EIGHT WOMEN TRAVEL TO NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

MARCH 20-22, 2003 • AUBURN, ALA. • WEEK #14

THIS WEEK

The Sun Devil women's swimming & diving team is sending seven swimmers and one diver to the NCAA Championships March 20-22 in Auburn, Ala. The top female swimmers in the nation will converge on the James E. Martin Aquatic Center Thursday through Saturday with preliminary action beginning each day at 11 a.m. and finals starting at 6 p.m. Representing ASU are swimmers Petra Banovic, Claire Hedenskog, Kathryn Hennessy, Ágnes Kovács, Florence Mauro, Sandra Steffensen, and Florencia Szigeti and diver Trisha Tumlinson.

THE POLLS

The CSCAA released its eighth poll of the season on February 27. The ASU men and women are both ranked 15th. This is the first time since the initial poll of the season that the teams have the same ranking. For the complete poll, visit www.cscaa.org, or see the second page of this release.

DIVING AT ZONE E CHAMPIONSHIPS

The diving squad qualified two divers to the NAAs at last weekend's Zone E Diving Championships. Freshman men's diver Joona Puhakka led the way by winning both the 1-meter and 3-meter competition. He finished the meet as the No. 1 diver out of Zone E. Sun Devil sophomore Thomas McCrummen finished in ninth overall and will serve as the second alternate for the NAAs. On the women's side, sophomore Trisha Tumlinson finished fifth overall at the conclusion weekend's competition, helped by third place finishes on both the 1-meter and platform.

WOMEN AT THE NAAs

The Sun Devil women finished in 10th at last year's NCAA Championships, their highest finish since they took ninth place in 1993, and the first time they had finished higher than 21st since 1995. The women sent 10 competitors to the 2002 meet and Ágnes Kovács led the way with a second-place finish in the 200 breast and fifth-place finishes in both the 100 breast and the 400 IM. Kovács earned 45 total points, the ninth-most by an individual and the most by a freshman. There were 27 All-America honors claimed by ASU last year, including seven first-team honors.

ASU WOMEN, LAST TIME IN THE POOL

The women's swimming team was last in action at the Pac-10 Women's Swimming Championships, Feb. 27 - Mar. 1 in Federal Way, Washington. Ágnes Kovács earned second-place finishes on the weekend in the 200 IM, the 100 breast, and the 200 breast to lead the Sun Devils to a sixth-place finish for the eighth straight year. Senior Claire Hedenskog became the first woman in ASU history to swim under 23 seconds in the 50 free by clocking a 22.97 in the prelims. Her finals time of 23.14 was good for fifth-place in that event. The other individual school record set during the meet was Petra Banovic's new all-time best in the 200 free. She swam a 1:47.85 to become the first woman in Sun Devil history to break 1:48.00. The previous school record had stood since 1988. Sandra Steffensen put herself ninth in the all-time top-ten list at ASU with a 1:48.95 in the 200 free. Hedenskog and Florencia Szigeti had outstanding swims in the 100 free to shake up the school record books. Szigeti moved to second all-time with a 50.00 even finals time, which is just one-tenth of a second off of the school record. Hedenskog clocked a 50.23, good enough for third all-time at the school. The two were previously tied for second-best all-time at 50.32.

UP NEXT FOR THE SUN DEVILS

The NCAA Men's Swimming & Diving Championships is held Mar. 27-29 in Austin, Texas to close out the season. The men are also sending seven swimmers and one diver to their national meet. Representing ASU will be swimmers Nick Brunelli, Christian Harcsas, Tom Hickman, Ahmed Hussein, David Kolozar, Wiley Wallace and Bobby Zaabadich and diver Joona Puhakka.
