ASU in the 2005 College World Series

The Arizona State University Baseball team returned to Omaha and the College World Series in 2005 for the 19th time in school history, and what a memorable trip it was.

From Jeff Larish's record-tying three home runs against Nebraska, to J.J. Sferra ending the ESPN "Instant Classic" with his 11th inning bloop single, it was a remarkable run to third place for the Sun Devils. ASU finished 3-2 in the CWS, giving them 58 all-time wins in College World Series play, third most in history. In addition, the 19 trips to Omaha are the fourth most by any school. Arizona State was also well represented on the All-College World Series team. Jeff Larish, Travis Buck, Colin Curtis and Joey Hooft all earned spots on the All-CWS squad.

ASU AND THE Golden Spikes Award

> For the past 27 years, USA Baseball has honored the top amateur baseball player in the country with the Golden Spikes Award. (See winners box.) The award is presented each year to the player who exhibits exceptional athletic ability and exemplary sportsmanship. Past winners of this prestigious award include current Major League Baseball stars J. D. Drew, Pat Burrell, Jason Varitek, Jason Jennings and Mark Prior.

> Arizona State's Bob Horner won the inaugural award in 1978 after hitting .412 with 20 doubles and 25 RBI. Oddibe McDowell (1984) and Mike Kelly (1991) also won the award.

> Dustin Pedroia was named one of five finalists for the 2004 Golden Spikes Award. He became the seventh all-time finalist from ASU, including Horner (1978), McDowell (1984), Kelly (1990), Kelly (1991), Paul Lo Duca (1993) and Jacob Cruz (1994).

> With three Golden Spikes winners, ASU ranks tied for first with Florida State and Cal State Fullerton as the schools with the most players to have earned college baseball's top honor.

> > The Arizona State Baseball program ranks as one of the top collegiate programs in the nation to produce players for the USA Baseball National Team. Since USA Baseball began selecting players and operating an official National Team to represent the United States in 1984, ASU has had at least one player on the team in nine different years. A total of 10 different ASU players have combined for 11 selections to the National Team.

> > ASU's most recent selection to the National Team, Travis Buck, helped the USA Baseball National Team to a gold medal in the 2004 FISU World University Baseball Championship in Tainan City, Taiwan. Buck was named a first-team Summer All-American by Baseball America after hitting .412 (28-for-68) with two home runs and 14 RBI.

> "Coach Murphy is one of the most outstanding college coaches in the nation. We are certainly aware of the many quality baseball players that he has coached at Arizona State. We are sure that he will continue the tradition of competition that has defined Sun Devil Baseball for so many years.'

ASU Baseball: IStory in the Making

• Arizona State has finished in the Top 12 in the national rankings in five of the last nine years, including last season, where they finished as high as No. 3.

• In a ranking provided by Boydsworld.com, the website dedicated to college baseball rankings and RPI, the Arizona State Baseball program ranked No. 9 in the nation for sustained excellence over the past three and five years. The ranking is a direct reflection of the strength of the recently departed recruiting class (the three-year ranking) and the strength of the program in general (the five-year ranking). The rankings are the result of a system of calculations designed to properly weigh a team's winning percentage and strength of schedule, while taking inter-regional play into account.

• The Sun Devils are coming off a memorable 2005 season in which they returned to the College World Series, earning a third place finish. In the last five seasons, ASU has compiled a 211-98 record. • ASU has dominated its rivals to the south, the University of Arizona, during the Pat Murphy era. Dating back to 1995, ASU has combined to go 35-20 (.636) against the Wildcats. This year the two schools will face off in the first "Challenge at Chase," a game at the Arizona Diamondbacks home ballpark, Chase Field.

• ASU's recruiting classes have been ranked nationally in the Top 12 in each of the past eight years, including the class that will debut in 2006 being ranked No. 2 in the nation by Baseball America.

• ASU has ranked in the Top Three on the west coast in attendance in each of the last seven years, including ranking first in 2003 and 2005 and second in 2004. ASU was 20th nationally, averaging over 2,600 fans per game in 2005.

• ASU has hit over .300 at the plate in 34 of 47 varsity baseball seasons, including a string of 18 straight seasons. The Devils have combined to hit a combined .331 during the 10 years under current head coach Pat Murphy and has led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last seven seasons. ASU has hit .315 overall since varsity baseball started in 1959.

• ASU Baseball has had five Academic All-Americans in the last seven years (since 1999) and ranks tied for seventh among major Division I schools dating back to 1995. With four first-team selections during that stretch, ASU ranks tied for second.

• Arizona State leads all NCAA schools with 338 all-time draft picks dating back to the inception of the MLB Amateur Draft in 1965. ASU also leads all schools with 85 draft picks over the last 11 years.

• During ASU's 47-year history of varsity baseball (1959-P), 69 different players have earned All-America honors. The program has also had 12 National Players of the Year and three Golden Spikes Award winners.

ASU'S HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

In 2003, Packard Stadium ranked among the Top 15 college baseball facilities. ackard Stadium at Brock Ballpark is one of the finest college baseball facilities in the nation and continues to receive constant upgrades. In 2003, it ranked as a Top 15 college facility in a poll of college baseball coaches around the nation.

A new clubhouse (pictured above) was constructed during the 2004 season and plans are on the table to continue the multi-phase renovation of the stadium.

ASU owns an all-time 868-251-1 record at Packard Stadium and is scheduled to play 32 more home games at Packard this season.

Arizona State Baseball Coaching Legends

Bobby Winkles (1959-1971) Arizona State's first varsity baseball coach, Bobby Winkles laid the foundation for the legacy that has become Sun Devil Baseball. He guided the Sun Devils to a 524-173 record during his 13 years in Tempe, including three College World Series titles (1965, 1967, 1969). He was named the 1965 and 1969 NCAA Coach of the Year and The Sporting News Coach of the Year in 1965, 1967 and 1969. After leaving ASU, Winkles managed four years in the major leagues with the California Angels and the Oakland Athletics. He was inducted into the ABCA Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997. Winkles coached several great players while he was at the helm of the Sun Devils, including Rick Monday (No. 1 overall pick in 1965 MLB Draft), Hall of Famer Reggie Jackson, Paul Ray Powell, Sterling Slaughter and Larry Gura. His No. 1 jersey is honored at Packard Stadium where the field is named in his honor.

Jim Brock (1972-1994)

Arizona State's second of only three varsity baseball coaches during the varsity history of the program, Jim Brock coached the Sun Devil nine from 1972-1994. He recorded a 1,100-440 (.714) record during his 23-year coaching career at ASU. He led ASU to 13 College World Series appearances, including winning a pair of national championships in 1977 and 1981. Brock battled cancer throughout the 1994 season and passed away just days after the College World Series that year. Brock coached a handful of Sun Devil legends, including first-round draft picks Eddie Bane, Floyd Bannister, Bob Horner, Hubie Brooks, Oddibe McDowell, Barry Bonds and Mike Kelly. All three of ASU's Golden Spikes Award winners (Horner, McDowell, Kelly) played under Brock. He was inducted into the ABCA Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. He was the 1977 and 1981 NCAA Coach of the Year, the 1984 The Sporting News Coach of the Year and the 1988 Baseball America Coach of the Year. Additionally, he was a five-time winner of the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award (1981, '82, '84, '88, '93). His No. 33 jersey is honored at Packard Stadium. Bobby Winkles Field-Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark was dedicated to the late Dr. Brock in 2006.

.400-100 CLUB

Only 11 players during ASU's baseball history have hit over .400 and recorded over 100 hits in a season. Dustin Pedroia was the latest to join the elite club, finishing the 2003 season with 120 hits (fourth most in school history) and hitting .404. Current Florida Marlins catcher Paul Lo Duca holds both school records with a .446 batting average and 129 hits in 1993. All-American Kevin Romine is the only Sun Devil to record back-to-back .400 seasons and one of two players to have back-to-back 100-hit seasons.

.914

The NCAA record for winning percentage in a season that the 1972 Arizona State Baseball team still holds, with a 64-6 record. The '72 squad earned runner-up honors in the College World Series under first-year head coach Jim Brock and featured All-Americans Eddie Bane, Alan Bannister and Craig Swan.

#24

The jersey No. 24 is one that is significant to the history and tradition of Arizona State Baseball. Former ASU greats Reggie Jackson, Barry Bonds and Mike Kelly have all worn the number during their days in the Maroon and Gold. Jackson was the 1966 Sporting News Player of the Year and went on to have a Hall of Fame career in the major leagues. Bonds (1983-85) is a six-time winner of the National League MVP award and is currently fourth on the all-time home run list behind Hank Aaron, Babe Ruth and Willie Mays. Kelly won the 1991 Golden Spikes Award and was the No. 2 overall selection in the 1991 MLB Draft by the Atlanta Braves.

The number of doubles Dustin Pedroia hit in 2003 to establish a new ASU and Pac-10 single-season record. Pedroia also led the NCAA with 0.50 doubles per game. In his three seasons at ASU, Pedroia hit 71 doubles to rank third in ASU history.

70-70 CLUB

Alvin Davis and Jeff Larish are the only two players in Sun Devil history to have at least 70 RBI and 70 walks in the same season. Larish, a Sun Devil from 2002 to 2005, joined the exclusive club in 2003 when he recorded 95 RBI (fifth most in ASU history) and led the NCAA with 78 walks. Davis, who played for ASU from 1979-82, had 91 RBI and an ASU record 87 walks during his senior year in 1982. He went on to become the 1984 American League Rookie of the Year with the Seattle Mariners and played nine seasons in the major leagues. Davis and Larish are ranked one and two, respectively, on the ASU all-time walks list.

The number of consecutive national polls that ASU was ranked in from the start of the 2000 season until last season. The Devils have been mainstays in the national rankings throughout the history of the program, including earning final Top 12 rankings in five of the last nine seasons. ASU finished last season ranked as high as No. 3 in the polls.

ADDRESS

Any mail directed to the sports information office should be sent to: Arizona State University, Carson Student-Athlete Center; Tempe, AZ 85287-2505. The Carson Student-Athlete Center is the home of all Sun Devil sports. The Baseball Offices are located on the third floor. Murphy also has a spacious office on the second floor of the new clubhouse at Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark.

ALUMNI GAME

A favorite tradition of Sun Devil baseball fans is the annual alumni game. This year one game will be played, on Saturday, Jan. 21, at Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark at 1 p.m. The current Sun Devils will play a team of former Arizona State players. Autographs, photos and on-field shenanigans are the norm. By the way, the current Sun Devils usually win. In past years current and former professional players Willie Bloomquist, Mitch Jones, Mike Collins, Ken Phelps, Doug Henry, Mike Kelly, Casey Myers and Andrew Beinbrink all competed in the game.

Jim Brock

AYER, FRED

The first official head coach at Arizona State, leading the Tempe Normal Bulldogs to a 7-2 record in 1907. Ayer coached from 1907-11, posting an all-time 37-22-1 record.

BANE, EDDIE

The author of the only perfect game in Arizona State history, the little lefthander did it on March 2, 1973, against Cal State Northridge. The Sun Devils won, 9-0, as Bane struck out 19. It stands as one of eight no-hitters by ASU pitchers. In recognition of his outstanding accomplishments, ASU had Eddie Bane's number (21) retired. The Devils celebrated the 30th anniversary of this great accomplishment in 2003 against Penn State as Bane joined the club to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. He is currently the Director of Scouting for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

BASEBALL CAMPS

Each year the Sun Devil Baseball program hosts several baseball camps as part of Pat Murphy's All-Nine Baseball Academy. The camps are broken into youth academies (6-12) and senior camps (13-18) with several sessions held throughout the year. For more information on Sun Devil Baseball camps, please visit www.collegebaseballcamps.com/sundevils.

BONDS, BARRY

Former Sun Devil Barry Bonds (1983-85), who had an outstanding collegiate career from 1983-85, made major league history in 2001 by hitting 73 home runs. A career .300 hitter, Bonds has belted 708 career home runs to rank third in major league record books. He earned his record seventh National League MVP award in 2004, an unprecedented fourth straight year he won the award. Bonds was originally drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the second round of the '82 draft, but elected to come to Arizona State.

BROCK, JIM

The winningest baseball coach in ASU varsity history. Brock, who passed away in June 1994, accumulated 1,100 victories in his 23 seasons as head coach, against just 440 losses (.714). Brock was named National Coach of the Year four times, and his teams won two College World Series titles during his tenure from 1972 to '94. He also coached 15 first-round draft picks.

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Just in case you were wondering, Arizona State ranks third all time in College World Series wins with 58, and fourth in CWS appearances with 19. ASU is second in NCAA baseball titles with five, and has finished as the runner-up on five different occasions. ASU has a 58-32 (.644) record at the CWS (fourth best all time). The Devils are third in CWS games played with 90. Sun Devil Stan Holmes (1979-81) holds the CWS record for RBI with 17 in six games in 1981, and Barry Bonds had seven consecutive hits in the CWS back in 1983-84.

THE COMEBACK

ESPN's Jim Kaat called it "probably the greatest comeback in College World Series history." Few would argue. It happened June 8, 1988. In an elimination game, ASU trailed Wichita State, 3-1, with two outs in the top of the ninth. But consecutive hits by Ricky Candelari, Mike Burrola and Pat Listach tied the game. Ironically, those three ranked first, second and third on the team in strikeouts. What's more, Candelari and Listach hit two-strike pitches. Listach had already fanned three times that night. Thanks to brilliant relief pitching by Brian Dodd and Gordy Farmer, along with breathtaking defense by John Finn, ASU escaped with a 4-3 win in 10 innings. Martin Peralta drove home the winning run.

DRAFT

A total of 339 Arizona State players have been selected in the annual major league draft, which began in 1965. No other school comes close to that number. A Sun Devil, Rick Monday, was the first player ever to be drafted. ASU has more overall selections, more first-round choices (22) and more No. 1 picks (3) than any other school. ASU's latest first-round draft pick came last season, as outfielder Jeff Larish went to the Oakland Athletics with the 36th overall pick. While the 1976 team holds the record with 13 players selected in the draft, the 2003 squad set the modern mark with 12 draft picks. The 12 selections were the most by any college and featured second-round pick Andre Ethier (Oakland Athletics) and third-rounder Beau Vaughan (Boston Red Sox). ASU leads all colleges with 85 draft picks over the last 11 seasons.

EGER, BOB

A longtime friend of the ASU baseball program, Eger serves as the color commentator for ASU baseball. He is also the historian for Arizona State athletics and recently wrote a book titled The Maroon and Gold: A History of Arizona State Athletics. Eger also worked as a journalist in the Phoenix area for more than 30 years and began covering ASU baseball for the State Press back in the late 1950s. For more information on how to order the book, please contact Eger at bob.eger@cox.net.

Reggie Jackson

EXHIBITION GAMES

Arizona State often plays exhibition games against major league teams whose Spring Training headquarters are in the Valley of the Sun. The Sun Devils haven't exactly fared well against the big-leaguers but, after all, it's the experience that counts. In 28 games against the Cubs, Angels, Athletics, Mariners and Brewers, ASU has an all-time record of 6-22.

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

An award given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America which has been won by three Sun Devils. Bob Horner (1978), Oddibe McDowell (1984) and Mike Kelly (1991) all carried home the prestigious award while representing ASU. ASU ties Florida State and Cal State Fullerton for the school with the most Golden Spikes winners. A total of seven players have been named finalists for the award, including Dustin Pedroia in 2004.

GREEN MONSTER

The 30-foot batting eye in center field at Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark. It stands 400 feet away from home plate, and only 18 players have been able to launch one over the Monster in Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark history. Brooks Conrad is the last ASU player to accomplish the feat. He did it in 2000 against Florida Atlantic. For a listing of the home runs hit over the Monster, see the Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark section of the media guide (page 24).

GRIFFEN, HORACE

The first Arizona State player ever to sign a professional contract. He signed with the Chicago White Sox in 1914, when baseball was still a club sport at ASU-and would be for another 44 years. Interestingly, Griffen ran for governor of the state of Arizona in 1956 but was defeated.

HOME RUN LEADERS

Former Sun Devil baseball players Barry Bonds and Reggie Jackson rank third and eighth, respectively, in the MLB career home run record book. Bonds and Jackson, who are also distant cousins, have combined to hit 1,271 career home runs. In ASU's 46 years of varsity baseball, the Sun Devils have connected on 2,909 home runs.

INNINGS

The longest game in ASU history in terms of innings came 14 seasons ago against UCLA. It was an 18-inning affair on Feb. 23, 1990. Arizona State won, 6-5, and the game lasted a record five hours and 36 minutes. Eleven different pitchers took the hill for both teams. The Devils have played 17 extra inning games dating back to the 2000 season, winning 12 of those games.

JACKSON, REGGIE

Mr. October himself, and the most famous letterman in ASU baseball history. Jackson played just one season, in 1966, batting .327 with 15 homers and 65 RBI. The Sun Devils went 41-11 that year. Jackson, who played defensive back for the Sun Devil football team, played 20 years in the majors, hitting 548 home runs and winning five World Championship rings. He was a 1993 inductee into the Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

JONES, MITCH

Mitch Jones spent only two years in a Sun Devil uniform but made history during that time. Jones belted 27 home runs during the 2000 season to set an ASU single-season record, breaking the previous mark of 25 set by Bob Horner in 1978. Jones hit 38 home runs in his two years to rank seventh in the ASU career record books. He is currently an outfield prospect in the New York Yankees farm system and led the Eastern League in 2004 with 39 home runs for the Double-A Trenton Thunder.

