND THE Golden Spikes Award

ODDIBE McDOWELL

> For the past 27 years, USA Baseball has honored the top amateur baseball player in the country with the Golden Spikes Award. (See winners box.) The award is presented each year to the player who exhibits exceptional athletic ability and exemplary sportsmanship. Past winners of this prestigious award include current Major League Baseball stars J. D. Drew, Pat Burrell, Jason Varitek, Jason Jennings and Mark Prior.

> Arizona State's Bob Horner won the inaugural award in 1978 after hitting .412 with 20 doubles and 25 RBI. Oddibe McDowell (1984) and Mike Kelly (1991) also won the award.

> Dustin Pedroia was named one of five finalists for the 2004 Golden Spikes Award. He became the seventh all-time finalist from ASU, including Horner (1978), McDowell (1984), Kelly (1990), Kelly (1991), Paul Lo Duca (1993) and Jacob Cruz (1994).

> With three Golden Spikes winners, ASU ranks tied for first with Florida State and Cal State Fullerton as the schools with the most players to have earned college baseball's top honor.

ASU AND Team USA

Travis Buck helped Team USA to a gold medal in the 2004 World University Baseball Championship.

Jeff Larish and Dustin Pedroia were teammates on the 2003 USA Baseball National Team.

> The Arizona State Baseball program ranks as one of the top collegiate programs in the nation to produce players for the USA Baseball National Team. Since USA Baseball began selecting players and operating an official National Team to represent the United States in 1984, ASU has had at least one player on the team in nine different years. A total of 10 different ASU players have combined for 11 selections to the National Team.

> ASU's most recent selection to the National Team, Travis Buck, helped the USA Baseball National Team to a gold medal in the 2004 FISU World University Baseball Championship in Tainan City, Taiwan. Buck was named a first-team Summer All-American by Baseball America after hitting .412 (28-for-68) with two home runs and 14 RBI.

"Coach Murphy is one of the most outstanding college coaches in the nation. We are certainly aware of the many quality baseball players that he has coached at Arizona State. We are sure that he will continue the tradition of competition that has defined Sun Devil Baseball for so many years."

THE ARIZONA STATE BASEBALL program set an NCAA record by scoring in an NCAA record 506 consecutive games. The Streak lasted over parts of ten seasons dating back to the 1995 season. ASU was a combined 338-167-1 during the streak and averaged 9.4 runs per game. The Devils made history on April 7, 2001, when they scored at least one run in their 350th consecutive game.

ASU broke the 12-year-old NCAA record against USC exactly six years to the day after they were last shut out.

The Devils are also seventh in the record books after a stretch of 276 games without being shut out from 1980 to 1994—ensuring the program had only been shut out in three games from 1960 to 2004.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS INCLUDE:

- ASU PLAYS FOR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP AGAINST USC IN 1998
- ASU WINS PAC-10 CONFERENCE TITLE IN 2008
- ASU LEADS NATION IN BATTING AVERAGE (.350) AND SCORING (51.32 PER GAME) IN 1999
- MITCH JONES SETS ASU SINGLE SEASON HOME RUN RECORD WITH 21 IN 2000
- CASEY MYERS REPEATS AS PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE YEAR IN 2000 AND 2001
- DUSTIN PEDROIA SETS ASU AND PAC-10 SINGLE SEASON DOUBLES RECORD WITH 34 IN 2000
- FINISHED RANKED IN THE TOP 12 IN THE COUNTRY FOUR TIMES

ASU Baseball:

History in the Making

- Arizona State has finished in the Top 12 in the national rankings in five of the last nine years, including last season, where they finished as high as No. 3.

- In a ranking provided by Boydsworld.com, the website dedicated to college baseball rankings and RPI, the Arizona State Baseball program ranked No. 9 in the nation for sustained excellence over the past three and five years. The ranking is a direct reflection of the strength of the recently departed recruiting class (the three-year ranking) and the strength of the program in general (the five-year ranking). The rankings are the result of a system of calculations designed to properly weigh a team's winning percentage and strength of schedule, while taking inter-regional play into account.

- The Sun Devils are coming off a memorable 2005 season in which they returned to the College World Series, earning a third place finish. In the last five seasons, ASU has compiled a 211-98 record.

- ASU has dominated its rivals to the south, the University of Arizona, during the Pat Murphy era. Dating back to 1995, ASU has combined to go 35-20 (.636) against the Wildcats. This year the two schools will face off in the first "Challenge at Chase," a game at the Arizona Diamondbacks home ballpark, Chase Field.

- ASU's recruiting classes have been ranked nationally in the Top 12 in each of the past eight years, including the class that will debut in 2006 being ranked No. 2 in the nation by Baseball America.

- ASU has ranked in the Top Three on the west coast in attendance in each of the last seven years, including ranking first in 2003 and 2005 and second in 2004. ASU was 20th nationally, averaging over 2,600 fans per game in 2005.

