NATIONAL RANKINGS

Arizona State (38-7) is ranked in all three national polls and is the No. 4 team in the nation by Sports Weekly/ESPN and also ranked No. 6 by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball. ASU has been in the national top 10 all season including spending two weeks at No. 1 (SW). The Sun Devils have now been ranked in the national polls for 70 consecutive polls. UCLA (17-23) is not ranked in any of the current polls.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

The ASU-UCLA three-game series will be carried over the radio on NBC 1190 AM. Tim Healey and Bob Eger will call the three-game series from the Packard Stadium press box. The games will also be available on the world wide web at www.TheSunDevils.com. The statistical GameTracker will also return for all three games this weekend. Two of the games will also be televised this weekend. Friday's game will air on a tape-delay basis Sunday on Fox Sports Net with Barry Tomkins and Jerry Kindall calling all the action. Saturday's game will feature a live broadcast on AZ-TV with George Allen and Doug Gerlach handling the play-by-play duties.

THE STORYLINE

The Sun Devils (38-7, 6-3) face a crucial Pac-10 series this weekend at home against the UCLA Bruins. ASU is coming off a three-game sweep of the California Golden Bears on the road last weekend and will be looking to gain ground on first-place Stanford (7-2). The Devils lead the Pac-10 in hitting (.345) and pitching (3.32) heading into the series. Sophomore shortstop Dustin Pedroia leads the Pac-10 with 25 doubles and is third in hitting at .418. Senior Jered Liebeck and freshman Erik Averill are tied for the league lead with seven wins each. ASU has won seven of its last nine games against UCLA.

Consecutive Games Scoring Streak Reaches 478:

The Arizona State baseball program has now scored in an NCAA record 478 consecutive games dating back to the 1995 season. The Devils made history on April 7, 2001 when they scored at least one run in their 350th consecutive game. The Devils broke the 12-year-old NCAA record in a 5-1 loss to USC exactly six years to the day when they were last shut out. ASU was shut out 9-0 in that game on April 7, 1995 at Dedeaux Field. The Devils recently celebrated the eighth anniversary of the start of the streak with a 10-2 win over Grand Canyon on April 7. The one run scored in the 3-1 loss to Stanford (4/12/02) marked only the 12th time during the streak that ASU has scored only one run. Coastal Carolina previously held the NCAA record at 349 games set from 1983-1989. ASU also had a stretch of 278 games without being shut out from 1990 to 1994, meaning the program has only been shutout in three games dating back to the 1990 season. ASU is a combined 317-160-1 during the streak. Notable pitchers the Devils have faced during the streak include Jeremy Guthrie (Stanford), Barry Zito (USC), Kirk Saarloos (CS Fullerton), Jason Young (Stanford), Ben Diggins (Arizona), Adam Johnson (CS Fullerton), Ryan Drese (Cal), Jeff Weaver (Fresno State), Chad Hutchinson (Stanford), Abe Alvarez and Adam Pettyjohn (Fresno State).

Consecutive Games Scoring Streak

Poll Mechanics:

With a current four-game winning streak and having won five of its last six games, Arizona State remained in the top 10 in all three national polls and is ranked No. 4 by Sports Weekly/ESPN, No. 6 by Baseball America and No. 6 by Collegiate Baseball polls. Ranked as high as No. 8 in the preseason polls, the have spent virtually the entire season in the top 10 and for two weeks manned the top spot in two of the three national rankings, marking the first time being No. 1 since heading into the 1993 College World Series. ASU has been ranked for 70 consecutive national polls dating back to the start of the 2000 season. ASU entered the 2003 season ranked as high as No. 8 in the nation by Baseball America in the preseason collegiate polls. Arizona State also earned a preseason No. 9 ranking by Sports Weekly/ESPN, No. 10 by NCBWA and No. 12 ranking by Collegiate Baseball. The No. 8 preseason ranking is the highest by an ASU squad since opening the 2001 season as the consensus No. 6 team in the nation.

Pitching and Defense Dominate in Cal Series:

The pitching staff dominated the California Golden Bears over the weekend combining to give up only four runs (three earned) and tallied an 1.00 ERA in the series. The four runs given up are the lowest combined total in a three-game conference series during ASU's 25-year history in the Pac-10. In Sunday's doubleheader the Devils allowed only one run in 18 innings and outscored the Bears 16-1. Giving up the only run of the second game in the seventh inning, ASU nearly recorded its first back-to-back shutouts in Pac-10 play. The four runs given up in a three-game Pac-10 series are the least dating back to giving up seven runs in three-game sweep vs. Cal in 1993 (11-1, 11-4, 11-2). The lowest number of runs given up in a three-game Pac-10 series before the Cal series was five runs vs. USC (4/16-18) during the national championship 1981 season. Behind every good pitching note is an even better defensive stat. ASU turned six double plays (two in each game) during the series and committed only two errors. Solid defense from the outfield also included an outfield assist from right fielder Andre Ethier to gun down a potential run at the plate.

