NCAA Indoor Championships • Fayetteville, Ark. • March 8-9

Six Sun Devils Head To Arkansas For NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships

This Week --

Six athletes will represent Arizona State at the 2002 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships Friday, March 8, through Saturday, March 9, hosted by the University of Arkansas at the Randal Tyson Track Center in Fayetteville, Ark. Competition begins Friday at Noon Central time, and continues Saturday beginning at 2 p.m. CT.

On To Fayetteville --

At the conclusion of the regular indoor season, 12 ASU athletes reached automatic or provisional standards in 12 events, yet when the final NCAA field was announced Monday, only half of that contingent made the final cut. ASU's highest ranked qualifier is junior Lisa Aguilera who owns the nation's third-fastest time in the women's 3,000m with her school record of 9:16.23. Senior Brandon Strong, who became the first Sun Devil to break the four-minute barrier in the indoor mile, ranks fourth nationally in the event with his school record 3:59.59. Freshman Trevell Quinley also holds a fourth-place ranking with his personal-best mark of 25 feet, 10 inches in the men's long jump. In the women's long jump, junior Tiffany Greer ranks fourth with her season-best effort of 20 feet, 9.75 inches. Senior Tony Galaviz owns the fifth-fastest 60m hurdle time in the nation with his personal-best time and ASU record of 7.75 (altitude adjusted; 7.71 at altitude). Finally, senior David Wood ranks 10th in the men's shot put with a personal-best mark of 63 feet, four inches.

Tiffany Greer	LJ	20-9.75	4th	Fri., 6 p.m. (prelim and final)

National Rankings --

Neither ASU's men's or women's track squads have been ranked in the Trackwire Top-25 poll during the 2002 indoor season. In the Team-Power Indoor Rankings, the ASU men are 16th and the women are 27th.

Strong Runs First ASU Sub-Four Minute Indoor Mile --

Senior Brandon Strong etched his name in the Sun Devil record books at the Husky Last Chance Qualifier, Saturday, March 2. Strong became the first ASU athlete to run a sub-four minute indoor mile with his personal-best and school record of time of 3:59.59. Strong is the second Sun Devil to break the four-minute barrier either indoors or outdoors, with the only other ASU athlete to do so being Chuck LaBenz who clocked a time of 3:56.90 in the outdoor mile in 1970.

Greer Seeks Fifth Long Jump All-America Honors --

Junior Tiffany Greer is already the most decorated female long jumper in ASU history, having earned four All-America honors in the event both indoors and outdoors, the most in school history. Ranking second behind Greer is Tesra Bester, who earned both indoor and outdoor All-America acclaim in 1992. Greer, who was also the 2000 Pac-10 Champion in the long jump, looks to continue her All-America streak in her third appearance at NCAA Indoors and fifth overall national championship meet this weekend.

Last Week --

Last weekend ASU sent four athletes to the Husky Last Chance Qualifier in Seattle, Wash., March 2, hoping to improve their NCAA qualifying status. Senior Brandon Strong did just that and more, notching an NCAA automatic qualifying time in the mile with a personal-best 3:59.59. With his third place performance, Strong set a new ASU indoor mile record and became the first Sun Devil to break the four-minute barrier indoors. Juniors Fasil Bizuneh and Brianna Torres also improved their 5,000m times. Bizuneh clocked a personal-best and improved his school record with a time of 14:03.06 to place third in the men's 5,000m, while Torres won the women's 5,000m with a season-best time of 16:33.19. Both Bizuneh and Torres both moved up the NCAA qualifying list but did not make the cut for nationals. Sophomore Jodi Smith also attempted to reach an NCAA qualifying mark in the women's high jump. Smith won the event, matching her season best effort of 5-8, but did not pass the provisional standard. Back at home, the rest of the ASU squad opened the outdoor season hosting the Bill Sawyer Invitational March 2. ASU won eight meet titles led by sophomore Seneca Holmes' double win in the 100m and 400m hurdles.

Last Year At the NCAA Indoor Championships --

Last year ASU sent eight individuals and the men's 1600m relay team to the 2001 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships in Fayetteville, Ark., and three Sun Devils came away with All-America honors in their respective events. For the second straight season, Kelly MacDonald captured All-America honors in the women's 5,000m, finishing fifth in a season-best time of 16:20.83. Adrienne Judie came away with her first career All-America honors, placing fourth in the women's weight throw with a personal-best mark of 66 feet, 10 inches. In the women's long jump, Tiffany Greer earned her third All-America honors in the event, finishing 11th with a leap of 20 feet, 4.50 inches. With points put on the board by MacDonald and Judie, the ASU women ended indoor nationals tied for 25th with Kansas State with nine points. The men's squad failed to score any points in the team race.

ASU Indoor Championship History --

Dating back to 1976, the ASU men have tallied points at 15 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships, while the women have done so at 14 championships since 1986. The men's highest national indoor finish was 2000's 10th-place tie, while the women's best showing was in 1990, tying for fourth. In the programs' history, 30 Sun Devil women have earned 55 indoor All-America honors while 24 men have earned 36 honors. Three members of ASU's six-athlete contingent going to this year's indoor championships already have All-America honors under their belt. Tiffany Greer is a two-time All-American in the indoor long jump, having also earned two All-America honors in the outdoor long jump as well. Lisa Aguilera, also an All-American in outdoor track and cross country, earned All-America honors in the mile (2000), while Brandon Strong was a member of ASU's All-American distance medley relay team in 2000.

MPSF Championship Recap --

Led by title-winners Tiffany Greer (long jump), Seneca Holmes (60m hurdles) and David Wood (shot put), ASU's women placed fifth and the men finished sixth at the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Indoor Track and Field Championships held in Flagstaff Friday, Feb. 22 through Saturday, Feb. 23. The Sun Devil women tallied 51 points, while the men earned 50 points. Wood won the shot put title with a personal best and NCAA automatic qualifying mark of 63 feet, four inches. Greer won the women's long jump with a season-best leap of 20 feet, 9.75 inches, improving her NCAA provisional qualifying status. After clocking the third-fastest prelim time, Holmes took first in the 60m hurdles with a personal best time of 8.40 (at altitude). The women's 4x400m relay team earned runner-up honors with a NCAA provisional qualifying time of 3:40.55, while the team's leadoff leg, Candida Coulson, finished third in the 400m with a NCAA PQ (54.64). Vince Mosca turned in a NCAA provisional mark with a seventh place effort in the shot put (58-4), while Steve Fitch finished third in the 400m with a NCAA PQ (46.98).

Up Next --

Following the NCAA Indoor championships, ASU will return to the outdoor oval, traveling to Tucson, Ariz. for the Willie Williams Invitational hosted by the University of Arizona Friday, March 15, through Saturday, March 16.
