Suggs Breaks NCAA Sacks and Pac-10 Sacks Record:

With 22.0 sacks so far this season, junior defensive end Terrell Suggs has set the NCAA, Pac-10 Conference and ASU single-season marks. Syracuse's Dwight Freeney previously held the NCAA mark with 17.5 sacks in 2001, while ASU's Al Harris (1978), Arizona's Tedy Bruschi (1993) and USC's Tim Ryan (1989) all shared the previous Pac-10 mark with 19. The NCAA did not record sacks as an official statistic until 2000, while the Pac-10's defensive stats date back to 1984. Next up for Suggs is the unofficial national record of 24.5 sacks achieved by Pittsburgh's Zeke Gadsen in 1987. In addition to setting the school single-season mark, with two sacks vs. Arizona Suggs set the ASU career sacks record with 42.0 sacks in his three years in Tempe to move past Shante Carver (1990-93) for the ASU career mark.

The winner of the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy this season and a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year and Chuck Bednarick Defensive Player of the Year, Suggs continues to lead the nation and the Pac-10 in sacks (22.0) and tackles for loss (29.5) this year. He has been honored as the 2002 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year and a 2002 First-Team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America, ESPN.com and nearly every other selection panel. He has tallied at least four sacks in two games this year, including a career-best 4.5 sacks Oct. 19 vs. Washington and four sacks Oct. 5 vs. North Carolina. His 4.5 sacks vs. the Huskies were the most for a Sun Devil since Derrick Rodgers had 4.5 in ASU's Rose Bowl-clinching win over California on Nov. 9, 1996.

With his sack at Washington State on Nov. 2, Suggs also set the school single-season and career marks for tackles for loss. He has 29.5 tackles for loss this season, surpassing the 24.0 that Derrick Rodgers (1996) and Al Harris (1977) each had, and 63.5 tackles for loss in his career, which overtakes the 58 that Bob Kohrs tallied in his four years (1976-79). Suggs also passed the Pac-10 single-season mark of 28 TFL formerly held by Stanford's Ron George (1990).

The team leader in each category in each of the last three seasons, Suggs had two TFLs and a sack at Nebraska in ASU's season opener and three sacks in each of ASU's next two games (Eastern Washington, UCF). Despite having a quiet game by his standards vs. No. 6 Oregon on Oct. 19 with just three tackles, including one for a loss, Suggs' tackle on the Ducks' last play turned out to be one of his biggest of the year. Suggs hit UO quarterback Jason Fife on the pass play that resulted in junior Brett Hudson's interception to secure the ASU victory.