*Rotation/Starting Lineup Subject to Change

Sun Devil Baseball 2003

Four Sun Devils Bring Home Midseason Honors:

Four Sun Devils earned mention in Baseball America's midseason review. Freshmen Travis Buck (OF) and Erik Averill (LHP) both were named to the midseason All-America freshman team, while sophomores Dustin Pedroia (SS) and Jeff Larish (DH) were picked for their respective class. Here is what BA had to say about Larish being named the "Biggest Surprise of the First Half of the Season":

"Larish slowed down a bit after a torrid start to the 2003 season. He came down with back spasms in mid-March and missed a couple of games, but few college players have ever put together a better half season than Larish, a sophomore who was supposed to redshirt last year but was pressed into the lineup at midseason and hasn't stopped hitting. A left-handed hitter, he was batting .372-13-64. He had driven in all those runs in just 38 games despite drawing 51 walks, and his .551 on-base percentage probably has Athletics general manager Billy Beane drooling for the '04 draft."

Last Year vs. UCLA:

The Sun Devils took two of three last year in the three-game series held at Jackie Robinson Stadium April 12-14. ASU won the opener 4-3 in 11 innings behind four innings of one-hit ball from Ryan Schroyer. After losing the second game 10-2, the Devils rebounded for a 15-2 victory in the series finale. Steve Garrabrants provided the big blow in the win with a bases loaded triple as part of a four-run second inning. For the series Garrabrants hit .385 (5-for-13) and Rod Allen went 3-for-8 (.375). On the mound Schroyer (1-0, 0.00 ERA) and Robbie McClellan (1-0, 2.25 ERA) recorded the wins.

The Averill Brothers:

The weekend series between the Sun Devils and Bruins will feature more than a Pac-10 rivalry, as the Averill brothers (Brandon - UCLA and Erik - ASU) will face off for the first time at the collegiate level. Erik is having a banner freshman season leading the Pac-10 in wins with seven (7-0) and is second with a 2.75 ERA. Brandon is also having a solid junior season for the Bruins hitting .275 with six home runs and 200 RBI. The brothers played together at Villa Park High School in Orange, Calif., combining to win the 2000 CIF State Championship. They are the sons of Don and Gale Averill who have spent a majority of the season splitting time between ASU and UCLA games.

Last Time vs. UCLA at Packard Stadium:

UCLA makes a return trip to Packard Stadium after playing in Tempe in both 2000 and 2001. ASU took two of three in both series', winning the first and third games each time. ASU has won the seven of the last nine games in the all-time series and has won 12 of the 18 games against UCLA played at Packard Stadium dating back to 1995.

Sun Devils Record Best Start in School History:

Arizona State's 28-1 start to the season goes down in the record books as the best start in school history. The 28-1 record includes an 11-game winning streak to start the season before a loss at nationally ranked Long Beach State (Jan. 31) and a 19-game win streak up until suffering a 6-5 loss to Oklahoma (3/14). During the 28-1 start to the season ASU's pitchers posted an impressive 3.11 ERA and the hitters combined for a .360 team batting average.

ASU HEAD COACH

Pat Murphy

Since inheriting the Sun Devil program in August of 1994, Arizona State Baseball Head Coach Pat Murphy has carefully nurtured the tradition of excellence in Tempe, at the same time establishing himself as one of the top collegiate head coaches in the nation. He has guided Arizona State to top-12 national rankings in three of the past five years, including an appearance in the 1998 College World Series national championship game. Murphy is 344-171-1 in his ninth season in Tempe and posts an all-time 24-18 record in NCAA Tournament action. With a career 717-342-4 record in 19 seasons as a head coach, Murphy is the winningest active baseball coach under the age of 45 at any collegiate level. Murphy recorded his 600th career Division 1 victory in 2002 and recorded his 700th career coaching victory (all levels) with a 14-8 come-from-behind win over No. 11 Notre Dame (2/23). ASU has been in 70 straight national polls under Murphy.

