THE TRADITION CONTINUES

ASU BASEBALL

2005

There comes a time in a little boy's life when baseball is introduced to him. Thus begins the long journey for those meant to play the game at a higher level, for those who love the game so much they strive to be a part of its history.

ASU AND THE

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

> For the past 26 years, USA Baseball has honored the top amateur baseball player in the country with the Golden Spikes Award. (See winners box.) The award is presented each year to the player who exhibits exceptional athletic ability and exemplary sportsmanship. Past winners of this prestigious award include current Major League Baseball stars J. D. Drew, Pat Burrell, Jason Varitek, Jason Jennings and Mark Prior.

> Arizona State's Bob Horner won the inaugural award in 1978 after hitting .412 with 20 doubles and 25 RBI. Oddibe McDowell (1984) and Mike Kelly (1991) also won the award.

> Dustin Pedroia was named one of five finalists for the 2004 Golden Spikes Award. He became the seventh all-time finalist from ASU, including Horner (1978), McDowell (1984), Kelly (1990), Kelly (1991), Paul Lo Duca (1993) and Jacob Cruz (1994).

> With three Golden Spikes winners, ASU ranks tied for first with Florida State and Cal State Fullerton as the schools with the most players to have earned college baseball's top honor.

ASU AND

TEAM USA

Travis Buck helped Team USA to a gold medal in the 2004 World University Baseball Championship.

Jeff Larish and Dustin Pedroia were teammates on the 2003 USA Baseball National Team.

> With another selection last summer, the Arizona State Baseball program ranks 8th as one of the top collegiate programs in the nation to produce players for the USA Baseball National Team. Since USA Baseball began selecting players and operating an official National Team to represent the United States in 1984, ASU has had at least one player on the team in nine different years. A total of 10 different ASU players have combined for 11 selections to the National Team.

> ASU's most recent selection to the National Team, Travis Buck, helped the USA Baseball National Team to a gold medal last summer in the FISU World University Baseball Championship in Tainan City, Taiwan. Buck was named a first-team Summer All-American by Baseball America after hitting .412 (28-for-68) with two home runs and 14 RBI.

> ASU has had at least one player on Team USA in six of the last seven years.

"Coach Murphy is one of the most outstanding college coaches in the nation. We are certainly aware of the many quality baseball players that he has coached at Arizona State. We are sure that he will continue the tradition of competition that has defined Sun Devil Baseball for so many years."

A rizona State Baseball has made a habit of going to Omaha and the College World Series. Since varsity baseball started in 1959, Sun Devil baseball has made 18 trips to Omaha and has won five national championships (1965, 1967, 1969, 1977 and 1981). Each year, the Sun Devil Baseball team is in the hunt for the national championship and looks to return "Back Home to Omaha."

program set an NCAA record by scoring in an NCAA record 506 consecutive games. The Streak lasted over parts of ten seasons dating back to the 1995 season. ASU was a combined 338-167-1 during the streak and averaged 9.4 runs per game. The Devils made history on April 7, 2001, when they scored at least one run in their 350th consecutive game.

ASU broke the 12-year-old NCAA record against USC exactly six years to the day after they were last shut out.

The Devils are also seventh in the record books after a stretch of 278 games without being shut out from 1990 to 1994—meaning the program had only been shut out in three games from 1990 to 2004.

ASU BASEBALL: HISTORY IN THE MAKING

- Arizona State has finished in the Top 12 in the national rankings in four of the last eight years and has been ranked for 97 consecutive national polls dating back to the start of the 2000 season. ASU has never been ranked out of the polls during the current decade, and is a combined 213-88-1 during that stretch. ASU has the 10th best winning percentage of all Division I schools this decade (.707).

- In a ranking provided by Boydsworld.com, the website dedicated to college baseball rankings and RPI, the Arizona State Baseball program ranked No. 9 in the nation for sustained excellence over the past three and five years. The ranking is a direct reflection of the strength of the recently departed recruiting class (the three-year ranking) and the strength of the program in general (the five-year ranking). The rankings are the result of a system of calculations designed to properly weigh a team's winning percentage and strength of schedule, while taking inter-regional play into account.

- The Sun Devils are coming off a strong 2004 season in which they went 41-17 and finished with a No. 22 national ranking by Baseball America. Over the last four years, ASU baseball has combined to go 169-73.

- ASU has dominated its rivals to the south, the University of Arizona, during the Pat Murphy era. Dating back to 1995, ASU has combined to go 34-16 (.680) and has never lost a season series to the Wildcats. ASU has won 16 of the last 20 meetings; including a regular-season ending series sweep in 2003 and winning four of five last season. Over the last 30 years, ASU leads the series 121-65.

- ASU's recruiting classes have been ranked nationally in the Top 12 in each of the past seven years, including the class that will debut in 2005 being ranked No. 2 in the nation by Baseball America.

- ASU has ranked in the Top Three on the west coast in attendance in each of the last six years, including ranking first in 2003 and second in 2004. ASU was 20th nationally averaging over 2,600 fans per game.

- ASU has hit over .300 at the plate in 33 of 46 varsity baseball seasons, including a string of 17 straight seasons. The Devils have combined to hit a combined .331 during the 10 years under current head coach Pat Murphy and has led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last six seasons. ASU has hit .315 overall since varsity baseball started in 1959.

- ASU Baseball has had five Academic All-Americans in the last six years (since 1999) and ranks tied for seventh among major Division I schools dating back to 1995. With four first-team selections during that stretch, ASU ranks tied for second.

- Dustin Pedroia was named first-team All-Pac-10 last season for the third straight year. He became only the fourth player in ASU history and the 22nd in Pac-10 history to earn first-team all-conference three straight years. Pedroia was drafted in the second round by the Boston Red Sox.

- Arizona State leads all NCAA schools with 331 all-time draft picks dating back to the inception of the MLB Amateur Draft in 1965. ASU also leads all schools with 78 draft picks over the last 10 years.

- During ASU's 46-year history of varsity baseball (1959-P), 68 different players have earned All-America honors. The program has also had 12 National Players of the Year and three Golden Spikes Award winners.

ASU'S HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

PACKARD STADIUM

Packard Stadium is one of the finest college baseball facilities in the nation and continues to receive constant upgrades. In 2003, it ranked as a Top 15 college facility in a poll of college baseball coaches around the nation.

A new clubhouse (pictured right) was constructed during the 2004 season and plans are on the table to continue the multi-phase renovation of the stadium.

ASU owns an all-time 843-244-1 record at Packard Stadium and is schedule to play 29 more home games at Packard this season.

In 2003, Packard Stadium ranked among the Top 15 college baseball facilities.

The new clubhouse at Packard Stadium features one of the nicest locker rooms in college baseball. It features 40 cherry-wood lockers that have been funded by pledges by alumni of the baseball program.

THE CAMPUS

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Arizona State University is listed as one of this year's "12 Hottest and Trendiest Colleges" in the 2004 "How to Get into College" guide published by Kaplan and Newsweek.

The Arizona State main campus is located on 722 acres in the heart of downtown Tempe and just minutes away from the busy nightlife of Mill Avenue. With its shady malls, cool fountains and lush plantings, Arizona State's campus has long been known as an "oasis in the desert."

ASU's main campus offers more than 100 majors through eight colleges, 104 bachelor's degree programs, 94 master's degrees, a highly regarded law degree and nearly 51 doctoral degrees.

LIFE IN

THE VALLEY

With its spectacular desert landscaping and colorful sunsets, the Valley of the Sun is home to nearly 3 million people and is the vacation destination for 10 million people annually.

The Sporting News named Phoenix as the fourth-best sports city in the United States in 2000. The Phoenix metro area is home to pro sports teams for baseball, football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse and also hosts golf and NASCAR events every year.

The Phoenix metropolitan area boasts over 325 days of sunshine each year with an average temperature of a balmy 85 degrees.

ACADEMIC

HIGHLIGHTS

> In 2004, 21 of the 33 players on the Sun Devil Baseball team finished the year with a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better.

> ASU has had five Academic All-Americans in the last six years (since 1999) and ranks eighth among major Division I baseball programs for the most Academic All-Americans dating back to 1995. With four first-team Academic All-Americans, ASU ranks tied for second during that period.

> Casey Myers (1998-2001) was a two-time Academic All-American of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

> The Arizona State athletic department ranks 11th with 17 Verizon Academic All-Americans in the last three years.

ASU'S

COACHING LEGENDS

BOBBY WINKLES (1959-1971)

Arizona State's first varsity baseball coach, Bobby Winkles laid the foundation for the legacy that has become Sun Devil Baseball. He guided the Sun Devils to a 524-173 record during his 13 years in Tempe, including three College World Series titles (1965, 1967, 1969). He was named the 1965 and 1969 NCAA Coach of the Year and The Sporting News Coach of the Year in 1965, 1967 and 1969. After leaving ASU, Winkles managed four years in the major leagues with the California Angels and the Oakland Athletics. He was inducted into the ABCA Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997. Winkles coached several great players while he was at the helm of the Sun Devils, including Rick Monday (No. 1 overall pick in 1965 MLB Draft), Hall of Famer Reggie Jackson, Paul Ray Powell, Sterling Slaughter and Larry Gura. His No. 1 jersey is honored at Packard Stadium with a plaque on the left field fence.

JIM BROCK (1972-1994)

Arizona State's second of only three varsity baseball coaches during the varsity history of the program, Jim Brock coached the Sun Devil nine from 1972-1994. He recorded a 1,100-440 (.714) record during his 23-year coaching career at ASU. He led ASU to 13 College World Series appearances, including winning a pair of national championships in 1977 and 1981. Brock battled cancer throughout the 1994 season and passed away just days after the College World Series that year. ASU will continue to honor Brock's glorious coaching legacy in the 10th anniversary of his passing in 2004. Brock coached a handful of Sun Devil legends, including first-round draft picks Eddie Bane, Floyd Bannister, Bob Horner, Hubie Brooks, Oddibe McDowell, Barry Bonds and Mike Kelly. All three of ASU's Golden Spikes Award winners (Horner, McDowell, Kelly) played under Brock. He was inducted into the ABCA Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. He was the 1977 and 1981 NCAA Coach of the Year, the 1984 The Sporting News Coach of the Year and the 1988 Baseball America Coach of the Year. Additionally, he was a five-time winner of the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award (1981, '82, '84, '88, '93). His No. 33 jersey is honored at Packard Stadium with a plaquered on the right field fence.

BASEBALL A TO Z

400-100 CLUB

Only 11 players during ASU's baseball history have hit over .400 and recorded over 100 hits in a season. Dustin Pedroia was the latest to join the elite club, finishing the 2002 season with 120 hits (fourth most in school history) and hitting .404. Current Florida Marlins catcher Paul Lo Duca holds both school records with a .446 batting average and 129 hits in 1993. All-American Kevin Romine is the only Sun Devil to record back-to-back .400 seasons and one of two players to have back-to-back 100-hit seasons.

914

The NCAA record for winning percentage in a season that the 1972 Arizona State Baseball team still holds, with a 64-6 record. The '72 squad earned runner-up honors in the College World Series under first-year head coach Jim Brock and featured All-Americans Eddie Bane, Alan Bannister and Craig Swan.

#24

The jersey No. 24 is one that is significant to the history and tradition of Arizona State Baseball. Former ASU greats Reggie Jackson, Barry Bonds and Mike Kelly have all worn the number during their days in the Maroon and Gold. Jackson was the 1966 Sporting News Player of the Year and went on to have a Hall of Fame career in the major leagues. Bonds (1983-85) is a seven-time winner of the National League MVP award and is currently third on the all-time home run list behind Babe Ruth and Hank Aaron. Kelly won the 1991 Golden Spikes Award and was the No. 2 overall selection in the 1991 MLB Draft by the Atlanta Braves.

34

The number of doubles Dustin Pedroia hit in 2003 to establish a new ASU and Pac-10 single-season record. Pedroia also led the NCAA with 0.50 doubles per game. In his three seasons at ASU, Pedroia hit 71 doubles to rank third in ASU history.

70-70 CLUB:

Alvin Davis and current Sun Devil Jeff Larish are the only two players in Sun Devil history to have at least 70 RBI and 70 walks in the same season. Larish joined the elusive club in 2003 when he recorded 95 RBI (fifth most in ASU history) and led the NCAA with 78 walks. Davis, who played for ASU from 1979-82, had 91 RBI and an ASU record 87 walks during his senior year in 1982. He went on to become the 1984 American League Rookie of the Year with the Seattle Mariners and played nine seasons in the major leagues. Larish heads into his senior season with 168 career RBI, needing just eight to break into the ASU career top 10.

The number of consecutive national polls dating back to the start of the 2000 season that ASU has been ranked in. The Devils have been mainstays in the national rankings throughout the history of the program, including earning final Top 12 rankings in four of the last eight seasons. ASU has spent 53 of the 97 weeks in the national top 10.

ADDRESS

Any mail directed to the sports information office should be sent to: Arizona State University, Carson Student-Athlete Center; Tempe, AZ 85287-2505. The Carson Student-Athlete Center is the home of all Sun Devil sports. The Baseball Offices are located on the third floor. Murphy also has a spacious office on the second floor of the new clubhouse at Packard Stadium.

ALUMNI GAME

A favorite tradition of Sun Devil baseball fans is the annual alumni game. This year one game will be played, on Saturday, Jan. 22, at Packard Stadium at 1 p.m. The current Sun Devils will play a team of former Arizona State players. Autographs, photos and on-field shenanigans are the norm. By the way, the current Sun Devils usually win. In past years current and former professional players Willie Bloomquist, Mitch Jones, Mike Collins, Ken Phelps, Doug Henry, Mike Kelly, Casey Myers and Andrew Beinbrink all competed in the game.

Jim Brock

AYER, FRED

The first official head coach at Arizona State, leading the Tempe Normal Bulldogs to a 7-2 record in 1907. Ayer coached from 1907-11, posting an all-time 37-22-1 record.

BANE, EDDIE

The author of the only perfect game in Arizona State history, the little lefthander did it on March 2, 1973, against Cal State Northridge. The Sun Devils won, 9-0, as Bane struck out 19. It stands as one of eight no-hitters by ASU pitchers. In recognition of his outstanding accomplishments, ASU had Eddie Bane's number (21) retired. The Devils celebrated the 30th anniversary of this great accomplishment last year against Penn State as Bane joined the club to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. He is currently the Director of Scouting for the Anaheim Angels.

BASEBALL CAMPS

Each year the Sun Devil Baseball program hosts several baseball camps as part of Pat Murphy's All-Nine Baseball Academy. The camps are broken into youth academies (6-12) and senior camps (13-18) with several sessions held throughout the year. For more information on Sun Devil Baseball camps, please visit www.collegebaseballcamps.com/sundevils.

BONDS, BARRY

Former Sun Devil Barry Bonds (1983-85), who had an outstanding collegiate career from 1983-85, made major league history in 2001 by hitting 73 home runs. A career .300 hitter, Bonds has belted 703 career home runs to rank third in major league record books. He earned his record seventh National League MVP award in 2004, marking the fourth straight year he has won. Bonds was originally drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the second round of the '82 draft, but elected to come to Arizona State.

BROCK, JIM

The winningest baseball coach in ASU varsity history. Brock, who passed away in June 1994, accumulated 1,100 victories in his 23 seasons as head coach, against just 440 losses (.714). Brock was named National Coach of the Year four times, and his teams won two College World Series titles during his tenure from 1972 to '94. He also coached 15 first-round draft picks.

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Just in case you were wondering, Arizona State ranks third all time in College World Series wins with 55, and fourth in CWS appearances with 18. ASU is second in NCAA baseball titles with five, and has finished as the runner-up on five different occasions. ASU has a 55-30 (.647) record at the CWS (fourth best all time). The Devils are third in CWS games played with 85. Sun Devil Stan Holmes (1979-81) holds the CWS record for RBI with 17 in six games in 1981, and Barry Bonds had seven consecutive hits in the CWS back in 1983-84.

THE COMEBACK

ESPN's Jim Kaat called it "probably the greatest comeback in College World Series history." Few would argue. It happened June 8, 1988. In an elimination game, ASU trailed Wichita State, 3-1, with two outs in the top of the ninth. But consecutive hits by Ricky Candelari, Mike Burrola and Pat Listach tied the game. Ironically, those three ranked first, second and third on the team in strikeouts. What's more, Candelari and Listach hit two-strike pitches. Listach had already fanned three times that night. Thanks to brilliant relief pitching by Brian Dodd and Gordy Farmer, along with breathtaking defense by John Finn, ASU escaped with a 4-3 win in 10 innings. Martin Peralta drove home the winning run.

DRAFT

A total of 332 Arizona State players have been selected in the annual major league draft, which began in 1965. No other school comes close to that number. A Sun Devil, Rick Monday, was the first player ever to be drafted. ASU has more overall selections, more first-round choices (21) and more No. 1 picks (3) than any other school. ASU's latest first-round draft pick came in 1998, when left-handed pitcher Ryan Mills became the sixth player taken overall in the draft by the Minnesota Twins. While the 1976 team holds the record with 13 players selected in the draft, the 2003 squad set the modern mark with 12 draft picks. The 12 selections were the most by any college and featured second-round pick Andre Ethier (Oakland Athletics) and third-rounder Beau Vaughan (Boston Red Sox). ASU leads all colleges with 78 draft picks over the last 10 seasons.

EGER, BOB

A longtime friend of the ASU baseball program, Eger serves as the color commentator for ASU baseball. He is also the historian for Arizona State athletics and recently wrote a book titled The Maroon and Gold: A History of Arizona State Athletics. Eger also worked as a journalist in the Phoenix area for more than 30 years and began covering ASU baseball for the State Press back in the late 1950s. For more information on how to order the book, please contact Eger at bob.eger@cox.net.

EXHIBITION GAMES

Arizona State often plays exhibition games against major league teams whose Spring Training headquarters are in the Valley of the Sun. The Sun Devils haven't exactly fared well against the big-leaguers but, after all, it's the experience that counts. In 28 games against the Cubs, Angels, Athletics, Mariners and Brewers, ASU has an all-time record of 6-22.

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

An award given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America, it has been won by three Sun Devils. Bob Horner (1978), Oddibe McDowell (1984) and Mike Kelly (1991) all carried home the prestigious award while representing ASU. ASU ties Florida State and Cal State Fullerton for the school with the most Golden Spikes winners. A total of seven players have been named finalists for the award, including Dustin Pedroia in 2004.

GREEN MONSTER

The 30-foot batting eye in center field at Packard Stadium. It stands 400 feet away from home plate, and only 18 players have been able to launch one over the Monster in Packard Stadium history. Brooks Conrad is the last ASU player to accomplish the feat. He did it in 2000 against Florida Atlantic. For a listing of the home runs hit over the Monster, see the Packard Stadium section of the media guide (page 24).

GRIFFEN, HORACE

The first Arizona State player ever to sign a professional contract. He signed with the Chicago White Sox in 1914, when baseball was still a club sport at ASU—and would be for another 44 years. Interestingly, Griffen ran for governor of the state of Arizona in 1956 but was defeated.

HOME RUN LEADERS

Former Sun Devil baseball players Barry Bonds and Reggie Jackson rank fourth and eighth, respectively, in the MLB career home run record book. Bonds and Jackson, who are also distant cousins, have combined to hit 1,266 career home runs. In ASU's 46 years of varsity baseball, the Sun Devils have connected on 2,859 home runs. ASU's 80 all-time major leaguers have combined to hit 3,101 career home runs.

INNINGS

The longest game in ASU history in terms of innings came 13 seasons ago against UCLA. It was an 18-inning affair on Feb. 23, 1990. Arizona State won, 6-5, and the game lasted a record five hours and 36 minutes. Eleven different pitchers took the hill for both teams. The Devils have played 12 extra inning games dating back to the 2000 season, winning nine of those games.

JACKSON, REGGIE

Mr. October himself, and the most famous letterman in ASU baseball history. Jackson played just one season, in 1966, batting .327 with 15 homers and 65 RBI. The Sun Devils went 41-11 that year. Jackson, who played defensive back for the Sun Devil football team, played 20 years in the majors, hitting 548 home runs and winning five World Championship rings. He was a 1993 inductee into the Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

JONES, MITCH

Mitch Jones spent only two years in a Sun Devil uniform but made history during that time. Jones belted 27 home runs during the 2000 season to set an ASU single-season record, breaking the previous mark of 25 set by Bob Horner in 1978. Jones hit 38 home runs in his two years to rank seventh in the ASU career record books. He is currently an outfield prospect in the New York Yankees farm system and led the Eastern League in 2004 with 39 home runs for the Double-A Trenton Thunder.