KAJIKAWA, BILL

Mr. Sun Devil himself, Bill Kajikawa was an athlete and a player at Arizona State, and today is one of the biggest supporters of the athletics program. Kajikawa played baseball and football at ASU, and coached over the course of five decades at ASU. Former ASU head football coach Frank Kush says Kajikawa "epitomizes what Sun Devil athletics is all about." Kajikawa recently celebrated his 94th birthday.

LO DUCA, PAUL

In 1993, Paul Lo Duca set college baseball ablaze with his hitting heroics. The Sporting News Player of the Year broke the Sun Devil record for hits in a season (129) and hitting average (.446). The 5-10 catcher also owned a 37-game hitting streak, the longest in the nation in 1993 and the second longest in ASU history. Lo Duca made his second All-Star Game appearance in 2004 in Houston and was traded from the Los Angeles Dodgers to the Florida Marlins. In parts of eight major league seasons, Lo Duca is a career .285 hitter with 156 doubles and 66 home runs.

Casey Myers

MVP

An honor bestowed upon two former Sun Devils at the major league level. Oakland's Reggie Jackson was American League MVP in 1973 and World Series MVP in 1977, while Barry Bonds has earned the accolade an unprecedented seven times: twice with Pittsburgh in 1990 and 1992, and in 1993, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004 with the San Francisco Giants.

MYERS, CASEY

One of ASU's most decorated players in history, Casey Myers starred at ASU from 1998-2001. A three-time All-American on the field and in the classroom, he showed that they don't come much classier than Casey Myers. A career .384 hitter—ranking third with 313 hits, second with 275 RBI, sixth with 39 home runs and fourth with 64 doubles—Myers has moved on to professional baseball, where he was a Northwest League All-Star for the Vancouver Canadians. He spent last summer playing for the Midland RockHounds in the Texas League.

NCAA

The Sun Devils are always a mainstay in the end-of-year NCAA statistical rankings. In fact, ASU was the only team in the NCAA in 2003 (among 283 teams) to rank in the Top 10 in the four major statistical categories (scoring, batting, pitching and fielding). ASU ranked second in batting (.347), second in scoring (10.03 runs per game), eighth in pitching (3.32 ERA) and ninth in fielding (.973 FLD%). ASU also set the single-season NCAA record with 14 grand slams. Arizona State also owns the consecutive games scoring streak record at 506 games.

NO HITTERS

There have been eight no-hitters in ASU history, the last one in 1993 by Kevin Rawitzer. Of the seven pitchers who hurled them, only Eddie Bane reached the big leagues.

ODDIBE

The first name of one of ASU's best players in the storied history of the program. Oddibe McDowell played for the Sun Devils in 1983-84, hitting a combined .380 with 30 home runs and 31 doubles in his two years. His 1984 season, in which he hit .405 with 23 home runs and 117 hits, remains one of the best offensive performances in school history and earned him a spot on the Team USA Olympic team. He also received the Golden Spikes Award.

OMAHA ZOO

The site where Oddibe McDowell's legendary home run in the 1984 College World Series landed—or so the story goes. The zoo is located well beyond the right-field fence at Rosenblatt Stadium. Against Oklahoma State on June 5, McDowell took a John Duval pitch and launched a mammoth blast deep and far into the Omaha night. Of course, no mere mortal could actually reach the zoo. Then again, no one ever saw the ball land, either. ASU won, 23-12.

PAC-10

The Conference of Champions has been home to ASU baseball since the 1979 season. Posting a combined 442-323 record in Pac-10 play, the Sun Devils have brought home six Pac-10 championships, most recently in 2000. ASU has had 104 players named to the All-Pac-10 team and six Pac-10 Coach of the Year selections. The Pac-10 used to be split up into the North and South Divisions, but combined in 1999 as Washington, Washington State and Oregon State joined with the Six Pac. Since the two divisions combined, ASU has won four of the seven Pac-10 Player of the Year awards and combined for a 102-

66 record in league play. ASU has also led the league in batting in five of the last seven seasons.

PALM WALK

Arizona State's campus landmark. It's a path running through the heart of campus that's lined with majestic palm trees on both sides. There were 92 trees along the walk at last count, but construction serves to change that number frequently.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Despite a plethora of stars who have played at Arizona State University, only 14 numbers have been retired: Bobby Winkles, No. 1; Reggie Jackson, No. 44 (the number he made famous as a pro; he wore 24 at ASU); Oddibe McDowell, No. 0; Barry Bonds, No. 24; Sal Bando, No. 6; Bob Horner, No. 5; Dr. Jim Brock, No. 33; Floyd Bannister, No. 19; Rick Monday, No. 27; Larry Gura, No. 14; Alan Bannister, No. 7; Eddie Bane, No. 21; Hubie Brooks, No. 14; and most recently, Paul Lo Duca, No. 16. With 69 players that have earned All-America honors and 82 Major Leaguers, Arizona State must be conservative with its jersey retirement policy. All 14 have their numbers on Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark's right- or left-field walls.

RIVALRY

Year in and year out, the Arizona State-Arizona rivalry has proven to be one of the best in all of college baseball. While the series extends all the way back to the start of baseball at ASU in 1907, ASU has dominated the series since officially adopting varsity baseball in 1959. Since 1959 when Bobby Winkles took over ASU, the Sun Devils lead the series 166-107. Current ASU head coach Pat Murphy has dominated the series against the Wildcats, going 35-20 (.636) in his 11 seasons. This year, the Sun Devils and Wildcats will play a non-conference game in Chase Field, home of the Arizona Diamondbacks.

SCHMUCK, ROGER

Former head coach at Mesa Community College and Sun Devil star of the early 1970s. Schmuck's claim to fame is his 45-game hitting streak in 1971. It stood for 10 years as an NCAA record, and currently ranks as the third-longest streak in history. Schmuck hit safely in every game from March 8 to May 14. During the streak, the senior first baseman hit .477 with 10 homers and 66 RBI. His slugging percentage was an astronomical .829. Amazingly, when Schmuck arrived at the park on March 8, he was hitting a woeful .167. Little did he know what the next two months held in store. The streak ended when Schmuck went 0-4 against UTEP pitcher Marc Bombard. The big left-hander hit .434 for the year, which stands second in the ASU record book.

SLAUGHTER, STERLING

An All-America pitcher in 1963 who arrived in the major leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1964. What's so noteworthy about that, you ask? Slaughter pulled a memorable double-first: He was the first of Arizona State's numerous All-Americans and also the first of the school's eventual 80 major-leaguers.

SPARKY

The official mascot of Arizona State athletics. It was designed in 1946 by Bert Anthony, who was a cartoonist for Walt Disney, which means that Sparky, Mickey Mouse and Goofy are first cousins. ASU was formerly known as the Bulldogs until the mascot switch in 1946.

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

Arizona State baseball alumni have appeared on SI covers a total of 15 times. OK, so Reggie is on 10 of them. The other cover boys? Texas Rangers rookie Bump Wills in 1977 and Barry Bonds in 1993, 2001, 2002 and 2004.

SPRING TRAINING FACILITIES

Arizona State is blessed to be surrounded by some of the finest spring training facilities in the nation. The Sun Devils are also fortunate to have a working relationship with several of the facilities. ASU played nearly its entire home schedule and the NCAA Regionals at Hohokam Park (spring training home of the Chicago Cubs) in Mesa in 2002. ASU also hosted 2003 NCAA Regional at Tempe Diablo Stadium and will play in a tournament for the fourth straight year at Surprise Stadium in Surprise, Ariz, spring training home of the Texas Rangers and Kansas City Royals.

Roger Schmuck

STREAK

Arizona State holds the NCAA record having scored in 506 consecutive games. The streak ran from April 8, 1995 to Feb. 15, 2004. The Devils were 338-167-1 during the streak. The next closest streak was 349 games set by Coastal Carolina.

TEAM USA

Arizona State ranks eighth for producing player for the USA Baseball National Team. ASU has had at least one player on the national team in nine different years dating back to 1984 and a total of 10 Sun Devils have worn the Red, White and Blue of Team USA. ASU has also sent a player to play for Team USA in six of the last eight years. Travis Buck is the latest to join this elite class, helping Team USA to a gold medal performance in the 2004 FISU World University Baseball Championships.

TEMPE

The home of Arizona State University, founded in 1872 by Charles Trumbell Hayden, when he established the Hayden Milling and Farming Ditch Company. (The Hayden Flour Mill, by the way, still stands on Mill Avenue near the south bank of the Salt River.) Tempe, which was incorporated in 1894, has a population of 158,625 and averages 325 days of sunshine per year. The town presently encompasses 39.5 square miles. The average daily high temperature is 85 degrees.

TICKETS

Call the Arizona State ticket office at 480-727-0000 for season and individual game ticket prices, as well as information on special discount rates for juniors, seniors, faculty, staff and students.

VICTORIES

Arizona State has 2,400 of them, dating back to the first year of baseball at Tempe Normal School in 1907. During ASU's modern history since 1959, the Sun Devils are 2,067-834-1. ASU's 2,400 all-time wins are the seventh most of all NCAA Division I baseball programs. ASU went 42-25 in 2005, marking the 27th time in program history to surpass the 40-win mark in a season.

WHITE, DANNY

Better known as the former quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys, Danny White also earned two letters on the diamond at ASU. He wasn't bad, either. In 40 games during the 1972 season, he hit .325 with five homers and 16 RBI. An infielder, he slumped to .200 in limited action in 1973, and probably made the right career choice by pursuing football.

WINKLES, BOBBY

The first varsity baseball coach at ASU, Winkles guided the Sun Devils to a 524-173 mark from 1959 to '71. He captured three National Championships—in 1965, '67 and '69—and was named to the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a college and professional baseball coach. Winkles was honored for his numerous coaching milestones at ASU when the field at Packard Stadium was dedicated as Bobby Winkles Field in 2001.

ZBIKOWSKI, FRAN

One of only three players to ever letter in baseball at ASU whose last name begins with "Z." Zbikowski lettered in 1970-71, while Stuart Zink lettered from 1955-56. Junior pitcher and designated hitter Zechry Zinicola is just the third player to letter with a last name starting with Z.

The outfield wall at Packard Stadium is lined with palm trees, and just beyond the right-field fence is the awardwinning Karsten Golf Course. In left field, sparkling Tempe Town Lake is visible. In the distance, the Superstition Mountains offer a picturesque backdrop.

But for every bit of beauty that envelops the facility, there is an equal dose of tradition.

The stadium is the home of two national championship teams and 14 NCAA regional tournaments. Arizona State's all-time record at Packard is 868-251-1, for a winning percentage of .775. Last season, ASU was 25-7 at Packard Stadium and over the last five seasons ASU has won nearly 80% of its games at Packard Stadium (135-42-1)).

Packard Stadium's outfield wall is enhanced with placards that capture the rich tradition of Arizona State baseball. Fourteen (14) jersey numbers are on display. They belong to Bobby Winkles (#1), Dr. Jim Brock (#33), Oddibe McDowell (#0), Reggie Jackson (#44), Barry Bonds (#24), Sal Bando (#6), Bob Horner (#5), Floyd Bannister (#19), Rick Monday (#27), Larry Gura (#14), Hubie Brooks (#7), Eddie Bane (#21), Alan Bannister (#7) and Paul Lo Duca (#16). Jackson wore #24 at ASU, but became synonymous with #44 during his years with the New York Yankees.

Dimensions of Packard are 339 feet down the lines, 370 feet in the power alleys and 395 to straightaway center. The fence is 10 feet high. Located five feet beyond the center-field wall is the "Green Monster," a 30-foot-high batting eye. Only 18 players have ever hit a home run over the Monster.

With a capacity of around 4,000, Packard has more than 3,000 permanent seats in the main grandstand, which are backed for spectator comfort. Field-level box seats are also available behind home plate. The remaining seats, which run down the first-base line, also provide outstanding views of the game. A berm was added down the thirdbase line to provide fans with a different way to watch and enjoy _______ the game.

Over the years Packard has received numerous upgrades, including a new scoreboard, valued at $240,000, that was installed in left-center field. A product of Daktronics, Inc., in South Dakota, the scoreboard is fully equipped for graphics, animation and messages on its color matrix board.

A new players facility opened in August, 2004 that includes a clubhouse and a state-of-the-art sports medicine facility. Head Coach Pat Murphy also had an office constructed that is located on the terrace level of the new clubhouse.

The Packard Stadium press box, situated atop the grandstand directly behind home plate, includes booths for television and radio coverage, as well as ample space for print media. Improvements were made to the press facility over the last four years, when statistic monitors were added to the radio booths and live stats were produced over the Internet from the press box. The facilility is also in the beginning planning stages of undergoing renovation.

Just about every year, improvements are made to this already magnificent baseball facility. A separate building containing batting tunnels and a conditioning area was built in the fall of 1997 and is located on the third-base side of Packard. The batting cage area doubles as the press room/interview room during NCAA Tournament play. The Sun Devils' bullpen area was also remodeled and upgraded to include three pitching mounds. A brand new playing surface and drainage system was installed during the 2002 season, as well as a new entrance to the stadium.

In addition, a new public-address system was added, replacing the sound system that had been in place since Packard Stadium opened in 1974.

Packard has 160 metal halide lights, which is the same amount used in Double-A lighting for night games. The playing surface consists of tiff green grass in the infield and Bermuda grass in the outfield. The dirt portion of the infield is crushed red brick, which can be found at many major league stadiums.

Packard's existence was made possible through a gift to Arizona State from Guthrie and Peter Packard. Both are alumni of ASU, and the stadium is a tribute to their late father, William Guthrie Packard, a prominent member of the publishing industry for many years. Mr. Packard served the Shepard Company for 51 years, rising from sales representative to president to chairman of the board. He was also active in various community and church affairs in Colorado and Arizona.

o get so close to your goal only to come up short would devastate some people. But for Arizona State University baseball, it only serves as motivation to go out and accomplish what you set out to do.

What the Sun Devils have set out to do is bring a sixth National Championship home to Tempe. 2005 brought ASU their 19th College World Series appearance, and their 3rd place finish cemented the program's place on the national scene. But the goals for 12th-year head coach Pat Murphy go beyond an impressive showing in Omaha-they are to win the ultimate prize in college baseball, a College World Series Championship.

"Getting back to the College World Series was a great experience and a wonderful accomplishment for this program," said Murphy. "But our goal is not just to get to Omaha, our goal is to win the National Championship. Every year, we set out with the objective to win that championship ring, to bring that trophy back to Tempe. Those are high expectations, but I think they are reasonable for the type of program that we have."

ASU enters 2006 with experienced talent returning; 20 letter winners from last season's CWS squad will be back. The team will also receive an influx of gifted newcomers ready to make their mark on Sun Devil baseball. They all have their sights set on one common goal, a return trip to Omaha and the College World Series.

"The guys we have back have now gotten a taste, and I know they are going to want to return to finish the job," said Murphy. "If the veterans can instill some of that 'unfinished business' mentality into our youngsters, we could have a very successful season."

Arizona State will begin this season like every other year, ranked highly in the polls and expected to compete for a conference title. The Sun Devils begin the season ranked #12 by Collegiate Baseball and #16 by Baseball America.

As is to be expected when you are a top-flight program, you have to reload for the talent you have lost. The Sun Devils lost nine letter winners from last year's team, including six starters. ASU continued their trend of sending players to the pros, as seven Sun Devils were drafted in the 2005 MLB draft, led by First Rounder Travis Buck (Oakland A's).

The 2005 College World Series was certainly a memorable affair for anyone who is a fan of the Maroon and Gold.

SUN DEVIL BASEBALL 2006

However, five Sun Devil recruits who were drafted in the 2005 draft opted to attend school, putting ASU in the position of being loaded with young talent.

"Any time you have the type of success we have had as a program, you are going to lose some players to the pros," said Murphy. "With that being said, we have a great combination of returners and youngsters who are ready to go out and represent Arizona State University to the absolute best of their abilities. Our goals are the same this year as they have been in the past: compete for the Pac-10 title and win the national championship."

To go with the 19 returning letter winners, Murphy and his staff have added the second-ranked recruiting class in the nation. Several impact players will make their Sun Devil debuts in 2006, and the man who has led ASU to the postseason in eight of the last nine years couldn't be more excited about the possibilities.

"Coach Sferra has once again done an exceptional job of bringing top-flight talent to ASU. There are some freshmen coming in who could potentially be major contributors very early on in the season," added Murphy. "The talented group of newcomers we have assembled for 2006 will experience growing pains, just like all young players, but I think the experience they will gain by playing in January and February will really help us come May and hopefully on into June."

The 2006 Sun Devils feature a 34-man roster, with five seniors, ten juniors, eleven sophomores and eight freshmen. The Sun Devils will be led by the combination of junior outfielder Colin Curtis, junior Zechry Zinicola, junior righty Pat Bresnehan and senior lefty Brett Bordes. The incoming class of players features both high school players and transfers who can have an immediate impact. The group includes six high school players, four junior college transfers, an NAIA transfer and two Division I transfers.

"We are fortunate to have guys like Colin Curtis, Pat Bresnehan and Zech Zinicola back for us this season," said Murphy. "The leadership they can bring to our team will be an invaluable asset. They have two seasons with the program under their belts, and they are familiar with the Sun Devil way. Hopefully their leadership and experience will rub off on some of our new guys."