Home Run Notes:

Through 45 games of the 2003 season the Sun Devils have already surpassed their entire season total from 2002 with 49 home runs. ASU has hit 33 of those home runs at Packard Stadium and 16 in its 18 road or neutral site games. Of the 27 games played at Packard Stadium the Devils have hit at least one home run in 18 games. A total of 12 different players have hit at least one home run and eight players have two or more home runs. Sophomore Jeff Larish leads the way with 13 round-trippers, including three grand slams. The Devils have homered in 27 of their 45 games, including 16 multi-home run games. The Devils also have nine grand slams on the season with Larish (3), Steve Garrabrants (2), Jeremy West, Rod Allen and freshmen Ryan Bosch and Travis Buck all leaving the yard with the bases loaded. ASU had only one grand slam in 2002 and four in 2001. ASU's home run breakdown includes 12 solo shots, 17 two-run homers, 11 three-run home runs and nine grand slams.

Pedroia On Fire at the Plate:

Sophomore shortstop Dustin Pedroia (Woodland, Calif.) has been the spark plug to ASU's early season success and an integral part to ASU's 38-7 record. ASU's only player to play and start in all 45 games, Pedroia is third in the Pac-10 in hitting at .418 (79x189) with 25 doubles and 34 RBI. He is first in the Pac-10 in hits (79), doubles (25) and total bases (115) and leads ASU with 29 extra base hits. He has also recorded 28 multi-hit games to pace the ASU offense and has ignited several ASU scoring rallies as is evident by his .506 (41x81) average as a leadoff hitter (inning and game). In a rare performance, Pedroia went 0-for-5 with two strikeouts in ASU's 4-2 win over LBSU (2/2) to have his career-long 22-game hitting streak come to a halt. The streak, which spanned 11 games each at the end of 2002 and 11 games to begin 2003, fell just two games off the top six in ASU Baseball history. It is the longest streak since current Houston Astros prospect Brooks Conrad had a 21-game streak in 2000. During the streak Pedroia combined to hit .390 (41x105). He also recently had a 17-game and 13-game hitting streaks come to an end. Pedroia now has a hit in 53 of his last 56 games, including hits in all but three games this year (42 of 45). In his two years as a Sun Devil he already has 161 hits, 37 of which are doubles, and has never missed a start in 103 consecutive games. In the field Pedroia has also been the rock to ASU's solid .971 team fielding percentage. The slick fielding shortstop has committed eight errors in 207 total chances for a .961 fielding percentage.

Pedroia Going For School and Pac-10 Doubles Record:

With his two-run double in vs. Cal in the second game of Sunday's doubleheader, Pedroia notched his 25th double of the season. He is now just five off the school record of 30 set by Chris Bando in 1978 and six off the Pac-10 record of 31 set by Washington State's Mike Kinkade in 1994. Pedroia is ranked third in the NCAA with his average of 0.56 doubles per game.

Single Season Doubles:

1. Chris Bando, 1978 30
2. Antone Williamson, 1993 29
- Steve Willis, 1988 29
4. Clay Westlake, 1976 26
5. Dustin Pedroia, 2003 25

Pedroia Named To Initial Watch List For Golden Spikes Award:

Arizona State sophomore shortstop Dustin Pedroia was included among 25 players named to the initial watch list for the 2003 Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's top amateur baseball player. Pedroia (Woodland, Calif.) is having a banner year leading the team hitting .418 (79-for-189) while also leading the Pac-10 with 25 doubles, 115 total bases and 79 hits. The 2002 Team USA member was one of only two Pac-10 players to be named to the initial watch list (Carlos Quentin, Stanford). Five finalists will be announced in June, with the winner being revealed in July. Arizona State sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish is also among 175 players around the nation that remain in contention for the prestigious award. Arizona State has a long tradition of Golden Spikes Award winners as three past Sun Devils have won the award. Bob Horner (1978), Oddibe McDowell (1984) and Mike Kelly (1991) have all won the award. Only Florida State and Cal State Fullerton have matched ASU's legacy also with three winners of the annual Golden Spikes Award.

The Jeff Larish Watch:

Sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish has quickly put his name atop the list of as a top candidate for national player of the year and the Golden Spikes Award in 2003. Larish is hitting .378 (54-for-143) with 13 home runs, 11 doubles and leads the conference with 67 RBI. Larish has recorded at least one hit in 34 of 42 games and one RBI in 32 of 42 games this year. He also leads the conference with 54 walks (1.29 per game) and has an unbelievable on-base percentage of .546. For the season he is slugging .755 (fourth in Pac-10) and is second on the team with 26 extra base hits. He had connected on three grand slams this year, already tying the single-season school record set by Dave Hudgens in 1977. In addition, he is batting .667 (12x18) with the bases loaded and leads the team with 25 two-out RBI. Larish, who was supposed to redshirt in 2002 but played midway through the season, hit .328 with three home runs in 34 games last year. Drafted in the 32nd round in 2001 by the Chicago Cubs, Larish etched his name in the ASU record books with a memorable game in the series finale vs. San Diego State (1/26). In what turned out to be a 24-9 ASU rout, Larish was 3-for-4 and tied the school single-game record with nine RBI. He had a two-run single in the first inning, a two-run home run in the third, a grand slam homer in the fourth and then tied the 13-year-old school record (Tommy Adams) by walking with the bases loaded in the eighth.