KAJIKAWA, BILL

Mr. Sun Devil himself, Bill Kajikawa was an athlete and a player at Arizona State, and today is one of the biggest supporters of the athletics program. Kajikawa played baseball and football at ASU, and coached over the course of five decades at ASU. Former ASU head football coach Frank Kush says Kajikawa "epitomizes what Sun Devil athletics is all about." Kajikawa recently celebrated his 93rd birthday.

LO DUCA, PAUL

In 1993, Paul Lo Duca set college baseball ablaze with his hitting heroics. The Sporting News Player of the Year broke the Sun Devil record for hits in a season (129) and hitting average (.446). The 5-10 catcher also owned a 37-game hitting streak, the longest in the nation in 1993 and the second longest in ASU history. Lo Duca made his second All-Star Game appearance in 2004 in Houston and was traded from the Los Angeles Dodgers to the Florida Marlins. In parts of seven major league seasons, Lo Duca is a career .285 hitter with 133 doubles and 60 home runs.

MVP

An honor bestowed upon two former Sun Devils at the major league level. Oakland's Reggie Jackson was American League MVP in 1973 and World Series MVP in 1977, while Barry Bonds has earned the accolade an unprecedented seven times: twice with Pittsburgh in 1990 and 1992, and in 1993, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004 with the San Francisco Giants.

MYERS, CASEY

One of ASU's most decorated players in history, Casey Myers starred at ASU from 1998-2001. A three-time All-American on the field and in the classroom, he showed that they don't come much classier than Casey Myers. A career .384 hitter—ranking third with 313 hits, second with 275 RBI, sixth with 39 home runs and fourth with 64 doubles—Myers has moved on to professional baseball, where he was a Northwest League All-Star for the Vancouver Canadians. He spent last summer playing for the Modesto A's in the Single-A California League and the Midland RockHounds in the Texas League.

NCAA

The Sun Devils are always a mainstay in the end-of-year NCAA statistical rankings. In fact, ASU was the only team in the NCAA in 2003 (among 283 teams) to rank in the Top 10 in the four major statistical categories (scoring, batting, pitching and fielding). ASU ranked second in batting (.347), second in scoring (10.03 runs per game), eighth in pitching (3.32 ERA) and ninth in fielding (.973 FLD%). ASU also set the single-season NCAA record with 14 grand slams in 2003. The Sun Devils ranked 12th in 2004 with a .325 batting average, 14th with a .973 fielding percentage and 20th averaging 7.9 runs per game. Arizona State also owns the consecutive games scoring streak record at 506 games.

NO HITTERS

There have been eight no-hitters in ASU history, the last one in 1993 by Kevin Rawitzer. Of the seven pitchers who hurled them, only Eddie Bane reached the big leagues.

ODDIBE

The first name of one of ASU's best players in the storied history of the program. Oddibe McDowell played for the Sun Devils in 1983-84, hitting a combined .380 with 30 home runs and

Casey Myers

31 doubles in his two years. His 1984 season, in which he hit .405 with 23 home runs and 117 hits, remains one of the best offensive performances in school history and earned him a spot on the Team USA Olympic team. He also received the Golden Spikes Award.

OMAHA ZOO

The site where Oddibe McDowell's legendary home run in the 1984 College World Series landed—or so the story goes. The zoo is located well beyond the right-field fence at Rosenblatt Stadium. Against Oklahoma State on June 5, McDowell took a John Duval pitch and launched a mammoth blast deep and far into the Omaha night. Of course, no mere mortal could actually reach the zoo. Then again, no one ever saw the ball land, either. ASU won, 23-12.

ON DECK CIRCLE

ASU's group of boosters that help organize events such as the annual alumni golf tournament, the end of the year banquet and several fundraisers during the baseball season.

PAC-10

The Conference of Champions has been home to ASU baseball since the 1979 season. Posting a combined 427-314 record in Pac-10 play, the Sun Devils have brought home six Pac-10 championships, most recently in 2000. ASU has had 93 players named to the All-Pac-10 team and six Pac-10 Coach of the Year selections. The Pac-10 used to be split up into the North and South Divisions, but combined in 1999 as Washington, Washington State and Oregon State joined with the Six Pac. Since the two divisions combined, ASU has won four of the six Pac-10 Player of the Year awards and combined for a 87-57 record in league play. ASU has also led the league in batting in five of the last six seasons.

PALM WALK

Arizona State's campus landmark. It's a path running through the heart of campus that's lined with majestic palm trees on both sides. There were 92 trees along the walk at last count, but construction serves to change that number frequently.

RECOGNIZED JERSEYS

Despite a plethora of stars who have played at Arizona State, only 13 numbers have been retired: Bobby Winkles, No. 1; Reggie Jackson, No. 44 (the number he made famous as a pro; he wore 24 at ASU); Oddibe McDowell, No. 0; Barry Bonds, No. 24; Sal Bando, No. 6; Bob Horner, No. 5; Dr. Jim Brock, No. 33; Floyd Bannister, No. 19; Rick Monday, No. 27; Larry Gura, No. 14; Alan Bannister, No. 7; Eddie Bane, No. 21; and Hubie Brooks, No. 14. With 68 players that have earned All-America honors and 80 major-leaguers, Arizona State must be conservative with its jersey retirement policy. All 13 have their numbers on Packard Stadium's right- or left-field walls.

Hubie Brooks

RIVALRY

Year in and year out, the Arizona State-Arizona rivalry has proven to be one of the best in all of college baseball. While the series extends all the way back to the start of baseball at ASU in 1907, ASU has dominated the series since officially adopting varsity baseball in 1959. Since 1959 when Bobby Winkles took over ASU, the Sun Devils lead the series 165-103. Current ASU head coach Pat Murphy has dominated the series against the Wildcats, going 34-16 (.680) and has never lost a season series to Arizona. In the regular season-ending series in 2003, the Devils easily handled the 15th-ranked Wildcats by sweeping the series by a combined score of 36-4 and the 2004 squad won four of the five meetings. Overall, ASU has won 16 of the last 20 games.

SCHMUCK, ROGER

Former head coach at Mesa Community College and Sun Devil star of the early 1970s. Schmuck's claim to fame is his 45-game hitting streak in 1971. It stood for 10 years as an NCAA record, and currently ranks as the third-longest streak in history. Schmuck hit safely in every game from March 8 to May 14. During the streak, the senior first baseman hit .477 with 10 homers and 66 RBI. His slugging percentage was an astronomical .829. Amazingly, when Schmuck arrived at the park on March 8, he was hitting a woeful .167. Little did he know what the next two months held in store. The streak ended when Schmuck went 0-4 against UTEP pitcher Marc Bombard. The big left-hander hit .434 for the year, which stands second in the ASU record book.

SLAUGHTER, STERLING

An All-America pitcher in 1963 who arrived in the major leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1964. What's so noteworthy about that, you ask? Slaughter pulled a memorable double-first: He was the first of Arizona State's numerous All-Americans and also the first of the school's eventual 80 major-leaguers.

SPARKY

The official mascot of Arizona State athletics. It was designed in 1946 by Bert Anthony, who was a cartoonist for Walt Disney, which means that Sparky, Mickey Mouse and Goofy are first cousins. ASU was formerly known as the Bulldogs until the mascot switch in 1946.

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

Arizona State baseball alumni have appeared on SI covers a total of 15 times. OK, so Reggie is on 10 of them. The other cover boys? Texas Rangers rookie Bump Wills in 1977 and Barry Bonds in 1993, 2001, 2002 and 2003.

SPRING TRAINING FACILITIES

Arizona State is blessed to be surrounded by some of the finest spring training facilities in the nation. The Sun Devils are also fortunate to have a working relationship with several of the facilities. ASU played nearly its entire home schedule and the NCAA Regionals at Hohokam Park (spring training home of the Chicago Cubs) in Mesa in 2002. ASU also hosted 2003 NCAA Regional at Tempe Diablo Park and will play in a tournament for the third straight year at Surprise Stadium in Surprise, Ariz.

STREAK

Arizona State holds the NCAA record having scored in 506 consecutive games. The streak ran from April 8, 1995 to Feb. 15, 2004. The Devils were 338-167-1 during the streak. The next closest streak was 349 games set by Coastal Carolina.

TEAM USA

Arizona State ranks eighth for producing player for the USA Baseball National Team. ASU has had at least one player on the national team in nine different years dating back to 1984 and a total of 10 Sun Devils have worn the Red, White and Blue of Team USA. ASU has also sent a player to play for Team USA in six of the last seven years. Junior outfielder Travis Buck is the latest to join this elite class, helping Team USA to a gold medal performance in the 2004 FISU World University Baseball Championships.

TEMPE

The home of Arizona State University, founded in 1872 by Charles Trumbell Hayden, when he established the Hayden Milling and Farming Ditch Company. (The Hayden Flour Mill, by the way, still stands on Mill Avenue near the south bank of the Salt River.) Tempe, which was incorporated in 1894, has a population of 158,625 and averages 325 days of sunshine per year. The town presently encompasses 39.5 square miles. The average daily high temperature is 85 degrees.

TICKETS

Call the Arizona State ticket office at 480-727-0000 for season and individual game ticket prices, as well as information on special discount rates for juniors, seniors, faculty, staff and students.

VICTORIES

Arizona State has 2,358 of them, dating back to the first year of baseball at Tempe Normal School in 1907. During ASU's modern history since 1959, the Sun Devils are 2,025-809-1. ASU's 2,358 all-time wins are the seventh most of all NCAA Division I baseball programs. ASU went 41-18 in 2004, marking the 26th time in program history to surpass the 40-win mark in a season.

WHITE, DANNY

Better known as the former quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys, Danny White also earned two letters on the diamond at ASU. He wasn't bad, either. In 40 games during the 1972 season, he hit .325 with five homers and 16 RBI. An infielder, he slumped to .200 in limited action in 1973, and probably made the right career choice by pursuing football.

WINKLES, BOBBY

The first varsity baseball coach at ASU, Winkles guided the Sun Devils to a 524-173 mark from 1959 to '71. He captured three national championships—in 1965, '67 and '69—and was named to the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a college and professional baseball coach. Winkles was honored for his numerous coaching milestones at ASU when the field at Packard Stadium was dedicated as Bobby Winkles Field in 2001.

ZBIKOWSKI, FRAN

One of only two players to ever letter in baseball at ASU whose last name begins with "Z." Zbikowski lettered in 1970-71, while Stuart Zink lettered from 1955-56. Sophomore pitcher and designated hitter Zechry Zinicola is just the third player to letter with a last name starting with Z.

PACKARD STADIUM

BOBBY WINKLES FIELD

Bobby Winkles Field at Packard Stadium, the home of Arizona State baseball since 1974, is one of the nation's most beautiful ballparks—and it is about to get that much better. The 30-year-old stadium has undergone a $1 million renovation as part of phase one of the Packard Stadium renovation project and plans to continue to improve the facility are on the drawing board. The actual field at Packard Stadium did not carry a name 2001, when it was dedicated as Bobby Winkles Field. Winkles, ASU's first varsity baseball coach (from 1959-71), won ASU's first three national championships.

The outfield wall at Packard Stadium is lined with palm trees, and just beyond the right-field fence is the award-winning Karsten Golf Course. In left field, sparkling Tempe Town Lake is visible. In the distance, the Superstition Mountains offer a picturesque backdrop.

But for every bit of beauty that envelops Packard, there is an equal dose of tradition.

The stadium is the home of two national championship teams and 13 NCAA regional tournaments. Arizona State's all-time record at Packard is 843-244-1, for a winning percentage of .776. Last season, ASU was 25-9 at Packard Stadium and over the last five seasons ASU has won nearly 80% of its games at Packard Stadium (118-34-1).

Dimensions of Packard are 339 feet down the lines, 370 feet in the power alleys and 395 to straightaway center. The fence is 10 feet high. Located five feet beyond the center-field wall is the "Green Monster," a 30-foot-high batting eye. Only 18 players have ever hit a home run over the Monster.

With a capacity of around 4,000, Packard has more than 3,000 permanent seats in the main grandstand, which are backed for spectator comfort. Field-level box seats are also available behind home plate. The remaining seats, which run down the first-base line, also provide outstanding views of the game. A berm was added down the third-base line to provide fans with a different way to watch and enjoy the game.

Over the years Packard has received numerous upgrades, including a new scoreboard, valued at $240,000, that was installed in left-center field. A product of Daktronics, Inc., in South Dakota, the scoreboard is fully equipped for graphics, animation and messages on its color matrix board.

A new players facility opened in August, 2004 that includes a clubhouse and a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility. Head Coach Pat Murphy also had an office constructed that is located on the terrace level of the new clubhouse.

The Packard Stadium press box, situated atop the grandstand directly behind home plate, includes booths for television and radio coverage, as well as ample space for print media. Improvements were made to the press facility over the last four years, when statistic monitors were added to the radio booths and live stats were produced over the Internet from the press box. The facility is also in the beginning planning stages of undergoing renovation.

Just about every year, improvements are made to this already magnificent baseball facility. A separate building containing batting tunnels and a conditioning area was built in the fall of 1997 and is located on the third-base side of Packard. The batting cage area doubles as the press room/interview room during NCAA Tournament play. The Sun Devils' bullpen area was also remodeled and upgraded to include three pitching mounds. A brand new playing surface and drainage system was installed during the 2002 season, as well as a new entrance to the stadium.

Two of ASU's three varsity head coaches, Bobby Winkles and Pat Murphy, share a moment on Bobby Winkles Day in 2001.

MONSTER HOME RUNS

The following players are the only 18 in the history of Packard Stadium to hit a home run over the "Green Monster" in center field.

In addition, a new public-address system was added, replacing the sound system that had been in place since Packard Stadium opened in 1974.

Packard has 160 metal halide lights, which is the same amount used in Double-A lighting for night games. The playing surface consists of tiff green grass in the infield and Bermuda grass in the outfield. The dirt portion of the infield is crushed red brick, which can be found at many major league stadiums.

Packard's existence was made possible through a gift to Arizona State from Guthrie and Peter Packard. Both are alumni of ASU, and the stadium is a tribute to their late father, William Guthrie Packard, a prominent member of the publishing industry for many years. Mr. Packard served the Shepard Company for 51 years, rising from sales representative to president to chairman of the board. He was also active in various community and church affairs in Colorado and Arizona.

Jackson wore #24 at ASU, but became synonymous with #44 during his years with the New York Yankees.

2005 ARIZONA STATE SUN DEVIL BASEBALL SEASON OUTLOOK

Travis Buck

If college baseball was a jigsaw puzzle, Arizona State would be crawling on the floor looking for that final piece that has been elusive in recent years.

That piece is a return trip to Omaha for the College World Series that has been missing since the Sun Devils played for the National Championship in 1998.

With 98 consecutive weeks in the national rankings, five straight NCAA Tournament appearances, seven straight top 10 recruiting classes, one of the toughest schedules in the nation and All-Americans on the field, the Sun Devils are a mainstay among the elite programs in the nation. But after some tough luck and misfortune at the end of the season, 11th-year head coach Pat Murphy and his team have their sights set on returning to the College World Series and winning ASU's sixth national championship.

"The bottom line is that we need to overcome some of the tough cards we've been dealt in recent years and find that one missing piece of the puzzle," said Murphy. "Our program has a lot of pressure to exceed at the highest level each year and I think we've done a good job of staying at that level. This program is about changing and adjusting to remain among the top programs and we won't rest until we are back at the top."

With the toughest rated non-conference schedule in the nation, ASU earned one of the eight national No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament last season. They suffered a disappointing end to the 2004 season at the regional hosted by eventual national champion Cal State Fullerton. The Devils finished the season 41-18 overall and were fourth in the Pac-10 with a 13-11 record.

With a handful of returning letterwinners and starters, Arizona State is hungry to make its 19th trip to Omaha and is poised for its sixth national championship.

"The returning players definitely have a chip on their shoulder and don't want to experience that feeling when the season ends too early," said Pat Murphy. "They have some business to take care of and that is a great motivating factor. The young guys will also learn from that and hopefully develop a sense of urgency how important it is for this program to be the very best."

The Devils will begin 2005 like every other year, ranked high in the polls and as one of the marked programs among the college baseball elite. ASU checked into the national polls at No. 9 by Baseball America and No. 11 by Collegiate Baseball.

"We are approaching this season with the expectations of winning every game," said Murphy. "Our goals are to always go out and represent Arizona State in the best way possible. We go into every season looking to be the top team in the Pac-10, consistently beating our in-state rival and winning the national championship."

Like every season in a major college baseball program, there is some rebuilding to do. The Sun Devils lost eight letterwinners and nine regular starters from last season. Although six players were selected in the annual Major League draft, ASU was part of a college baseball rarity when infielder Jeff Larish (13th round) and Jason Urquidez (11th round) decided to return for their senior seasons.

"We are very fortunate to get Jeff and Jason back," added Murphy. "It is very crucial for this program and shows the character of these young men. Each worked really hard during the offseason and will bring great talent and leadership to our team this season."

In addition to returning 15 letterwinners and 12 regular starters, Murphy and his coaching staff landed one of the top recruiting classes in the nation. A solid corps of returning starters in the outfield and infield, and team leaders from last year's squad will be a key to ASU's Road to Omaha. Murphy begins his 11th year at the helm of the program, having guided the Devils to the NCAA Tournament in seven of the last eight years and has seen his Devils become a mainstay in the national rankings with 98 consecutive weeks in the polls dating to 2000.

"If you look at our roster, you see a good mix of young guys and some veteran players that have been in the program for two or three years and are potential leaders for this ball club," commented Murphy. "We will have to play some of our freshmen or junior college transfers at some key positions, but overall I like this team and I like the leadership our veteran players bring to the field every day. I think leadership has been one of those missing pieces of the puzzle in years past."

While a host of star players return, the program loses one of the best players in recent history in three-time All-Pac-10 shortstop Dustin Pedroia. Drafted in the second-round by the Boston Red Sox, Pedroia was a career .384 hitter with 71 doubles, 146 RBI and 14 home runs. Pedroia was also a two-time National Defensive Player of the Year selection.

"There is no way you replace a player like Dustin," said Murphy. "He will go down as one of the best players in ASU history and he was just a great team player for us in his three seasons. You just hope you get a chance to see another player like that come through the doors in the Maroon and Gold."

The 2005 Sun Devils feature a 32-man roster broken down with six seniors, five juniors, six sophomores and 15 freshmen. A year after featuring only two players with pitching experience in the program, ASU is much deeper on the mound in 2005 with 69% (359 of 524) of total innings returning. ASU also features a trio of preseason All-Americans in junior outfielder Travis Buck, senior 3B/1B Jeff Larish and senior starting pitcher Jason Urquidez. In addition to the preseason All-Americans, senior catcher Tuffy Gosewisch, junior left-handed pitcher Erik Averill, sophomore two-way player Zechry Zinicola and sophomore outfielder Colin Curtis form a solid nucleus of veteran players. Highlighted as the No. 2 recruiting class in the country (Baseball America), the group of 14 newcomers includes 11 high school players, two junior college transfers and one Division I transfer.

The 2005 squad is sure to be another team reflective of Murphy's teams from the past that will be offensive minded and play solid defense while approaching every game with a playoff-type mentality. The Sun Devils are also sure to be a threat on the basepaths with 34 of 56 (61%) stolen bases returning.

"Our focus is to be the very best program in the nation and when we take the field that will be our motivation," said Murphy, the 1998 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year. "We are always known to be an offensive team, but we also have some really good arms this year in the pitching staff and have a chance to be a running team. We are a lot more well-rounded, but going into the season I think our depth is a little bit untested and we will have some growing pains with some of the younger players."

A LOOK BACK:

The 2004 squad finished with a 41-18 season and earned a final ranking of 20th in the nation by Sports Weekly/ESPN. The Sun Devils also led the Pac-10 hitting for the fifth time in the last six seasons with a .325 batting average.

The Devils enter 2005 without two of their top three hitters from a year ago. ASU will have to replace the offensive production of shortstop Dustin Pedroia (.393-9 HR-49 RBI) and infielder Josh Asanovich (.367-5 HR-41 RBI. Pedroia (2nd round) and Asanovich (11th round) both signed professional contracts after their junior seasons. The offense returns five players who hit over .300 last season, including All-Pac-10 selection Travis Buck who finished behind Pedroia hitting .373 with nine home runs and a team-leading 58 RBI. Jeff Larish returns for his senior season with a career .337 batting average with 28 home runs and 168 RBI.