The 2006 team will once again be indicative of a Pat Murphy coached team: hit for average, play solid defense and approach every game with a playoff mentality.

"We have a very clear-cut goal, and that is to be the best team in the nation," said the 1998 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year. "We have a lot of youth blended with experience, but we also have a singular focus. There are ups and downs in every season. Our goal is to weather whatever storms may come our way and accomplish the goal that we set each and every year."

A LOOK BACK

The 2005 season was certainly a memorable one, as the Sun Devils returned to Omaha and the College World Series for the first time since 1998. ASU finished the season with a 42-25 record and ended the year ranked as high as third in the national polls.

Travis Buck earned All-American accolades thanks to his .382 batting average, on the way to being drafted in the first round by the Oakland Athletics. Buck also earned First Team All-Pac-10 honors, where he was joined by Jeff Larish, who belted 23 homers and hit .324 for the season. Larish was a fifth round pick of the Detroit Tigers. Nine other Sun Devils earned All-Pac-10 Honorable Mentions. Larish and Buck also earned All-CWS Team honors, along with Colin Curtis and Joey Hooft.

On the mound, ASU was led by lefty Erik Averill, who went 11-4 with a 3.39 ERA. Jason Urquidez was equally as impressive, posting a 10-4 record. Averill was drafted by the Tigers, while Urquidez was selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

The 2005 postseason was certainly one for the books. The Sun Devils hosted a regional at Packard Stadium, welcoming in East Carolina, UNLV and #24 Coastal Carolina. ASU rolled through the regional, knocking off ECU 9-6, then beating Coastal Carolina twice, 11-3 and 9-5, to advance to the Super Regional. Waiting for Arizona State in the Super Regional was their longtime nemesis and defending National Champion Cal-State Fullerton. The Titans eliminated the Sun Devils in 2004 at Goodwin Field in Fullerton on their way to the national title, and now Arizona State was looking for revenge. The Titans hosted the Super Regional as the #6 seed in the country, and took the opening game of the series on a controversial balk in the ninth inning that allowed the winning run to score. Arizona State would not be denied, as they came storming back to take the next two games, earning their 19th trip to Omaha with a 9-8 victory.

The 2005 College World Series was certainly a memorable affair for anyone who is a fan of the Maroon and Gold, as the Sun Devils took home a third place finish. After falling to Nebraska in the opening game of the CWS, ASU would face Tennessee in a loser out battle. The Sun Devils trailed, 2-1, entering the eighth inning, but after RBI hits by Travis Buck and Joey Hooft pulled the Sun Devils even, Seth Dhaenens gave ASU their first lead of the game with his RBI double to put the Sun Devils up 3-2. ASU would add an insurance run to lead 4-2 heading into the bottom of the eighth. A two run lead was all Pat Bresnehan would need, as the righty shut down the Volunteers to lead ASU to a 4-2 victory. Bresnehan threw 3.1 scoreless innings to earn his fifth win of the season and help ASU advance.

Waiting for the Sun Devils was Nebraska, who knocked off

Arizona State 5-3 in the CWS opener. The Sun Devils would jump out to an early 1-0 lead on a Jeff Larish solo homer, and then extended it to 2-0 after another Larish blast. The Huskers would answer back, scoring three in the fourth to pull ahead 3-2. ASU would add three more runs to take a 5-3 lead heading into the ninth. Nebraska's Andy Gerch would quickly erase that deficit, blasting a three-run shot to give the Cornhuskers the lead. All told, they would score four runs in the ninth to take a 7-5 lead into the bottom of the inning. ASU cut it to 7-6, but were down to their final out when Jeff Larish once again stepped to the plate. Larish would sock the first pitch thrown to him over the wall for his CWS and ASU record-tying third home run of the day, sending the game into extra innings. In the eleventh inning, freshman outfielder J.J. Sferra etched his name into Sun Devil lore as his bloop single scored Joey Hooft to send the Sun Devils to an epic 11-inning victory. After the game, ESPN would deem the game an "instant classic."

After eliminating the Huskers, ASU would face Florida in yet another elimination game for the Sun Devils. With their backs to the wall, Erik Averill threw a complete game gem, allowing only five hits in a 6-1 victory over the Gators. The Sun Devils magical Omaha ride would end the next day however, as Florida would erase an early 3-0 deficit and eliminate the Sun Devils, 6-3.

"It was a heck of a run, and I couldn't be more proud of this group of guys," said Murphy. "I think it is a testament to the kind of season we had when you look at the seven guys we had drafted, including a first rounder."

"We work every day to make our dream of another national title come true."

—Head Coach Pat Murphy

THE SCHEDULE

With six straight NCAA tournament berths, eight straight Top 10 recruiting classes and once again one of the toughest schedules in the entire country, there is no doubt that the Sun Devils have one of the most elite baseball programs in the nation. To remain in the upper echelon of college baseball, ASU has scheduled one of the most difficult non-conference schedules in the country for 2006. The Sun Devils will travel to Texas for a total of eight games, including match-ups with defending champion Texas and meetings with Rice and TCU.

"We want to be a road tested team, and our match-ups in Texas will help us become one," commented Murphy. "We play will lead us this year."

Zechry Zinicola comes into 2006 hoping to build off his 2005 campaign that saw him win four games and save four games on the mound as well as hit .276 with 15 RBI. Righty Pat Bresnehan looks to continue his success on the mound, after striking out 79 batters in 88.1 innings and winning five games. Brett Bordes returns for his senior season after being drafted by the Detroit Tigers in last year's MLB Draft.

"Our pitching staff is going to lean heavily on the experience of Zinicola, Bresnehan and Bordes," offered Murphy. "Those guys have gone through tough regular season schedules and now a deep postseason run, and they know what it takes to be some of the top teams in the nation, and we wouldn't want it any other way."

Of ASU's 56 games, 27 will be against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament last season, and eight will be against College World Series participants. The Sun Devils will face 11 teams ranked in the preseason Top 40 rankings, including five ranked Pac-10 teams. Annually one of the toughest conferences in the nation, the Pac-10 will once again feature some talented schools.

"It's no secret that the Pac-10 is one of the strongest conferences in the country. Oregon State was in Omaha last gon State was in Umaha last year, Stanford and USC are perennial powers and you can't overlook Washington, Cal or Arizona either," said Murphy. "Those teams are vying for the postseason every year, and Washington State and UCLA will be much improved also. There are no free passes in the Pac-10, you have to be ready to play day in and day out. Every game will be a dodfight."

WHO RETURNS

The 2006 Sun Devils will feature 20 players who have suited up for the Maroon and Gold before. Headlining these returners is junior outfielder Colin Curtis. Curtis, a preseason First-Team All-American selection, had a stellar season in 2005. He hit .342, including .400 during the NCAA Tournament, en route to being named to the All-Tempe Regional Team and the All-College World Series Team. Curtis was named to the Wallace Award Watch list for the upcoming season.

"Colin has a chance to have a very special year," said Murphy. "He has a lot of talent, but more than that, he is a great competitor. Colin NCAA CHAMPIONS: 1965, 1967, 1969, 1977, 1981 successful at this level."

Infielders Seth Dhaenens, Jeff Landry, Joe Persichina and Eric Sogard all return as well for the Sun Devils. Dhaenens hit .312, knocked in 31 RBIs and stole 11 bases for ASU in 2005, and will look to be a major contributor to the 2006 team. Catchers Greg Bordes and Austin Stickfisch also return for 2006.

Playing in the outfield along side Curtis will be J.J. Sferra, who had an impressive debut season a year ago. Sferra hit .311 last season and ad the unforgettable game-winning single in the 11th inning of the CWS match-up with Nebraska. Sferra will be joined by returning outfielders Willy Fox, Rocky Laguna and D.J. Butler.

The pitching staff will see a lot of familiar faces, but will also feature some untested arms. Frank Mesa, Kevin Dryanski, Tony Barnette and Josh Satow round out the returning arms for the Sun Devils.

THE NEWCOMERS

Being the #2 ranked recruiting class in the nation brings with it a level of expectations. Sun Devil fans hope that the incoming crop of 14 student-athletes will be able to live up to the hype.

Lefthander Ike Davis, a freshman from Scottsdale's Chaparral High School, will compete immediately for a spot in the weekend rotation and should find himself getting plenty of at-bats when not on the mound. Davis had an outstanding high school career, helping lead the Firebirds to three straight Arizona 4A titles, losing only 8 games during his sophomore through senior seasons.

"Ike has a chance to come in and contribute immediately," said Murphy. "He was an outstanding high school player locally, and hopefully his impact will be felt here."

Another highly touted newcomer is Matt Hall, a shortstop from Scottsdale's Horizon High School. Hall is one of four freshmen projected to be in the starting lineup on opening night, joining Davis, Preston Paramore and Brett Wallace.

Perhaps no new Sun Devils has credentials like Ryan Sontag, a transfer from Michigan State. Sontag was the Big Ten's Freshman of the Year in 2005, and was also named a Freshman All-American by Baseball America and Second Team All-Big Ten. Sontag is projected to be the starting leftfielder for 2006.

Another transfer who could see significant playing time is C.J. Retherford, the local product who came to ASU from South Mountain Community College. Retherford will see time at third base as well as out of the bullpen.

Todd Wells, Ben Bando, Daryl Arreola, Brady Martinez, Brett Bruneel and Matt Trink join the program as JC transfers, while Brett Wallace, Jeff Urlaub, Drew Bowman, and Jake Borup make up the freshmen newcomers.

TEAM EXPECTATIONS

With the type of schedule the Sun Devils have in 2006, coach Murphy expects to see some growing pains from his relatively young squad. But when the dust settles, the 12th year head coach also expects the Sun Devils to once again be in Omaha competing for the national title.

"I expect a trip to Omaha every season, and I will be disappointed if it doesn't happen," said Murphy. "As a program, we make it our goal to contend for the national championship every season. Our goals also include developing people to understand team and academic importance and to respect the game of baseball and your opponent."

"We work every day to make our dream of another national title come true, and I know everyone in our program from top to bottom badly wants that sixth championship ring."

Murphy knows the kind of pressure that is being put on himself and the student-athletes, but he also knows that's what it takes to build an elite program.

"Some people may think that having our goal be the national title every year is unrealistic, but that's what we do," said Murphy. "I know that every single player on our roster is entering this season expecting to go to Omaha and will be upset if that doesn't happen. That's the kind of attitude we like on a baseball team. We have a group of student-athletes that represent Arizona State University with pride and class, and I know they want to be on that field at Rosenblatt Stadium celebrating come the end of June."

Pat Murphy HEAD COACH

A Murphy became only the third head coach in Arizona State's modern baseball history when he was hired in August of 1994. Following in the footsteps of legendary head coaches Bobby Winkles and Jim Brock, Murphy's 11-year tenure at the helm of the ASU program has been marked with great success. Since inheriting the Sun Devil program, Murphy has carefully nurtured the tradition of excellence in Tempe, at the same time establishing himself as one of the top collegiate head coaches in the nation. He has guided Arizona State to top-12 national rankings in five of the last nine years, including last season's third place finish at the College World series. Murphy's ASU squads are always present in the national top 25, including a streak of 100 consecutive weeks in the polls that lasted from 2000 until the middle of last year.

In 11 seasons at the helm of the Sun Devil program, Murphy is 443-221-1 and has led the Devils to the NCAA Tournament in six straight years and eight of the last nine. He owns an all-time 37-25 record in NCAA Tournament action as a head coach and is 28-17 in postseason play at ASU. His coaching accomplishments include becoming the youngest collegiate coach to reach 500 career victories (with 75 percent of the wins at the Division I level).

In 21 years of coaching at the collegiate level, Murphy owns a career 816-392-4 record. At the Division I level alone, Murphy has recorded 761 wins in 18 years, averaging over 42 wins a year. With 20 more years of coaching, Murphy is on pace to break the all-time NCAA victories record by the age of 65. Before arriving in Tempe, Murphy took a virtually unknown Notre Dame baseball program from a non-fully funded sport into the national spotlight. His Notre Dame teams averaged over 45 wins a season during his seven years in South Bend, and made three consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearances.

DEVILS RETURN TO OMAHA IN 2005

The 2005 season was a memorable one for Murphy and the Sun Devils, as ASU made their 19th trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. The Sun Devils finished the year with a 42-25 record, the fifth 40 win season under Murphy. Earning their sixth straight postseason berth, ASU rolled through the Regionals held at Packard Stadium, setting up a match-up with defending national champion Cal-State Fullerton, who eliminated ASU in 2004. The Sun Devils got their revenge, defeating the Titans in three games to earn a spot in the 2005 College World Series. Arizona State would finish third in the World Series, their fifth third place finish in school history. They finished the season with a Top Six ranking in all four of the college baseball national polls, including two #3 rankings. 11 Sun Devils earned AII-Pac-10 honors, led by Travis Buck and Jeff Larish, who earned First Team distinctions. Larish led the Pac-10 with his 23 home runs, while Larish led the conference with his 110 hits. Seven Sun Devils were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, with Travis Buck going in the First Round to the Oakland Athletics.

DOMINATING ARIZONA

In the rivalry series against the University of Arizona, Murphy has guided ASU to a 35-19 record (.648) in his 11 seasons in Tempe and won 10 of 11 seasons series from the Wildcats.

THE STREAK

One of the NCAA's most impressive statistical streaks came to an end in 2004 when the Sun Devils were shut out for the first time in 506 games. With a 6-0 loss to NCAA Tournament participant Oklahoma on Feb. 15, 2004 at Surprise Stadium in Surprise, Ariz., ASU endured its first shutout since April 7, 1995 (at USC). The Sun Devils combined to go 338-167-1 during the nine-year streak and averaged 9.4 runsper game. ASU broke the NCAA record (previously 349 set by Coastal Carolina) on April 7, 2001, exactly six years to the day when the Devils last endured an offensive shutout. In 665 games during the Murphy era, ASU has only been shutout three times, and dating back to 1990 the program has only suffered five shutouts. Notable pitchers the Devils faced during the streak include Mark Prior (USC), Barry Zito (USC), Jeremy Guthrie (Stanford), Kirk Saarloos (CS Fullerton), Jason Young (Stanford), Ben Diggins (Arizona), Adam Johnson (CS Fullerton), Ryan Drese (Cal), Jeff Weaver (Fresno State), Jered Weaver (Long Beach State), Jeff Niemann (Rice), Chad Hutchinson (Stanford), Abe Alvarez (Long Beach State) and Adam Pettyjohn (Fresno State).

THE INTERNATIONAL STORY

Throughout his illustrious career, Murphy has earned accolades in the international ranks as well. In the 2000 Olympics, Murphy returned to the international baseball scene, helping lead the Dutch National team to their best showing in international competition with a 3-4 record in the Sydney games. The Netherlands placed fifth with wins over Australia, Cuba and their rival Italy. The Dutch's 4-2 victory over Cuba was the first loss in Olympic play at the time for the international power, a span that covered 21 games. The win by Murphy's squad was noted by nbcolympics.com as one of the top four upsets in Olympic team competition. In a pre- Olympic tournament, Murphy beat Team USA and their famous manager Tommy Lasorda. No stranger to international baseball, his ties to the Dutch team stretch back more than a decade. In the summer of 1987, Murphy led Holland to the European Championship, a victory that qualified the squad for the 1988 Seoul Olympics. He was asked to coach Holland in the Seoul Olympics, but declined so he could return to the University of Notre Dame, where he had recently been named head coach.

THE TRADITION

Murphy has helped to keep a tradition alive that has seen ASU record 44 straight seasons with at least 30 wins. Murphy's Sun Devil squads have averaged 40 wins per season and have advanced to the NCAA tournament in eight of the last nine seasons. Following suit to his coaching days at Notre Dame, Murphy is also overseeing the renovation of the program's facility. Packard Stadium has been under an ongoing multimillion-dollar renovation that has improved player facilities with a new clubhouse and playing surface. A new stadium entrance was also completed in 2003 and there are plans in the works for chair-back seats and a new press facility.

MURPHY IN POSTSEASON PLAY

Posting a career 37-25 record (.598) in postseason play, Murphy's NCAA playoff repertoire also includes a niche for carrying out the upset victory. On five separate occasions his teams have defeated the regional host team (including last season at Cal-State Fullerton), while six of the last ten Murphy-coached squads to make the playoffs have reached the

These accomplishments have come despite the fact that his teams have been sent to play the No. 1-ranked team six times in regional play (1992 at Miami, 1993 at Florida State, 1994 at Clemson, 1997 at Miami, 1998 at Wichita State and 2001 at Cal State Fullerton). The 2005 season marked the sixth straight year ASU advanced to the Tournament and the eighth out of the last nine.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Murphy's squads continue to demonstrate excellence in the classroom as well, as ASU boasted more First-Team Academic All-American selections (three) in 1999 than any other program in the nation. It was the most selections by an Arizona State baseball team in the history of the school. Former Devil Casey Myers (1998-2001) was a three-time selection to the Academic All-American team and twice the Academic All-American of the Year. In all, ASU has had five selections to the Academic All-American team since 1999, and 43 Devils have earned All-Pac-10 academic acclaim under Murphy's guidance since 1995. During Murphy's tenure, the baseball squad has an overall 2.60 GPA. It has steadily risen since he arrived in 1995, improving the 2.31 GPA from 1991-95. ASU ranks third with four first-team Academic. In addition, in his 20 years as a head coach, he has never had a player declared academically ineligible.