- ASU has hit over .300 at the plate in 34 of 47 varsity baseball seasons, including a string of 18 straight seasons. The Devils have combined to hit a combined .331 during the 10 years under current head coach Pat Murphy and has led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last seven seasons. ASU has hit .315 overall since varsity baseball started in 1959.

- ASU Baseball has had five Academic All-Americans in the last seven years (since 1999) and ranks tied for seventh among major Division I schools dating back to 1995. With four first-team selections during that stretch, ASU ranks tied for second.

- Arizona State leads all NCAA schools with 338 all-time draft picks dating back to the inception of the MLB Amateur Draft in 1965. ASU also leads all schools with 85 draft picks over the last 11 years.

- During ASU's 47-year history of varsity baseball (1959-P), 69 different players have earned All-America honors. The program has also had 12 National Players of the Year and three Golden Spikes Award winners.

Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark

ASU'S HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

In 2003, Packard Stadium ranked among the Top 15 college baseball facilities.

Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark is one of the finest college baseball facilities in the nation and continues to receive constant upgrades. In 2003, it ranked as a Top 15 college facility in a poll of college baseball coaches around the nation.

A new clubhouse (pictured above) was constructed during the 2004 season and plans are on the table to continue the multi-phase renovation of the stadium.

ASU owns an all-time 868-251-1 record at Packard Stadium and is scheduled to play 32 more home games at Packard this season.

The Nadine and Ed Carson Student-Athlete Center gives Arizona State one of the finest student-athlete centers in the country. Located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium and completely renovated in 2002, the $28 million, 165,000-square-foot Carson Center houses the entire athletic department and allows student-athletes to accomplish everything they need to do in a given day—from meeting with an academic advisor, to lifting weights, to taping and treatment, to getting ready for practice—without ever leaving the building. The Carson Student-Athlete Center is also home to the Bill and Judy Schaefer Sports Hall of Fame, opened in October 2005.

Arizona State University

Arizona State University is listed as one of this year's "12 Hottest and Trendiest Colleges" in the 2004 "How to Get into College" guide published by Kaplan and Newsweek.

The Arizona State main campus is located on 722 acres in the heart of downtown Tempe and just minutes away from the busy nightlife of Mill Avenue. With its shady malls, cool fountains and lush plantings, Arizona State's campus has long been known as an "oasis in the desert."

ASU's main campus offers more than 100 majors through eight colleges, 104 bachelor's degree programs, 94 master's degrees, a highly regarded law degree and nearly 51 doctoral degrees.

Life in the Valley

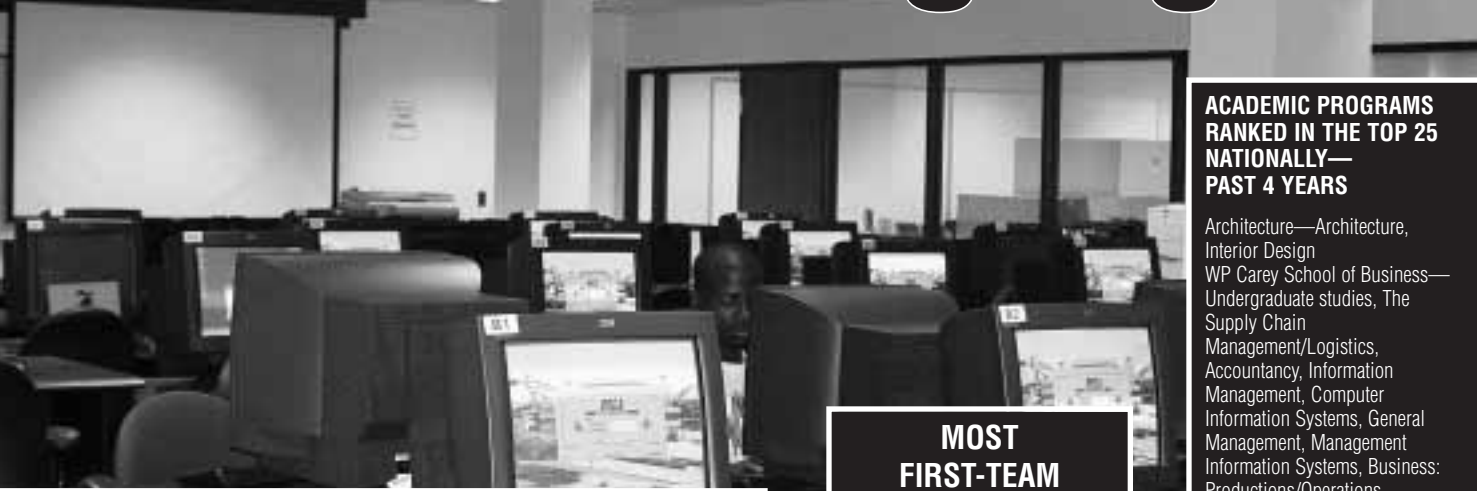

With its spectacular desert landscaping and colorful sunsets, the Valley of the Sun is home to nearly three million people and is the vacation destination for 10 million people annually.