Sun Devil Baseball 2003

Freshman Lefty Leads Pac-10 in ERA:

Freshman left-handed pitcher Erik Averill wasted little time showing he belonged at the college level after he opened his career with seven and a third innings of no-hit baseball. Since that debut vs. Hawaii-Hilo, Averill has not disappointed. He is tied for the Pac-10 lead with seven wins and is second with a 2.75 ERA.

Freshman Records About To Go Down:

Freshman Travis Buck and Erik Averill are making a serious dent in the ASU freshman record books despite there being 17 games left in the regular season. Averill is already tied for ninth with his six wins, fourth in ERA (2.75), and only one strikeout off the top 10. Buck is ranked ninth with 60 hits, eighth with 11 doubles and fifth with 44 runs scored.

Liebeck Making Most of Senior Season:

Senior right-handed pitcher Jered Liebeck is making the most of his senior season turning into one of ASU's go-to pitchers in crucial game situations. Liebeck leads the Pac-10 with a 2.54 ERA after throwing six shutout innings in his 11th start of the year last weekend vs. Cal. He is also tied for the league lead with seven wins and has struck out 36 in 56.2 innings. He earned national and Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors early in the season (2/3) when he threw a complete-game three-hit shutout against Long Beach State.

2,300 In The Books:

With the series sweep of California last weekend ASU notched win No. 2,300 since baseball start in 1907. ASU is now 2,301-1,122-6 in its 92nd year of baseball competition.

Senior Dennis Wyrick Lights Up Pac-10 Pitching:

Senior 3B Dennis Wyrick is ASU's hottest hitter at the plate going 27-for-74 (.365) in his last 19 games. Wyrick is sixth on the team in hitting at .360 overall, going 41-for-114 with 27 runs scored, five doubles and 22 RBI in 38 games (24 starts). Wyrick has a hit in 15 of his last 19 games, including five three-hit games. Wyrick has had great success in his career in Pac-10 play hitting .366 (70-for-191) with 39 runs scored and 30 RBI in 56 career league games. Returning to his native Southern California two weeks ago against USC, Wyrick an 0-for-15 career slump vs. the Trojans by going 5-for-16 in the series.

Travis Buck Hits For The Cycle:

Freshman outfielder Travis Buck went 5-for-5 with even RBI and hit for the cycle in ASU's 19-0 win over Southern Utah (3/7). He became only the seventh Sun Devil in recorded history to record the elusive cycle and became the first freshman in Pac-10 history to hit for the cycle. Buck capped his perfect night with a grand slam home run as part of an eight-run sixth inning to become ASU's first player to hit for the cycle since Mitch Jones on May 21, 2000 at Arizona. Buck, ASU's normal starting left fielder who was making only his second start in right field, had a single in the first, a double in the third and a triple in the fifth before connecting on his second home run of the year for the cycle. He also added a run-scoring single in the fourth and tied a career high with two stolen bases. For the season Buck, who was named the Pac-10 Player of the Week after going 8-for-11 (.727) vs. USC, is hitting .380 (60-for-158) with 11 doubles and two home runs. Below is a list of ASU player who have hit for the cycle:

Travis Buck	March 7, 2003 vs. Southern Utah
Mitch Jones	May 21, 2000 vs. Arizona
Dan McKinley	April 1, 1997 vs. Grand Canyon
Antone Williamson	May 27, 1993 vs. George Mason
Kevin Higgins	May 1, 1988 vs. UCLA
Todd Brown	March 18, 1984 vs. USC
Paul Ray Powell	March 21, 1969 vs. Michigan

Schroyer Ranks Fifth in ASU History With 14 Career Saves:

Junior closer Ryan Schroyer has been all but unstoppable in 2003 out of the bullpen. The hard-throwing right-hander is 4-2 with seven saves this year and has a 0.98 ERA allowing only three earned runs to score in his 27.2 innings pitched. The preseason All-American has scattered 26 hits in his 20 outings and has struck out 29 batters. His longest outing of the year came with a three-innings save against Notre Dame (2/23) where he allowed only three hits and struck out three. He also gave up only two hits in three innings to record his fourth win of the year in ASU's 7-6 win over Stanford in 11 innings. He added his sixth save of the year by striking out the side in the ninth vs. Utah (3/8) to preserve ASU's 6-4 come-from-behind win. The save over USC (3/30) moved him into fifth place in the ASU career record books with his 14th career save. Including his summer All-American season with the NBC World Series Champion Alaska Goldpanners, Schroyer is 5-2 with 14 saves in his last 45.2 IP (64 K's). After recording eight (8) as the league's top pitcher (2.37 ERA) in 2002, Schroyer is looking to continue to move up the charts. Here is a look at ASU's top save leaders in school history:

Pitching To Near Perfection:

A big reason behind ASU's stellar 38-7 season is because of the Chris Sinacori led pitching staff. Through 45 games the pitchers have combined for a Pac-10 best 3.32 ERA while striking out 357 and walking 149. On 23 different occasions the staff has combined to walk three or less batters, including not allowing a walk in three games, most recently in a 10-2 win over Grand Canyon. ASU's pitchers have also combined to strike out eight or more batters in 24 games, including a season-high 16 vs. Utah (3/8). The starters have been especially hot, combining to go 20-2 with a 3.14 ERA, while the relievers are 18-5 with seven saves and a 3.50 ERA. Seniors Jered Liebeck and freshman lefty Erik Averill lead the team with seven wins each. After shutting down the Cal offense last week allowing only four runs, ASU is now ranked 19th nationally with the 3.32 ERA.

Sun Devils Hot at the Plate:

The Sun Devils are leading the Pac-10 in hitting with a team .345 batting average. ASU has recorded 10 or more hits in 33 of its 45 games and is averaging 12.24 hits per game. The Devils also lead the conference in runs scored with 446 and are fourth in the nation averaging 9.9 runs per game. Dustin Pedroia leads the team in hitting at .418 (79x189) and sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish leads the team with 67 RBI and 13 home runs. ASU has already hit 49 home runs, already surpassing the entire season total of 38 hit in 58 games in 2002. As a team ASU has combined to record 154 multi-hit games (led by the 28 from Pedroia) and 96 multi-RBI contests (led by the 13 from Larish).

Double Vision:

ASU has recorded a Pac-10 best 113 doubles on the year (2.5 per game average). Sophomore shortstop Dustin Pedroia leads the team and Pac-10 with 25 and Steve Garrabrants is tied for fifth with 14. The team record for doubles in a season is 185 set in 1988, while the individual season record is 30 set by Chris Bando in 1978.

Catching Position Split Down The Middle:

The catching battled between sophomores Tuffy Gosewisch and Joel Bocchi has been about as even as possible. Both have recorded 22 starts and their hitting statistics are nearly identical. Gosewisch has started seven of the last nine games and is hitting .316 (25-for-79) with 21 RBI. Bocchi started the season on a tear hitting over .400 until the Notre Dame series, but has cooled off as of late to bring his season average down to .342 (25-for-73) with two home runs and 20 RBI.

Not a Bad To Have Him on the Bench:

When Jeff Larish went down with back spasms, inserting Mike Guerrero into the lineup was not a hard decision to make. Guerrero, a junior who transferred to ASU in 2001 and redshirted last year, responded by hitting .375 (6-for-16) with six doubles with Larish out of the lineup. For the season Guerrero is second on the team in batting at .393 (24-for-61) with 11 doubles, two triples, two home runs and 19 RBI.

Multi-Hit Madness:

Led by the 28 from Dustin Pedroia, seven different Sun Devils have 10 or more multi-hit games to their credit this year. Amazingly, Pedroia has recorded 21 two-hit games, five three-hit contests and two four-hit affairs for his 28 multi-hit games. Jeff Larish (16), Steve Garrabrants (16), Travis Buck (15), Andre Ethier (14), Dennis Wyrick (10) and Tuffy Gosewisch (10) all have 10 or more multi-hit games. Last year seven Sun Devils finished the season with 10 or more multi-hit games, led by the 27 from Pedroia.

The Big Inning:

The Sun Devils have been a scoring machine this year ranking third in the nation averaging 9.9 runs per game this year. ASU has also proven to be an explosive team at the plate, recording 110 big innings (2 or more runs). The team has also recorded 25 innings when they score five or more runs. ASU's biggest run production in a single frame has been nine runs on two different occasions, most recently with a two-out rally in the 14-8 win over Notre Dame (2/23).