The pitching staff was led by junior right-hander Jason Urquidez and freshman closer Zechry Zinicola. Urquidez earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors while leading the league in wins with a 12-3 record. He struck out 94 batters in 97.2 innings and was among the league leaders with a 3.41 ERA. Zinicola earned freshman All-America honors while going 4-2 with a 3.36 ERA and tied the ASU Freshman record with nine saves. ASU's 20 saves were tied for the third most in school history and the most by a Sun Devil squad since posting 22 in 1990. Freshman pitchers recorded 17 of the 20 saves last season.

The defense again had another solid season, posting the second straight year with a fielding percentage of .973, ranking second in the ASU record books.

"With the nature of college baseball and the draft, you always have to be prepared to make adjustments and to rebuild your team," said Murphy, who has had over 75 players get drafted since taking over the program in 1995. "This year is no exception as we lost two of our starting infielders and those are two key players that will be tough to replace."

THE SCHEDULE:

A year after playing the top-rated non-conference schedule in the nation, the Devils will once again take on one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

ASU's 56-game regular-season schedule includes 28 games against teams that played in the 2004 NCAA Tournament and 35 games against teams that have competed in the Field of 64 in the last two seasons. The schedule also includes schools that have combined for 27 national championships and seven games against teams that played in the 2004 College World Series.

ASU is also scheduled to play 21 games against eight teams listed in Baseball America's preseason top 25. Along with playing Pac-10 ranked opponents Stanford (#6), Washington (#8) and Arizona (#12), the Sun Devils will also play No. 1 Tulane (Feb. 18-20), No. 2 LSU (Mar. 11, 13), No. 11 Baylor (Feb. 25-27) and No. 14 North Carolina (Mar. 4). Fourteen (14) of ASU's first 25 games come against ranked opponents, including a stretch of nine straight games against Arizona, Tulane, Baylor and North Carolina in late February and early March. Pac-10 foe USC also ranked No. 30 in the extended top 50 pre-season poll.

"We play a tough schedule and it all starts with that first weekend against a very good Long Beach State team," commented Murphy. "It is a pretty unique schedule with so many road games, but it is a great chance to challenge some of the great programs on the road and make a name for ourselves. I am confident we can rise to the challenge."

WHO RETURNS IN 2004:

The Sun Devils will feature a lot of familiar faces and a few unknowns when they take the field in 2005. All-Pac-10 selections Jason Urquidez (2004), Travis Buck (2004) and Jeff Larish (2003) headline an impressive list of 15 returning letterwinners from last season. Buck hit .373 (84-for-225) with nine home runs and 58 RBI last season and had an impressive season with the USA Baseball National Team last summer. Buck hit .412 for Team USA while helping lead the Red, White and Blue to a gold medal performance in the FISU World University Baseball Championships.

Larish battled through wrist injury and constant pressure from the draft to hit .308 (73-for-237) with 17 doubles, seven home runs and 49 RBI. Moving from the outfield back to the infield where he is expected to start at third base, Larish is looking to return to his sophomore form of 2003 when he earned first-team All-America honors after hitting .372 with 18 home runs and 95 RBI. Larish was drafted in the 13th round by the Los Angeles Dodgers and returned for his senior season after turning down a reported six-figure signing bonus.

"Travis (Buck) and Jeff (Larish) are two great offensive players that can really change the game with one swing of the bat," said Murphy. "I think they also bring great leadership and really feed off each other in terms of competitiveness. When you add in Tuffy (Gosewisch), Colin (Curtis) and the rest of our offense, we have a lot to be excited about."

Urquidez led the Pac-10 last season with 12 wins and ranked third with a 3.41 ERA. The Clemens Award (National Pitcher of the Year) candidate struck out a team-leading 94 batters in 97.2 innings and held opponents to a .251 batting average.

"Jason had a great season last year and it isn't often you get a guy coming back that had 12 wins last season," added Murphy. "We expect Jason to be a little stronger this season and go deeper in the game. He is a competitor and will be one of the aces of our staff this season."

In addition to Buck, Larish and Urquidez, there are several other returning players that will form the nucleus of the 2005 squad. Senior catcher Tuffy Gosewisch has started nearly every game the last two seasons and is ready for what Murphy calls a "breakthrough season." The senior backstop hit .342 (68-for-199) last season with 14 doubles, two home runs and 49 RBI. He started 58 of 59 games and was one of 15 semifinalists for the Johnny Bench Catcher of the Year Award.

"Tuffy is just a solid player and really got stronger during the offseason," said Murphy. "I think he has a really good chance to be one of our best offensive performers and having a three-year starter take command of the pitching staff is invaluable."

With Larish moving back to the infield after spending last season in left field, sophomore Colin Curtis will join with Buck to form one of the best offensive outfields. Curtis hit .300 (57-for-190) with five home runs and 36 RBI as a freshman while starting 57 of 59 games.

Sophomore two-way player Zechry Zinicola will get a chance to play every day at first base and also maintain his spot as the team's closer. Zinicola hit .280 (28-for-100) last season with eight doubles, three home runs and 26 RBI and went 4-2 with eight saves and a 3.36 ERA as a freshman.

Redshirt sophomore infielder Seth Dhaenens, senior catcher/designated hitter Joel Bocchi and sophomore infielder Joe Persichina also return for the Sun Devils.

With Urquidez anchoring the pitching staff, first-year pitching coach Jack Krawczyk has a deep pitching staff to work with in 2005. Junior left-hander Erik Averill will return to the starting rotation after going 4-4 with a 5.19 ERA last season. With a career 12-6 record, Averill had a solid summer in the Cape Cod League and is ASU's most experienced pitcher after logging 162.1 innings in his first two years with the Sun Devils.

"Erik is going to get a chance to start every weekend and we are very excited about the changes he has made," said Murphy. "He is a very confident young man and has all the talent in the world. He is going to be a big part of our success this season."

With Zinicola returning to the bullpen as the closer, junior lefty Brett Bordes will get another chance to hold down a spot in the weekend rotation. Described as having the rawest potential on the pitching staff, Bordes endured control problems last season while going 3-1 with an 8.55 ERA.

Senior RHP Ty Marotz (0-0, 6.14 ERA, 22.0 IP), sophomore Quentin Andes (5-1, 2 SV, 4.55 ERA, 31.2 IP) and sophomore RHP Pat Bresnehan (3-2, 5 SV, 4.79 ERA, 41.1 IP) also return from last season to build what is shaping up to be a solid bullpen.

THE NEWCOMERS:

The 2005 Sun Devils will feature a lot of new faces...14 to be exact. While the obstacle of fielding a relatively young team that is expected to compete for the national championship proves to be tough, Murphy and the coaching staff couldn't be more excited about the talent that has arrived in Tempe.

"We are extremely excited about the players that joined our program this year," said Murphy. "They are great young players and great young men. They are true Sun Devils and that is what is going to push this program towards excellence."

Three of the freshman, shortstop Andrew Romine (No. 3), outfielder J.J. Sferra (#30) and left-handed pitcher Drew Bowman (#58), have been rated as top 60 freshmen in the nation by Baseball America.

Romine, the son of former Sun Devil and Boston Red Sox Kevin Romine, is expected to start at shortstop. Sferra, the son of ASU assistant coach Jay J. Sferra, will most likely get the opening-day nod in center field.

Other freshman expected to contribute include infielder Vinny Biancamano, outfielder DJ Butler, first baseman Willy Fox and right-handed pitcher Seth Garrison.

Four-year transfer Joey Hooft had three successful seasons with the University of Miami (Fla.) that included two trips to the College World Series. The Reno, Nev., native will start at second base and is a potential leadoff hitter for the Sun Devils. He hit .307 with 30 stolen bases for the Hurricanes.

Junior college transfers Tony Barnette (Central Arizona College) and Kevin Dryanski (Hutchinson CC) join the program and will contribute to the pitching staff out of the bullpen.

In addition to 14 newcomers, ASU also features four redshirt freshmen that will make their debuts on the diamond in 2005. Catcher/utility player Taylor Holiday, infielder Jeff Landry and outfielders Rocky Laguna and Eric Williams all sat out last season while adding strength in the weight room and learning the ins and outs of the program.

THE COACHING STAFF:

Head coach Pat Murphy returns for his 11th season in Tempe and has led the Sun Devils to the NCAA Tournament in seven of the last eight seasons. Murphy has a 401-196-1 record at ASU and an all-time 774-367-4 record in 20 seasons as a college baseball head coach. He was the 1998 Baseball America Coach of the Year and the 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

Jay J. Sferra is in his 10th season with the Sun Devil baseball program. Sferra coaches the outfielders and is ASU's first base coach during games. He is also the recruiting coordinator, having landed top-10 recruiting classes in each of the last seven years.

A pair of coaches enters their first season with the Sun Devils in 2005. Tim Esmay is a familiar name for Sun Devil fans as the former player and assistant coach returns to his alma mater. After spending the last eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Utah, Esmay will coach the infielders and also be the third base coach. He played two years for the Sun Devils from 1986-87 and was also an assistant coach under Jim Brock from 1988-90 and in 1994.

Jack Krawczyk enters his first year as ASU's pitching coach and comes to the program with impressive credentials. Krawczyk was an All-American and All-Pac-10 pitcher at the USC and played professionally for six years in the minor leagues. Krawczyk is widely considered the top relief pitcher in college baseball history after he set the NCAA record with 49 saves during his college career at USC from 1995-98. He also holds the USC, Pac-10 and NCAA single-season saves record with 23 saves during the Trojans' 1998 national championship season.

"I am very excited about the two additions to our coaching staff and the great personalities they bring to the program," said Murphy on his two new hires. "They have a passion for baseball and this program and that carries into the coaching of our kids."

THE STARTING ROTATION:

Heading into the season, Murphy and Krawczyk have a good idea on what they have planned for the starting rotation. Senior right-hander Jason Urquidez is the ace of the staff after going 12-3 last season, but may pitch on Saturday's as he is always better after seeing a team from the bench. That leaves the Friday night starting spot for junior lefty Erik Averill to grab. Averill was a freshman All-American in 2003 and is 12-6 with a 4.38 ERA in 46 career games. Junior left-hander Brett Bordes will likely fill the third starting spot.

"It is nice to know that your starting pitchers all have experience in big game situations," said Murphy. "We haven't had the luxury of having veterans on the mound in past years."

The Sun Devils also have some flexibility with midweek games, as senior Ty Marotz had an excellent fall and is throwing in the low 90's. Sophomore Zechry Zinicola has the potential to be a weekend starter, but the two-way player is also a weapon on offense and will get a chance to start at first base and be the closer. Sophomores Pat Bresnehan and Quentin Andes, along with freshmen Drew Bowman and Josh Satow could also become starting pitchers.

THE BULLPEN:

With any good team you have a strong bullpen. The Sun Devils will look to a corps of rookie pitchers to man the late innings of games. Murphy expects Zinicola to lock down the closer role and pitch the eighth and ninth innings of a lot of games. Zinicola tied ASU's freshman record with eight saves last season.

Andes was 5-1 with two saves and a 4.55 ERA last season and will contend for the long relief role along with junior college transfers Tony Barnette and Kevin Dryanski.

Sophomore RHP Pat Bresnehan was effective early in the season building up five saves before the start of Pac-10 play, but struggled down the stretch. With a 90 mph fastball and a wicked slider, Bresnehan is best suited for the setup role. Garrison, Satow and Bowman will also be used out of the bullpen.

CATCHER:

The Sun Devils have the luxury of having a three-year starter behind the plate in senior Tuffy Gosewisch. The Johnny Bench Catcher of the Year candidate has started 115 games behind the dish in his career and has turned into one of the best all-around catchers in the nation. Having posted back-to-back seasons of hitting over .340, Gosewisch is one of ASU's best clutch hitters after hitting .359 with runners in scoring position last season.

"Tuffy is one of our team leaders and really takes command of the pitching staff," said Murphy on his senior backstop. "He has an unbelievable work ethic and has worked really hard in the weight room over the last two seasons. I think before it is all said and done, Tuffy will be one of our best offensive performers."

Expected to play nearly every inning, Gosewisch will be backed up by freshman Austin Stockfisch. Stockfisch is a switch-hitting catcher from Scottsdale's Desert Mountain High School and has impressed the coaching staff with his development during fall practices. Redshirt freshman Taylor Holiday can also fill in behind the plate. Senior Joel Bocchi. Bocchi, who is a career .288 hitter while playing in 92 career games, is likely to redshirt in order to fill in the catching void next season.

FIRST BASE:

Sophomore two-way player Zechry Zinicola is the projected starter at first base. A prep third baseman, Zinicola started two games at first base last season and looked natural at the position. Zinicola is also slated as ASU's closer.

Behind Zinicola will be sophomore Joe Persichina and freshman Willy Fox. Persichina can play all four infield positions and started 37 games at first base last season while hitting .320. Redshirt freshman Seth Dhaenens is mainly a third baseman, but has also worked out at first base and is a likely late-inning defensive replacement when Zinicola takes to the mound. Larish can also fill in at first base after starting 60 games at the position in 2003.

SECOND BASE:

Senior transfer Joey Hooft is slated to start at second base after playing his previous three seasons at the University of Miami.

"Joey is a steady player who has played in a lot of big games," commented Murphy. "He brings a lot of leadership and is a veteran guy that is going to come right in and get a chance to start and be a leader on this team."

Freshman Vinny Biancamano will push Hooft at second base and can also provide depth at third base and shortstop. Biancamano was an all-state shortstop at Glendale's Cactus High School 35th round draft pick of the Kansas City Royals in 2005.

"Vinny is a really exciting player with tons of potential,"

says Murphy. "He kind of fits the mold of a Steve Garabrants type player with good speed and is an excellent hitter. He is going to get a chance to play right away."

Persichina, redshirt freshman Jeff Landry and freshman Eric Sogard can also fill in at second base behind Hooft and Biancamano. Sogard is a possibility to utilize a red-shirt season.

"Joe (Persichina) who can be listed at four or five positions and no matter what, you will see him in the lineup," says Murphy. "He had a good freshman season and has really matured. He is a guy that will do anything to help the club win games."

SHORTSTOP:

ASU's toughest position to fill will be shortstop as three-year starter and two-time All-American Dustin Pedroia was a second-round draft pick of the Boston Red Sox. Freshman Andrew Romine will have some big shoes to fill, but has all the tools to take over right where Pedroia left off.

Romine is the son of former Sun Devil All-American and Boston Red Sox Kevin Romine. Rated as the No. 4 freshman by Baseball America, Romine is switch-hitter at the plate and features an aggressive style in the field.

"Andrew is a very exciting player and fans will really enjoy what he brings to the field," said Murphy. "He has some tough shoes to fill, but overall he is a player that is really going to turn some heads and has a chance to become the next in a long line of great Sun Devil shortstops."

Biancamano and Dhaenens could also see time in backup duty to Romine. Freshman Greg Bordes, the brother of starting pitcher Brett Bordes, could also see time, but is a likely redshirt candidate. Bordes is also a possibility to sit out the season as a redshirt.

THIRD BASE:

Senior Jeff Larish will man the hot corner. Returning to the position he played as a freshman, Larish also started at first base in 2003 and in left field last season.

Possessing a strong arm and good footwork, Larish will feel right at home moving back to third base.

"Jeff is natural at third base and really loves playing that position," said Murphy. "He has been very versatile in his career playing three different positions, but he is comfortable at third base and really give our team a powerful bat at that position."

Dhaenens started 27 games at third base last season and will contend for time behind Larish. Biancamano worked out at the hot corner in fall practices before making the switch to second base, so he will also create depth at the position.

THE OUTFIELD:

Despite losing Larish back to the infield, the Sun Devils will again feature one of the best outfields in the NCAA. Junior preseason All-American Travis Buck is a projected first-round draft pick in the MLB June Amateur Draft and is coming off a strong sophomore season in which he hit .373 with nine home runs and 58 RBI.

"Travis had a great sophomore season and is coming off an outstanding summer with Team USA," said Murphy. "He will start in right field and will be one of the keys to our offense. He has added a lot of strength and has learned a lot from being around Jeff Larish. He is a guy that can get on base in any number of ways and when he gets on base he finds ways to score."

In addition to Buck starting in right field, freshman J.J. Sferra is slated to start in center field. The speedy freshman, who spent several seasons as ASU's batboy while growing up, is also a top candidate to hit in the leadoff spot.

"J.J. is the real deal and has grown up around this program," said Murphy. "He is a great bunter and can really fly on the basepaths. I think he will be one of the best defensive center fielders this program has ever seen when it is all said and done."

With Sferra starting in center, sophomore Colin Curtis will move to left field after starting 57 games in center field last season. The former High School All-American hit .300 (57-for-190) with five home runs last season and with added strength and a year of experience under his belt should be ready for a big season.

"The sky is the limit in terms of potential for Colin," said Murphy. "It won't be easy for him to adjust to left field, but that is his future position in pro baseball. He has a lot of power at the plate and I also expect him to steal 15 or 20 bases."

The solid outfield will be bolstered by freshman DJ Butler, redshirt freshman Eric Williams and redshirt freshman Rocky Laguna. Laguna and Butler are also prime candidates for the designated hitter position.

THE LINEUP:

Murphy expects the nucleus of his team to man the No. 2 through No. 6 positions in the batting order. Travis Buck, Tuffy Gosewisch, Jeff Larish, Colin Curtis and Zechry Zinicola all have good power and are pretty interchangeable in the middle of the order. He expects Larish or Gosewisch to hit cleanup, with Buck probably batting in the third spot.

The leadoff position could be freshman center fielder J.J. Sferra or senior second baseman Joey Hooft. Both can get on base in any number of ways and will be a threat once they get on base.

Freshman shortstop Andrew Romine will bat near the bottom of the order and give the Devils some versatility with his switch-hitting bat.

Murphy has a handful of options at the designated hitter position depending on the defensive lineup. He expects redshirt freshman Rocky Laguna and freshmen Vinny Biancamano, Willy Fox and DJ Butler to contend for at-bats in the lower part of the lineup.

"We have four or five guys that are great hitters and will really be able to fill that DH spot in the lineup," said Murphy. "It also gives us some flexibility with the depth of our team and will get a lot of our guys some at-bats early in the season."

TEAM EXPECTATIONS:

With the rigors of a 56-game regular season schedule, Murphy expects his club to have some the usual ups and downs that comes with playing such a tough schedule. But, when it is all said and done, ASU's skipper expects the Devils to be contending for the national championship.

"Our goal is to win the national championship and we are disappointed that we haven't been back to Omaha since 1998," said Murphy. "It is almost a case of wanting that national title so bad, that sometimes those things just elude you."

"As a coaching staff and as a program we work every day to make those dreams a reality. We are continuing to make adjustments as the landscape of college baseball changes."

Murphy describes the team's leadership from the veteran players as the strength of the squad and expects a deeper finish in the postseason.

"There are a lot of unknowns going into any season, but I do know that this team will not quit," added Murphy. "Don't underestimate these guys as there may be some tough times early in the season, but I think they will rise to the top and play the best baseball of the season when it counts."

"In the end I think this team will be remembered for winning the national championship and finding that missing piece of the puzzle. They are already a group of student-athletes that represent Arizona State University with class and I think they will carry that all the way to Rosenblatt Stadium this season."

PAT MURPHY HEAD COACH

Pat Murphy became only the third head coach in Arizona State's modern baseball history when he was hired in August of 1994. Following in the footsteps of legendary head coaches Bobby Winkles and Jim Brock, Murphy's 10-year tenure at the helm of the ASU program has been marked with great success. Since inheriting the Sun Devil program, Murphy has carefully nurtured the tradition of excellence in Tempe, at the same time establishing himself as one of the top collegiate head coaches in the nation. He has guided Arizona State to top-12 national rankings in four of the last eight years, including an appearance in the 1998 College World Series national championship game. Murphy's ASU squads are always present in the national top 25, including a streak of 97 consecutive weeks in the polls (53 in top 10).

In 10 seasons at the helm of the Sun Devil program, Murphy is 401-196-1 and has led the Devils to the NCAA Tournament in five straight years and seven of the last eight. He owns an all-time 29-22 record in NCAA Tournament action as a head coach and is 20-14 in post-season play at ASU. His coaching accomplishments include becoming the youngest collegiate coach to reach 500 career victories (with 75 percent of the wins at the Division I level).

