WOMEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING HEAD TO NAAS

MARCH 17-20, 2005 • WEST LAFAYETTE, IND

THIS WEEK

The Arizona State University women's swimming and diving team will send seven swimmers and one diver to the 2005 Women's NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships held in West Lafayette, Ind. The women return three swimmers and one diver from last year's NCAA meet in Agnes Kovacs, Florencia Szigeti, Erin Baldinger and Trisha Tumlinson. The Sun Devil add four new faces to the NCAA squad in Christine Creek, Caitlin Andrew, Sarah A Fischer and Heidi Schmidt.

WOMEN 2004-05 SEASON

The women's swimming and diving team finished the 2004-05 season with a 5-4-1 overall record and 1-4-1 in the Pacific-10 Conference. The team finished with 926.50 points to earn a sixth-place finish at the 2004 Women's Swimming and Diving Championships. The Sun Devil women had two individual Pac-10 Champions, Caitlin Andrew in the 100 butterfly and Trisha Tumlinson on the platform event.

WOMEN LAST YEAR AT NAAS

The Arizona State University women's swimming and diving team travelled six swimmers and one diver to the 2004 NCAA meet where they finished 14th overall. Trisha Tumlinson earned the Sun Devils top finish last season with a second-place finish on the platform event. The swimmers were led by Agnes Kovacs who earned five All-American honors with a individual finishes in the 200m breaststroke (5th) and the 100m breaststroke and 200m IM where she came in sixth-place. Szigeti swam to a ninth-place finish in the 200 freestyle with a school-record time of 1:46.15. Szigeti also set a new school-record in the 100 freestyle event in the opening leg of the 400 freestyle relay. Erin Baldinger swam in the 100m backstroke and 50m freestyle events for the Sun Devil women at last years' NCAA meet as well as the 400m medley and 400m freestyle relay teams. Baldinger set a personal-best time in the 50 freestyle that put her sixth in the Sun Devil record books.

NEW FACES AT THE NAAS

The Sun Devil women are sending four swimmers to the NCAA meet for the first time, including two freshman. They are led by freshman Caitlin Andrew who set two school-records at the Pac-10 meet last week in the 100 backstroke (54.10) and 100 butterfly (52.64) events. She claimed the Pac-10 title in the 100 butterfly for the Sun Devils. Christine Creek makes her first appearance at the NCAA meet after finishing seventh at the Pac-10 meet in the 200 breaststroke. Heidi Schmidt will represent the Sun Devil women at the NCAA meet this season, finishing in third-place in the 100 breaststroke event at the Pac-10 Championships. With that time she moved into third on ASU's all-time top-ten. Freshman Sarah A Fischer heads to the NCAA meet, representing the women in the distance freestyle events, she has the season's top-times in the 500 and 1650 freestyle events.

TUMLINSON AT NCAA ZONE E DIVING REGIONAL

Senior All-American Trisha Tumlinson was in action over the weekend at the NCAA Zone E Diving Regional. On the final day of competition, Tumlinson took the platform title with a score of 448.45. She earned third-place honors in the one-meter springboard event and seventh in the three-meter event. Her scores qualified her for competition in all three diving events at the NCAA Championship meet.

ANDREW HAS THE ANSWER

Freshman Caitlin Andrew made her mark on the Arizona State University swimming and diving program over the weekend, as she became the first woman to claim a Pac-10 title in the butterfly event, winning the 100 butterfly on Friday evening. Her Pac-10 title swim of 52.64 qualified her for the NCAA meet and set a new ASU school-record. She hit the water again in the 100 backstroke, touching the wall in a school-record setting time of 54.10 to break her second school-record of the night.

DIVING HIGH

Senior All-American Trisha Tumlinson set a new school-record on the platform event at the Texas Invitational with a score of 471.8. Trisha Tumlinson followed up with her second Pac-10 title on the platform event with a score of 443.50. Tumlinson finished her Pac-10 career a three-time champion, having won the 2004 3-meter title and was a back-to-back platform champion. Cassidy Farwell set a personal-best on the 3-meter springboard event with a score of 389.75.

PAC-10 SWIMMER AND DIVER OF THE MONTH

Arizona State University senior diver Trisha Tumlinson earned the Sun Devils first Pac-10 Diver of the Month honor for the month of December. Tumlinson attained a personal best score of 471.80 on the platform at the University of Texas Invitational on Dec. 2-4, good for second place in the event. She also took second in the one-meter springboard with a score of 303.10 and third in the three-meter springboard (490.30). Freshman Caitlin Andrew followed up as the Pac-10 Co-Swimmer of the Month for January. Andrew had individual wins against California and Stanford. She won the 100 butterfly against Cal in 54.0 seconds. Andrew took the 100 back in 54.9 seconds against Cal and in 55.8 versus Stanford. All three times qualified for NCAA consideration.