AN OFFENSIVE POWERHOUSE

The 2003 Arizona State Baseball team dominated the final release of the NCAA statistics as the only team in the nation (283 Division I teams) to rank in the top 10 in the four major statistical categories. ASU, who finished the season ranked No. 7 in the nation (Baseball America) with a 54-14 record, placed second in batting average (.347), second in scoring (10.03 runs per game), eighth in pitching (3.32 ERA) and ninth in fielding (.973 FLD%). In addition, the Sun Devils also ranked fourth in win-loss percentage (.794), fifth in slugging percentage (.529) and 28th in home runs per game (1.18). ASU also broke the NCAA record with 14 grand slams. Individually the Sun Devils also had several players rank nationally. Dustin Pedroia led the nation with 34 doubles (0.50 per game) and was also 31st with a .404 batting average and fourth in toughest to strikeout. Sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish led the nation in walks (1.20 per game), was sixth with 1.46 RBI per game (95 total) and 18th in runs scored per game (1.23). The 2004 season also saw ASU's offense lead the Pac-10 with a .325 batting average and averaging 7.89 runs per game. ASU also led the nation in hitting in 1999 while tying a school record with a .356 batting average. Murphy's 2002 squad nearly repeated as the NCAA leader in 2000, but finished second with a .346 average. The ASU offense has been potent under Murphy's watchful eye, combining to hit .331 and averaging 9.11 runs per game. The Devils have led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last seven years.

MAJOR LEAGUE PIPELINE

Grooming players for the major league amateur draft has become Murphy's forte. In fact, in 20 seasons as a head coach, only three players have been drafted lower after playing for Murphy than he was out of high school or junior college - and those circumstances are widely injury related. Since 1995, 89 players under Murphy's guidance have gone on to sign professional baseball contracts. During the Murphy era, 85 players have been selected in the annual MLB Draft, leading all NCAA schools. The 2003 draft had a record 12 Devils selected, with three more signing free agent contracts. Several of Murphy's former players have appeared in the major leagues, including Craig Counsell (Milwaukee Brewers), Willie Bloomquist (Seattle Mariners), Jeff Duncan (New York Mets), Jon Switzer (Tampa Bay Devil Rays), Chris Duffy (Pittsburgh Pirates) and Mike Esposito (Colorado Rockies). Other former Devils who have emerged as top future prospects include Brooks Conrad (Houston Astros), Dustin Pedroia (Boston Red Sox), Andre Ethier (Los Angeles Dodgers) and Travis Buck (Oakland A's).

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Community outreach has been a signature of Murphy's teams, who are taught to give back to their communities and be positive role models. In 1995, he founded the Guadalupe Project, which provides baseball instruction and life skills lessons to underprivileged youth from Guadalupe, Ariz., a small town within the metro Phoenix area. The program provides year-round mentoring for kids aged 7-12 by Arizona State assistant coach Jay Sferra and student-athletes, the primary goal to build leadership skills, selfesteem, encourage academic success and explore career opportunities. With help from the Tempe Diablos, Murphy also instituted the annual Diablo Free Youth Clinics, held at ASU's Packard Stadium each November and December for kids aged 7-12. More than 250 kids took part in 1999. In January 2000, Murphy and ASU baseball sponsored the first 5K Fun Run to Beat Lou Gehrig's Disease along with the ALS Arizona Chapter. Murphy also takes part in a charity boxing match with Father Joe to raise funds for his Guadalupe Project. For his constant community service and giving back to the greater Phoenix area, Murphy was awarded the 2001 March of Dimes Leadership Award.

ALWAYS A TOP RECRUITING CLASS

The 47-year-old Syracuse, N.Y., native and his coaching staff have assembled some of the finest recruiting classes in the nation during each of the past 10 years. His 1995 class was ranked No. 1 in the nation, with names such as Phill Lowery, Andrew Beinbrink and Ryan Mills. Year after year, Murphy gets commitments from several of the nation's top prep players to become Sun Devils. ASU's last five recruiting classes have been ranked in the national top 10. The freshman class of 2006 is again no exception, as Murphy will lead a class of 14 newcomers onto the field as Sun Devils for the first time. Despite a current trend that sees many teams reload with just top prospects, Murphy also brings players in to mold into a scrappy and hustling player. As Baseball America proclaimed in its annual recruiting class review in reference to Murphy's and ASU's unique and successful style of recruiting, "if you don't understand it, then you're not a Sun Devil."

THE SUN DEVIL YEARS

The 2004 campaign marked vet another successful season for Sun Devil Baseball. ASU recorded a 41-18 record, marking the fourth 40-win season under Murphy. Compiling a 28-7 record against the top-ranked non-conference schedule in the nation, the Sun Devils earned the national No. 7 seed while advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth straight year. Despite suffering a disappointing exit from the NCAA Tournament at the hands of eventual National Champion Cal State Fullerton, ASU earned a final ranking of No. 20 in the nation (Sports Weekly/ESPN) and spent the entire season ranked in the national polls. Fourteen Sun Devils earned All-Pac-10 honors, including first-team selections for Travis Buck. Dustin Pedroja and Jason Urguidez. Pedroia led ASU hitting .393 (96-for-244) and earned first-team All-America honors. Urquidez led the Pac-10 with 12 victories, marking the most by a Sun Devil starter since 1993. Buck earned a spot on the USA Baseball National Team after hitting .373 with nine home runs and a team-leading 58 RBI. ASU once again led the Pac-10 in hitting with a .325 team batting average and averaged nearly eight runs per game.

In addition to finishing in the top 10 in the NCAA in the four major statistical categories (scoring, batting, pitching, fielding), the 2003 season also brought about a number of entries into the ASU single-season record books. Murphy's squad ranked second in fielding percentage (.973), third in runs scored (682), sixth in hits (858), fifth in doubles (160), second in RBI (630), third in walks (406), tied for third in batting average (.347), fifth in pitching shutouts (10) and third in ERA during the aluminum bat era (3.32). The 54 wins are the most by a Sun Devil squad since the 1988 team finished with 60 victories. ASU also set an NCAA record with 14 grand slams. Individually, several Sun Devils also had record-breaking seasons. Shortstop Dustin Pedroia became only the 22nd player with 100 hits and the 16th player to hit .400. He set an ASU and Pac-10 record with 34 doubles. Sophomore first baseman Jeff Larish had a breakout season entering his name into the record books in several categories, including ranking fifth with 95 RBI and second with 78 walks. He broke the school record with four grand slams and tied the single-game records with nine RBI and four doubles

Murphy led the 2002 Sun Devils to a 37-21 record overall, placing third in the Pac-10 with a 15-9 record. ASU hosted the NCAA Mesa Regional at Hohokam Park, going 2-2 before losing to No. 1 seed Houston. Dustin Pedroia, Andre Ethier and Jeremy West all earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors, while Pedroia became ASU's seventh player to compete for Team USA. The pitching staff posted a 4.40 ERA, ranking second in the Pac-10 and the lowest during the Murphy head coaching era.

Myers and Andy Torres and a crop of seven freshmen All-Americans, the Devils placed third in the Pac-10 and finished ranked 22nd in the nation. Myers repeated as the Academic All-American of the Year and became only the third player in Pac-10 history to repeat as the Pac-10 Player of the Year. Since the Pac-10 joined the North and Six-Pac in 1999, ASU has won three of the four Pac-10 Player of the Year awards.

The 2000 edition of Arizona State baseball finished with a 44-15 record, and made its third postseason appearance in four years. Finishing within the Top 12 in the nation, the Sun Devils also captured their first Pac-10 Championship since 1993 with a 17-7 conference record, earning the league's automatic bid by virtue of tiebreakers against both Stanford and UCLA. Murphy's 2000 Devils once again made a dent on the NCAA record books, leading the nation in scoring (10.97 runs/game), second in batting average (.346), fifth in fielding (.971), seventh in home runs (1.46 HR/game), second in slugging percentage (.561) and first in triples (0.63 per game). Senior outfielder Mitch Jones, who Murphy lured to ASU just one year earlier as a junior college transfer, set the ASU record for home runs with 27.

Despite bowing out to Texas in the 2000 regional championship game, the Sun Devils led the nation in scoring and finished near the top in batting average for the second straight season, averaging just under 11 runs per game and hitting .346. ASU, playing "old school" college baseball, avoided being swept by an opponent in 2000. The Sun Devils also led the Pac-10 in attendance, averaging more than 2,600 fans at each home game. Mitch Jones, Casey Myers and Jon Switzer earned All-America honors. Adding to his credentials, Murphy was voted the 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year by his peers.

During the 1999 season, Murphy assembled one of the most prolific offensive teams in ASU history. Concluding the year with a 39-21 overall record, the 1999 Sun Devils led the nation in batting average (.356) and scoring (11.32 runs per game). Their .356 team average tied the top single-season mark in ASU history, set by the 1981 National Championship Team. The Devils had the remarkable offensive season despite playing the first 17 games of the season with wood bats. In addition, the Sun Devils led the conference in virtually every offensive category. Arizona State had more players drafted in the 1999 Major League Amateur Draft (10) than any other school in the Pac-10 Conference. The 1999 season also produced a Sun Devil Pac-10 Player of the Year and current Seattle Mariners utility player Willie Bloomquist.

Murphy and his coaching staff led the 1998 Sun Devils to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball—the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. It was Murphy's first trip to the big show, and it would be a memorable one. Earning an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, Murphy's squad was once again tested by being sent to play the No. 1 team in the nation. Traveling to Wichita, Kansas, the Devils started a journey that would eventually land them in college baseball's premier show-

The Devils finished regional play 4-1, notching wins over nationally ranked Georgia Tech, Oklahoma State and Wichita State along the way to advance to Omaha. He has carried the Sun Devils to five 40-win seasons and postseason appearances in eight of the last nine seasons.

• Murphy's Sun Devil teams have been one of the most potent offensive teams in the NCAA each year. In fact, since 1995, Murphy's teams have combined to hit .327 with an average of over 9 runs scored per game. ASU led the nation in runs scored and batting average in 1999-2000 and set a school record in 1999 with a team .356 batting average. ASU has led the Pac-10 in hitting in five of the last seven seasons.

• During his 21 years as a head coach in collegiate baseball, he has never had one of his players declared academically ineligible. ASU has carried a combined 2.6 GPA during the Murphy era, improving from a 2.31 team GPA from 1991-95.

• Murphy was named the 2000 Pac-10 Coach of the Year by his peers and the 1998 Baseball America National Coach of the Year. ASU has been ranked in 97 straight national polls dating back to the start of the 2000 season.

 Attendance at Packard Stadium during Murphy's tenure has constantly improved and has led the Pac-10 in each of his 11 years as head coach.

 Over the last nine years, ASU has an average end of the year national ranking of 15th in the nation.

• Murphy was the first head coach at Notre Dame to leave for another college head coaching job.

• While in South Bend, Murphy helped found the Team One Showcase that stands today as one of the premier amateur baseball showcases in the nation.

concluded the season with a consensus No. 2-ranking and a total of six players earned All-America status. In addition, 10 Sun Devils were taken in the 1998 MLB Amateur Draft, including Ryan Mills, the sixth pick overall by the Minnesota Twins. In just his fourth season at ASU, Murphy became the secondfastest Pac-10 coach to reach the CWS championship game, behind only former Sun Devil Coach Jim Brock. For his efforts, he was named the Baseball America National Coach of the Year.

Only two years into his ASU coaching career, Murphy took the program back to where it belonged, in postseason play. Murphy guided the Devils to their 16th regional appearance, taking his team across the country to face No. 1 seed Miami in Coral Gables. The '97 Sun Devils came within one out of making an 18th trip to Omaha, bowing out in the championship game of the Atlantic Regional to host Miami in dramatic fashion. After defeating the No. 1 Hurricanes 10-3, ASU dropped a pair of onerun games to Miami to fall short of a trip to Omaha. ASU finished with a No. 11 ranking by Baseball America and a 39-22 overall record

The Sun Devils again fell short of the NCAA Tournament in 1996, despite finishing the year ranked 25th by Baseball America and posting 35 Division I wins, with eight of those coming against top 25 teams. The 1996 squad posted the fourthbest team batting average (.338) in ASU history, and led the Pac-10 Southern Division in seven offensive categories including batting average, runs and hits. The Devils recorded a 35-21 record, despite being without pitching aces Phill Lowery, Kaipo Spenser and Ryan Mills for most of the year. Murphy graduated 11 players from the 1996 team to the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft.

Inheriting an average team in 1995-at a school where average is unacceptable-with only two returning starters and without the benefit of his own recruiting class, Murphy's first ASU squad posted 34 wins in 1995. Always a flare for the big game, nine of those victories came over Top 10 foes such as College World Series participants USC, Stanford and Florida State. During one stretch of games in mid March, Murphy led the Devils to six consecutive wins over eventual CWS participants Oklahoma, USC and Stanford. Despite being ranked in the top 25 all season and the numerous big wins, the Devils fell short of a trip to the NCAA Tournament, but the foundation was laid for the Devils to remain as one of the powers in college baseball. THE NOTRE DAME YEARS:

Prior to arriving at Arizona State, Murphy spent the previous seven seasons as head coach at the University of Notre Dame, where he guided the Irish to a consistent level of success unmatched in the history of the program. Building the program from the ground up with the support of only four full scholarships, Murphy guided the Irish to a 318-116-1 (.732) record in South Bend, including consecutive trips to NCAA regional finals in 1992, 1993 and 1994, a streak matched only by Texas. He built Irish Baseball into a Top 25 program, laying a strong foundation that still exists today. Under Murphy's guidance, the Irish averaged more than 46 wins per season and rejuvenated the pride in the program to the point where a new 3,000-seat stadium was built on the campus in the fall of 1993. Murphy's 1994

Notre Dame squad finished 46-16 and came within one win of a trip to the College World Series. The Midwestern Collegiate

Conference Champions advanced to the finals of the NCAA East

Regional in Clemson, S.C., knocking off the host and No. 1-ranked Tigers along the way. Notre Dame finished the season ranked 18th by Collegiate Baseball and 20th by Baseball

America. Current Arizona Diamondback Craig Counsell and

Texas Rangers pitcher Chris Michalak are just two of Murphy's products from ND who have excelled at the Major League level.

team that posted a combined 65-80 record in the three previous seasons. With a nucleus of players who finished 15-29 in 1987, and had never enjoyed a winning season at Notre Dame, Murphy

Murphy began his Notre Dame tenure in 1988, taking over a

During his seven-year head coaching stint at Notre Dame, Murphy led the Irish to a 318-116-1 record. Taking the non-fully funded program from a virtual unknown into a national power, he led the Fighting Irish to the NCAA Tournament in only his second year (1989), ending an 18-year stretch with Notre Dame not advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The Irish averaged just over 45 wins a season under Murphy and advanced to the NCAA regional finals three different times.

their first MCC title by winning the final four games of the conference tournament in a span of 23 hours as Murphy snared his first MCC Coach-of-the-Year honor. That season was followed by two more 45-win seasons. The 1990 Irish squad put together a 46-12 record, which ranked fourth in the nation. Over the last 29 games of the season, Notre Dame achieved a 25-4 mark to bring Murphy another MCC Coach-of-the-Year award.

In 1991, Notre Dame overcame a schedule that saw the Irish play their first 27 games on the road to post a 45-16 record. Included were wins away from home over national powers Texas and Miami as well as eventual national champion LSU and a midseason 18-game win streak. In 1990, Murphy began a baseball tournament hosted by Notre Dame that was held in Seattle's Kingdome. The 1992, 1993, and 1994 seasons added emphasis to Murphy's status as one of the nation's top coaches, as his Irish teams grabbed MCC titles and in each year beat regional hosts to come within one game of a trip to Omaha for the College World Series. It's no wonder why the Irish were labeled in 1992 by Baseball America as "the nation's fastest rising program." In fact, Murphy shunned the University of Miami's attempts to lure him away from Notre Dame and accept the Hurricanes' head job in 1992. When he left Notre Dame for ASU in 1995, he became the first Irish head coach of any sport to leave South Bend foranother job.

WHERE IT ALL STARTED:

In addition to his head coaching and international coaching experience, Murphy has spent numerous years in the collegiate ranks as both a player and assistant coach. He gained his collegiate experience as a pitcher at Florida Atlantic University, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees. Murphy played catcher, infield and pitched for FAU, and was recently honored on FAU's 20th Anniversary All-Star team as a pitcher and utility player. After college, Murphy signed a professional baseball contract with the San Francisco Giants in 1982. His four-year professional career included stints in the Giants and San Diego Padres organization, along with two independent clubs.

Murphy began his collegiate head coaching career at Maryville (Tenn.) College, leading the Division III Fighting Scots to their best record in 10 years during his first and only season in 1983. He was also an assistant football coach while at Maryville. He then returned to Florida Atlantic to serve as an assistant coach and administrative assistant to the athletic director. During his two-year stay, FAU compiled an 84-30 record and was consistently ranked among the Top 10 Division II teams in the nation.

During the summer of 1984, Murphy embarked on his first international experience, helping develop baseball in Australia as a state manager in New South Wales. He was in charge of running baseball clinics and promoting the sport to the public. Following his stint in Australia, Murphy was named player-coach of the Tri-Cities (Wash.) Triplets of the Single-A Northwest League, making him the youngest manager in professional baseball.