The Sporting News named Phoenix as the fourth-best sports city in the United States in 2000. The Phoenix metro area is home to pro sports teams for baseball, football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse and also hosts golf and NASCAR events every year.

The Phoenix metropolitan area boasts over 325 days of sunshine each year with an average temperature of a balmy 85 degrees.

Academic Highlights

> In 2005, 23 of the 35 players on the Sun Devil Baseball team finished the year with a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better.

> ASU has had five Academic All-Americans since 1999 and ranks eighth among major Division I baseball programs for the most Academic All-Americans dating back to 1995. With four first-team Academic All-Americans, ASU ranks tied for second during that period.

> Casey Myers (1998-2001) was a two-time Academic All-American of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

> The Arizona State athletic department ranks 11th with 17 Verizon Academic All-Americans in the last four years.

> ASU is a Doctoral/Research-Extensive I Institution, the highest distinction per the prestigious Carnegie Foundation classification system.

> ASU Main Campus offers more than 100 majors through eight colleges, including 104 bachelor's degree programs, 94 master's degrees, a highly regarded law degree and nearly 50 doctoral degrees.

> ASU ranks third among public universities in the U.S. in the number of freshman National Merit Scholars enrolling last year (173). There are currently 444 National Merit Scholars studying at ASU.

> For the 10th time in 11 years, ASU has had a student on USA Today's list of the nation's top 40 undergraduates. Since USA Today began naming the top undergraduates in 1991, ASU has been a leading university in the number of students chosen for the USA Today Academic First-Team honors (top 20 undergraduates), currently ranking second in the country behind Harvard.

> ASU has been named one of the Top 25 universities and colleges for Hispanic students in the U.S. by Hispanic Magazine. The school was chosen for its overall excellence as an institution.

> The university's Honors College is at its largest enrollment (2,700), making it the most sought-after honors college in the country. The Honors College ranks in the Top Eight in the United States with students achieving almost 100 percent acceptance rate to medical and law schools.

> ASU is known as a powerhouse in national scholarship circles. Last year, a record 27 ASU students won national competitions for elite academic awards.

> ASU students have impressive records for Congressional Goldwater Scholarships (mathematics, science and engineering), British Marshall Scholarships (academics and leadership), Truman Scholarships (careers in public service) and Udall Scholarships (environmental/Native American).

> ASU ranks third among public universities in the U.S. in the number of freshman National Merit Scholars who enrolled last year (173). There are currently 444 National Merit Scholars studying at ASU.

> In 2005, ASU Baseball earned a team GPA of 2.8. Under Pat Murphy, the baseball team GPA has steadily risen.

> 17 baseball players were named Maroon and Gold Scholars for Fall 2005, meaning they earned at least a 3.0 GPA.

Arizona State Baseball Coaching Legends

Bobby Winkles (1959-1971)

Arizona State's first varsity baseball coach, Bobby Winkles laid the foundation for the legacy that has become Sun Devil Baseball. He guided the Sun Devils to a 524-173 record during his 13 years in Tempe, including three College World Series titles (1965, 1967, 1969). He was named the 1965 and 1969 NCAA Coach of the Year and The Sporting News Coach of the Year in 1965, 1967 and 1969. After leaving ASU, Winkles managed four years in the major leagues with the California Angels and the Oakland Athletics. He was inducted into the ABCA Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997. Winkles coached several great players while he was at the helm of the Sun Devils, including Rick Monday (No. 1 overall pick in 1965 MLB Draft), Hall of Famer Reggie Jackson, Paul Ray Powell, Sterling Slaughter and Larry Gura. His No. 1 jersey is honored at Packard Stadium where the field is named in his honor.

Jim Brock (1972-1994)

Arizona State's second of only three varsity baseball coaches during the varsity history of the program, Jim Brock coached the Sun Devil nine from 1972-1994. He recorded a 1,100-440 (.714) record during his 23-year coaching career at ASU. He led ASU to 13 College World Series appearances, including winning a pair of national championships in 1977 and 1981. Brock battled cancer throughout the 1994 season and passed away just days after the College World Series that year. Brock coached a handful of Sun Devil legends, including first-round draft picks Eddie Bane, Floyd Bannister, Bob Horner, Hubie Brooks, Oddibe McDowell, Barry Bonds and Mike Kelly. All three of ASU's Golden Spikes Award winners (Horner, McDowell, Kelly) played under Brock. He was inducted into the ABCA Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. He was the 1977 and 1981 NCAA Coach of the Year, the 1984 The Sporting News Coach of the Year and the 1988 Baseball America Coach of the Year. Additionally, he was a five-time winner of the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award (1981, '82, '84, '88, '93). His No. 33 jersey is honored at Packard Stadium. Bobby Winkles Field-Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark was dedicated to the late Dr. Brock in 2006.