Attendance Marks Impressive at Packard Stadium:

Arizona State is always in the national top 10 for attendance marks when playing at Packard Stadium and once again fans keep coming through the turnstile in 2003. In ASU's 27 home games this year, the Devils are averaging a home crowd of just under 3,000 (2,894) with a total of 74,219 fans attending the games. ASU's largest single-game crowd was the series opener vs. Oklahoma (4,155). The home season opener vs. San Diego State also had a good crowd drawing 3,972 fans. ASU also had 10,043 attend the three-game series against San Diego State and 7,008 attend the two games against Notre Dame. The Oklahoma three-game series had a total of 10,861 fans for the three-game set, while the largest three-game crowd was established last weekend vs. Stanford with 10,889 turning out for the series.

The Grand Salami:

After hitting only one grand slam all of last year, the Sun Devils have gone on a binge this year hitting nine in their first 45 games. Sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish has already tied the single-season school record with three slams (Dave Hudgens, 1977) and junior second baseman Steve Garrabrants has two. Ryan Bosch, Travis Buck, Rod Allen and Jeremy West each have one. The NCAA record for grand slams in a season by a team is 12 set by Oklahoma State in 1995. ASU has been clutch in 2003 with the bases loaded hitting at a combined clip of .398 (49-for-123). Larish leads the team hitting .667 (12-for-18) with the sacks full.

Sun Devil Baseball 2003

Perrault Takes His Shirt Off:

Junior right-handed pitcher Josh Perrault was scheduled to use the 2003 season as a redshirt season, but after having success in practice, Perrault will become a key factor in the ASU bullpen for the rest of the season. He made his 2003 debut vs. Stanford (3/23) with one scoreless inning. Perrault was 0-0 with a 6.97 ERA in nine games (2 starts) as a sophomore in 2002.

Two Out Rallies:

Over the last two years the Sun Devils have had a flare for scoring runs with two outs. In 2002 the Devils scored 232 of their 450 total runs (52%) with two outs. ASU is back at it again in 2003 scoring 175 of their 446 runs (39%) after two outs have been recorded. During the season-high nine-run sixth inning that led to ASU's 14-8 come-from-behind victory over Notre Dame (2/23), all nine runs came with two outs after a full-count walk to Jeff Larish. Larish leads the team with 25 two-out RBI, while catcher Tuffy Gosewisch leads the team hitting .423 (11x26) with two outs. As a team the Devils are batting .311 (157x4505) after two outs have been recorded.

Home Sweet Home:

ASU returns to Packard Stadium in 2003 after playing in Mesa (Hohokam Park) in 2002. The Devils recorded their 800th career victory at Packard Stadium (3/1 vs. PSU) and have an all-time 808-230-1 dating back to 1974. ASU will play 40 of its 62 games in the state of Arizona and 37 at Packard Stadium this year. After playing nine of its first 12 games on the road, the Devils spent nearly the entire months of February and March in the state of Arizona with only three games away from Packard Stadium at the new spring training facility of the Texas Rangers/Kansas City Royals in Surprise. After going 29-10 in designated home games last year, the Devils are 22-5 at home this year now have a combined 155-48-1 (.762) home record in the last five years dating back to 1998. ASU is hitting .339 with 33 home runs in 27 home games and pitching for a 3.61 team ERA on the mound.

Arizona State in Home Games (1998-2003):

2003:	22-5
2002:	29-10
2001:	25-9-1
2000:	33-8
1999:	27-7
1998:	19-9
Total:	155-48-1

Buck and Bosch Among Fab 50 Freshmen:

ASU's freshman outfield tandem of Travis Buck and Ryan Bosch has both been tabbed as part of Baseball America's Freshman Fab 50 prior to the start of the 2003 season. Buck, a 23rd round draft choice of the Seattle Mariners last June, is ranked No. 25 on the list. Buck has started 43 of ASU's 45 games and is hitting .380 with two home runs and 35 RBI. Bosch, ranked No. 41, has started 25 games in center field and is hitting .208 with 20 hits, three home runs and 22 RBI.

ASU Continuing To Mix Things Up:

After mixing and matching for 41 different starting batting lineups in 58 games last year, head coach Pat Murphy continues to keep the lineup fresh in 2003. Through the first 45 games of the season the Devils have mixed and matched for 41 different batting lineups and 25 different positional lineups.

Larish, Pedroia and Schroyer on Player of the Year Watch List.

Sophomores Jeff Larish and Dustin Pedroia, and junior Ryan Schroyer have been named to the Rotary Smith Award's preliminary watch list for the annual player of the year award. Amongst the 130 Division 1 college baseball players to be selected to the initial list, the ASU trio is in contention for the prestigious award that is celebrating its 16th year of honoring the nation's finest collegiate baseball player. The only Sun Devil to ever win the Smith Award was Mike Kelly in 1990. The Smith Award is conducted by the Rotary Club of Houston and benefits several charities, including the Texas Children's Hospital and the Karl Young League. Pedroia and Larish are also on USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award watch list.