In 20 years of coaching at the collegiate level, Murphy owns a career 774-367-4 record. At the Division I level alone, Murphy has recorded 719 wins in 17 years, averaging over 42 wins a year. With 20 more years of coaching, Murphy is on pace to break the all-time NCAA victories record by the age of 65. Before arriving in Tempe, Murphy took a virtually unknown Notre Dame baseball program from a non-fully funded sport into the national spotlight. His Notre Dame teams averaged over 45 wins a season during his seven years in South Bend.

DEVILS EARN NATIONAL NO. 1 SEED IN 2004

The 2004 campaign marked yet another successful season for Sun Devil Baseball. ASU recorded a 41-18 record, marking the fourth 40-win season under Murphy. Compiling a 28-7 record against the top-ranked non-conference schedule in the nation, the Sun Devils earned the national No. 7 seed while advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth straight year. Despite suffering a disappointing exit from the NCAA Tournament at the hands of eventual National Champion Cal State Fullerton, ASU earned a final ranking of No. 20 in the nation (Sports Weekly/ESPN) and spent the entire season ranked in the national polls. Fourteen Sun Devils earned All-Pac-10 honors, including first-team selections for Travis Buck, Dustin Pedroia and Jason Urquidez. Pedroia led ASU hitting .393 (96-for-244) and earned first-team All-America honors. Urquidez led the Pac-10 with 12 victories, marking the most by a Sun Devil starter since 1993. Buck earned a spot on the USA Baseball National Team after hitting .373 with nine home runs and a team-leading 58 RBI. ASU once again led the Pac-10 in hitting with a .325 team batting average and averaged nearly eight runs per game.

DOMINATING ARIZONA

In the rivalry series against the University of Arizona, Murphy has guided ASU to a 34-16 record (.680) in his 10 seasons in Tempe and has never lost a season series to the Wildcats. The Sun Devils won four of the five games in the series last season and has won 16 of the last 20 meetings dating back to the start of the 2000 season.

THE STREAK

One of the NCAA's most impressive statistical streaks came to an end last season when the Sun Devils were shut out for the first time in 506 games. With a 6-0 loss to NCAA Tournament participant Oklahoma on Feb. 15, 2004 at Surprise Stadium in Surprise, Ariz., ASU endured its first shutout since April 7, 1995 (at USC). The Sun Devils combined to go 338-167-1 during the nine-year streak and averaged 9.40 runs per game. ASU broke the NCAA record (previously 349 set by Coastal Carolina) on April 7, 2001, exactly six years to the day when the Devils were last endured an offensive shutout. In 598 games during the Murphy era, ASU has only been shutout twice, and dating back to 1990 the program has only suffered four shutouts. Notable pitchers the Devils have faced during the streak include Mark Prior (USC), Barry Zito (USC), Jeremy Guthrie (Stanford), Kirk Saarloos (CS Fullerton), Jason Young (Stanford), Ben Diggins (Arizona), Adam Johnson (CS Fullerton), Ryan Drese (Cal), Jeff Weaver (Fresno State), Jered Weaver (Long Beach State), Jeff Niemann (Rice), Chad Hutchinson (Stanford), Abe Alvarez (Long Beach State) and Adam Pettyjohn (Fresno State).

THE INTERNATIONAL STORY

Throughout his illustrious career, Murphy has earned accolades in the international ranks as well, as he led the Dutch Olympic Baseball Team in the Sydney 2000 Games. In the 2000 Olympics, Murphy returned to the international baseball scene, helping lead the Dutch National team to their best showing in international competition with a 3-4 record in the Sydney games. DID YOU KNOW?

Pat Murphy's first managerial win in professional baseball (Tri-Cities Triplets) was won by him. Down, 10-1, in the ninth inning with two outs and no one on base, the Triplets came all the way back to tie the game and eventually win, 14-10, in 11 innings. Murphy pitched 4.1 innings out of the bullpen to defeat the Spokane Indians. Murphy was the player-coach for the Triplets (Northwest League) for two seasons.

Netherlands placed fifth with wins over Australia, Cuba and their rival Italy. The Dutch's 4-2 victory over Cuba was the first loss in Olympic play at the time for the international power, a span that covered 21 games. The win by Murphy's squad was noted by nbcolympics.com as one of the top four upsets in Olympic team competition. The Dutch went on to finish fifth in the Olympic tournament. In a pre-Olympic tournament, Murphy beat Team USA and their famous manager Tommy Lasorda. No stranger to international baseball, his ties to the Dutch team stretch back more than a decade. In the summer of 1987, Murphy led Holland to the European Championship, a victory that qualified the squad for the 1988 Seoul Olympics. He was asked to coach Holland in the Seoul Olympics, but declined so he could return to the University of Notre Dame, where he had recently been named head coach.

THE TRADITION

Murphy has helped to keep a tradition alive that has seen ASU record 43 straight seasons with at least 30 wins. Murphy's Sun Devil squads have averaged 40 wins per season and have advanced to the NCAA tournament in seven of the last eight seasons. Following suit to his coaching days at Notre Dame, Murphy is also overseeing the renovation of the program's facility. Packard Stadium has been under an ongoing multimillion-dollar renovation that has improved player facilities with a new clubhouse and playing surface. A new stadium entrance was also completed in 2003 and there are plans in the works for chair-back seats and a new press facility.

MURPHY IN POSTSEASON PLAY

Posting a career 29-22 record (.568) in postseason play, Murphy's NCAA playoff repertoire also includes a niche for carrying out the upset victory. On four separate occasions, his teams have defeated the regional host team, while five of the last nine Murphy-coached squads to make the playoffs have reached the "Sweet 16" or better. These accomplishments have come despite the fact that his teams have been sent to play the No. 1-ranked team six times in regional play (1992 at Miami, 1993 at Florida State, 1994 at Clemson, 1997 at Miami, 1998 at Wichita State and 2001 at Cal State Fullerton). The 2004 season marked the fifth straight year ASU advanced to the Tournament and the seventh out of the last eight.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Murphy's squads continue to demonstrate excellence in the classroom as well, as ASU boasted more First-Team Academic All-American selections (three) in 1999 than any other program in the nation. It was the most selections by an Arizona State baseball team in the history of the school. Former Devil Casey Myers (1998-2001) was a three-time selection to the Academic All-American team and twice the Academic All-American of the Year. In all, ASU has had five selections to the Academic All-American team since 1999, and 36 Devils have earned All-Pac-10 academic acclaim under Murphy's guidance since 1995. During Murphy's tenure, the baseball squad has an overall 2.60 GPA. It has steadily risen since he arrived in 1995, improving the 2.31 GPA from 1991-95. ASU ranks third with four first-team Academic. In addition, in his 20 years as a head coach, he has never had a player declared academically ineligible.

AN OFFENSIVE POWERHOUSE

The 2003 Arizona State Baseball team dominated the final release of the NCAA statistics as the only team in the nation (283 Division I teams) to rank in the top 10 in the four major statistical categories. ASU, who finished the season ranked No. 7 in the nation (Baseball America) with a 54-14 record, placed second in batting average (.347), second in scoring (10.03 runs per game), eighth in pitching (3.32 ERA) and ninth in fielding (.973 FLD%). In addition, the Sun Devils also ranked fourth in win-loss percentage (.794), fifth in slugging percentage (.529) and 28th in home runs per game (1.18). ASU also broke the NCAA record with 14 grand slams. Individually the Sun Devils also had several players rank nationally. Dustin Pedroia led the nation with 34 doubles (0.50 per game) and was also 31st with a .404 batting average and fourth in toughest to strikeout. Sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish led the nation in walks (1.20 per game), was sixth with 1.46 RBI per game (95 total) and 18th in runs scored per game (1.23). The 2004 season also saw ASU's offense lead the Pac-10 with a .325 batting average and averaging 7.89 runs per game. ASU also led the nation in hitting in 1999 while tying a school record with a .356 batting average. Murphy's 2002 squad nearly repeated as the NCAA leader in 2000, but finished second with a .346 average. The ASU offense has been potent under Murphy's watchful eye, combining to hit .331 and averaging 9.11 runs per game. The Devils have led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last six years.

MAJOR LEAGUE PIPELINE

Grooming players for the major league amateur draft has become Murphy's forte. In fact, in 20 seasons as a head coach, only three players have been drafted lower after playing for Murphy than he was out of high school or junior college — and those circumstances are widely injury related. Since 1995, 89 players under Murphy's guidance have gone on to sign professional baseball contracts. During the Murphy era, 78 players have been selected in the annual MLB Draft, leading all NCAA schools. The 2003 draft had a record 12 Devils selected, with three more signing free agent contracts. Several of Murphy's former players have appeared in the major leagues, including Craig Counsell (Milwaukee Brewers), Willie Bloomquist (Seattle Mariners), Jeff Duncan (New York Mets) and Jon Switzer (Tampa Bay Devil Rays). Other former Devils who have emerged as top future prospects include Chris Duffy (Pittsburgh Pirates), Brooks Conrad (Houston Astros), Dustin Pedroia (Boston Red Sox) and Andre Ethier (Oakland Athletics).

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Community outreach has been a signature of Murphy's teams, who are taught to give back to their communities and be positive role models. In 1995, he founded the Guadalupe Project, which provides baseball instruction and life skills lessons to underprivileged youth from Guadalupe, Ariz., a small town within the metro Phoenix area. The program provides year-round mentoring for kids aged 7-12 by Arizona State assistant coach Jay Sfera and student-athletes, the primary goal to build leadership skills, self-esteem, encourage academic success and explore career opportunities. With help from the Tempe Diablos, Murphy also instituted the annual Diablo Free Youth Clinics, held at ASU's Packard Stadium each November and December for kids aged 7-12. More than 250 kids took part in 1999. In January 2000, Murphy and ASU baseball sponsored the first 5K Fun Run to Beat Lou Gehrig's Disease along with the ALS Arizona Chapter. Murphy also takes part in a charity boxing match with Father Joe to raise funds for his Guadalupe Project. For his constant community service and giving back to the greater Phoenix area, Murphy was awarded the 2001 March of Dimes Leadership Award.

ALWAYS A TOP RECRUITING CLASS

The 46-year-old Syracuse, N.Y., native and his coaching staff have assembled some of the finest recruiting classes in the nation during each of the past 10 years. His 1995 class was ranked No. 1 in the nation, with names such as Phill Lowery, Andrew Beinbrink and Ryan Mills. Year after year, Murphy gets commitments from several of the nation's top prep players to become Sun Devils. ASU's last five recruiting classes have been ranked in the national top 10 and the recently signed class of 2006 includes seven top 100 high school players. The freshman class of 2005 is again no exception, as Murphy will lead a class of 15 newcomers onto the field as Sun Devils for the first time. Despite a current trend that sees many teams reload with just top prospects, Murphy also brings players in to mold into a scrappy and hustling player. As Baseball America proclaimed in its annual recruiting class review in reference to Murphy's and ASU's unique and successful style of recruiting, "if you don't understand it, then you're not a Sun Devil."

THE SUN DEVIL YEARS

In addition to finishing in the top 10 in the NCAA in the four major statistical categories (scoring, batting, pitching, fielding), the 2003 season also brought about a number of entries into the ASU single-season record books. Murphy's squad ranked second in fielding percentage (.973), third in runs scored (682), sixth in hits (858), fifth in doubles (160), second in RBI (630), third in walks (406), tied for third in batting average (.347), fifth in pitching shutouts (10) and third in ERA during the aluminum bat era (.332). The 54 wins are the most by a Sun Devil squad since the 1988 team finished with 60 victories. ASU also set an NCAA record with 14 grand slams. Individually, several Sun Devils also had record-breaking seasons. Shortstop Dustin Pedroia became only the 22nd player with 100 hits and the 16th player to hit .400. He set an ASU and Pac-10 record with 34 doubles. Sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish had a breakout season entering his name into the record books in several categories, including ranking fifth with 95 RBI and second with 78 walks. He broke the school record with four grand slams and tied the single-game records with nine RBI and four doubles.

Murphy led the 2002 Sun Devils to a 37-21 record overall, placing third in the Pac-10 with a 15-9 record. ASU hosted the NCAA Mesa Regional at Hohokam Park, going 2-2 before losing to No. 1 seed Houston. Dustin Pedroia, Andre Ethier and Jeremy West all earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors, while Pedroia became ASU's seventh player to compete for Team USA. The pitching staff posted a 4.40 ERA, ranking second in the Pac-10 and the lowest during the Murphy head coaching era.

The 2001 Sun Devils posted a 37-20-1 record en route to yet another NCAA Tournament bid. Led by All-Americans Casey Myers and Andy Torres and a crop of seven freshmen All-Americans, the Devils placed third in the Pac-10 and finished ranked 22nd in the nation. Myers repeated as the Academic All-American of the Year and became only the third player in Pac-10 history to repeat as the Pac-10 Player of the Year. Since the Pac-10 joined the North and Six-Pac in 1999, ASU has won three of the four Pac-10 Player of the Year awards.

The 2000 edition of Arizona State baseball finished with a 44-15 record, and made its third postseason appearance in four years. Finishing within the Top 12 in the nation, the Sun Devils also captured their first Pac-10 Championship since 1993 with a 17-7 conference record, earning the league's automatic bid by virtue of tiebreakers against both Stanford and UCLA. Murphy's 2000 Devils once again made a dent on the NCAA record books, leading the nation in scoring (10.97 runs/game), second in batting average (.346), fifth in fielding (.971), seventh in home runs (1.46 HR/game), second in slugging percentage (.561) and first in triples (0.63 per game). Senior outfielder Mitch Jones, who Murphy lured to ASU just one year earlier as a junior college transfer, set the ASU record for home runs with 27.

Despite bowing out to Texas in the 2000 regional championship game, the Sun Devils led the nation in scoring and finished near the top in batting average for the second straight season, averaging just under 11 runs per game and hitting .346. ASU, playing "old school" college baseball, avoided being swept by an opponent in 2000. The Sun Devils also led the Pac-10 in attendance, averaging more than 2,600 fans at each home game. Mitch Jones, Casey Myers and Jon Switzer earned All-America honors. Adding to his credentials, Murphy was voted the 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year by his peers.

During the 1999 season, Murphy assembled one of the most prolific offensive teams in ASU history. Concluding the year with a 39-21 overall record, the 1999 Sun Devils led the nation in batting average (.356) and scoring (11.32 runs per game). Their .356 team average tied the top single-season mark in ASU history, set by the 1981 National Championship Team. The Devils had the remarkable offensive season despite playing the first 17 games of the season with wood bats. In addition, the Sun Devils led the conference in virtually every offensive category. Arizona State had more players drafted in the 1999 Major League Amateur Draft (10) than any other school in the Pac-10 Conference. The 1999 season also produced a Sun Devil Pac-10 Player of the Year and current Seattle Mariner utility player Willie Bloomquist.

Murphy and his coaching staff led the 1998 Sun Devils to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball—the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. It was Murphy's first trip to the big show, and it would be a memorable one. Earning an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, Murphy's squad was once again tested by being sent to play the No. 1 team in the nation. Traveling to Wichita, Kansas, the Devils started a journey that would eventually land them in college baseball's premier showcase, becoming ASU's 18th team to play in the annual College World Series, and only the second to play for the national championship without having hosted a regional tournament. The Devils finished regional play 4-1, notching wins over nationally ranked Georgia Tech, Oklahoma State and Wichita State along the way to advance to Omaha. Advancing through the CWS bracket without a loss, ASU faced Pac-10 foe USC in the championship game. In a record-breaking game, ASU came up short, falling to the Trojans 21-14. ASU finished second in the nation with a 41-23 overall record and a third-place finish in conference play (18-11). After storming through the postseason, falling just one win short of a national championship, the Sun Devils concluded the season with a consensus No. 2-ranking and a total of six players earned All-America status. In addition, 10 Sun Devils were taken in the 1998 MLB Amateur Draft, including Ryan Mills, the sixth pick overall by the Minnesota Twins. In just his fourth season at ASU, Murphy became the second-fastest Pac-10 coach to reach the CWS championship game, behind only former Sun Devil Coach Jim Brock. For his efforts, he was named the Baseball America National Coach of the Year.

THE LUCK OF THE IRISH

During his seven-year head coaching stint at Notre Dame, Murphy led the Irish to a 318-116-1 record. Taking the non-fully funded program from a virtual unknown into a national power, he led the Fighting Irish to the NCAA Tournament in only his second year (1989), ending an 18-year stretch with Notre Dame not advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The Irish averaged just over 45 wins a season under Murphy and advanced to the NCAA regional finals three different times.

Only two years into his ASU coaching career, Murphy took the program back to where it belonged, in postseason play. Murphy guided the Devils to their 16th regional appearance, taking his team across the country to face No. 1 seed Miami in Coral Gables. The '97 Sun Devils came within one out of making an 18th trip to Omaha, bowing out in the championship game of the Atlantic Regional to host Miami in dramatic fashion. After defeating the No. 1 Hurricanes 10-3, ASU dropped a pair of one-run games to Miami to fall short of a trip to Omaha. ASU finished with a No. 11 ranking by Baseball America and a 39-22 overall record.

The Sun Devils again fell short of the NCAA Tournament in 1996, despite finishing the year ranked 25th by Baseball America and posting 35 Division I wins, with eight of those coming against top 25 teams. The 1996 squad posted the fourth-best team batting average (.338) in ASU history, and led the Pac-10 Southern Division in seven offensive categories including batting average, runs and hits. The Devils recorded a 35-21 record, despite being without pitching aces Phill Lowery, Kaipo Spenser and Ryan Mills for most of the year. Murphy graduated 11 players from the 1996 team to the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft.

Inheriting an average team in 1995—at a school where average is unacceptable—with only two returning starters and without the benefit of his own recruiting class, Murphy's first ASU squad posted 34 wins in 1995. Always a flare for the big game, nine of those victories came over Top 10 foes such as College World Series participants USC, Stanford and Florida State. During one stretch of games in mid March, Murphy led the Devils to six consecutive wins over eventual CWS participants Oklahoma, USC and Stanford. Despite being ranked in the top 25 all season and the numerous big wins, the Devils fell short of a trip to the NCAA Tournament, but the foundation was laid for the Devils to remain as one of the powers in college baseball.

THE NOTRE DAME YEARS:

Prior to arriving at Arizona State, Murphy spent the previous seven seasons as head coach at the University of Notre Dame, where he guided the Irish to a consistent level of success unmatched in the history of the program. Building the program from the ground up with the support of only four full scholarships, Murphy guided the Irish to a 318-116-1 (.732) record in South Bend, including consecutive trips to NCAA regional finals in 1992, 1993 and 1994, a streak matched only by Texas. He built Irish Baseball into a Top 25 program, laying a strong foundation that still exists today. Under Murphy's guidance, the Irish averaged more than 46 wins per season and rejuvenated the pride in the program to the point where a new 3,000-seat stadium was built on the campus in the fall of 1993. Murphy's 1994 Notre Dame squad finished 46-16 and came within one win of a trip to the College World Series. The Midwestern Collegiate Conference Champions advanced to the finals of the NCAA East Regional in Clemson, S.C., knocking off the host and No 1-ranked Tigers along the way. Notre Dame finished the season ranked 18th by Collegiate Baseball and 20th by Baseball America. Current Arizona Diamondback Craig Counsell and Texas Rangers pitcher Chris Michalak are just two of Murphy's products from ND who have excelled at the Major League level.

Murphy began his Notre Dame tenure in 1988, taking over a team that posted a combined 65-80 record in the three previous seasons. With a nucleus of players who finished 15-29 in 1987, and had never enjoyed a winning season at Notre Dame, Murphy began revamping the program and promptly led the Irish to a 39-22 mark. The following six campaigns saw the Irish garner national rankings, conference titles, NCAA tournament appearances, 45-win seasons and more.

Murphy's efforts were rewarded in just two years, as in 1989 the Irish posted a school-record 48 wins and logged their first NCAA tournament appearance in 19 years. Murphy guided the program to its first national ranking as the Irish were rated that year as high as 16th in The Sporting News, 23rd in Baseball America, and 24th in the Collegiate Baseball polls. Later, the Irish would earn their first MCC title by winning the final four games of the conference tournament in a span of 23 hours as Murphy snared his first MCC Coach-of-the-Year honor. That season was followed by two more 45-win seasons. The 1990 Irish squad put together a 46-12 record, which ranked fourth in the nation. Over the last 29 games of the season, Notre Dame achieved a 25-4 mark to bring Murphy another MCC Coach-of-the-Year award.