A return to the college ranks came in 1986, as Murphy signed on as head coach at California's Claremont-Mudd-Scripps Colleges. In his first year as head coach, Murphy piloted Claremont to a 24-16 record, earning the program its first Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship in 11 years. Murphy was named the West Region's Division III Coach of the Year as the Stags finished the year ranked 10th in the nation.

тне YOUNG LEFTY

Kai Joseph Murphy was born Aug. 26, 2000 and is quickly becoming one of the favorite future Sun Devils to watch. Always present rounding the bases after a game at Packard Stadium; Kai is a five-year-old future big leaguer who loves playing baseball and hanging out on his own sandlot at the Murphy house in Tempe. His favorite players include Ichiro and former Devils Travis Buck, Dustin Pedroia, Garrett Schoenberger and Benny "The Jet" Rodriguez from his favorite movie, The Sandlot. Coach Murphy also has a daughter, Keli, 20, who is an assistant in the Arizona State baseball office.

began revamping the program and promptly led the Irish to a 39-22 mark. The following six campaigns saw the Irish garner national rankings. conference titles. NCAA tournament appearances, 45-win seasons and more.

> Murphy's efforts were rewarded in just two years, as in 1989 the Irish posted a school-record 48 wins and logged their first NCAA tournament appearance in 19 years. Murphy guided the program to its first national ranking as the Irish were rated that year as high as 16th in The Sporting News, 23rd in Baseball America, and 24th in the Collegiate Baseball polls. Later, the Irish would earn

What They Are Saying ABOUT ASU BASEBALL

Coach Pat Murphy

Craia Counsell

Former Murphy player at Notre Dame and current Arizona Diamondback

"Excluding my parents, no one has had a greater impact on my career as a baseball player and as developing as a person than Coach Murphy.

Willie Bloomauist

Former Sun Devil and current Seattle Mariner "Coach Murphy is a very intense baseball coach, and that is what makes him so special, because he gets the most out of his players. He is great at teaching his players not only on the field, but off the field as well. He is a great all-around individual."

Joe Garagiola Jr

Senior vice president of baseball operations for Major League Baseball "Any player who plays for Coach Murphy can count on two things: He will make them a better player and a better person."

Dan Fyans

Longtime Los Angeles Dodgers general manager "I've know Pat for over 15 years. He has a passion for baseball and teaching the game that very few people match in intensity. He is a winner!"

Bob Welch

Former Cy Young Award winner

"Coach Murphy is someone that stays your friend for life. If my son had the opportunity to play at ASU, I would feel very comfortable with what Coach Murphy does and how he runs his program. He is like a brother to me and has always been a great help for me. He is the guy that can pick you up when you are down. I am thankful to have a friend like Coach Murphy.

Ron Coomer

Former big league player

"Pat Murphy has been a truly great friend for a very long time, and is what competitive baseball is all about: a will to win and having the plan to make it happen.

Barry Alvarez

University of Wisconsin director of athletics

"I had the pleasure of working with Coach Murphy for three years at Notre Dame. He is intense, knowledgeable—a play-er's coach. He coaches baseball with a football mentality."

Ron Scheuler

Former MLB general manager "I've known Pat for a number of years, and he is an outstanding coach and person. He is dedicated and I believe he will bring a together a championship team. He has put together a great staff, and I know the program will have a lot of success under Pat.'

Phill Lowerv

Former Arizona State pitcher and current

California highway patrol officer 'He is one of the most dynamic people I have ever met. It goes without saying that he is an outstanding coach. He taught me a lot about baseball and life. He goes above and beyond the call of duty with everything he does for his players.

Harvey Dorfman

Sports psychologist "What I admire is his intensity, which is often misunderstood by people who don't know him. My admiration is based on the fact that when he addresses whatever task is in front of him, he does it with such strong focus that many who are incapable of doing it, either misunderstand it or are envious. His intensity includes competition and doing the best for his players as athletes, students and young people."

Mike Gallagher ASU Alumni

"Pat is one of the best coaches I've ever observed regardless of the sport."

Lou Holtz

College Football Coaching Legend 'Pat is one of the best coaches I've ever observed regardless of the sport. He is enthusiastic, intelligent and an excellent communicator and motivator. I learned a great deal by observing him coach his Notre Dame teams.

Paul V Seiler

USA Baseball Executive Director/CEO "Coach Murphy is one of the most outstanding college coaches in the nation. We are certainly aware of the many quality baseball players that he has coached at Arizona State. We are sure that he will continue the tradition of competition that has defined Sun Devil Baseball for so many vears.

Brian Cleary

Former Murphy assistant and current head coach at the University of Cincinnati

"Not many would have left Notre Dame, especially to follow a legend [ASU coach Jim Brock] who had recently passed away. He had his dream job with Notre Dame baseball, and he developed it from nothing to a big-time program. It was his program. He did it without scholarships or funding. He just loves challenges, and that is a statement of who he is."

John Pawlowski

Former Murphy assistant and current head coach at College of Charleston

"With all of the parity and changes in college baseball, all big-time programs have had to make significant changes. These changes affect Arizona State as much as anyone else, and Murphy has done a tremendous job of quietly leading them to the World Series in '98 and having them in the hunt for the national title every year. It's tougher at ASU than ever before, and the draft especially impacts ASU more than other programs, but Murphy manages to do well regardless.'

Eddie Bane

Former Arizona State pitcher and current director of scouting for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim

"Murph is doing a great job of following in the footsteps of two legends in Bobby Winkles and Jim Brock. Tough shoes to walk in, but Pat is handling it very well. He is doing all that it takes to keep ASU as one of the elites in college baseball. Murph gets the most out of his players and does the right thing by his players when it comes to college or professional baseball. I consider Murph a friend and a true baseball man that I would not hesitate to ask to evaluate a player."

Asst. Coach Jay J. Sferra

Joe Garagiola Sr.

Former major-leaguer and current VP for the Arizona Diamondbacks "For me, he is a perfect coach. He works hard at helping the athlete develop as both a player and a man. Coach Murphy and Coach Sferra are a great combination.'

R.J. Harrison

Scouting director for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays

"He is a hard-working, very honest man of integrity. He gives his best effort trying to find the best players. He does a good job working for Murphy, and I see him everywhere always working his tail off.'

Mike Esposito

Former ASU All-American and current Colorado Rockies player "Coach Sferra's hard work and dedication exemplify what Arizona State baseball is about."

Asst. Coach Tim Esmay

Mike Benjamin

"Former major leaguer and Sun Devil infielder "Tim pours his heart and soul into this program and into coaching. I played beside him for two years and he was one of the most competitive people I've ever met and that characteristic rubs off on people. It is nice to see him back in the Maroon and Gold and to have him back in the Valley."

The Arizona State Way

Tim Huff

Toronoto Blue Jays, National Crosschecker

"My main observation of the players that come out of Arizona State is the toughness they display on the field. They are grinders and they are gamers. They take the toughness they learned at ASU and apply it into a 142-game minor league schedule, which is not an easy thing to do. They show up ready to play every day and that is a real tribute to the program and the coaching they came from."

Keith Boeck

Texas Rangers, Professional Scout

"I see a bunch of former Sun Devils throughout the summer and I was really impressed with their work ethic. They get the most out of their ability and play the game the right way. They put their bodies on the line and get the job done every day. They ar ethe gritty type of players that get the most out of their ability and are great to have as part of your organization. They know how to play winning baseball.

Jay J. Sferra

Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator • 11th Year

ay J. Sferra begins his 11th year as an assistant baseball coach at Arizona State University. In addition to his duties as the recruiting coordinator, Sferra oversees coaching of the outfielders and also coaches first base. He is the father of ASU sophomore outfielder J.J. Sferra.

"Jay has been an integral part of Sun Devil baseball and no one works harder," said head coach Pat Murphy. "He has the pulse of high school baseball and continues to be instrumental in our recruiting efforts. As recruiter, his focus is not only on bringing talent into the program, but also kids with great character."

As the recruiting coordinator, Sferra has established himself as one of the nation's best. Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball ranked this year's recruiting class that makes up newcomers for 2006 as the No. 2 class in the nation. Year in and year out, ASU's recruiting classes, built by Sferra and the Sun Devil coaching staff, are among the nations elite. The 2002 MLB draft saw eight Sun Devil signees drafted in the first five rounds, including three of the first seven draft picks in the first round.

Sferra tutored one of the best defensive outfields in the nation in 2003 that helped lead the Devils' to a 54-14 record. Junior Andre Ethier repeated as an All-Pac-10 performer hitting .377 with 10 home runs and was ASU's highest draft pick after being selected in the second round of the 2003 draft by the Oakland A's. Sferra also helped freshman All-American Travis Buck make the transition from a high school shortstop into one of the best corner outfielders in the Pac-10.

In 2004 Sferra also oversaw the regular outfield trio of Jeff Larish (LF), Colin Curtis (CF) and Travis Buck (RF). The three combined to make only two errors the entire season and together formed one of the best offensive outfields in the nation. Sferra helped Larish make the transition to left field after playing nearly his entire prep and collegiate career in the infield.

Sferra also coached the ASU pitching staff in 2001 and 2002. The 2002 squad ranked second in the Pac-10 behind Stanford with a 4.40 team ERA, marking the second lowest staff ERA during Murphy's nine years at ASU. The pitching staff also led the league in strikeouts (417), second in opponent batting average (.263) and second in games won (37).

Returning to coaching the outfielders, Sferra will once again be working where he helped coach some of ASU's best recent outfielders. He mentored Jeff Duncan and Willie Bloomquist, who have played in the major leagues. Former Devils Mitch Jones, Jay Sitzman and Dustin Delucchi also trained under the watchful eye of Sferra during at least one part of their successful ASU careers.

Sferra has also served as the director of instruction for Murphy's All Nine Baseball Academy and presently is the Executive Director of Coach Murphy's Programs for Youth, "the Guadalupe Project."

The program provides baseball instruction and life-skills lessons to the youth of Guadalupe and is a favorite among the Sun Devil players. "This program is all about personal development for our players and the kids in Guadalupe," said Sferra.

Sferra gained his collegiate experience at the University of Colorado as four-year letterwinner in baseball and three-year letterwinner in basketball. An All-Big-Eight selection and honorable mention All-American in 1976 and '77, he ranks at the top of several all-time Buff categories. He trails former majorleaguer John Stearns by one in lifetime hits and is third on the career list in runs scored. He holds the all-time record in Colorado history with 621 at bats. He holds the NCAA record for most at bats in a single game with 10, in a 22-inning game vs. Nebraska. As a basketball player, Sferra was the starting point guard for CU and lettered three years for the Buffalos. While playing summer ball for the Boulder Collegians in 1977, he played with Arizona State notables Bob Horner and Hubie Brooks.

Sferra was named 1972-73 basketball and baseball Player of the Year in high school at Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse, N.Y. He earned his bachelor's degree in Community Recreation from the University of Colorado in 1977.

He signed professionally with the Philadelphia Phillies organization in 1978 and played in the New York-Penn League.

Born and raised in Syracuse, N.Y., Sferra and his wife, Gerrie, have two children, Carrie (24) and J.J. (21).

Tim Esmay

Assistant Coach • 2nd Year/6th overall at Arizona State

ormer Sun Devil player and assistant coach Tim Esmay returns to the Arizona State Baseball program for his second season in 2006. Prior to his return to Tempe, Esmay served as the baseball head coach at the University of Utah for eight seasons.

Esmay's main duties include coaching third base, instruction of the infielders and hitters and he will also help with recruiting. Esmay also creates a dynamic link to former Sun Devil players and will help organize fundraising efforts and the annual alumni golf tournament and baseball game.

Esmay, a Scottsdale native, was a high-energy infielder (1986-87) and assistant coach (1988-90, 94) for the Sun Devils under legendary head coach Jim Brock.

He was a two-year starter for the Sun Devils following an All-American career at Scottsdale Community College. The infielder hit .305 (121-for-397) during his two years in Tempe with 23 doubles and five home runs. He was a member of ASU's 1987 College World Series team and was named to the All-West Region team that season. Esmay teamed with former big leaguer and one of his best friends, Mike Benjamin, for one of the best double-play combinations in school history.

A graduate of Horizon High School, Esmay returns to ASU after posting a 213-235-1 record at Utah. He also coached at Brophy College Prep in Phoenix for two years (1992-93) and was an assistant at Grand Canyon University (1995) and Utah (1996) before taking over the head job in Salt Lake City in 1997.

In eight seasons at Utah he compiled a 213-235-1, including winning the 1997 WAC Conference Championship. Esmay had 18 of his players go on to play professional baseball, including three from his last team in 2004. He also had 27 players earn all-conference honors during his tenure. Esmay's eight-year career at Utah also saw his team's completely rewrite the Ute record books.

In his first season directing the Utah baseball program, Esmay did what no Ute coach had done in 32 years when he led Utah to a WAC division title and a 36-21-1 record in 1997. The Utes posted a 22-8 record in the Northern Division that year. They also set nine school records as Esmay was named the 1997 Louisville Slugger WAC Coach of the Year.

In 2002, Esmay guided Utah to a 33-26 overall and 16-14 conference record. The 33 wins is the second most in school history since 1963, and the second-place league finish is the Utes best since joining the MWC in '99. Senior pitcher Mitch Maio garnered 2002 MWC Co-Player of the Year honors.

Esmay earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arizona State in '88. The 40-year-old Esmay and his wife, Joell, are the parents of two sons, Tucker and Cooper. SUN DEVIL BASEBALL 2006 eff Mousser enters his first year as the pitching coach for the Sun Devil Baseball team and will also assist with the All 9 baseball camps.

Mousser spent last season as an undergraduate assistant for the baseball program.

Mousser started his collegiate baseball career at BYU, where he spent three seasons. His freshman season with the Cougars saw him go 3-0, and earn a MWC Pitcher of the Week honor. During his sophomore campaign, Mousser was 9-4 with a 4.88 ERA for the Mountain West Conference Champs. He earned Second Team All-MWC honors. He went 5-7 during his third season in Provo and decided to transfer to Arizona State for his senior season. Mousser went 6-4 with a 3.94 ERA during his only season in Tempe, earning an All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention. He was selected in the 35th round of the 2004 MLB Draft by the Minnesota Twins and went 2-0 with a 4.63 ERA for the Elizabethton Twins.

The Tempe, Ariz., native was a prep standout at Marcos de Niza High School. Jeff earned earned team MVP honors twice at Marcos, and was named First Team All-State his senior season. He graduated from Brigham Young University in 2005. Jeff married his wife, Autumn, in July 2004, and they are expecting their first child in August, 2006.

Joel Bocchi Graduate Manager • 1st Year

oel Bocchi begins his first season as a graduate manager after spending four years in the program as a catcher. Bocchi appeared in 92 games over his Sun Devil career, hitting .288 and finishing with a career fielding percentage of .973. Bocchi missed his senior season due to injury, but during his junior season he saw action in 32 games as ASU's top pinch-hitter. In his sophomore season (2003), Bocchi started 22 games behind the plate and hit .318.

Bocchi graduated with a degree in sociology, and his father Don is the Associate Athletic Director for Sports Administration at ASU.

Graham Rossini

Director of Player Development and Baseball Operations • 7th Year

Graham Rossini, Director of Player Development/Baseball Operations, enters his seventh season with the Sun Devil Baseball program in 2006. With 11 years of experience working in college and professional baseball, Rossini brings solid credentials to the program and is responsible for the off-the-field operation of the baseball office. He oversees the baseball budget, game operations, official recruiting visits, team travel, baseball camps and all other business aspects of the baseball office.

Rossini is baseball's liaison with ASU's media relations office, the Pac-10 Conference and the NCAA. Rossini also works closely with the large contingent of Major League Baseball scouts and executives that work in the Valley. Along with ASU Head Coach Pat Murphy, Diamondbacks General Partner Jeff Moorad and Senior VP of Marketing & Communications Derrick Hall, Rossini is a member of a committee that will bring the first annual "Challenge at Chase" to Phoenix's Chase Field in 2006. The non-conference matchup with in-state rival University of Arizona will be played April 2 of this year with proceeds benefiting the "Diamonds Back' Field Building Program.

In an effort to increase ASU Baseball awareness nationally and improve upon ASU's already impressive status as the top attendance team on the West Coast, Rossini is working with other members of ASU's Athletic Department to identify innovative ways to promote Sun Devil Baseball. In 2006, EA Sports will launch the first ever college baseball video game and feature Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark as only one of 19 ballparks included in the game. Rossini has also worked closely with Wilson Sporting Goods and Nike to include ASU in various corporate promotions.

In addition to the business components of the program, Rossini is involved in the planning and execution of various team events throughout the year. Working with the On Deck Circle, Sun Angel Foundation and Baseball Alumni Association, Rossini coordinates the annual Alumni Golf Tournament, Team Awards Banquet and Meet the Team events. He was very active in the Bobby Winkles Field dedication that took place during the 2001 season, has been heavily involved in the planning and preparation of the Jim Brock Ballpark dedication in 2006 and has served on the tournament committee for the NCAA Regionals hosted by ASU in 2000, 2002, 2003 and 2005.

Over the past five years, Rossini has been instrumental in the planning and design efforts of the ongoing renovations at Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark. Prior to the 2003 season, a brand new playing field was installed as well as minor cosmetic improvements on the concourse of the facility. In the fall of 2004, a brand new players' clubhouse facility was completed and now boasts one of college baseball's finest locker rooms. Each of the forty lockers installed for player use were paid for by a Baseball Alumni Locker Sponsorship program. In the spring of 2005, the original players' lounge was renovated and now includes a video room, press conference room, umpire locker room and coaches locker room. Plans are now being developed to include chair back seating, a press box expansion, stadium covering and tribute areas throughout the concourse.