A Nice Way To Rebound:

With an overall 38-7 record heading into the UCLA series, the Sun Devils have only lost back-to-back games one time this year. After six of their seven losses, the Devils have responded by winning the next game.

Take That Monkey Off Our Back:

With a 2-1 series win at USC two weeks ago, the Sun Devils notched their first series win over the Trojans at Dedeaux Field since a sweep in 1993. The Sun Devils also only trail the all-time series with the Trojans by one game, 84-85.

Liebeck Sweeps Pac-10 and National Pitcher of the Week Honors:

Senior RHP Jered Liebeck swept the national and Pac-10 awards (Feb. 4) after throwing a complete-game, three-hit shutout against the No. 13 Long Beach State 49ers. Liebeck struck out two and did not allow a hit past the fifth inning to improve to 2-0. He allowed only one runner reach second base and until issuing his first walk of the game in the ninth inning, had retired 10 straight LBSU batters down the stretch. The complete-game shutout (9.0 IP) was the first by a Sun Devil since Drew Friedberg one-hit Hawaii-Hilo in 1999. He was named the Collegiate Baseball and NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week and became the 45th ASU pitcher to earn Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week acclaim.

Interviews:

All interviews with players and the coaching staff need to be cleared through the ASU media relations office and Jeff Evans. If you wish to talk to any Sun Devil player or head coach Pat Murphy, please contact Evans via the above information.

Media Guides:

Media guides will be available to working press only and can be purchased by fans at home games at Packard Stadium for $7. Press guides will not be distributed to fans from the press box or the media relations office. The 2003 ASU Baseball Media Guide is also available online at www.thesundevils.com in .pdf format.

Game Notes and Statistics:

Game notes and statistics will be distributed to all working media and scouts on game days at Packard Stadium. Copies will also be made available in the press box. The statistics are for working press, scouts and coaches only. A complete statistical book containing box scores, play-by-play and game notes will also be available in the press box for working media following each home game. All information will be made available to fans and ASU supporters through the school's official athletic website, www.TheSunDevils.com.

Live Stats:

While only certain games can be accessed by radio either through the internet or in the greater Phoenix area, every home game and selected road games can be tracked through live statistical updates on ASU's official website, www.TheSunDevils.com.

A Tough Schedule For ASU Baseball:

The Sun Devils 2003 schedule is once again be one of the toughest in the nation, which includes 11 teams that were listed on Baseball America's Preseason Top 50. The 62-game regular-season schedule also features 25 games against nine teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament a year ago. In the recent stretch of 25 straight games in the state of Arizona (started with BYU series, ended with Stanford series), ASU hosted Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, Wichita State, Notre Dame and Stanford. ASU has already gone 15-6 against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament last year and is 8-5 against ranked (at least one poll) opponents. ASU currently has a No. 5 rating on Boydworld.com's ISR and a pseudo RPI of No. 17.

West and Schroyer Sweep Pac-10 Weekly Awards:

ASU juniors Ryan Schroyer and Jeremy West swept the Pac-10 Weekly Player of the Week honors (2/24) after helping lead the Sun Devils to four wins vs. Gonzaga, Dayton and Notre Dame. West hit .556 (5-for-9) with six runs scored, three home runs and 10 RBI. He broke out versus the 11th-ranked Irish on Feb. 22, with three hits, six RBI, two home runs, including a grand slam, to help ASU defeat Notre Dame 16-3. Schroyer pitched four scoreless innings out of the bullpen and recorded his fourth save of the year in ASU's 14-8 win over Notre Dame on Feb. 23. The Player of the Week honor is the third for West in his career and the 67th selection all-time for ASU. The Pitcher of the Week is the first such honor for Schroyer, the 46th Sun Devil to earn the weekly recognition. Senior pitcher Jered Liebeck earned the honor earlier in the year after his complete-game, three-hit shutout of nationally ranked Long Beach State.

How They Compare To Past Years:

The Sun Devils are 38-7 through the first 45 games of the 2003 season after recording the best start in school history at 28-1. Here is a look at how the Devils have fared in games 40-50 since 1995.