In 1991, Notre Dame overcame a schedule that saw the Irish play their first 27 games on the road to post a 45-16 record. Included were wins away from home over national powers Texas and Miami as well as eventual national champion LSU and a midseason 18-game win streak. In 1990, Murphy began a baseball tournament hosted by Notre Dame that was held in Seattle's Kingdome. The 1992, 1993, and 1994 seasons added emphasis to Murphy's status as one of the nation's top coaches, as his Irish teams grabbed MCC titles and in each year beat regional hosts to come within one game of a trip to Omaha for the College World Series. It's no wonder why the Irish were labeled in 1992 by Baseball America as "the nation's fastest rising program." In fact, Murphy shunned the University of Miami's attempts to lure him away from Notre Dame and accept the Hurricanes' head job in 1992. When he left Notre Dame for ASU in 1995, he became the first Irish head coach of any sport to leave South Bend for another job.

WHERE IT ALL STARTED:

In addition to his head coaching and international coaching experience, Murphy has spent numerous years in the collegiate ranks as both a player and assistant coach. He gained his collegiate experience as a pitcher at Florida Atlantic University, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees. Murphy played catcher, infield

DID YOU KNOW?

- During his 10 seasons at the helm of the Sun Devils, Murphy owns a 34-16 (.680) record against the rival Arizona Wildcats. Murphy has never lost a season series against Arizona and has won 16 of the last 20 games in the series.
- Over the last four years (2001-04), 29 Sun Devils have been selected in the annual MLB Draft. ASU leads all NCAA schools with 78 draft picks over the last 10 years.
- During his Division 1 head coaching career, Murphy's teams have averaged 42 wins per season. During his seven years at Notre Dame, Murphy led the Irish to an average of 45 wins a season for seven years. He has carried the Sun Devils to four 40-win seasons and postseason appearances in seven of the last eight seasons.
- Murphy's Sun Devil teams have been one of the most potent offensive teams in the NCAA each year. In fact, since 1995, Murphy's teams have combined to hit .331 with an average of 9.11 runs scored per game. ASU led the nation in runs scored and batting average in 1999-2000 and set a school record in 1999 with a team .356 batting average. ASU has led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last six seasons.
- During his 20 years as a head coach in collegiate baseball, he has never had one of his players declared academically ineligible. ASU has carried a combined 2.6 GPA during the Murphy era, improving from a 2.31 team GPA from 1991-95.
- Murphy was named the 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year by his peers and the 1998 Baseball America National Coach of the Year. ASU has been ranked in 97 straight national polls dating back to the start of the 2000 season.
- Attendance at Packard Stadium during Murphy's tenure has constantly improved and has led the Pac-10 in each of his 10 years as head coach. Last year ASU finished 20th nationally and was the second highest ranked team on the West Coast.
- Over the last eight years, ASU has an average end of the year national ranking of 16th in the nation. The combined ranking is ninth best among all Division I schools.
- Murphy was the first head coach at Notre Dame to leave for another college head coaching job.
- While in South Bend, Murphy helped found the Team One Showcase that stands today as one of the premier amateur baseball showcases in the nation.

signed a professional baseball contract with the San Francisco Giants in 1982. His four-year professional career included stints in the Giants and San Diego Padres organization, along with two independent clubs.

Murphy began his collegiate head coaching career at Maryville (Tenn.) College, leading the Division III Fighting Scots to their best record in 10 years during his first and only season in 1983. He was also an assistant football coach while at Maryville. He then returned to Florida Atlantic to serve as an assistant coach and administrative assistant to the athletic director. During his two-year stay, FAU compiled an 84-30 record and was consistently ranked among the Top 10 Division II teams in the nation.

During the summer of 1984, Murphy embarked on his first international experience, helping develop baseball in Australia as a state manager in New South Wales. He was in charge of running baseball clinics and promoting the sport to the public. Following his stint in Australia, Murphy was named player-coach of the Tri-Cities (Wash.) Triplets of the Single-A Northwest League, making him the youngest manager in professional baseball.

A return to the college ranks came in 1986, as Murphy signed on as head coach at California's Claremont-Mudd-Scripps Colleges. In his first year as head coach, Murphy piloted Claremont to a 24-16 record, earning the program its first Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship in 11 years. Murphy was named the West Region's Division III Coach of the Year as the Stags finished the year ranked 10th in the nation.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING:

"What makes Pat Murphy so successful is his philosophy: playoff baseball every day. He says to watch the major leagues, they don't play like that every day...hit-and-run, stealing, bunting, moving runners over. When they get to the playoffs, all of a sudden they start doing the little things. That's what Murphy and his teams do all the time." —Willie Bloomquist, former Sun Devil All-American and current Seattle Mariner.

THE YOUNG LEFTY

KAI JOSEPH MURPHY

Kai Joseph Murphy was born Aug. 26, 2000 and is quickly becoming one of the favorite future Sun Devils to watch. Always present rounding the bases after a game at Packard Stadium; Kai is a four-year-old future big leaguer who loves playing baseball and hanging out on his own sandlot at the Murphy house in Tempe. His favorite players include Travis Buck and former Devils Dustin Pedroia, Garrett Schoenberger and Benny The Jet from his favorite movie, "The Sandlot."

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

ABOUT ASU BASEBALL

Coach Pat Murphy

Craig Counsell

Former Murphy player at Notre Dame and current Arizona Diamondback

"Excluding my parents, no one has had a greater impact on my career as a baseball player and as developing as a person than Coach Murphy."

Willie Bloomquist

Former Sun Devil and current Seattle Mariner

"Coach Murphy is a very intense baseball coach, and that is what makes him so special, because he gets the most out of his players. He is great at teaching his players not only on the field, but off the field as well. He is a great all-around individual."

Joe Garagiola Jr.

Arizona Diamondbacks general manager

"Any player who plays for Coach Murphy can count on two things: He will make them a better player and a better person."

Dan Evans

Longtime Los Angeles Dodgers general manager

"I've known Pat for over 15 years. He has a passion for baseball and teaching the game that very few people match in intensity. He is a winner!"

Bob Welch

Former Cy Young Award winner

"Coach Murphy is someone that stays your friend for life. If my son had the opportunity to play at ASU, I would feel very comfortable with what Coach Murphy does and how he runs his program. He is like a brother to me and has always been a great help for me. He is the guy that can pick you up when you are down. I am thankful to have a friend like Coach Murphy."

Ron Coomer

Former big league player

"Pat Murphy has been a truly great friend for a very long time, and is what competitive baseball is all about: a will to win and having the plan to make it happen."

Barry Alvarez

University of Wisconsin head football coach

"I had the pleasure of working with Coach Murphy for three years at Notre Dame. He is intense, knowledgeable—a player's coach. He coaches baseball with a football mentality."

Ron Scheuler

Former MLB general manager

"I've known Pat for a number of years, and he is an outstanding coach and person. He is dedicated and I believe he will bring a together a championship team. He has put a together a great staff, and I know the program will have a lot of success under Pat."

Phill Lowery

Former Arizona State pitcher and current

California highway patrol officer

"He is one of the most dynamic people I have ever met. It goes without saying that he is an outstanding coach. He taught me a lot about baseball and life. He goes above and beyond the call of duty with everything he does for his players."

Harvey Dorfman

Sports psychologist

"What I admire is his intensity, which is often misunderstood by people who don't know him. My admiration is based on the fact that when he addresses whatever task is in front of him, he does it with such strong focus that many who are incapable of doing it, either misunderstand it or are envious. His intensity includes competition and doing the best for his players as athletes, students and young people."

Mike Gallagher

ASU Alumni

"Pat is one of the best coaches I've ever observed regardless of the sport."

Lou Holtz

College Football Coaching Legend

"Pat is one of the best coaches I've ever observed regardless of the sport. He is enthusiastic, intelligent and an excellent communicator and motivator. I learned a great deal by observing him coach his Notre Dame teams."

Paul V. Seiler

USA Baseball Executive Director/CEO

"Coach Murphy is one of the most outstanding college coaches in the nation. We are certainly aware of the many quality baseball players that he has coached at Arizona State. We are sure that he will continue the tradition of competition that has defined Sun Devil Baseball for so many years."

Brian Cleary

Former Murphy assistant and current head coach

at the University of Cincinnati

"Not many would have left Notre Dame, especially to follow a legend [ASU coach Jim Brock] who had recently passed away. He had his dream job with Notre Dame baseball, and he developed it from nothing to a big-time program. It was his program. He did it without scholarships or funding. He just loves challenges, and that is a statement of who he is."

John Pawlowski

Former Murphy assistant and current head coach

at College of Charleston

"With all of the parity and changes in college baseball, all big-time programs have had to make significant changes. These changes affect Arizona State as much as anyone else, and Murphy has done a tremendous job of quietly leading them to the World Series in '98 and having them in the hunt for the national title every year. It's tougher at ASU than ever before, and the draft especially impacts ASU more than other programs, but Murphy manages to do well regardless."

Eddie Bane

Former Arizona State pitcher and current director of scouting for the Anaheim Angels

"Murph is doing a great job of following in the footsteps of two legends in Bobby Winkles and Jim Brock. Tough shoes to walk in, but Pat is handling it very well. He is doing all that it takes to keep ASU as one of the elites in college baseball. Murph gets the most out of his players and does the right thing by his players when it comes to college or professional baseball. I consider Murph a friend and a true baseball man that I would not hesitate to ask to evaluate a player."

Asst. Coach Jay J. Sferra

Joe Garagiola Sr.

Former major-leaguer and current VP for the Arizona Diamondbacks

"For me, he is a perfect coach. He works hard at helping the athlete develop as both a player and a man. Coach Murphy and Coach Sferra are a great combination."

R.J. Harrison

National crosschecker for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays

"He is a hard-working, very honest man of integrity. He gives his best effort trying to find the best players. He does a good job working for Murphy, and I see him everywhere always working his tail off."

Mike Esposito

Former ASU All-American pitcher

"Coach Sferra's hard work and dedication exemplify what Arizona State baseball is about."

Asst. Coach Tim Esmay

Mike Benjamin

Former major leaguer and Sun Devil infielder

"Tim pours his heart and soul into this program and into coaching. I played beside him for two years and he was one of the most competitive people I've ever met and that characteristic rubs off on people. It is nice to see him back in the Maroon and Gold and to have him back in the Valley."

Asst. Coach Jack Krawczyk

Mike Gillespie

Krawczyk's head baseball coach at USC

"Jack is one of the greatest performers and achievers in the history of USC Baseball. His 1998 season has been unmatched and unparalleled with the fact he still holds NCAA records for saves in a season and career. He was a magnificent performer and critical player for our success to win the national championship in 1998. He pitched with ice water in his veins. Arizona State has landed one of the true good guys."

The Arizona State Way

Tim Huff

Toronto Blue Jays, National Crosschecker

"My main observation of the players that come out of Arizona State is the toughness they display on the field. They are grinders and they are gamers. They take the toughness they learned at ASU and apply it into a 142-game minor league schedule, which is not an easy thing to do. They show up ready to play every day and that is a real tribute to the program and the coaching they came from."

Keith Boeck

Texas Rangers, Professional Scout

"I see a bunch of former Sun Devils throughout the summer and I was really impressed with their work ethic. They get the most out of their ability and play the game the right way. They put their bodies on the line and get the job done every day. They are the gritty type of players that get the most out of their ability and are great to have as part of your organization. They know how to play winning baseball."

JAY J. SFERRA

Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator • 10th Year

Jay J. Sferra begins his 10th year as an assistant baseball coach at Arizona State University. In addition to his duties as the recruiting coordinator, Sferra oversees coaching of the outfielders and also coaches first base. He is the father of ASU freshman outfielder JJ Sferra.

"Jay has been an integral part of Sun Devil baseball and no one works harder," said head coach Pat Murphy. "He has the pulse of high school baseball and continues to be instrumental in our recruiting efforts. As recruiter, his focus is not only on bringing talent into the program, but also kids with great character."

As the recruiting coordinator, Sferra has established himself as one of the nation's best. Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball ranked this year's recruiting class that makes up newcomers for 2005 as the No. 2 class in the nation. Year in and year out, ASU's recruiting classes, built by Sferra and the Sun Devil coaching staff, are among the nations elite. The 2002 MLB draft saw eight Sun Devil signees drafted in the first five rounds, including three of the first seven draft picks in the first round. The 2005 class includes four players that were rated amongst the top 100 high school prospects in the nation. The current crop of players that signed an NLI last November consists of seven top 100 players.

Sferra tutored one of the best defensive outfielders in the nation in 2003 that helped lead the Devils' to a 54-14 record. Junior Andre Ethier repeated as an All-Pac-10 performer hitting .377 with 10 home runs and was ASU's highest draft pick after being selected in the second round of the 2003 draft by the Oakland A's. Sferra also helped freshman All-American Travis Buck make the transition from a high school shortstop into one of the best corner outfielders in the Pac-10.

In 2004 Sferra also oversaw the regular outfield trio of Jeff Larish (LF), Colin Curtis (CF) and Travis Buck (RF). The three combined to make only two errors the entire season and together formed one of the best offensive outfielders in the nation. Sferra helped Larish make the transition to left field after playing nearly his entire prep and collegiate career in the infield.

Sferra also coached the ASU pitching staff in 2001 and 2002. The 2002 squad ranked second in the Pac-10 behind Stanford with a 4.40 team ERA, marking the second lowest staff ERA during Murphy's nine years at ASU. The pitching staff also led the league in strikeouts (417), second in opponent batting average (.263) and second in games won (37).

Returning to coaching the outfielders, Sferra will once again be working where he helped coach some of ASU's best recent outfielders. He mentored Jeff Duncan and Willie Bloomquist, who have played in the major leagues. Former Devils Mitch Jones, Jay Sitzman and Dustin Delucchi also trained under the watchful eye of Sferra during at least one part of their successful ASU careers.

Sferra has also served as the director of instruction for Murphy's All Nine Baseball Academy and presently is the Executive Director of Coach Murphy's Programs for Youth, "the Guadalupe Project".

The program provides baseball instruction and life-skills lessons to the youth of Guadalupe and is a favorite among the Sun Devil players. "This program is all about personal development for our players and the kids in Guadalupe," said Sferra.

Sferra gained his collegiate experience at the University of Colorado as four-year letterwinner in baseball and three-year letterwinner in basketball. An All-Big-Eight selection and honorable mention All-American in 1976 and '77, he ranks at the top of several all-time Buff categories. He trails former major-leaguer John Stearns by one in lifetime hits and is third on the career list in runs scored. He holds the all-time record in Colorado history with 621 at bats. He holds the NCAA record for most at bats in a single game with 10, in a 22-inning game vs. Nebraska. As a basketball player, Sferra was the starting point guard for CU and lettered three years for the Buffalos. While playing summer ball for the Boulder Collegians in 1977, he played with Arizona State notables Bob Horner and Hubie Brooks.

Sferra was named 1972-73 basketball and baseball Player of the Year in high school at Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse, N.Y. He earned his bachelor's degree in Community Recreation from the University of Colorado in 1977.

He signed professionally with the Philadelphia Phillies organization in 1978 and played in the New York-Penn League.

Born and raised in Syracuse, N.Y., Sferra and his wife, Gerrie, have two children, Carrie (22) and J.J. (19). The 2005 season marks the first in which two Sferra's will be part of the Sun Devil program. J.J. is a freshman outfielder and is projected see playing time in 2005.

TIM ESMAY

Assistant Coach • 1st Year/5th overall at Arizona State

Former Sun Devil player and assistant coach Tim Esmay returns to the Arizona State Baseball program as an assistant coach in 2005. Esmay returns to Tempe after serving as the head coach at the University of Utah the last eight seasons.

Esmay's main duties will include coaching third base, instruction of the infielders and hitters and he will also help with recruiting. Esmay also creates a dynamic link to former Sun Devil players and will help organize fundraising efforts and the annual alumni golf tournament and baseball game.

Esmay, a Scottsdale native, was a high-energy infielder (1986-87) and assistant coach (1988-90, 94) for the Sun Devils under legendary head coach Jim Brock.

He was a two-year starter for the Sun Devils following an All-American career at Scottsdale Community College. The infielder hit .305 (121-for-397) during his two years in Tempe with 23 doubles and five home runs. He was a member of ASU's 1987 College World Series team and was named to the All-West Region team that season. Esmay teamed with former big leaguer and one of his best friends, Mike Benjamin, for one of the best double-play combinations in school history.

A graduate of Horizon High School, Esmay returns to ASU after posting a 213-235-1 record at Utah. He also coached at Brophy College Prep in Phoenix for two years (1992-93) and was an assistant at Grand Canyon University (1995) and Utah (1996) before taking over the head job in Salt Lake City in 1997.

In eight seasons at Utah he compiled a 213-235-1, including winning the 1997 WAC Conference Championship. Esmay had 18 of his players go on to play professional baseball, including three from his last team in 2004. He also had 27 players earn all-conference honors during his tenure. Esmay's eight-year career at Utah also saw his team's completely rewrite the Ute record books.

In his first season directing the Utah baseball program, Esmay did what no Ute coach had done in 32 years when he led Utah to a WAC division title and a 36-21-1 record in 1997. The Utes posted a 22-8 record in the Northern Division that year. They also set nine school records as Esmay was named the 1997 Louisville Slugger WAC Coach of the Year.

In 2002, Esmay guided Utah to a 33-26 overall and 16-14 conference record. The 33 wins is the second most in school history since 1963, and the second-place league finish is the Utes best since joining the MWC in '99. Senior pitcher Mitch Maio garnered 2002 MWC Co-Player of the Year honors.

Esmay earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arizona State in '88. The 39-year-old Esmay and his wife, Joell, are the parents of two sons, Tucker and Cooper.

JACK KRAWCZYK

Pitching Coach • 1st Year

Jack Krawczyk brings a wealth of playing experience in college and professional baseball in his first year as the pitching coach for Arizona State University. Krawczyk was an All-American and All-Pac-10 pitcher at the University of Southern California and played professionally for six years in the minor leagues.

Appointed to his first college coaching position in August 2004, Krawczyk comes to ASU after a successful summer stint as the pitching coach for the Mat-Su Miners in the prestigious Alaskan Summer League. Krawczyk helped the Miners to the Alaskan League title and a second-place finish in the 2004 National Baseball Congress (NBC) World Series in Wichita, Kan.

Krawczyk is widely considered the top relief pitcher in college baseball history. He set the NCAA record with 49 saves during his college career at USC from 1995-98. He also holds the USC, Pac-10 and NCAA single-season saves record with 23 saves during the Trojans' 1998 national championship season. His 23rd and final save that broke the NCAA career mark came a 21-14 win over Arizona State to win the national championship. He also holds the USC and Pac-10 records with 114 career pitching appearances. Overall, Krawczyk was 13-8 with a 3.35 ERA during his college career. He was a first-team All-American and All-Pac-10 selection in 1998, in addition to being named to the 1998 All-College World Series Team.

Following his record-breaking career at USC, Krawczyk was the 25th round selection of the Milwaukee Brewers. He played six professional seasons in three different organizations (Arizona Diamondbacks, Oakland Athletics, Milwaukee Brewers), reaching as high Triple-A with the Indianapolis Indians in 2002. He compiled a career 30-18 record with 28 saves and a 3.52 ERA as a minor leaguer and was named an all-star in 2002 (Southern League) and 1999 (California League). He ended his career in 2003 as a player/coach with the South Bend Silver Hawks (Diamondbacks).

Krawczyk graduated from USC in 1998 with a degree in Urban and Regional Planning and Development. He has also served as a pitching instructor with NorCal Baseball and Jaeger Baseball.

A Scottsdale native, Krawczyk returns to the Valley where he graduated from Arcadia High School in 1993 where he excelled in baseball and basketball. The 29-year-old Krawczyk and his wife, Cindy, have a 15-month old son, Cole. Cindy is a publicity manager for the San Francisco 49ers.

GRAHAM ROSSINI

Director of Baseball Operations • 6th Year

Graham Rossini, Director of Baseball Operations, enters his sixth season with the Sun Devil Baseball program in 2005. At only 25, but with ten years of experience working in college and professional baseball, Rossini brings solid credentials to the program and is responsible for the off-the-field operation of the baseball office. He oversees the baseball budget, game operations, official recruiting visits, team travel, baseball camps and all other business aspects of the baseball office.