Following three years with the San Diego Padres' Class AA affiliate in Mobile, Ala., Rossini joined Sun Devil Baseball prior to the 2000 Pac-10 Championship season as a Baseball Operations Intern. Shortly before the 2002 season, he was named Director of Baseball Administration, a position he held until the summer of 2003 when he was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations. In the summer of 2005, Rossini inherited new responsibilities and was named to his current post as Director of Player Development/Baseball Operations.

Rossini was born in Red Bank, N.J., grew up in Mobile, Ala. where he attended Baker High School before graduating Cum Laude from ASU's nationally renowned W.P. Carey School of Business.

Support Staff BEHIND THE SCENES

Kenny McCarty

SPORTS MEDICINE. NINTH YEAR

DEVIL BASEBALL 2006

enny McCarty begins his ninth year as the head trainer of the Arizona State baseball program.

An invaluable part of the program with his extensive knowledge of baseball-related injuries, McCarty has successfully rehabbed two pitchers from Tommy John surgery, including former Sun Devil All-American pitcher Mike Esposito, who made his Major League debut in 2005 for the Colorado Rockies.

"Kenny is an invaluable part of our program," said head coach Pat Murphy. "What he has done rehabbing our pitchers and some of our other players, getting them healthy and mentally tough is truly amazing.

McCarty came to ASU in 1996 after graduating from Purdue University with a degree in athletic training. A native of Freemont, Ind., McCarty is very active in the National Association of Athletic Training (NATA) and also teaches an athletic training class at Arizona State. He is a huge NASCAR fan.

Steve Kirkman OPERATIONS AND RECRUITING

NCAA CHAMPIONS: 1965. 1967. 1969. 1977. 1981

ASSISTANT. EIGHTH YEAR

teve Kirkman begins his eighth year in the Arizona State Baseball program and his second as an operations and recruiting assistant.

Kirkman's duties extend both on and off the field. Off the field, he is responsible for managing the equipment inventory, maintaining the recruiting database, and executing other various projects for the coaching staff. On the field, his daily duties include field setup and assisting coaches during practice. He also helps with various baseball projects around the office.

Kirkman came to ASU in the Fall of 1998 and graduated from the College of Business in 3 1/2 years, with a BS in Accountancy.

A native of Spring Valley, Calif. (San Diego area), Kirkman was a distinguished graduate and baseball manager at Monte Vista High School.

Randy Policar MEDIA RELATIONS, FIRST YEAR

andy Policar begins his first season as the sports information director for Arizona State baseball.

Policar graduated from ASU in 2002 with a degree in broadcasting from the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication. As an undergrad, he spent four years in the Sports Information office as a student assistant. Prior to returning to ASU, Policar spent three seasons with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League, going to two ArenaBowls. He interned for the Arizona Diamondbacks during their 2001 World Series Championship season, and has also worked for the Phoenix Suns and various radio and television stations around Phoenix. He was also the Public Address Announcer for both the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury and the Arizona Rattlers. A native of Seattle, Washington, Policar graduated from Issaguah High School, the same high school as current Sun Devil Colin Curtis, who played baseball at IHS with Randy's brother Nate.

ASU BASEBALL G & A

Q:What is the philosophy behind playing what will again be one of the toughest schedules in the nation in 2006?

A: We feel that the Pac-10 is the toughest conference in the nation, and that is evidenced by the two College World Series participants last season. Therefore, our schedule has to match that difficulty for proper preparation for our conference and, hopefully, postseason schedule. We will play 27 games this year vs. teams that participated in the NCAA tourney in 2005, and eight games against CWS teams. In order to be your best, you have to play the best. Last year we had one of the toughest rated non-conference schedules in the nation, and this year is no exception as we will play eight games in Texas against some top flight baseball programs.

Q: How have former Sun Devils made an impact in professional baseball?

A: The seasons that Barry Bonds had in the last few years, winning the MVP awards, speak for themselves. Our entire program is tremendously proud of his accomplishments. Overall, we had eight former Sun Devils play in the major leagues in 2005 and another 40 in minor league baseball, and the great number of these players speaks volumes for the program and the level of player who is attracted to ASU. Mike Esposito and Chris Duffy made their MLB debuts in 2005, bringing the total number of former Devils to play in the pros to 81, and there are a few more ready to make the jump to the next level.

Q: How is recruiting affected by professional baseball?

A: Almost all of our recruits will be drafted each spring, and that makes it very difficult to maintain a strong recruiting class. As the signing bonuses in baseball continue to escalate, this will not get easier. However, we will continue to recruit the very best student-athletes in the nation, and we always anticipate that about half of these players will choose signing a professional baseball contract over playing college baseball. Therefore, after the draft has hit, our typical recruiting class of 20 players will then be reduced to 10 players who will actually matriculate at ASU. While this can be disappointing, we are always happy for these players as they chase their dream of playing major league baseball. Players like Jimmy Rollins, Dontrelle Willis, Prince Fielder, Ben Petrick and Andrew Good are prime examples of guys who committed to ASU for baseball but then signed professionally and are already in the big leagues. We are not only excited for their successes but also proud that they once chose ASU over other college baseball programs.

Q: What are the keys to recruiting quality student-athletes to the Sun Devil baseball program?

A: One of these keys is that our great tradition enables us to recruit the entire country and, for example, we were able to land players from five different states. Also, we are very interested in our recruits having outstanding personal character in addition to exceptional baseball talent. Thus, the kids in our program our first-class people, and they will always attract excellent student-athletes to our program. Our current players sell our program, and it is no surprise that our last three recruiting classes have been ranked amongst the highest in the nation.

Q: How does attendance at ASU baseball games compare to the rest of college baseball?

A: Out of the 283 schools playing baseball in 2005, attendance at Sun Devil baseball ranked No. 20 in the entire country and was first on the West Coast. Last year we averaged over 2,600 fans per game and had several games with over 3,000 fans. We consistently lead the Pac-10 and over the past five years have led the entire West Coast. Our baseball atmosphere here at ASU is outstanding, and our entire team really appreciates it and enjoys it.

Q: What are the unique graduation challenges for the Sun Devil baseball player?

A: Our players are eligible for the baseball draft after their junior year, and over the last 10 years, over 65 of our juniors have in fact been drafted. Since the year following a player's junior season is his best opportunity for bargaining leverage in the draft, this is the ideal time for these players to sign a professional contract. Thus, 85 percent of these juniors have signed professionally. Once a student-athlete enters minor league baseball, the logistics involved with taking classes and eventually graduating are quite challenging. We believe the key here is to stay on track to graduation in the student-athlete's first three years at ASU. Despite these inherent difficulties, we are extremely proud of the fact that 54 of our players have graduated in the last nine years. Also, ASU is among the leaders in all of college baseball in our number of firstteam Academic All-Americans over the last six vears

Q: What have been the effects of the recent changes in college baseball?

A: The parity in college baseball is greater than it has ever been. Whereas 20 years ago, many of the top programs had 30 full scholarships to award, the current NCAA limit is 11.7 full scholarships for the entire program of 30-40 players. This has helped level the playing field in some ways, while at the same time increasing the importance of both financial aid that can be awarded at private institutions and individual state scholarship programs, as seen in such states as Louisiana and Georgia. Unfortunately, we at ASU are unable to take advantage of either of these opportunities, and this puts great stress on our limited scholarship dollars. In addition, the college baseball season has been pushed back by two weeks over the last five years, and this is helping cold-weather programs to even the gap with the warmerclimate programs, which are the traditional powers.

Q: What are the effects of the recent changes in the NCAA regional format?

A: Since the tourney has followed a trend of being regionalized, it will make it very difficult for West Coast teams. This is because the strength of college baseball is in the West, but there are far fewer teams there than in the East. So quality teams from the West will be matched up very early in the tournament. The key, then, to getting a quality draw in the tourney becomes hosting a regional. This has also been proved over time as the Sun Devils have only three trips to Omaha that occurred when not hosting a regional, compared to 16 trips to Omaha in years in which we did host a regional. Besides having a great season, the other key to being awarded a host regional site is having an outstanding facility. We are fortunate that Winkles Field-Packard Stadium at Brock Ballpark is one of the finest baseball facilities in the entire nation.

Q: What have been the keys to the Sun Devils' recent offensive successes?

A: We are very proud of the fact that we have led the nation in both batting average and runs scored in recent years. Those statistics, combined the NCAA record of 506 consecutive games without being shut out, are great indicators that our hitters are on the right track. The key to this type of offensive production is the concept of team offense. Our hitters have been very unselfish, and put the team goals ahead of their own. We feel this is why our offense has been so successful, because of a tremendous team attitude.

Q: What have been some of the accomplishments of some of ASU's players in the various summer leagues?

A: We feel that outstanding summer competition is critical to player development in our program. We typically send players to many different leagues across the nation, including the Cape Cod League and also the Alaskan Summer League. However, the highlight of our summer program has been the overwhelming number of our recent players who have been selected to play for the USA Baseball National Team. Travis Buck, Dustin Pedroia, Jeff Larish, Mike Esposito, Jon Switzer, Casey Myers and Willie Bloomquist have all played for Team USA in the last eight years. Buck helped Team USA win a gold medal in 2004 in the World University Baseball Games.

Q: What are some of the national and Pac-10 awards ASU players have won?

A: Arizona State is a constant among the national college baseball powers when it comes to awards and recognition. We are tied for first when it comes to winning the Golden Spikes Award, with Bob Horner, Oddibe McDowell and Mike Kelly winning the prestigious award. Since the Pac-10 joined the Northern and Southern Divisions in 1999, we have won four of the six Pac-10 Player of the Year Awards. Willie Bloomquist (1999), Casey Myers (2000, 2001) and Dustin Pedroia (2003) have all earned the top conference honor. Each year we also have a number of players earn All-America honors. Q: What kind of media coverage does Sun Devil Baseball get?

A: Each year between 5-10 baseball games are televised locally in the Phoenix area, along with a nationally televised game on Fox Sports. 35-40 games are also scheduled to be on the radio and over the internet. With several beat writers, is one of the leaders in college baseball when it comes to daily media coverage.

How to Figure

Batting Average

Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A is 12-for-40, or hit .300.

Slugging Percentage

Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for a total of 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

On-Base Percentage

Divide the total of hits, all bases on balls and hit by pitch by the total of at bats, all bases on balls, hit by pitch and sacrifice flies.

OPS

This new stat is a good estimate of overall offensive ability. Add slugging percentage and on-base percentage to get the players OPS.

Earned Run Average

The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched, and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Average

The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 total chances, for a fielding average of .952.

Magic Number

Determine the number of games yet to be played by the division leader, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closet opponent.

Sun Angel Foundation

Foundation and its generous members have been providing much needed resources to Arizona State University and its student-athletes. The leadership displayed by the Sun Angel Foundation enables ASU Athletics to make gainful strides as the landscape of collegiate athletics continues to change. What has not changed in the Sun Angel mission is forging a partnership between ASU and the private sector to provide Sun Devil student-athletes with the resources necessary to become champions.

Since 1947, Sun Angels have contributed over $70 million in private funding to ASU Athletics. Annual contributions from Sun Angel members are the lifeblood of ASU Athletics. Contributions from more than 7,000 members support all of the university's 22 teams and over 500 student-athletes.

Sun Angel giving supports student academic excellence and provides funding for the Intercollegiate Athletics Office of Student Academic Development comprised of scholarship support, tutorial services, compliance, post-eligibility scholars, the Freshman Year Experience and much more. The Sun Angels understand that each seat-related gift and additional contributions to the annual scholarship fund has a significant, transformational impact in the lives of our student-athletes.

The support that Sun Devil athletics has received from its fans and community in the past is greatly appreciated. The Sun Angel Foundation stands ready to meet its half-century long goal of promoting excellence in both academic and athletic programs while becoming the best collegiate support group in the country.

SUN ANGEL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Scholarships and student service expenditures comprise one of Arizona State Athletics' greatest investments. First and foremost, each student-athlete comes to Arizona State to earn a degree. The academic advisors, computers, books, tutors and other services offered are critical to their success in the classroom as they grow personally and athletically.

Nearly $5,000,000 from private sources must be generated each year to offset the academic costs of supporting over 300 scholarships and 480 student-athletes. The Sun Angel Foundation's challenge is to increase annual giving to a level that will fund this investment while maintaining its support of the everyday costs of an athletic department.

Monetary Value of a Full Scholarship to Arizona State University (2005-06 Academic Year)

5-TIME NCAA CHAMPIONS

NCAA CHAMPIONS: 1965, 1967, 1969, 1977, 198

Dr. Michael Crow UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

N DEVIL BASEBALL 2006

ichael M. Crow became the 16th president of Arizona State University on July 1, 2002. He is guiding the transformation of ASU into one of the nation's leading public metropolitan research universities, one that is directly engaged in the economic, social, and cultural vitality of its region. Under his direction the university pursues teaching, research, and creative excellence focused on the major intellectual questions of our time, as well as those central to the building of a sustainable environment and economy for Arizona. He has committed the university to global engagement, and to setting a new standard for nublic service

Since he took office, ASU has marked a number of important milestones, including the establishment of the Biodesign Institute at ASU; the initiation of many new interdisciplinary research initiatives; the groundbreaking and planning of more than 1 millionsquare-feet of new state-of-the-art research facilities; and the announcement of two $50 million gifts, endowing the W. P. Carey School of Business, and the Ira A. Fulton School of Engineering, and a $10 million gift to establish the Virginia G. Piper Center for Creative Writing.

Prior to joining ASU, he was executive vice provost of Columbia University, where he also was professor of science and technology policy in the School of International and Public Affairs. Dr. Crow oversaw Columbia's research enterprise, technology and innovation transfer operations, strategic initiative program, and interdisciplinary program development.

He played the lead role in the creation of the Columbia Earth Institute (CEI), and helped found the Center for Science, Policy and Outcomes (CSPO) in Washington, D.C., a think tank dedicated to linking science and technology to desired social, economic, and environmental outcomes.

He is the author of books and articles relating to the analysis of research organizations, technology transfer, science and technology policy, and the practice and theory of public policy.

Lisa Love VICE PRESIDENT FOR UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS

n Saturday, April 23, 2005, Arizona State University President Michael Crow selected Lisa Love of the University of Southern California to serve as the new Vice President for University Athletics. She began in that capacity July 1, 2005

In June, prior to her ASU arrival, Love had planned to climb 14,162-foot Mount Shasta in Northern California, adding yet another accomplishment to an already impressive personal resume. But the opportunity to assume the athletic director's chair at ASU postponed those plans, perhaps to another year. A trailblazer her entire career, Love is now poised for the most challenging and fulfilling climb of her professional life.

Love became ASU's 21st athletic director (17th full-time) after taking over for Christine Wilkinson, who is a senior vice president for the university and had been serving as interim athletic director since April 8. Former athletic director Gene Smith left the university April 8 for a similar post at The Ohio State University.

Love moved part-time into administration in 1991, then fulltime after the 1998 season. She became a Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2002

At USC she handled the day-to-day supervision of eight sports-including women's basketball, volleyball, tennis and men's and women's swimming and diving-and monitored all women's sports at the university. She was active in the department's strategic planning, gender equity, civil rights and NCAA certification issues and she served on the NCAA Management Council. She also served two stints (1992-93 and 2001-02) as vice president of the Pacific-10 Conference.

As a coach, Love was a master teacher at the pinnacle of her profession. She compiled an impressive 404-171 as a college head coach for 17 seasons at Texas Arlington (199-78 from 1982-88) and USC (205-93 from 1989-98). At USC, she led the Trojans to nine NCAA tournament berths and eight finishes in the national Top 15. She was selected as the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year in 1997. She was national Coach of the Year in 1988 when Arlington went 30-4 and fell one win shy of the Final Four.

A tremendous athlete as volleyball player in her own right, Love is also a member of the Texas Tech University and Texas Arlington athletic Halls of Fame. As a student-athlete, Love was a four-year vollevball starter and an all-region performer at Texas Tech. She earned a bachelor's degree (1978) in physical education from Texas Tech and a master's degree (1985) in education administration from the University of North Texas.

Love also compiled a 79-40 record as head coach at Bowie High School (1978-82) in Arlington, Texas

Love also mentored some of the finest vollevball coaching talent in the nation. Among her proteges are head volleyball coaches at Texas (Jerritt Elliott), South Carolina (Nancy Somera), New Mexico (Kelley KcKee), Indiana (Katie Weismiller) and Idaho (Debbie Buchanan).

ASU President Michael Crow said Love brings qualities and experience that will carry ASU's Athletic Department to championships and excellence.

"We conducted an extensive search through an excellent pool of national candidates and interviewed many candidates. including several sitting athletic directors of BCS Conference schools." Crow said. "Lisa was our first choice. Lisa has the energy, competitiveness and drive to move ASU's Athletic Department onto the next level. Her philosophy for success will be instrumental in building ASU's Athletic Department through student achievement, community engagement and winning.'

Love said her experience and President Crow's vision for the university will serve as her foundation as she steps into her new role at ASU

Love plans to establish model programs at ASU by embracing the traditions of ASU and aggressively pursuing championships.