Murphy's Teams Know How To Score:

A true icon of the Pat Murphy system is scoring runs. The Sun Devils have done plenty of that since he arrived in 1995. ASU has led the NCAA in scoring in two of the last five years, averaging 11.32 runs per game in 1999 and 10.97 runs per game in 2000. The Devils paced the Pac-10 in 2001, hitting at a .327 clip and averaging 8.26 runs per game to rank 17th in the nation. ASU also led the nation in batting average with a team total of .356 in 1999 and fell just percentage points shy of matching that feat a second year in a row in 2000 with a .346 mark, trailing Stony Brook by one point. During Pat Murphy's nine seasons at ASU, the Sun Devils have been a scoring machine with 4,745 runs in 516 games, averaging 9.20 runs per game and hitting at an overall .330 clip. ASU leads the Pac-10 in hitting again this year at .345 and is averaging 9.91 runs per game. Below is an offensive team breakdown of Murphy's ASU teams:

Year	G	AB	R	H	HR	BA
1995	55	1939	395	595	35	.307
1996	56	2075	552	702	73	.338

Sun Devils Dominate 2002 All-Pac-10 Team:

Arizona State baseball players Jeremy West, Andre Ethier and Dustin Pedroia were all named to the All-Pacific-10 Conference First Team and nine other Sun Devils earned honorable mention distinction when the 2002 Pac-10 Baseball awards were announced. In addition to West, Ethier and Pedroia being named to the first team, senior catcher Cesar Castillo (Yuma), sophomore pitcher Mike Esposito (Las Vegas), senior infielder Sergio Garcia (Paramount, Calif.), sophomore utility player Steve Garrabrants (Phoenix), freshman third baseman Jeff Larish (Tempe), junior pitcher Jered Liebeck (Glendale), junior pitcher Robbie McClellan (Liberal, Kan.), sophomore relief pitcher Ryan Schroyer (Casa Grande) and senior outfielder Jon Sheaffer (Mesa) all earned honorable mention awards.

Sun Devil Baseball 2003

ASU And Team USA Connections:

Arizona State baseball has had a long-standing tradition of sending players to play for the USA National team during the summers. In a recent poll distributed by USA Baseball, ASU ranked No. 11 as a supplier to the National Team. ASU has had eight players don the Red, White and Blue for Team USA since 1984, with the first being Oddibe McDowell in the 1984 Olympics played at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles. Jim Austin played for Team USA in 1990 and ASU has had five more players play with Team USA in the last five years. 1999 Pac-10 Player of the Year Willie Bloomquist played in the summer of 1998, 2000-2001 Pac-10 Player of the Year Casey Myers played in the summer of 2000 and was also a member of the Team USA Junior National Team before arriving at ASU in 1998. Current Tampa Bay Devil Ray prospect Jon Switzer was also a member of the 2000 National Team and Mike Esposito was 3-1 with a 1.56 ERA in the summer of 2001. Sophomore Dustin Pedroia played for the National Team last summer and was the starting shortstop until getting hurt near the end of the season. Current Sun Devils Dennis Wyrick and Ryan Schroyer played for the Team USA Junior teams during their respective prep careers.

Golden Spikes Common At Arizona State:

While Khalil Greene of Clemson was the recipient of the 2002 Golden Spikes award as the nation's top amateur baseball player, it should be noted that three Arizona State players have won the award. In addition to ASU, only Cal State Fullerton and Florida State have won three Golden Spikes Awards. Bob Horner, who was a standout at ASU from 1976-78, won the inaugural award in 1978. Oddibe McDowell, who was a member of the first Team USA baseball team to compete in an Olympics, won the award in 1984. Mike Kelly, who ranks second in ASU history with 46 home runs from 1989-91, won the award in 1991. In all, 12 players that have worn the Maroon and Gold have been named a Player of the Year for college baseball.

ASU Leader of the Pac When It Comes to Player of the Week:

Arizona State has amassed 46 Pac-10 Pitchers of the Week and 67 Players of the Week since 1981. That total leads all Pac-10 member schools. Senior RHP Jered Liebeck became the first Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week after his complete-game, three-hit shutout of Long Beach State (2/1) and Ryan Schroyer earned his first award on Feb. 25. Junior Jeremy West joined Schroyer as ASU swept the weekly awards on Feb. 25. Andre Ethier and West (twice) were named Pac-10 Players of the Week in 2002, while Robbie McClellan and Mike Esposito earned Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors last year.

Arizona State in Postseason Play:

The Sun Devil baseball program has created a dynasty in college baseball that has been matched by few. With 18 appearances in the College World Series, ASU ranks fifth for the most trips to Omaha. Arizona State has now advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 26 of the program's 44 varsity seasons (dating back to 1959), amassing an incredible 124-51 (.709) record. ASU's five National Championships rank as the second most of any NCAA school. In addition to ASU's five national championships, the Sun Devils have also turned in five second-place teams and three third-place finishes. Arizona State is 15-10 in the NCAA Tournament under ninth-year head coach Pat Murphy. In addition to advancing three straight years, ASU has been left out of the tournament only once (1999) in the last six years and played for the national championship in 1998.