Rossini is baseball's liaison with ASU's media relations office, the Pac-10 Conference and the NCAA. Rossini also works closely with the large contingent of Major League Baseball scouts and executives that work in the Valley.

In an effort to increase ASU Baseball awareness nationally and improve upon ASU's already impressive status as one of the top attendance teams on the West Coast, Rossini is working with other members of ASU's Athletic Department to develop ticket and marketing programs that will continue to promote Sun Devil Baseball.

In addition to the business components of the program, Rossini is involved in the planning and execution of various team events throughout the year. Working with the On Deck Circle, Sun Angel Foundation and Baseball Alumni Association, Rossini helps coordinate the annual Alumni Golf Tournament, Team Awards Banquet and Meet the Team events. He was very active in the Bobby Winkles Field dedication that took place during the 2001 season and has served on the tournament committee for the NCAA Regionals hosted by ASU in 2000, 2002 and 2003.

Over the past three years, Rossini has been instrumental in the planning and design efforts of the ongoing renovation of Packard Stadium. Prior to the 2003 season, a brand new playing field was installed as well as minor cosmetic improvements on the concourse of Packard Stadium. This past fall, the brand new players' clubhouse facility was completed and now boasts one of college baseball's finest locker rooms. Each of the forty lockers installed for player use were paid for by a Baseball Alumni Locker Sponsorship program.

Following three years with the San Diego Padres' Class AA affiliate in Mobile, Ala., Rossini joined Sun Devil Baseball prior to the 2000 Pac-10 Championship season as a Baseball Operations Intern. Shortly before the 2002 season, he was named Director of Baseball Administration, a position he held until the summer of 2003 when he was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations.

Rossini was born in Red Bank, N.J., grew up in Mobile, Ala. where he attended Baker High School before graduating Cum Laude from ASU's nationally renowned W.P. Carey School of Business.

SUPPORT STAFF BEHIND THE SCENES

Jeff Mousser

UNDERGRADUATE ASSISTANT, FIRST YEAR

Jeff Mousser enters his first year as the undergraduate assistant for the Sun Devil Baseball team. He will assist pitching coach Jack Krawczyk with the pitching staff and also help in the office while he completes his undergraduate degree in interdisciplinary studies.

Mousser lettered one year for the Sun Devils in 2004 after playing the first three years of his collegiate career at BYU. The right-hander went 6-4 for the Sun Devils last season while ranking seventh in the Pac-10 with a 3.94 ERA. He held opponents to a .254 batting average in 89.0 IP and earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors. He was selected in the 35th round of the 2004 MLB Draft by the Minnesota Twins and went 2-0 with a 4.63 ERA for the Elizabethton Twins.

The Tempe, Ariz., native was a prep standout at Marcos de Niza High School. He was married to his wife, Autumn, in June 2004.

Kenny McCarty

SPORTS MEDICINE, EIGHTH YEAR

Kenny McCarty begins his eighth year as the head trainer of the Arizona State baseball program.

An invaluable part of the program with his extensive knowledge of baseball-related injuries, McCarty has successfully rehabbed two pitchers from Tommy John surgery, including former Sun Devil All-American pitcher Mike Esposito, who is currently a top pitching prospect in the Colorado Rockies minor league system.

"Kenny is an invaluable part of our program," said head coach Pat Murphy. "What he has done rehabbing our pitchers and some of our other players, getting them healthy and mentally tough is truly amazing."

McCarty came to ASU in 1996 after graduating from Purdue University with a degree in athletic training.

A native of Freemont, Ind., McCarty is very active in the National Association of Athletic Training (NATA) and also teaches an athletic training class at Arizona State. He is a huge NASCAR fan.

Steve Kirkman

OPERATIONS AND RECRUITING
ASSISTANT, SEVENTH YEAR

Steve Kirkman begins his seventh year in the Arizona State Baseball program and his first as an operations and recruiting assistant.

Kirkman's duties extend both on and off the field. Off the field, he is responsible for managing the equipment inventory, maintaining the recruiting database, and executing other various projects for the coaching staff. On the field, his daily duties include field setup and assisting coaches during practice. He also helps with various baseball projects around the office.

Kirkman came to ASU in the Fall of 1998 and graduated from the College of Business in 3 1/2 years, with a BS in Accountancy.

A native of Spring Valley, Calif. (San Diego area), Kirkman was a distinguished graduate and baseball manager at Monte Vista High School.

Jeff Evans

MEDIA RELATIONS, FIFTH YEAR

Jeff Evans is in his fifth year as the sports information director for the Arizona State baseball program. Evans also served as the press officer last summer for the USA Baseball National Team that won the gold medal in the 2004 FISU II World Baseball Championships in Tainan City, Taiwan.

Prior to arriving at ASU in 2000, Evans was the baseball sports information contact at Washington State University from 1998-2000. Evans is a 2000 graduate (cum laude) from WSU, where he attended the Edward R. Murrow School of Communication and received a degree in public relations. He is an active member in CoSIDA and the NCBWA. He has also served internships with the American Junior Golf Association (AJGA) and the Tacoma Rainiers. His baseball media guide in 2004 ranked in the top 10 in the nation. He is also the main media relations contact for volleyball and swimming and diving at Arizona State and helps with daily football duties. A native of Gig Harbor, Wash., Evans lettered in golf, swimming, water polo and baseball at Peninsula High School. He also played in the 1994 NABF World Series in Northville, Mich., and the 1995 CABA World Series in Euclid, Ohio.

ASU BASEBALL Q&A

Q: What is the philosophy behind playing what will most likely be the toughest schedule in the nation in 2005?

A: We feel that the Pac-10 is the toughest conference in the nation, and that is evidenced by the fact that five of the last 11 teams to play for the national title in college baseball have been Pac-10 teams. Therefore, our schedule has to match that difficulty for proper preparation for our conference and, hopefully, postseason schedule. We will play 28 games this year vs. teams that participated in the NCAA tourney in 2004. In order to be your best, you have to play the best. Last year we had the toughest rated non-conference schedule in the nation, and this year is no exception with three tough road trips to the East Coast.

Q: How have former Sun Devils made an impact in professional baseball?

A: The seasons that Barry Bonds had in the last four years winning the MVP award each year speak for themselves. Our entire program is tremendously proud of his accomplishments. Overall, we had seven former Sun Devils play in the major leagues in 2004 and another 50 in minor league baseball, and the great number of these players speaks volumes for the program and the level of player who is attracted to ASU. Jeff Duncan and Jon Switzer each made their MLB debuts in 2003, bringing the total number of former Devils to play in the pros to 79.

Q: How is recruiting affected by professional baseball?

A: Almost all of our recruits will be drafted each spring, and that makes it very difficult to maintain a strong recruiting class. As the signing bonuses in baseball continue to escalate, this will not get easier. However, we will continue to recruit the very best student-athletes in the nation, and we always anticipate that about half of these players will choose signing a professional baseball contract over playing college baseball. Therefore, after the draft has hit, our typical recruiting class of 20 players will then be reduced to 10 players who will actually matriculate at ASU. While this can be disappointing, we are always happy for these players as they chase their dream of playing major league baseball. Players like Jimmy Rollins, Dontrelle Willis, Prince Fielder, Ben Petrick and Andrew Good are prime examples of guys who committed to ASU for baseball but then signed professionally and are already in the big leagues. We are not only excited for their successes but also proud that they once chose ASU over other college baseball programs.

Q: What are the keys to recruiting quality student-athletes to the Sun Devil baseball program?

A: One of these keys is that our great tradition enables us to recruit the entire country and, for example, we were able to land players from 10 different states. Also, we are very interested in our recruits having outstanding personal character in addition to exceptional baseball talent. Thus, the kids in our program our first-class people, and they will always attract excellent student-athletes to our program. Our current players sell our program, and it is no surprise that our last three recruiting classes have been ranked amongst the highest in the nation.

Q: How does attendance at ASU baseball games compare to the rest of college baseball?

A: Out of the 283 schools playing baseball in 2004, attendance at Sun Devil baseball ranked No. 20 in the entire country and was second on the West Coast. Last year we averaged over 2,600 fans per game and had several games with over 3,000 fans. We consistently lead the Pac-10 and over the past five years have led the entire West Coast. Our baseball atmosphere here at ASU is outstanding, and our entire team really appreciates it and enjoys it.

Q: What are the unique graduation challenges for the Sun Devil baseball player?

A: Our players are eligible for the baseball draft after their junior year, and over the last 10 years, over 65 of our juniors have in fact been drafted. Since the year following a player's junior season is his best opportunity for bargaining leverage in the draft, this is the ideal time for these players to sign a professional contract. Thus, 85 percent of these juniors have signed professionally. Once a student-athlete enters minor league baseball, the logistics involved with taking classes and eventually graduating are quite challenging. We believe the key here is to stay on track to graduation in the student-athlete's first three years at ASU. Despite these inherent difficulties, we are extremely proud of the fact that 54 of our players have graduated in the last nine years. Also, ASU is among the leaders in all of college baseball in our number of first-team Academic All-Americans over the last six years.

Q: What have been the effects of the recent changes in college baseball?

A: The parity in college baseball is greater than it has ever been. Whereas 20 years ago, many of the top programs had 30 full scholarships to award, the current NCAA limit is 11.7 full scholarships for the entire program of 30-40 players. This has helped level the playing field in some ways, while at the same time increasing the importance of both financial aid that can be awarded at private institutions and individual state scholarship programs, as seen in such states as Louisiana and Georgia. Unfortunately, we at ASU are unable to take advantage of either of these opportunities, and this puts great stress on our limited scholarship dollars. In addition, the college baseball season has been pushed back by two weeks over the last five years, and this is helping cold-weather programs to even the gap with the warmer-climate programs, which are the traditional powers.

Q: What are the effects of the recent changes in the NCAA regional format?

A: Since the tourney has followed a trend of being regionalized, it will make it very difficult for West Coast teams. This is because the strength of college baseball is in the West, but there are far fewer teams there than in the East. So quality teams from the West will be matched up very early in the tournament. The key, then, to getting a quality draw in the tourney becomes hosting a regional. This has also been proved over time as the Sun Devils have only three trips to Omaha that occurred when not hosting a regional, compared to 15 trips to Omaha in years in which we did host a regional. Besides having a great season, the other key to being awarded a host regional site is having an outstanding facility. There is no doubt that the exciting renovations that are in progress for Packard Stadium will have an enormous impact on our program.

Q: What have been the keys to the Sun Devils' recent offensive successes?

A: We are very proud of the fact that we have led the nation in both batting average and runs scored in recent years. Those statistics, combined the NCAA record of 506 consecutive games without being shut out, are great indicators that our hitters are on the right track. The key to this type of offensive production is the concept of team offense. Our hitters have been very unselfish, and put the team goals ahead of their own. We feel this is why our offense has been so successful, because of a tremendous team attitude.

Q: What have been some of the accomplishments of some of ASU's players in the various summer leagues?

A: We feel that outstanding summer competition is critical to player development in our program. We typically send players to many different leagues across the nation, including the Cape Cod League and also the Alaskan Summer League. However, the highlight of our summer program has been the overwhelming number of our recent players who have been selected to play for the USA Baseball National Team. Travis Buck, Dustin Pedroia, Jeff Larish, Mike Esposito, Jon Switzer, Casey Myers and Willie Bloomquist have all played for Team USA in the last seven years. Buck helped Team USA win a gold medal last summer in the World University Baseball Games.

Q: What are some of the national and Pac-10 awards ASU players have won?

A: Arizona State is a constant among the national college baseball powers when it comes to awards and recognition. We are tied for first when it comes to winning the Golden Spikes Award, with Bob Horner, Oddibe McDowell and Mike Kelly winning the prestigious award. Since the Pac-10 joined the Northern and Southern Divisions in 1999, we have won four of the five Pac-10 Player of the Year Awards. Willie Bloomquist (1999), Casey Myers (2000, 2001) and Dustin Pedroia (2003) have all earned the top conference honor. Each year we also have a number of players earn All-America honors. Last year, Pedroia was named a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, Tuffy Gosewisch was a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Coach of the Year award and Jason Urquidez was on the Clemens Award Watch List.

Q: What kind of media coverage does Sun Devil Baseball get?

A: Each year between 5-10 baseball games are televised locally in the Phoenix area, along with a nationally televised game on Fox Sports. 35-40 games are also scheduled to be on the radio and over the internet. With several beat writers, is one of the leaders in college baseball when it comes to daily media coverage.

HOW TO FIGURE:

Batting Average Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at-bats. Example: Player A is 12-for-40, or hit .300.

Slugging Percentage Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at-bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for a total of 26 total bases in 40 at-bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

On-Base Percentage Divide the total of hits, all bases on balls and hit-by-pitch by the total of at-bats, all bases-on-balls, hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies.

OPS A new stat that that is a good estimate of offensive ability, add slugging percentage and on-base percentage to get the players OPS.

Earned Run Average The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Average The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. that's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 total chances for a fielding average of .952.

Magic Number Determine the number of games yet to be played by the division leader, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closet opponent.

Joe Persichina was mobbed by his teammates after he delivered the game-winning hit in the bottom of the ninth inning in a 10-9 win over Florida State in the second game of 2004. ASU trailed 9-7 with two outs and no one on base before staging the unbelievable comeback win.

RULES OF THE GAME

DON'T BE SIDELINED: ASK BEFORE YOU ACT

Arizona State University is strongly committed to conducting its overall athletic program according to the official rules and regulations of the NCAA and Pacific-10 Conference. Within the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, the Office of Compliance is responsible for coordinating and monitoring all aspects of these rules and regulations.

As an athletic representative of Arizona State University, you, too, must abide by all NCAA rules and regulations, as Arizona State University is held responsible for all actions related to its prospective student-athletes and/or enrolled student-athletes.

We thank you for your continued support in our effort to succeed both academically and athletically. While this information does not contain all the applicable NCAA rules and regulations, it should serve as a guide. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Jody Smith in the Office of Compliance at (480) 965-5943.

Jody Smith

Remember to always ask before you act, as your action may jeopardize the eligibility of a prospective or enrolled student-athlete.

SUN ANGEL FOUNDATION

The Sun Angel Foundation is a support group that has served Arizona State University since 1947. It was officially incorporated as a nonprofit agency for the purpose of promoting Sun Devil athletic programs, and recently came under the direction of Arizona State's intercollegiate athletic department.

The foundation seeks to join the energy and resources of business leaders, ASU alumni and members of the Valley community with the goals and objectives of Arizona State University to benefit the community at large. Over the past 58 years, Sun Angels have contributed over $70 million in private funding to ASU athletics.

Annual contributions from Sun Angel members are the lifeblood of ASU athletics. Contributions from more than 7,000 members support all of the university's 22 varsity teams and over 480 student-athletes.

The umbrella of the Sun Angel Foundation is large, and it includes specific clubs that strive to meet the needs of specific programs. The Wings of Gold (women's and Olympic sports), On Deck Circle (baseball) and Slam Dunk Club (basketball) are part of the Sun Angel Foundation, and donations to the Sun Angel Foundation can be earmarked for specific programs and purposes.

The support Sun Devil athletics has received from its fans and community in the past is greatly appreciated. The Sun Angel Foundation stands ready to meet its half-century-long goal of promoting excellence in both academic and athletic programs while becoming the best collegiate support group in the country. To join the team, call the Sun Angels today at (480) 727-7700 or visit www.TheSunDevils.com.

MICHAEL M. CROW

President

Michael M. Crow became the 16th president of Arizona State University on July 1, 2002. He is guiding the transformation of ASU into one of the nation's leading public metropolitan research universities, one that is directly engaged in the economic, social, and cultural vitality of its region. Under his direction the university pursues teaching, research, and creative excellence focused on the major intellectual questions of our time, as well as those central to the building of a sustainable environment and economy for Arizona. He has committed the university to global engagement, and to setting a new standard for public service.

Since he took office, ASU has marked a number of important milestones, including the establishment of the Arizona Biodesign Institute; the initiation of many new interdisciplinary research initiatives; the groundbreaking for new state-of-the-art research facilities; and the announcement of two $50 million gifts, endowing the W. P. Carey School of Business, and the Ira A. Fulton School of Engineering, and a $10 million gift to establish the Virginia G. Piper Center for Creative Writing.

Prior to joining ASU, he was executive vice provost of Columbia University, where he also was professor of science and technology policy in the School of International and Public Affairs. Dr. Crow oversaw Columbia's research enterprise, technology and innovation transfer operations, strategic initiative program, and interdisciplinary program development.

He played the lead role in the creation of the Columbia Earth Institute (CEI), and helped found the Center for Science, Policy and Outcomes (CSPO) in Washington, D.C., a think tank dedicated to linking science and technology to desired social, economic, and environmental outcomes.

He is the author of books and articles relating to the analysis of research organizations, technology transfer, science and technology policy, and the practice and theory of public policy.

GENE SMITH

Director of Athletics

Gene Smith was appointed as Arizona State University's 18th director of athletics on July 27, 2000. Smith arrived at ASU as no stranger to collegiate athletics with a wealth of experience as a Division IA athletic director with previous stints at Iowa State (1993-2000) and Eastern Michigan (1986-93).

Smith's credo? To create student-athlete success academically, athletically and socially.

In his first four years at Arizona State, Smith hit the ground running, starting his own legacy of success in Tempe. He has hired nationally regarded coaches in football, soccer, wrestling, women's golf, water polo and volleyball while directing each of ASU's 22-sports programs, many of which saw unprecedented competitive success the past three years. Smith also oversaw completion of a $30 million capital campaign, which in part funded the construction of the $19 million Ed and Nadine Carson Student-Athlete Center, completed in May, 2002. The state-of-the-art facility affords Arizona State one of the finest student-athlete centers in the country, including perhaps the premier weight room and sports rehabilitation area in the nation.

Smith, who was named the 2003 Division I West Region Athletics Director of the Year by NACDA, has created a winning environment, dedicated to building stronger programs and committed to providing student-athletes the opportunity to be successful academically, athletically and socially. Nearly 60 percent of the 480 Sun Devil student-athletes were Maroon & Gold Scholars in 2003-04, posting at least a one-semester grade-point average of 3.0 while more than 10 percent achieved a perfect 4.0 grade-point. The graduation rate hit a school record, improving 11 percentage points over the highest previous mark and 13 percent higher than the university average.

Smith has a long history of national leadership and service. Since arriving at ASU, Smith has been appointed to the NCAA Infractions Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the NCAA Administrative Review Committee and the BCS Athletic Director's Advisory Committee. Smith is a member of the Tempe Convention and Visitor's Bureau Board of Directors and the Maricopa County Sports Authority Board of Directors. He also serves on the Fiesta Bowl Board in Tempe. Smith is currently vice president of the Pacific-10 Conference Executive Committee, chair of the Pac-10 Football officiating Committee and a member of the Pac-10 Selection, Athletics Directors' Revenue Sharing, Rose Bowl Management and Bowl (Ad Hoc) committees.

Smith's strong reputation among his peers was affirmed in June, 1994 when the Notre Dame graduate was named president of NACDA. In 1991, Smith was appointed to a four-year term on NACDA's 32-member executive committee. In 1992, he was elected third vice president of NACDA and was named to the Division 1-A Executive Committee. He was elected First Vice President of NACDA in 1993. Smith has also served on the NCAA President's Commission Liaison Committee, the NCAA Executive Committee, the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee and the NCAA Working Committee to Study Basketball Issues. He was appointed to the NCAA's Management Council in May of 1996 and continues to serve on that committee.

Prior to his arrival at Iowa State, Smith served as athletic director at Eastern Michigan University for seven years. Smith joined the EMU staff in 1983 as assistant athletic director for non-revenue sports. He was named interim executive athletic director in 1985 and was elevated to the position permanently on June 25, 1986.

Smith earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Notre Dame in 1977. He earned three varsity football letters as a defensive end at Notre Dame and was a member of the Associated Press 1973 national championship team.

Smith also served as an assistant football coach at Notre Dame from 1977-81, helping to guide the squad to its 1977 undisputed national championship. He then spent two years as a marketing representative for IBM prior to joining the Eastern Michigan staff in April 1983.

Gene and his wife, Sheila, have four children: Matt, Nicole, Lindsey, and Summer, and two grandchildren: Marshall and Steele. Sheila, a 1976 Canadian Olympian in basketball, holds a doctorate in Higher Education Administration and currently serves as Senior Vice President for the ASU Foundation, Deputy Vice President for Development and Special Advisor to the ASU President.

