National Rankings --

The ASU women finished the indoor season ranked 20th by Trackwire.com, according to the March 7 poll. ASU's men were not ranked at all during the indoor season. For complete polls for both NCAA men and women, go to www.trackwire.com.

Recapping the NCAA Indoor Championships --

ASU sent eight individuals and the men's 1600m relay team to the 2001 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships in Fayetteville, Ark., only to have two Sun Devils come away with All-America honors in their respective events. For the second straight season, senior Kelly MacDonald captured All-America honors in the women's 5000m, finishing fifth in a season-best time of 16:20.83. Last year MacDonald set the school record in the event with a time of 16:13.41. Adrienne Judie came away with her first career All-America honors, placing fourth with personal-best mark of 66 feet, 10 inches in the women's weight-throw. Judie also improved upon her already existing school record in the event by two inches, and was 1.5 inches behind the third-place mark by Clemson's Jamine Moton. With points put on the board by MacDonald and Judie, the ASU women ended indoor nationals tied for 25th with Kansas State with nine points.

ASU Makes 2001 Outdoor Debut --

With many of ASU's top athletes still competing in the indoor season, the Sun Devils opened the outdoor season hosting the Bill Sawyer Invitational March 3. ASU came away with nine event victories, including sweeps of the men's and women's 800 and 1500 meter races. Senior Jen Bridgeman won the women's 800 in 2:12.20, while freshman Jen Hurbis clocked a winning time of 4:48.50 in the women's 1500.