"Having been involved with a competitor of Arizona State University, I am well-aware of the talented people who work in the Athletic Department and the tradition they bring to this university's sports program," she said. "In order to make this an ideal program, we will need the leadership of our master teachers - our coaches, and the achievement, both on the field and in the classroom, of our student athletes."

Community members and university representatives applauded the selection of Love as ASU's new Vice President of University Athletics.

"It's a great hire," Ed Robson, CEO of Robson Communities and a member of the Sun Angel Board, said. "She comes from a great program at USC and she helped build that program. She is a winner with a lot of energy and dedication."

"I spent three years coaching with Lisa at USC," said Randy Lein, the Sun Devil Men's Golf Coach. "She is a genuinely good person. When I heard her name. I knew she'd be a great hire. I'm very excited and happy it worked out for her."

At ASU, Love serves as the senior administrative officer of the university's athletic program and reports directly to Crow. The program features 12 women's and 10 men's sports, including men's and women's basketball, golf, swimming and diving, tennis, track/field and cross country; women's gymnastics, soccer, softball, volleyball, and water polo; baseball, football and wrestling.

Love is responsible for the management and development on one of the finest and most comprehensive athletic physical plants in the nation at ASU, plaving host to nearly 1 million patrons each year. ASU's athletic staff includes more than 180 full and part-time coaches and administrative and support personnel who provide services to about 500 student-athletes.

Love has two sisters, Shannon Goddard and Debbi Dalton. Her parents are Tom and Jeanne Love of Arlington, Texas.

and Willy Fox (DH) all earned honorable mention Freshman All-American honors from Collegiate Baseball... junior LHP Erik Averill and senior RHP Jason Urquidez led the pitching staff, accounting for half of ASU's 42 wins... the duo were named ASU co-Pitcher of the Year and became 16th pair of teammates to each record 10 wins in a season... Averill went 11-4 with a 3.39 ERA and recorded five complete games... he struck out 99 batters in a Pac-10-high 127.1 innings and walked only 30... he earned national pitcher of the week honors after a 14-strikeout, complete-game win over New Mexico State (4/4)... he also had a pair of complete-game victories in the NCAA Tournament over Coastal Carolina (6/4) and Florida (6/22)... Urguidez went 10-4 with a 3.93 ERA while making 29 pitching appearances (17 starts) and logging 121.1 innings... he struck out 98 and held opponents to a .249 batting average... he became only the seventh pitcher in ASU history to record back-to-back 10-win seasons and finished his career 22-7... junior left-hander Brett Bordes led the Pac-10 with 38 pitching appearances, ranking second in ASU single-season history... he went 5-7 with four saves, including clinching the regional and super regionals with saves... drafted in the 24th round by the Detroit Tigers, Bordes has 78 career pitching appearances to rank fourth in school history and looks to break the record (102 set by Kendall Carter) in his senior season...as a team, ASU ranked third in the Pac-10 hitting .310 and averaged 7.18 runs per game... the Devils led the league and ranked 24th in the NCAA with 128 stolen bases (5th most in school history).

LARISH ENDS CAREER IN STYLE

First baseman Jeff Larish made several markings in the ASU career record books with a banner senior season. The two-time First-Team All-Pac-10 selection became only the 12th Sun Devil in school history to hit 20 home runs in a season. He finished his senior year tied for third in the singleseason record book with 23 home runs. In four years in the maroon and gold (2002-05), Larish blasted 51 homers, ranking second behind Bob Horner (56) in the ASU career record books. The senior slugger recorded five multi-homer games in 2005, including an ASU and College World Series record tying three home runs against Nebraska (6/21). He finished his career with seven multi-homer games. Of his 23 home runs in 2005. he hit 11 solo homers. five two-run shots and seven three-run bombs. Larish was a career .333 (283-849) hitter and ended his career ranked second in school history in walks (200), third in runs scored (229), second in total bases (505), fourth in RBI (235), fourth in at-bats (849), sixth in hits (283) and seventh in doubles (57). He capped his career by earning All-College World Series team honors in Omaha. He was drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the fifth round of the 2005 MLB Draft.

THE BARRY BONDS FACTOR

On March 8, former ASU All-American and seven-time National League MVP Barry Bonds met with several Sun Devil hitters while he was in town for a press conference to honor his former coach, Dr. Jim Brock. Bonds gave some tips in the batting cages to the Sun Devil sluggers, and the results were simply smashing. After meeting with Bonds, ASU combined to hit .324 and raise the team batting average 32 points from .278 to .310. The Devils also hit 39 of their 50 home runs after meeting with the Giants left fielder.

URQUIDEZ FINISHES STRONG

Senior right-hander Jason Urquidez turned in a strong finish to the 2005 season and lived up to his preseason billing as one of the top pitchers in the nation. Over his final 13 starts of the season, Urquidez was 5-1 with a 2.85 ERA. On the year, Urquidez was 10-4 with a 3.93 ERA and 98 strikeouts in 121.1 innings pitched. In nine Pac-10 appearances (seven starts), he was 3-2 with a save and a 3.23 ERA. In his two seasons in Tempe, Urquidez went 22-7 with a 3.70 ERA. He was taken by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the 17th round of the 2005 MLB Draft.

BATBOY TO CENTERFIELD TO CWS HERO

Outfielder J.J. Sferra is no stranger to the batter's box at Packard Stadium, only in 2005 he hit there rather than picking up bats. The son of assistant coach Jay Sferra, the younger Sferra spent several seasons in the late '90s as ASU's batboy, including duties at the 1998 College World Series. Sferra drove in the game-winning run with a bloop single in the 11th inning in ASU's dramatic CWS win over Nebraska (6/21) to bring the story of his CWS batboy duties full-circle. The Honorable Mention Freshman All-Pac-10 finished the year hitting .311. He was named to the Tempe Regional All-Tournament Team after going 7-13 (.538) with four runs scored and two stolen bases.

TRAVIS BUCK: HITTING MACHINE

After starting the season off slow, junior Travis Buck caught fire, leading the 2005 team in hitting with a .382 average. He banged out 24 doubles on the year, scored 82 runs, knocked in 43 RBI and tied for the Pac-10 lead with 27 stolen bases. He was the conference leader in hits (110), and finished his Sun Devil career with 272, good for eighth on the ASU all-time list. He ended his three-year career with a .362 batting average, and became the 22nd Sun Devil to be selected in the first round of the MLB Draft when the Oakland A's grabbed him with the 36th pick.

DEVILISH SPEED

The Sun Devils led the Pac-10 with 128 stolen bases (128-176) and recorded the fifth most stolen bases in school history. The 128 thefts were the most by a Sun Devil squad since 1999 (130). Travis Buck tied for the conference lead with 27 swipes, while Colin Curtis ranked fifth with 17. Rocky Laguna tied the ASU single-game record with four stolen bases against New Mexico State (2/7). A total of 13 Sun Devils stole a base, 11 players had two or more, and seven recorded double-digit steals. ASU also entered the record books against UCLA on April 24th when they stole eight bases, tying for fourth in single-game history.

Pac-10 in the NCAA Tournament:

The Pac-10 sent five teams to the NCAA Tournament in both 1990, 1997 and last season. It sent a record six teams in 1992. At least four teams have been sent to the tourney 13 different years. Last season, Arizona State, Oregon State, USC, Stanford and Arizona all advanced to the postseason, with the Sun Devils and Beavers earning CWS bids. Since 1983, the Pac-10 has sent at least three teams into postseason play every year.

The Devils & The Draft

o school has played a bigger role in Major League Baseball's amateur free agent draft than Arizona State University.

Since the inception of the draft in 1965, ASU has had more players chosen (339), more first-round selections (22) and more No. 1 picks (3) than any other school in the nation.

During the Pat Murphy era (1995-P), 85 players have been selected during the draft, averaing nearly eight players per draft since Murphy took over the program.

A modern-record 12 players were selected in the 2003 draft, most among all college baseball programs in the nation. The number of draft picks from ASU do not even reflect the recruited players who were drafted out of high school.

That's a marvelous testimony to Arizona State's reputation among major league scouts and top baseball executives. It also makes quite a statement about the school's tradition and its amazing consistency.

In 1990 and most recently in 2003, the staff of Baseball America compiled a pair of books on the history of the draft, complete with trends, lists and features, along with the names (all 45,000 of them) of every player drafted since '65.

Naturally, Arizona State and its alumni received plenty of coverage in the publication. The information on this page was taken from that book, The Baseball Draft: The First 25 Years.

Not surprisingly, the first player ever drafted was from ASU—Rick Monday, who went to Charles O. Finley and the Kansas City A's as the No. 1 overall pick in 1965.

Names like Jackson, Bane, Bannister, Horner, Bonds and Kelly—just to name a few—have produced their own fascinating draft stories. Without question, many more will follow.

Here's a sampling of news, notes and numbers, as they relate to the Devils and the Draft:

• A total of 339 Arizona State players have been drafted since the inception of the MLB Draft in 1965. No other school comes even close to that number.

• The Sun Devils' three No. 1 overall picks were Rick Monday (1965 to Kansas City), Floyd Bannister (1976 to Houston) and Bob Horner (1978 to Atlanta). No other school has more than one No. 1 selection. Mike Kelly narrowly missed joining this elite club, as he was chosen second by the Atlanta Braves in 1991.

• In 1976, Arizona State had a record 13 players drafted. They included Bannister, Horner, Ken Landreaux, Ken Phelps, Chris Bando and Ricky Peters. Of the 27 players on the roster, 26 were drafted at some point in their careers. A whopping 13 of them would eventually reach the big leagues. Baseball America says "it may have been the greatest collection of college talent ever assembled."

• Only 19 drafted players have ever gone directly to the major leagues. Two were Sun Devils: Bane in '73 and Horner in '78. Horner, and Dave Winfield two to have never played in the minor leagues.

• Louie Medina, who played at Arizona State in 1984 and '85, was drafted a total of seven times, beginning in 1981. That makes him one of six players who share the all-time lead for number of selections.

• Here's an impressive partial list of players who originally signed national letters of intent with Arizona State but never made it to the Tempe campus, instead opting for the draft's signing bonus: Jim Palmer, Dontrelle Willis, Andrew Good, Dale Murphy, Robin Yount, Lee Mazzilli, Billy Hatcher, Jeff Burroughs, Warren Cromartie, Garry Templeton, Rick Sutcliffe, Ryan Klesko, Kerry Woodsen, Lenny Dykstra, Johnny LeMaster, J.D. Durbin, Duane Ward, Mike Jones, Prince Fielder, Dale Sveum, Paul Konerko, Ben Petrick and Jimmy Rollins.

• The Sun Devils added another first round selection in 2005 when Travis Buck went to the Oakland A's with the 36th pick in the first round. He is the 22nd Sun Devil to be selected in the first round.

IMPROVING YOUR DRAFT STATUS AT ASU:

Did you know that since 1995, Arizona State has had 85 players selected during the annual June Amateur Draft. ASU is one of the top collegiate programs in the nation for producing an average of nearly eight draft picks a year since the inception of the draft in 1965. In addition, since 1995 when Murphy took over the program, 34 of the 85 drafted players were previously undrafted out of high school or junior college and all but two players improved their draft status. Under the two circumstances in which the player fell in the draft, arm injuries to Phill Lowery and Mike Esposito. After the 2002 season, Esposito signed for second-round money ($750,000) despite being a 12th round draft pick. Another interesting fact is that 13 players have gone from previously being undrafted to being selected in the top 10 picks (see list to right). The 2005 draft class saw seven Devils get their name called, including first-rounder Travis Buck (Athletics). The three-time All-Pac-10 selection and 2005 Collegiate Baseball/NCBWA All-American went from a 23rd round pick to ASU's 22nd player taken in the First Round of the Major League Baseball Draft.

Ny athlete who is recognized by his first name alone is in select company, and former Sun Devil Reggie Jackson certainly meets that criteria. Reggie came to Tempe on a football scholarship, but soon left his mark on the Arizona State baseball program. After walking on to Coach Bobby Winkles' squad in 1966, Jackson helped lead ASU to a 41-11 record. In his only season for the Devils, Reggie hit 15 home runs and led the team in runs, > total bases, hits and RBI. He was named a First Team All-American and was drafted second overall by the Kansas City Athletics in the 1966 draft. That began a Major League career that would span 21 seasons and see Jackson earn the famous nickname "Mr. October." During his career, Jackson belted 563 home runs and knocked in 1,702 RBI. But more than anything, "The Straw That Stirred The Drink" was known for his World Series heroics. Jackson appeared in five World Series, hitting ten home runs, batting at a .357 clip and amassing 24 RBI. During Game Six of the 1977 World Series, Reggie homered three times, off three different pitchers, on three pitches, solidifying his status as Mr. October. He was a 14-time All-Star, the American League MVP in 1973 and a two-time World Series MVP (1973 & 1977). One of the most colorful players of his era, Jackson had a candy bar named after him in 1978, and appeared in the movie The Naked Gun in 1988. In 1993, Reggie Jackson was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, garnering 93.6 percent of the votes. SUN DEVIL BASEBALL

Barry Bonds LINK TO THE LEGACY

an all-time Major League Baseball record of 73 home runs in his unbelievable 2001 season, former Sun Devil Barry Bonds might have thought that things couldn't get any better. But somehow the 13-time All-Star equally made an impression on the all-time record books. Bonds won his record seventh National League MVP award—and his fourth in a row-with another great season in 2004. Bonds hit 45 home runs in 2004, including hitting milestone homer No. 700 for his career. He hit .362 to win his second NL batting title in three seasons and shattered the major league record with a .609 on-base percentage, topping the previous mark of .582 he set two years ago. Bonds also walked 232 times to set a MLB record and his 120 intentional walks obliterated the old mark of 68. He has a career .300 batting average with 2,742 career hits in 2,730 career games. He ranks first among active players in RBI (1853), walks (2311), extra base hits (1349), runs (2078) and onbase percentage (.442). His 708 career home runs are third most all time and only six short of matching Babe Ruth. Bonds was a two-time All-American at Arizona State from 1983 to 1985, hitting .347 with 42 doubles and 45 home runs in his ASU career. He still holds the World College Series record with hits in seven consecutive at-bats.

Willie Bloomquist

Bloomquist recently completed his fourth season as a big leaguer. He made his MLB debut in 2002 with the Seattle Mariners. In his four seasons in the big leagues, Bloomquist has become a valuable commodity, playing almost any position on the field. In the 2005 season alone, Bloomquist played all four infield positions, as well as the outfield. He is a career .261 hitter who has spent his entire Major League career with his hometown Mariners. The former standout at Arizona State from 1997-99 put up amazing numbers during his Sun Devil career, capping it by being named the Pac-10 Player of the Year in 1999. He hit .394 in his ASU career, with 42 doubles, 22 triples and 15 home runs. Leaving after his junior year after being drafted in the third round by the Seattle Mariners, Bloomquist spent just part of four seasons in the minor leagues before making his MLB debut at the end of the 2002 season. Bloomquist is a native or Port Orchard, Wash., and was a prep star at South Kitsap High School.

SUN DEVIL BASEBALL 2006

Paul Lo Duca LINK TO THE LEGACY

fter eight years in the minor leagues, former Sun Devil Paul Lo Duca finally got his chance to be a starter in a Major League uniform...and the wait was worth it. Lo Duca had performed at every level of the Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system after being taken in the 25th round of the 1993 draft. Hitting over .300 in eight of his nine professional seasons, Lo Duca exploded onto the MLB scene in 2001 with the Dodgers. Playing in 125 games, Lo Duca led the team with a .320 batting average, including 147 hits, 28 doubles, 25 home runs and 90 RBI. Lo Duca was also very versatile in 2001, playing four different positions (C, 1B, LF, RF) and hitting in six different spots in the lineup. He added another good year in 2003, with a .273 batting average, seven home runs and was named to the National League All-Star team. He made his second straight All-Star game appearances in 2004. Lo Duca was traded from > the Dodgers to the Florida Marlins midway through the '04 season and combined to hit .286 with 13 home runs and 80 RBI. He has played in parts of eight Major League seasons and is a .285 career hitter in 772 career games. Lo Duca was traded to the Mets prior to the 2006 season. Playing only one year at Arizona State, Lo Duca was named The Sporting News Player of the Year in 1993, setting school records with a .446 batting average and 129 hits. He was also named a finalist for the prestigious Golden Spikes Award. His 37-game hitting streak in 1993 remains the second longest in school history. He is one of only 11 players to hit .400 and record 100 hits in the same season.