Starting pitcher Jason Urquidez led the Pac-10 with 12 wins and was named first-team all-league.

wins are the most by an ASU starter since Marc Barcelo won 13 in 1993... freshman two-way player Zechry Zinicola was named a freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball, keeping a string alive of at least one freshman All-American for ASU in each of Pat Murphy's 10 seasons at ASU... Zinicola hit .280 (28-for-100) with three home runs and 26 RBI at the plate and led the pitching staff with a 4-2 record and a 3.36 ERA on the mound... he made 25 pitching appearances, including four starts, and struck out 57 in 56.1 IP... finished third in the Pac-10 with eight saves, ranking second in the tied for first in the ASU freshman record books... freshman RHP Pat Bresnehan also had five saves to rank fourth in the ASU freshman annals... ASU's 20 saves led the Pac-10 and tied for the third most in school history (most since 22 in 1990)... 17 of the 20 saves were recorded by true freshman... ASU took four of five games from rival Arizona, including winning both non-conference games in Tempe and taking two of three in the conference series in Tucson... ASU has now won 34 of 50 games (.680) against Arizona since 1995 and has won 16 of the last 20 dating back to 2000.

PEDROIA ENDS BANNER CAREER

Arizona State All-American shortstop Dustin Pedroia (Woodland, Calif.) was named a finalist for the prestigious Golden Spikes Award and became only the fourth player in ASU history to earn three consecutive First-Team All-Pac-10 awards. Pedroia finished second in the Pac-10 hitting .393 (96-for-244) with 24 doubles, 78 runs scored, nine home runs and 49 RBI. He also had a .502 on-base percentage and a .611 slugging percentage. He led ASU with 30 multi-hit games and hit safely in 48 of ASU's 59 games in 2004. He ended his career with 98 multi-hit games and hit safely in 155 of 185 career games. Pedroia put together an unbelievable "Ironman" streak by starting in all 185 games of his ASU career and ranks seventh with a .384 career batting average. He fell just two hits shy of reaching 300 for his career, but still ranks fourth with 298 career hits and third with 71 doubles.

LEADING THE PAC-10

For the fifth time in the last six seasons, Arizona State again led the Pac-10 in hitting with a .325 team batting average. The Sun

Devils also ranked third in the league with a 4.71 ERA and were second with a .973 fielding percentage. Junior All-Pac-10 shortstop Dustin Pedroia ranked second in the conference in batting (.393), fourth in slugging (.611) and led the league with 78 runs scored and 96 hits. Junior starting pitcher Jason Urquidez ranked third with a 3.41 ERA and freshman closer Zechry Zinicola was third with eight saves. A total of 14 Sun Devils, including first-team selections Dustin Pedroia, Travis Buck and Jason Urquidez, earned all-conference honors.

ASU LANDS NATIONAL NO. 7 SEED

Largely due to a demanding non-conference schedule that the Sun Devils handled with a 27-5 record and a high RPI, ASU was one of eight teams to earn a national seed in the 2004 NCAA Tournament. The Devils landed the No. 7 seed, meaning should they advance through the Fullerton Regional, they would host a Super Regional against the Mississippi Regional (Ole Miss, Washington, Tulane, Western Kentucky) winner at Packard Stadium (June 11-13). ASU also earned a national seed in 2000. Texas grabbed the No. 1 national seed, followed by South Carolina, Miami (Fla.), Georgia Tech, Stanford, Rice, ASU and Arkansas. The Sun Devils have made 28 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and have advanced to the postseason in seven of their last eight seasons.

URQUIDEZ DOMINATES ON THE MOUND

Junior right-handed pitcher Jason Urquidez led the Pac-10 and ranked 10th in the nation with 12 wins. In his rookie season with ASU, Urquidez went 12-3 with a 3.41 ERA. The first-team All-Pac-10 selection also ranked third in ERA (3.41), sixth in strikeouts (94) and sixth in opposing batting average (.251). The Clemens Award candidate was named the National Pitcher of the Week after he beat No. 1 Rice in a complete-game effort (Feb. 22). He was drafted in the 11th round (318 overall) by the Cincinnati Reds.

A TALE OF TWO SUNDAYS

From one Sunday to another, the Arizona State baseball program was the buzz of the college baseball world in 2004. On Sunday, Feb. 15, the Devils saw their NCAA record 506 consecutive games scoring streak come to an end in a 6-0 shutout by the University of Oklahoma at Surprise Stadium in Surprise, Ariz. The streak spanned parts of nine seasons dating back to April 7, 1995 and blew away the old record of 349 set by Coastal Carolina. Just one week later, on Feb. 22, the Devils stunned No. 1 Rice in a 3-1 victory at Reckling Park, ending an 18-game winning streak by ace pitcher Jeff Niemann. Niemann, regarded as the top-pitching prospect in the nation, had not lost a decision dating back to the end of the 2002 season, including a 17-0 record as a sophomore. ASU pitcher Jason Urquidez was named the National Pitcher of the Week for his complete-game, three-hit victory over the defending national champion Owls.

FRESHMEN SAVE THE DAY

Arizona State led the Pac-10 with 20 saves during the 2004 season. The 20 saves are tied for third most in ASU history. Additionally, 17 of the 20 saves were recorded by freshman pitchers, with closer Zechry Zinicola leading the way with eight saves. Zinicola, who went 4-2 with a 3.36 ERA in 25 games, tied the Arizona State freshman record. Freshman RHP Pat Bresnehan also had five saves to rank fourth in the ASU freshman annals. Erik Averill (2), Quentin Andes (2), Josh Blake (1), Pat Cassa (1) and Brett Bordes (1) each notched a save during the '04 campaign.

BUCK LEADS TEAM USA TO GOLD

Arizona State outfielder Travis Buck completed a successful summer with the USA Baseball National Team by winning a gold medal in the FISU II World University Baseball Championship. Buck (Richland, Wash.) finished second on the team hitting .412 (28-for-68) with 17 runs scored, two doubles, one triple, two home runs and 14 RBI. He led the team with 14 walks and had a .512 on-base percentage. Buck also recorded six multi-hit games and was a consistent force at the plate recording at least one hit in 19 of 23 games. During the FISU II World University Baseball Championship in Tainan City, Taiwan, Buck hit .400 (10-for-25) while leading Team USA a perfect 8-0 record. Team USA went 6-0 in pool play and defeated host Chinese Taipei (5-2) and Japan (4-2) to capture the gold medal.

BUCK LEADS TEAM IN POWER/PRODUCTION

Travis Buck led the Sun Devils in two of the three Triple Crown categories, including home runs (9) and RBI (58) while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors. The sophomore outfielder hit .373 (84-for-225) with 64 runs scored, 16 doubles and led the team with 13 stolen bases. He tied the ASU record with four doubles against UCONN (2/28) and became the 16th player in Pac-10 history to earn back-to-back conference player of the week honors.

Infielder Joe Persichina had an outstanding freshman season hitting .320. He was one of 14 newcomers to see consistent action for the Sun Devils in 2004.

Bold = Played in MLB in 2004

DID YOU KNOW?

- > Jon Switzer and Jeff Duncan made their MLB debuts during the 2003, becoming the 79th and 80th Sun Devils to play in a major league uniform.
- > ASU ranks 8th for supplying players to the USA Baseball National Team. Travis Buck became ASU's 11th all-time selection to the USA Baseball National Team and won a gold medal in the FISU World University Games.

- > Coach Pat Murphy has coached 20 freshman All-Americans in the past 15 years.
- > ASU has been ranked in 97 consecutive polls dating back to the start of the 2000 season, including 53 weeks in the top 10.
- > Arizona State leads all NCAA baseball programs with 78 draft picks over the last 10 years. ASU has had a total of 330 draft picks, including 21 first-rounders since the inception of the MLB Amateur Draft in 1965.

- > During his first years at ASU, Pat Murphy founded the Guadalupe After School Program, an organization that presents a message of positive life skills using baseball as its vehicle for the youth of Guadalupe.
- > Four Arizona State players have been honored as Academic All-Americans in the last five years, including Casey Myers, who was the Academic All-American of the Year in 2000 and 2001.

THE DEVILS AND THE DRAFT

No school has played a bigger role in Major League Baseball's amateur free agent draft than Arizona State University.

Since the inception of the draft in 1965, ASU has had more players chosen (332), more first-round selections (21) and more No. 1 picks (3) than any other school in the nation.

During the Pat Murphy era (1995-P), 78 players have been selected during the draft, averaging nearly eight players per draft since Murphy took over the program.

A modern-record 12 players were selected in the 2003 draft, most among all college baseball programs in the nation. The number of draft picks from ASU do not even reflect the recruited players who were drafted out of high school. Currently, there are 11 players on the 2005 roster who have been previously drafted, including senior pitcher Jason Urquidez, who has been selected two times in the last three years. ASU is only one of six schools in the nation (Alabama, Florida, LSU, Oklahoma State, Texas) to have five players active in 2005 that were selected in the 2004 MLB Draft.

That's a marvelous testimony to Arizona State's reputation among major league scouts and top baseball executives. It also makes quite a statement about the school's tradition and its amazing consistency.

In 1990 and most recently in 2003, the staff of Baseball America compiled a pair of books on the history of the draft, complete with trends, lists and features, along with the names (all 45,000 of them) of every player drafted since '65.

Naturally, Arizona State and its alumni received plenty of coverage in the publication. The information on this page was taken from that book, The Baseball Draft: The First 25 Years.

Not surprisingly, the first player ever drafted was from ASU—Rick Monday, who went to Charles O. Finley and the Kansas City A's as the No. 1 overall pick in 1965.

Names like Jackson, Bane, Bannister, Horner, Bonds and Kelly—just to name a few—have produced their own fascinating draft stories. Without question, many more will follow.

Here's a sampling of news, notes and numbers, as they relate to the Devils and the Draft:

- A total of 330 Arizona State players have been drafted since the inception of the MLB Draft in 1965. No other school comes even close to that number.

- The Sun Devils' three No. 1 overall picks were Rick Monday (1965 to Kansas City), Floyd Bannister (1976 to Houston) and Bob Horner (1978 to Atlanta). No other school has more than one No. 1 selection. Mike Kelly narrowly missed joining this elite club, as he was chosen second by the Atlanta Braves in 1991.

- In 1976, Arizona State had a record 13 players drafted. They included Bannister, Horner, Ken Landreaux, Ken Phelps, Chris Bando and Ricky Peters. Of the 27 players on the roster, 26 were drafted at some point in their careers. A whopping 13 of them would eventually reach the big leagues. Baseball America says "it may have been the greatest collection of college talent ever assembled."

- Only 19 drafted players have ever gone directly to the major leagues. Two were Sun Devils: Bane in '73 and Horner in '78. Horner, Dave Winfield and current Seattle Mariners John Olerud are the only three to have never played in the minor leagues.

- Louie Medina, who played at Arizona State in 1984 and '85, was drafted a total of seven times, beginning in 1981. That makes him one of six players who share the all-time lead for number of selections.

- Here's an impressive partial list of players who originally signed national letters of intent with Arizona State but never made it to the Tempe campus, instead opting for the draft's signing bonus: Jim Palmer, Dontrelle Willis, Andrew Good, Dale Murphy, Robin Yount, Lee Mazzilli, Billy Hatcher, Jeff Burroughs, Warren Cromartie, Gary Templeton, Rick Sutcliffe, Ryan Klesko, Kerry Woodson, Lenny Dykstra, Johnny LeMaster, J.D. Durbin, Duane Ward, Mike Jones, Prince Fielder, Dale Sveum, Paul Konerko, Ben Petrick and current Philadelphia Phillies All-Star shortstop Jimmy Rollins.

ASU AND THE DRAFT THE PAT MURPHY ERA

IMPROVING YOUR DRAFT STATUS AT ASU:

Did you know that since 1995, Arizona State has had 78 players selected during the annual June Amateur Draft. ASU is one of the top collegiate programs in the nation for producing an average of nearly eight draft picks a year since the inception of the draft in 1965. In addition, since 1995 when Murphy took over the program, 30 of the 78 drafted players were previously undrafted out of high school or junior college and all but two players improved their draft status. Under the two circumstances in which the player fell in the draft, arm injuries to Phill Lowery and Mike Esposito caused their draft status to slip. After the 2002 season, Esposito signed for second-round money ($750,000) despite being a 12th round draft pick. Another interesting fact is that 13 players have gone from previously being undrafted to being selected in the top 10 picks (see list to right). The 2004 draft class saw six Devils get their name called, including second-rounder Dustin Pedroia (Boston Red Sox). The three-time All-Pac-10 selection and two-time All-American went from being undrafted out of high school to the No. 65 overall selection as Boston's first pick of the draft. Every player that was drafted last season, including RHP Jeff Mousser who was previously undrafted, drastically improved their draft status.

BARRY BONDS

LINK TO THE LEGACY

With an all-time Major League Baseball record of 73 home runs in his unbelievable 2001 season, former Sun Devil Barry Bonds might have thought that things couldn't get any better. But somehow the 13-time All-Star equally made an impression on the all-time record books. Bonds won his record seventh National League MVP award—and his fourth in a row—with another great season in 2004. Bonds hit 45 home runs in 2004, including hitting milestone homer No. 700 for his career. He hit .362 to win his second NL batting title in the last three seasons and shattered the major league record with a .609 on-base percentage, topping the previous mark of .582 he set two years ago. Bonds also walked 232 times to set a MLB record and his 120 intentional walks obliterated the old mark of 68. He has a career .300 batting average with 2,730 career hits in 2,716 career games. He ranks first among active players in RBI (1843), walks (2302), extra base hits (1343), runs (2070) and on-base percentage (.443). His 703 career home runs are third most all time and only 11 short of matching Babe Ruth. Bonds was a two-time All-American at Arizona State from 1983 to 1985, hitting .347 with 42 doubles and 45 home runs in his ASU career. He still holds the College World Series record with hits in seven consecutive at-bats.

WILLIE BLOOMQUIST

LINK TO THE LEGACY

For former Sun Devil All-American Willie Bloomquist recently completed his third season as a big leaguer. He made his MLB debut in 2002 after battling a bad back and a strange case of vertigo in the first half of the season with Triple-A Tacoma. But then he caught fire at the plate to finish the year with a .270 average with six home runs, and earned his first September call-up. After not playing for the first few weeks, he exploded into the MLB scene by going 15-for-33 while playing infield and outfield. His late-season hitting surge included a pair of four-hit games and one three-hit contest. Bloomquist played the entire 2003 season with the Mariners as a utility player, hitting .250 with seven doubles and 14 RBI. He hit his first career home run with a grand slam against the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. Bloomquist spent much of the 2004 season as a utility player, seeing playing time at six different positions (1B, 2B, 3B, SS, LF, CF). He hit .245 with 10 doubles, two home runs and 13 stolen bases. The former standout at Arizona State from 1997-99 put up amazing numbers during his Sun Devil career, capping it by being named the Pac-10 Player of the Year in 1999. He hit .394 in his ASU career, with 42 doubles, 22 triples and 15 home runs. Leaving after his junior year after being drafted in the third round by the Seattle Mariners, Bloomquist spent just part of four seasons in the minor leagues before making his MLB debut at the end of the 2002 season. Bloomquist is a native of Port Orchard, Wash., and was a prep star at South Kitsap High School.

PAUL LO DUCA

LINK TO THE LEGACY

After eight years in the minor leagues, former Sun Devil Paul Lo Duca finally got his chance to be a starter in a major league uniform...and the wait was worth it. Lo Duca had performed at every level of the Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system after being taken in the 25th round of the 1993 draft. Hitting over .300 in eight of his nine professional seasons, Lo Duca exploded onto the MLB scene in 2001 with the Dodgers. Playing in 125 games, Lo Duca led the team with a .320 batting average, including 147 hits, 28 doubles, 25 home runs and 90 RBI. Lo Duca was also very versatile in 2001, playing four different positions (C, 1B, LF, RF) and hitting in six different spots in the lineup. He added another good year in 2003, with a .273 batting average, seven home runs and was named to the National League All-Star team.

He made his second straight All-Star game appearances in 2004. Lo Duca was traded from the Dodgers to the Florida Marlins midway through the '04 season and combined to hit .286 with 13 home runs and 80 RBI. He has played in parts of seven major league seasons and is a .285 career hitter in 640 career games. Playing only one year at Arizona State, Lo Duca was named The Sporting News Player of the Year in 1993, setting school records with a .446 batting average and 129 hits. He was also named a finalist for the prestigious Golden Spikes Award. His 37-game hitting streak in 1993 remains the second longest in school history. He is one of only 11 players to hit over .400 and record 100 hits in the same season.

DUSTIN PEDROIA

LINK TO THE LEGACY

Dustin Pedroia came into the Sun Devil program in 2002 with expectations of becoming one of the best to ever wear the Maroon and Gold. Three years later and three team MVP awards later, Pedroia put an end to a career that will forever be remembered as one of the best in school history. The 5-9 shortstop practically rewrote the Arizona State record books, recording a career .384 batting average (7th best in ASU history), 71 career doubles (3rd), 298 hits (4th), 212 runs scored (6th) and 423 total bases (9th). He did all that while starting in every game during his Sun Devil career (185 games). While Pedroia made an impact at the plate, it will be his fielding that fans most remember him by. A two-time National Defensive Player of the Year, Pedroia had a career .972 fielding percentage with only 23 errors in 819 total chances. He was a two-year starter for the USA Baseball National Team, a three-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection, a finalist for the 2004 Golden Spikes Award and helped lead the Sun Devils to the NCAA regionals in each of his three years. Pedroia put together one of the best individual efforts in ASU history in 2003 when he hit .404 with an ASU and Pac-10 single-season record 34 doubles. He was named the Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year and a first-team All-American. After hitting .393 with 24 doubles and nine home runs during junior season, he was selected in the second round (65th overall) of the 2004 MLB Amateur Draft by the Boston Red Sox. He made his professional debut in the summer of 2004 split between Single-A Augusta and Sarasota in the Red Sox minor league system. In 42 games split between the two teams, Pedroia combined to hit .357 (56-for-157) with 13 doubles, three home runs and 19 RBI. He did not make an error in 42 starts at shortstop. Following the minor league season, Pedroia headed back to the Valley to play for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League. Combined between college, the minors and the Arizona Fall League, Pedroia played in 117 games in 2004 and combined to hit .367 (167-for-455).

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 1965

ASU VS. LAFAYETTE—JUNE 7

ASU entered the tourney ranked first in the final national poll prior to the CWS, and lived up to the billing. The Devils blasted three Lafayette pitchers for a 14-1 win. Top Sun Devil sluggers included starting pitcher John Pavlik (2-for-3, 1 RBI), Sal Bando (3-for-5 with a double, a homer and 3 RBI), Jim Armstrong (3-for-4, 2 RBI and 3 runs scored) and Glenn Smith, with a 3-for-4 performance. Pavlik limited Lafayette to just three singles in getting the win, and was helped by Alan Schmelz in the ninth. Pavlik had a no-hitter for six innings before a run scored on three singles in the seventh.

ASU VS. ST. LOUIS—JUNE 8

Arizona State blasted open a close game in the fifth inning on a Duffy Dyer two-run homer to left, and eventually rode to a 13-3 demolition of the Billikens. Doug Nurnberg was the winner after relieving Ron Lea. Nurnberg came on in the fourth and struck out six in four and one-third innings before giving way to Al Schmelz in the ninth. Leading Devil hitters were Sal Bando with three hits in five trips, five RBI and three runs scored; Dyer, who was 3-for-6 with two RBI; and Glenn Smith, who was 2-for-4 with four runs scored.

ASU VS. OHIO STATE—JUNE 9

The Sun Devils scored six runs in the first inning en route to a 9-4 triumph over the Buckeyes. Jim Armstrong drove in two runs on a single, Rick Monday and Sal Bando posted run-scoring singles, and two OSU errors provided opportunities for another two A-State runs. Monday homered in the second, and Luis Lagunas doubled in two runs in the ninth to complete ASU's scoring. The Buckeyes never came close, despite scoring three times in the eighth off winning pitcher Jim Merrick.

ASU VS. ST. LOUIS—JUNE 10

The Devils won a 6-2 decision over the Billikens, as John Pavlik went eight and one-third innings for the win. Relief help from Doug Nurnberg locked up the Devils' victory. The Devils scored two in the first frame on a single by Luis Lagunas that drove in Jim Gretta, while Sal Bando scored on an error. Three runs in the third frame locked it up for ASU, as Lagunas' single drove in Rick Monday and Bando again scored on an error. Jan Kleinman followed with a single to drive in Lagunas. Kleinman was 3-for-4 with one RBI, Lagunas was 2-for-3 and drove in two runs, and Gretta was 2-for-4 with an RBI and three stolen bases.

