1B/3B • JEFF LARISH

Through the first 29 games of 2003 Larish exploded for 11 home runs and 59 RBI. While he has cooled off just a little bit, Larish is in the midst of an All-American caliber season hitting .367 (65-for-177) with 12 doubles, two triples and 15 home runs. He leads the Pac-10 with 79 RBI and with five more walks will become only the second Sun Devil to join the 70-70 (RBI-BB) club in a single season (Alvin Davis; 1982). Larish currently has a career-high 14-game hitting streak and was one of three Sun Devils to be invited to the 2003 USA Baseball National Team Trials this summer.

SS • DUSTIN PEDROIA

ASU's starting shortstop in all 53 games this season, sophomore Dustin Pedroia currently leads the Pac-10 in hitting with a .419 (95-for-227) batting average. Pedroia needs only five more hits to become only the 22nd Sun Devil to record 100 hits in a season and is bying to become only ASU's 16th player to hit over .400 in a season. Ranked first in the nation with 29 doubles, Pedroia is only one off the ASU single-season record of 30 set by Chris Bando in 1978 and only two off the Pac-10 record of 31 set by Mike Kinkade (WSU) in 1994. Pedroia has recorded a hit in 50 of ASU's 53 games, including 32 multi-hit games and has had three separate hitting streaks of 10 or more games.