ASU VS. OHIO STATE—JUNE 11

The "Sun Devil Express" to the school's first national championship suffered a temporary setback as Ohio State took a 7-3 decision. Ohio State moved to a 4-1 lead after four and scored a pair of runs in the fifth that all but put the game away. Devils starter Ron Lea was relieved in the fifth by Al Schmelz, while OSU starter John Durant went the distance and retired seven of the last eight men he faced. Ray Stadler was the top ASU man at the plate, with three RBI.

ASU VS. OHIO STATE—JUNE 12

Arizona State won its first national baseball crown in a 2-1 thriller over Ohio State. Sophomore reliever Doug Nurnberg was the man of the hour for the Devils, as he pitched his way out of a bases-loaded, no-out situation in the seventh, then stranded two runners in the top of the ninth. Nurnberg relieved starter Jim Merrick and came through with three innings of hitless ball while striking out four. ASU took the lead on a homer by Rick Monday in the first frame. What proved to be the winning run came for ASU after Sal Bando tripled in the sixth and then scored on Luis Lagunas' fly out to center. The championship victory was ASU's 54th win in the 62-game season, a national record at that time.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 1967

ASU VS. OKLAHOMA STATE—JUNE 12

Arizona State defeated Oklahoma State by a 7-2 margin, using a five-run seventh frame and the superb pitching of Gary Gentry to forge the win. The Devils fell behind, 2-0, in the top half of the first, but rebounded with a solo homer by Scott Reid in the third and an RBI triple by Jack Lind that scored Dave Grangaard in the fourth to tie the score. In the seventh, the Devils' main artillery was a three-run homer by Scott Reid. Gentry struck out at least one man every inning. From the fifth inning on, he did not allow a base runner and struck out seven.

ASU VS. BOSTON COLLEGE—JUNE 13

ASU turned in an 8-1 win over Boston College on the power of a four-hit performance by starting pitcher Tom Burgess. Burgess also provided some offense for the Devils, as he drove in three runs, including the winning run on his sacrifice fly in the second inning. Larry Linville went 3-for-4 to lead ASU at the plate, while Ron Davini was 2-for-3.

ASU VS. STANFORD—JUNE 14

Unheralded sophomore hurler Larry Gura led ASU to a 5-3 win over No. 1-ranked Stanford. Gura came on in relief of starter Jeff Pentland after Stanford scored three runs in the first and then had runners on first and second in the top of the second inning. Gura came in and surrendered a single to load the bases before he calmly retired the side. From that point on, only four Stanford hitters reached first and none went farther. ASU scored on a single by Dave Grangaard and a double by Larry Linville, followed by Ron Davini's two-run double in the second frame. The Devils tied the score in the fifth on Scott Reid's run-scoring double. Moments later, Grangaard singled home Fred Nelson and Reid for the final margin of victory.

ASU VS. HOUSTON—JUNE 16

The Sun Devils dropped a 3-0 decision to Houston, as ASU managed only four hits off Cougar starter Rick Brewer. Jeff Pentland went the distance for ASU, allowing just six hits while walking one and striking out 11. ASU had scoring opportunities in the third and seventh frames but was unable to capitalize. Tom Paciorek doubled to lead off the Houston second, and then scored on Ken Herbert's single. Paciorek tripled home G.J. Cantu in the fourth and scored when Herbert singled.

ASU VS. STANFORD—JUNE 17

Following ASU's loss to Houston, three teams remained in the CWS, each with one defeat. Houston drew a bye into the finals, and ASU and Stanford fought for the right to move to the final game against Houston. What resulted was a classic battle of two evenly matched squads, as ASU and Stanford struggled 14 innings before A-State won a 4-3 decision. ASU starter Gary Gentry and Stanford starter Rod Poteete locked horns in a pitcher's duel that lasted over three and one-half hours. Gentry allowed nine hits, walked six, struck out 15 and allowed no Stanford runners past first base after the sixth inning. Gentry was the man who eventually scored the winning run, after singling in the 14th frame. One out later, Scott Reid sent a fly ball deep to center that Stanford center fielder Jeff Rohlfing misjudged and was unable to recover and field. Reid's hit dropped in and Stanford dropped out of the tournament.

ASU VS. HOUSTON—JUNE 18

ASU won its second NCAA championship in three years, with an 11-2 drubbing of Houston in the CWS finale. ASU starter Tom Burgess allowed 12 hits and four walks but struck out 15 men, including three whiffs of Cougar All-America Tom Paciorek for the Devils win. The Sun Devils went on top with three runs in the top of the first and never looked back, as four Houston hurlers tried to stem the Devils tide. Larry Linville, Scott Reid and Ralph Carpenter each collected a pair of RBI for the Devils, with Reid going 2-for-3 and scoring four runs. ASU catcher Ron Davini was named Outstanding Player of the CWS with a .409 series batting average.

ASU VS. TEXAS—JUNE 13

Longhorn freshman pitcher Burt Hooten limited ASU to only three hits in this 4-0 ASU loss. A third-inning single by Terry Brenner, a fifth-inning single by Roger Detter and a sixth-inning single by Ralph Dick were the only Sun Devil offensive efforts. Sun Devil starter Larry Gura was still suffering the effects from a battle with the flu, and surrendered 10 hits before exiting in the seventh inning. Jim Crawford and Ken Hansen were the A-State relievers.

ASU VS. UCLA—JUNE 14

Clutch pitching by Lerrin LaGrow and a costly Bruin error brought ASU a 2-1 win in 11 innings. With one out in the 11th, John Dolinsek singled to center and Paul Ray Powell was hit by a pitch. Billy Cotton followed with a ground ball to the mound, but UCLA pitcher Jim York threw wild into center, which allowed the winning Sun Devil run. LaGrow recorded four strikeouts while issuing just two walks and six hits.

ASU VS. MASSACHUSETTS—JUNE 17

Freshman pitcher Craig Swan won this one for the Devils, as ASU took a 4-2 win. Massachusetts had only five hits off Swan in six and two-thirds innings. Arizona State won the game by virtue of a big fifth inning, with five hits during that frame that powered all four ASU runs. The big hits in that inning were Roger Detter's RBI triple to left center, and Ralph Dick's single that sent Detter on to score. John Dolinsek and Paul Ray Powell then each hammered triples to drive in the other Sun Devil runs. Larry Gura relieved Swan in the seventh with two outs and runners at first and second, but quelled that potential rally in short order.

ASU VS. TULSA—JUNE 18

The Sun Devils' offensive punch was revived for this game, as ASU waltzed to an 11-3 win over the tourney's only undefeated team. Ken Hansen started for the Devils and gave way to Larry Gura in the fifth inning, and Gura came from the bullpen for the second time in as many games to record the win. Home runs by Paul Ray Powell (sixth, one on) and John Dolinsek (eighth, none on), as well as a pair of RBI each for Billy Cotton and Jeff Osborn were the keys in the A-State hitting attack. Dolinsek totaled three RBI for the day.

ASU VS. NYU—JUNE 19

The hitting and pitching of Lerrin LaGrow made the difference for the Devils, as ASU turned back NYU by a 4-1 score. Trailing, 1-0, in the bottom of the sixth, LaGrow singled in Jeff Osborn and Lenny Randle to give ASU the lead. Roger Detter's sacrifice fly then scored Jack Collinge for an insurance run. LaGrow allowed five hits, walked four, struck out nine and went 3-for-4 with two RBI.

ASU VS. TULSA—JUNE 20

A 10-1 victory over Tulsa brought ASU its third NCAA national championship in five years, as the pitching of Larry Gura and the strong hitting of virtually the entire lineup powered the win. Gura allowed only six hits, struck out 10 and did not issue a walk, while the Devils kept Tulsa pitching busy by banging out 11 hits. Billy Cotton and John Dolinsek, voted the tourney's outstanding player, both slammed home runs. Cotton's blast was a three-run shot in the fifth, while Dolinsek's was good for a pair of runs in the following frame. Gura's victory was his second of the tournament, as he concluded the year with a 19-2 record. ASU's Paul Ray Powell had three hits in the championship game to boost his season total to 89 base hits—good for an NCAA record at that time.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 1977

ASU VS. CLEMSON—JUNE 10

Sun Devil bats blistered Clemson early, and ASU then hung on for a 10-7 win. The Devils knocked undefeated Clemson hurler Ron Musselman out of the game early with one run in the first and a three-run third inning. In the fifth, Jamie Allen led off with a homer and Steve Michael doubled in a run to give ASU a 6-0 lead, but ASU starter Jerry Vasquez faltered and allowed the Tigers five runs in the bottom of the inning. ASU rebounded with four runs in the sixth on Chris Nyman's leadoff homer, a two-run single by Bob Horner and Michael's run-scoring infield single. Mitch Dean took the win in relief, but not without the help of Jamie Allen, who came on to retire Clemson in the ninth.

ASU VS. SOUTHERN ILLINOIS—JUNE 13

ASU missed too many scoring opportunities and fell to SIU, 3-2. ASU outhit the Salukis, 11-4, but the Devils left 11 men on base, seven of whom who were in scoring position. A two-out single by Chris Bando in the first and a homer by Bob Horner in the fifth were the only Devil scores of the game. SIU's Neil Fiala tripled in one run and Jerry Disimone's single scored the second SIU run of the third frame. The winning run scored in the fifth when Fiala singled home Steve Stieb.

ASU VS. MINNESOTA—JUNE 14

ASU starter Jerry Vasquez got off to a shaky start but came back strong to lead the Devils to an 8-4 victory. Vasquez surrendered two runs in the first inning and an unearned run in the third, but during the final six innings, he allowed only two hits. The Devils took the lead in the second on an RBI single by Steve Michael, then Mike Henderson delivered a two-run single. Solo homers by Brandt Humphrey and Bob Horner were the other major portions of the Sun Devil offense.

ASU VS. SOUTH CAROLINA—JUNE 16

An electrifying relief pitching performance by Jamie Allen and some clutch hitting earned ASU a 6-2 win over South Carolina. A walk to Allen forced in one Devil run in the fifth, and Bob Horner followed with a two-run single. Allen came on in the seventh to relieve ASU starter Mitch Dean, and Allen's antics on the mound became one of the Series' highlights. Allen captivated the crowd by jumping high into the air after each strike pitched, while a ball would produce a crouch or a lengthy glare at the opposing batter. Enthusiasm was the likeliest reason for Allen's exhibitions, but performance was the key to his superb relief pitching. After stranding three Gamecock runners in the seventh, Allen retired the side in order in the final two frames, with a pair of strikeouts in the eighth and one in the ninth.

ASU VS. SOUTHERN ILLINOIS—JUNE 17

ASU avenged the earlier CWS loss to Southern Illinois with a 10-0 lambasting of the Salukis. ASU totaled 19 hits during its barrage on SIU pitchers, including 13 hits off Saluki starter Dewey Robinson in the first four innings. ASU starter Darrell Jackson performed to the other extreme, allowing just three singles and only one Saluki runner to progress as far as third base. Main contributors to the Devil offense were Brandt Humphry, with four hits (three RBI with one homer), Chris Nyman (two RBI), and Bob Horner and Jamie Allen, who each had two RBI. The Devils came up just two hits short of the CWS record.

ASU VS. SOUTH CAROLINA—JUNE 18

Arizona State earned its fourth NCAA championship with a superbly played 2-1 victory over a feisty South Carolina squad. The Devils went ahead early when Rick Peters scored after Mike Henderson singled. South Carolina countered with a solo homer by Steve King in the seventh to knot the score and provide a dramatic background for the eventual Devil victory. In the Sun Devil half of the inning, catcher Chris Bando rocked a one-out homer to right to provide the Devils with the winning margin. ASU starter Jerry Vasquez capped one of the most memorable years ever for a Devil pitcher with this victory—Vasquez went the distance for his 12th win of the year after joining the Devils earlier in the season as a walk-on player. ASU's Bob Horner was the MVP of the series, hitting .444 with two homers and nine RBI. The win boosted the Sun Devils' final season record to 57-12.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 1981

ASU VS. TEXAS—MAY 30

The Sun Devils' explosive offense scored early and often as ASU defeated Texas, 11-2, on the first day of competition. Left fielder Stan Holmes went a perfect 5-for-5 with six RBI and three runs scored as Arizona State scored in six of the nine innings played. First baseman Alvin Davis chipped in a 4-for-5 effort as well. A-State starter Kendall Carter pitched five and two-thirds innings of five-hit ball, allowing only two unearned runs in the fifth to pick up the win. Kevin Dukes came in and shut the Longhorns down over the next 3.1 innings, recording six strikeouts.

ASU VS. MISSISSIPPI STATE—JUNE 2

Behind the superb pitching of reliever Kevin Dukes, ASU held on to beat Mississippi State, 4-3, before a crowd of 10,589. Although the Devils jumped on the board first with a run in the second, the Bulldogs countered with three runs in the third to chase starting pitcher Randy Newman from the mound. Newman ended the night allowing five hits in 2.2 innings with five strikeouts and no walks. ASU would score three runs in the fourth to seal the win. Designated hitter Ricky Nelson went 2-for-4 with a run scored, while second baseman Kert Martinez went 1-for-3 with two RBI. Reliever Kevin Dukes pitched 6.1 innings of shutout ball to pick up the win on the mound.

ASU VS. OKLAHOMA STATE—JUNE 5

The Sun Devil bats were alive and well in ASU's third game of the CWS but fell just short in an 11-10 marathon loss to the Cowboys. It took the two teams 13 innings of play to decide a winner in this five-hour game. A record crowd of 15,333 was on hand to watch the thrilling game. With the score 10-7 in the top of the ninth, ASU scored three runs on Stan Holmes' home run to force the contest to extra innings. But the Cowboys would eventually score off of reliever Jim Boudreau in the bottom of the 13th as Eric Dorn singled home John Cardinali to score the winning run. Left fielder Stan Holmes went 3-for-5 with seven RBI in this losing effort for the Devils. OSU reliever Craig Tice would pick up the win, pitching 4.0 innings of hitless ball.

ASU VS. TEXAS—JUNE 7

With their backs to the wall, the Sun Devils would pull off another rout of Texas, 13-2, to advance to the title game. Arizona State would score most of its runs in chunks—four in the second and six in the eighth. Devil hitters chased Longhorn starter Dave Seiler after 1.2 innings. ASU's Jeff Ahern picked up the win, despite allowing nine walks through five innings. Texas would strand 13 runners in the game. Randy Newman notched his first save for the Devils, going 4.0 innings and allowing only one run. Shortstop Donnie Hill went 4-for-4 at the plate with two runs scored and two RBI. Third baseman Mike Sodders turned in a 3-for-4 performance with one run scored.

ASU VS. OKLAHOMA STATE—JUNE 8

Arizona State would claim its fifth NCAA title with a 7-4 win over Oklahoma State, avenging the earlier extra-inning loss. ASU pounded the Cowboy pitching staff for 13 hits before a crowd of 13,239 and capitalized on four OSU errors. Reliever Kevin Dukes would pick up his second win of the series, pitching 8.2 strong innings and allowing only two hits and two runs while striking out six. For the Devils, left fielder Stan Holmes, who was named Outstanding Player of the CWS, went 2-for-4 with a run scored and an RBI. Designated hitter Mike McCain turned in a 1-for-2 performance with an RBI as well. ASU's Alvin Davis, Mike Sodders, Lemmie Miller and Kevin Dukes were named to the all-tournament team. The potent Sun Devil offense batted .325 for the tournament with nine home runs in six games.

TOM FUTCH

A standout outfielder/infielder for Arizona State from 1953-56, Futch set several offensive records during his career, including a then-record of three doubles in a single game back in 1954. Futch led ASU with a .429 batting average in 1954, and during his rookie season of 1953 hit .364. He was the team captain all four years of his playing career and signed a professional contract with the Detroit Tigers.

The REAL Field of Dreams...

MEDIA INFORMATION

THE ARIZONA STATE MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE IS LOCATED IN THE CARSON STUDENT-ATHLETE CENTER ON THE FIRST FLOOR (BEHIND TEAM STORE). ASSISTANT MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR JEFF EVANS IS THE MAIN CONTACT BETWEEN LOCAL AND NATIONAL MEDIA AND THE ASU BASEBALL OFFICE. EVANS IS CURRENTLY IN HIS FIFTH YEAR WITH THE SUN DEVIL BASEBALL PROGRAM. ALL MEDIA QUESTIONS SHOULD BE DIRECTED TO EVANS VIA E-MAIL OR BY PHONE AT (480) 965-6594. CREDENTIAL REQUESTS, STATISTICAL QUESTIONS AND ALL INTERVIEWS WILL BE HANDLED BY EVANS.

Jeff Evans
Baseball SID

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for the working press, radio and television should be made as early as possible, with at least two days' notice prior to game day. Requests should be made in writing if possible, and can be picked up prior to the game at the Sports Information Office or held at the Will Call window at Packard Stadium for game-day pickup. Please contact Jeff Evans (jeff.evans@asu.edu) for all credential requests.

PARKING

Parking passes are available to members of the working media through the ASU Media Relations Office. Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis. All media are encouraged to arrive as early as possible to avoid parking problems. Media parking will be allocated in front of Packard Stadium in a marked lot. Please contact Jeff Evans for parking requests.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Accredited photographers holding passes will be admitted to shoot in designated areas on the field and in the stands. Please be advised that any person taking photographs at an ASU event must have a photo or media credential. Still photographers are asked not to restrict views of fans if at all possible. A diagram of areas where photographers can work will be provided.

TELEVISION

Facilities are available for network broadcasts. Please contact Jeff Evans at the Media Relations Office for more information.

RADIO

Space is available in the Packard Stadium press box for the opposing team's radio broadcast. One (1) complimentary phone line will be provided in the visiting radio booth. For more questions or the installation of additional phone lines, please contact Mitch Otto in the Sun Devil Sports Network at (480) 727-8380. The visiting radio section will be labeled at Packard Stadium with two seats available for a play-by-play and color analyst.

PHONE LINES

The Packard Stadium press box is limited in terms of phone lines during the game, but all media and SIDs will have access to an outside phone line to file a story. A phone line will not be provided for the visiting SID for live stats or for use during games. The lines are local only, so if you need a long-distance line, please make arrangements in advance. A fax machine is also available in the press box vicinity to send box scores to local and national media outlets following the game. The main Packard Stadium press box phone number is (480) 727-7253.

INTERVIEWS

On game days, Arizona State head coach Pat Murphy and his players will be available for postgame interviews following a 10-minute cooling-off period. Murphy will meet with the media outside the ASU dugout (third-base side) immediately after talking with the team in the locker room. Requested players will be escorted to the dugout by ASU sports information personnel after Coach Murphy meets with the press. Please provide ASU SID Jeff Evans with any names of players you wish to talk to in the seventh inning.

PRACTICE INTERVIEWS

Arizona State players are also available following practice on nongame days at Packard Stadium. Reporters who wish to interview players before practice should be at the field between 2 and 2:30 p.m. (practices will normally start around 2:30 p.m. at Packard Stadium). Please note that Mondays will usually be the off day for the team. Please contact Jeff Evans at the ASU Media Relations Office to arrange off-day player phone interviews as well as all interviews with head coach Pat Murphy.

WWW.THESUNDEVILS.COM

Media, fans and alumni can catch up with all of the latest Arizona State baseball information via the Internet at www.thesundevils.com. Information and statistics are updated in a timely manner, and schedules, rosters, player bios and Sun Devil history are also available.

LIVE STATS

All home games and a majority of ASU's road games can be viewed over the Internet at www.TheSunDevils.com with a live statistical feed.

THE SUN DEVIL SPORTS NETWORK:

In the spring of 1999, ASU athletics agreed to a partnership with a new multimedia right-holder, the Sun Devil Sports Marketing. This group, is part of Viacom Sports Marketing. KDUS 1060 AM will carry approximately 38 games over the air and Internet. Tim Healey enters his fifth year of play-by-play for the Sun Devil baseball program, with longtime ASU beat writer and ASU historian Bob Eger providing color commentary. Legendary Arizona Diamondback Public Address Announcer Jeff Munn will also fill in when Healey is on the road with the ASU Men's Basketball team. All games that will be broadcast over the air can also be heard live over the Internet at www.TheSunDevils.com.