SUN DEVIL BASEBALL 2006 CWS APPEARANCES: 1964, 1965, 1967, 1969, 1972, 1973, 1975, 1976, 1977, 1977, 1977, 1978, 1981, 1983, 1984, 1987, 1988, 1993, 1994, 1998, 2005 CHAMPIONS: 1965, 1967, 1969, 1977, 198

LINK TO THE LEGACY Dustin Pedroia

ustin Pedroia came into the Sun Devil program in 2002 with expectations of becoming one of the best to ever wear the Maroon and Gold. Three years later and three team MVP awards later, Pedroia put an end to a career that will forever be remembered as one of the best in school history. The 5-9 shortstop practically rewrote the Arizona State record books, recording a career .384 batting average (7th best in ASU history), 71 career doubles (3rd), 298 hits (4th), 212 runs scored (6th) and 423 total bases (9th). He did all that while starting in every game during his

Sun Devil career (185 games). While Pedroia made an impact at the plate, it will be his fielding that fans most remember him by. A twotime National Defensive Player of the Year, Pedroia had a career .972 fielding percentage with only 23 errors in 819 total chances. He was a two-year starter for the USA Baseball National Team, a three-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection, a finalist for the 2004 Golden Spikes Award and helped lead the Sun Devils to the NCAA regionals in each of his three years. Pedroia put together one of the best individual efforts in ASU history in 2003 when he hit .404 with an ASU and Pac-10 single-season record 34 doubles. He was named the Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year and a first-team All-American. After hitting .393 with 24 doubles and nine home runs during junior season, he was selected in the second round (65th overall) of the 2004 MLB Amateur Draft by the Boston Red Sox. He made his professional debut in the summer of 2004 split between Single-A Augusta and Sarasota in the Red Sox minor league system. In 42 games split between the two teams, Pedroia combined to hit .357 (56-for-157) with 13 doubles, three home runs and 19 RBI. He did not make an error in 42 starts at shortstop. Following the minor league season, Pedroia headed back to the Valley to play for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League. Combined between college, the minors and the Arizona Fall League, Pedroia played in 117 games in 2004 and combined to hit .367 (167-for-455). During the 2005 season, Pedroia earned the 2005 Red Sox Minor League Offensive Player of the Year Award while splitting time with AA Portland and AAA Pawtucket.

ASU VS. LAFAYETTE—JUNE 7

ASU entered the tourney ranked first in the final national poll prior to the CWS, and lived up to the billing. The Devils blasted three Lafayette pitchers for a 14-1 win. Top Sun Devil sluggers included starting pitcher John Pavlik (2-for-3, 1 RBI), Sal Bando (3-for-5 with a double, a homer and 3 RBI), Jim Armstrong (3-for-4, 2 RBI and 3 runs scored) and Glenn Smith, with a 3-for-4 performance. Pavlik limited Lafayette to just three singles in getting the win, and was helped by Alan Schmelz in the ninth. Pavlik had a no-hitter for six innings before a run scored on three singles in the seventh.

ASU VS. ST. LOUIS-JUNE 8

Arizona State blasted open a close game in the fifth inning on a Duffy Dyer two-run homer to left, and eventually rode to a 13-3 demolition of the Billikens. Doug Nurnberg was the winner after relieving Ron Lea. Nurnberg came on in the fourth and struck out six in four and one-third innings before giving way to AI Schmelz in the ninth. Leading Devil hitters were Sal Bando with three hits in five trips, five RBI and three runs scored; Dyer, who was 3-for-6 with two RBI; and Glenn Smith, who was 2-for-4 with four runs scored.

ASU VS. OHIO STATE-JUNE 9

The Sun Devils scored six runs in the first inning en route to a 9-4 triumph over the Buckeyes. Jim Armstrong drove in two runs on a single, Rick Monday and Sal Bando posted run-scoring singles, and two OSU errors provided opportunities for another two A-State runs. Monday homered in the second, and Luis Lagunas doubled in two runs in the ninth to complete ASU's scoring. The Buckeyes never came close, despite scoring three times in the eighth off winning pitcher Jim Merrick.

ASU VS. ST. LOUIS-JUNE 10

The Devils won a 6-2 decision over the Billikens, as John Pavlik went eight and one-third innings for the win. Relief help from Doug Nurnberg locked up the Devils' victory. The Devils scored two in the first frame on a single by Luis Lagunas that drove in Jim Gretta, while Sal Bando scored on an error. Three runs in the third frame locked it up for ASU, as Lagunas' single drove in Rick Monday and Bando again scored on an error. Jan Kleinman followed with a single to drive in Lagunas. Kleinman was 3-for-4 with one RBI, Lagunas was 2-for-3 and drove in two runs, and Gretta was 2-for-4 with an RBI and three stolen bases.

ASU VS. OHIO STATE—JUNE 11

The "Sun Devil Express" to the school's first national championship suffered a temporary setback as Ohio State took a 7-3 decision. Ohio State moved to a 4-1 lead after four and scored a pair of runs in the fifth that all but put the game away. Devils starter Ron Lea was relieved in the fifth by Al Schmelz, while OSU starter John Durant went the distance and retired seven of the last eight men he faced. Ray Stadler was the top ASU man at the plate, with three RBI.

ASU VS. OHIO STATE—JUNE 12

Arizona State won its first national baseball crown in a 2-1 thriller over Ohio State. Sophomore reliever Doug Nurnberg was the man of the hour for the Devils, as he pitched his way out of a bases-loaded, no-out situation in the seventh, then stranded two runners in the top of the ninth. Nurnberg relieved starter Jim Merrick and came through with three innings of hitless ball while striking out four. ASU took the lead on a homer by Rick Monday in the first frame. What proved to be the winning run came for ASU after Sal Bando tripled in the sixth and then scored on Luis Lagunas' fly out to center. The championship victory was ASU's 54th win in the 62-game season, a national record at that time.

ASU VS. OKLAHOMA STATE—JUNE 12

Arizona State defeated Oklahoma State by a 7-2 margin, using a five-run seventh frame and the superb pitching of Gary Gentry to forge the win. The Devils fell behind, 2-0, in the top half of the first, but rebounded with a solo homer by Scott Reid in the third and an RBI triple by Jack Lind that scored Dave Grangaard in the fourth to tie the score. In the seventh, the Devils' main artillery was a three-run homer by Scott Reid. Gentry struck out at least one man every inning. From the fifth inning on, he did not allow a base runner and struck out seven.

ASU VS. BOSTON COLLEGE—JUNE 13

ASU turned in an 8-1 win over Boston College on the power of a four-hit performance by starting pitcher Tom Burgess. Burgess also provided some offense for the Devils, as he drove in three runs, including the winning run on his sacrifice fly in the second inning. Larry Linville went 3-for-4 to lead ASU at the plate, while Ron Davini was 2-for-3.

ASU VS. STANFORD—JUNE 14

Unheralded sophomore hurler Larry Gura led ASU to a 5-3 win over No. 1-ranked Stanford. Gura came on in relief of starter Jeff Pentland after Stanford scored three runs in the first and then had runners on first and second in the top of the second inning. Gura came in and surrendered a single to load the bases before he calmly retired the side. From that point on, only four Stanford hitters reached first and none went farther. ASU scored on a single by Dave Grangaard and a double by Larry Linville, followed by Ron Davini's two-run double in the second frame. The Devils tied the score in the fifth on Scott Reid's run-scoring double. Moments later, Grangaard singled home Fred Nelson and Reid for the final margin of victory.

ASU VS. HOUSTON-JUNE 16

The Sun Devils dropped a 3-0 decision to Houston, as ASU managed only four hits off Cougar starter Rick Brewer. Jeff Pentland went the distance for ASU, allowing just six hits while walking one and striking out 11. ASU had scoring opportunities in the third and seventh frames but was unable to capitalize. Tom Paciorek doubled to lead off the Houston second, and then scored on Ken Herbert's single. Paciorek tripled home G.J. Cantu in the fourth and scored when Herbert singled.

ASU VS. STANFORD—JUNE 17

Following ASU's loss to Houston, three teams remained in the CWS, each with one defeat. Houston drew a bye into the finals, and ASU and Stanford fought for the right to move to the final game against Houston. What resulted was a classic battle of two evenly matched squads, as ASU and Stanford struggled 14 innings before A-State won a 4-3 decision. ASU starter Gary Gentry and Stanford starter Rod Poteete locked horns in a pitcher's duel that lasted over three and one-half hours. Gentry allowed nine hits, walked six, struck out 15 and allowed no Stanford runners past first base after the sixth inning. Gentry was the man who eventually scored the winning run, after singling in the 14th frame. One out later, Scott Reid sent a fly ball deep to center that Stanford center fielder Jeff Rohlfing misjudged and was unable to recover and field. Reid's hit dropped in and Stanford dropped out of the tournament.

ASU VS. HOUSTON—JUNE 18

ASU won its second NCAA championship in three years, with an 11-2 drubbing of Houston in the CWS finale. ASU starter Tom Burgess allowed 12 hits and four walks but struck out 15 men, including three whiffs of Cougar All-America Tom Paciorek for the Devils win. The Sun Devils went on top with three runs in the top of the first and never looked back, as four Houston hurlers tried to stem the Devils tide. Larry Linville, Scott Reid and Ralph Carpenter each collected a pair of RBI for the Devils, with Reid going 2-for-3 and scoring four runs. ASU catcher Ron Davini was named Outstanding Player of the CWS with a .409 series batting average.

A third-inning single by Terry Brenner, a fifth-inning single by Roger Detter and a sixth-inning single by Ralph Dick were the only Sun Devil offensive efforts. Sun Devil starter Larry Gura was still suffering the effects from a battle with the flu, and surrendered 10 hits before exiting in the seventh inning. Jim Crawford and Ken Hansen were the A-State relievers.

ASU VS. UCLA—JUNE 14 Clutch pitching by Lerrin LaGrow and a costly Bruin error brought ASU a 2-1 win in 11 innings. With one out in the 11th, John Dolinsek singled to center and Paul Ray Powell was hit by a pitch. Billy Cotton followed with a ground ball to the mound, but UCLA pitcher Jim York threw wild into center, which allowed the winning Sun Devil run. LaGrow recorded four strikeouts while issuing just two walks and six hits.

ASU VS. MASSACHUSETTS—JUNE 17

Freshman pitcher Craig Swan won this one for the Devils, as ASU took a 4-2 win. Massachusetts had only five hits off Swan in six and two-thirds innings. Arizona State won the game by virtue of a big fifth inning, with five hits during that frame that powered all four ASU runs. The big hits in that inning were Roger Detter's RBI triple to left center, and Ralph Dick's single that sent Detter on to score. John Dolinsek and Paul Ray Powell then each hammered triples to drive in the other Sun Devil runs. Larry Gura relieved Swan in the seventh with two outs and runners at first and second, but quelled that potential rally in short order.

ASU VS. TULSA—JUNE 18

The Sun Devils' offensive punch was revived for this game, as ASU waltzed to an 11-3 win over the tourney's only undefeated team. Ken Hansen started for the Devils and gave way to Larry Gura in the fifth inning, and Gura came from the bullpen for the second time in as many games to record the win. Home runs by Paul Ray Powell (sixth, one on) and John Dolinsek (eighth, none on), as well as a pair of RBI each for Billy Cotton and Jeff Osborn were the keys in the A-State hitting attack. Dolinsek totaled three RBI for the day.

ASU VS. NYU—JUNE 19

The hitting and pitching of Lerrin LaGrow made the difference for the Devils, as ASU turned back NYU by a 4-1 score. Trailing, 1-0, in the bottom of the sixth, LaGrow singled in Jeff Osborn and Lenny Randle to give ASU the lead. Roger Detter's sacrifice fly then scored Jack Collinge for an insurance run. LaGrow allowed five hits, walked four, struck out nine and went 3-for-4 with two RBI.

ASU VS. TULSA-JUNE 20

A 10-1 victory over Tulsa brought ASU its third NCAA national championship in five years, as the pitching of Larry Gura and the strong hitting of virtually the entire lineup powered the win. Gura allowed only six hits, struck out 10 and did not issue a walk, while the Devils kept Tulsa pitching busy by banging out 11 hits. Billy Cotton and John Dolinsek, voted the tourney's outstanding player, both slammed home runs. Cotton's blast was a three-run shot in the fifth, while Dolinsek's was good for a pair of runs in the following frame. Gura's victory was his second of the tournament, as he concluded the year with a 19-2 record. ASU's Paul Ray Powell had three hits in the championship game to boost his season total to 89 base hitsgood for an NCAA record at that time.

ASU VS. CLEMSON—JUNE 10

Sun Devil bats blistered Clemson early, and ASU then hung on for a 10-7 win. The Devils knocked undefeated Clemson hurler Ron Musselman out of the game early with one run in the first and a three-run third inning. In the fifth, Jamie Allen led off with a homer and Steve Michael doubled in a run to give ASU a 6-0 lead, but ASU starter Jerry Vasquez faltered and allowed the Tigers five runs in the bottom of the inning. ASU rebounded with four runs in the sixth on Chris Nyman's leadoff homer, a two-run single by Bob Horner and Michael's runscoring infield single. Mitch Dean took the win in relief, but not without the help of Jamie Allen, who came on to retire Clemson in the ninth.

ASU VS. SOUTHERN ILLINOIS—JUNE 13

ASU missed too many scoring opportunities and fell to SIU, 3-2. ASU outhit the Salukis, 11-4, but the Devils left 11 men on base, seven of whom who were in scoring position. A two-out single by Chris Bando in the first and a homer by Bob Horner in the fifth were the only Devil scores of the game. SIU's Neil Fiala tripled in one run and Jerry Disimone's single scored the second SIU run of the third frame. The winning run scored in the fifth when Fiala singled home Steve Stieb.

ASU VS. MINNESOTA—JUNE 14

ASU starter Jerry Vasquez got off to a shaky start but came back strong to lead the Devils to an 8-4 victory. Vasquez surrendered two runs in the first inning and an unearned run in the third, but during the final six innings, he allowed only two hits. The Devils took the lead in the second on an RBI single by Steve Michael, then Mike Henderson delivered a two-run single. Solo homers by Brandt Humphrey and Bob Horner were the other major portions of the Sun Devil offense.

ASU VS. SOUTH CAROLINA-JUNE 16

An electrifying relief pitching performance by Jamie Allen and some clutch hitting earned ASU a 6-2 win over South Carolina. A walk to Allen forced in one Devil run in the fifth, and Bob Horner followed with a two-run single. Allen came on in the seventh to relieve ASU starter Mitch Dean, and Allen's antics on the mound became one of the Series' highlights. Allen captivated the crowd by jumping high into the air after each strike pitched, while a ball would produce a crouch or a lengthy glare at the opposing batter. Enthusiasm was the likeliest reason for Allen's exhibitions, but performance was the key to his superb relief pitching. After stranding three Gamecock runners in the seventh, Allen retired the side in order in the final two frames, with a pair of strikeouts in the eighth and one in the ninth.

ASU VS. SOUTHERN ILLINOIS—JUNE 17

ASU avenged the earlier CWS loss to Southern Illinois with a 10-0 lambasting of the Salukis. ASU totaled 19 hits during its barrage on SIU pitchers, including 13 hits off Saluki starter Dewey Robinson in the first four innings. ASU starter Darrell Jackson performed to the other extreme, allowing just three singles and only one Saluki runner to progress as far as third base. Main contributors to the Devil offense were Brandt Humphry, with four hits (three RBI with one homer), Chris Nyman (two RBI), and Bob Horner and Jamie Allen, who each had two RBI. The Devils came up just two hits short of the CWS record.

ASU VS. SOUTH CAROLINA-JUNE 18

Arizona State earned its fourth NCAA championship with a superbly played 2-1 victory over a feisty South Carolina squad. The Devils went ahead early when Rick Peters scored after Mike Henderson singled. South Carolina countered with a solo homer by Steve King in the seventh to knot the score and provide a dramatic background for the eventual Devil victory. In the Sun Devil half of the inning, catcher Chris Bando rocked a one-out homer to right to provide the Devils with the winning margin. ASU starter Jerry Vasquez capped one of the most memorable years ever for a Devil pitcher with this victory—Vasquez went the distance for his 12th win of the year after joining the Devils earlier in the season as a walk-on player. ASU's Bob Horner was the MVP of the series, hitting .444 with two homers and nine RBI. The win boosted the Sun Devil's final season record to 57-12.

ASU VS. TEXAS—MAY 30

The Sun Devils' explosive offense scored early and often as ASU defeated Texas, 11-2, on the first day of competition. Left fielder Stan Holmes went a perfect 5-for-5 with six RBI and three runs scored as Arizona State scored in six of the nine innings played. First baseman Alvin Davis chipped in a 4-for-5 effort as well. A-State starter Kendall Carter pitched five and two-thirds innings of five-hit ball, allowing only two unearned runs in the fifth to pick up the win. Kevin Dukes came in and shut the Longhorns down over the next 3.1 innings, recording six strikeouts.

ASU VS. MISSISSIPPI STATE—JUNE 2

Behind the superb pitching of reliever Kevin Dukes, ASU held on to beat Mississippi State, 4-3, before a crowd of 10,589. Although the Devils jumped on the board first with a run in the second, the Bulldogs countered with three runs in the third to chase starting pitcher Randy Newman from the mound. Newman ended the night allowing five hits in 2.2 innings with five strikeouts and no walks. ASU would score three runs in the fourth to seal the win. Designated hitter Ricky Nelson went 2-for-4 with a run scored, while second baseman Kert Martinez went 1-for-3 with two RBI. Reliever Kevin Dukes pitched 6.1 innings of shutout ball to pick up the win on the mound.

ASU VS. OKLAHOMA STATE—JUNE 5

The Sun Devil bats were alive and well in ASU's third game of the CWS but fell just short in an 11-10 marathon loss to the Cowboys. It took the two teams 13 innings of play to decide a winner in this five-hour game. A record crowd of 15,333 was on hand to watch the thrilling game. With the score 10-7 in the top of the ninth, ASU scored three runs on Stan Holmes' home run to force the contest to extra innings. But the Cowboys would eventually score off of reliever Jim Boudreau in the bottom of the 13th as Eric Dorn singled home John Cardinali to score the winning run. Left fielder Stan Holmes went 3-for-5 with seven RBI in this losing effort for the Devils. OSU reliever Craig Tice would pick up the win, pitching 4.0 innings of hitless ball.

ASU VS. TEXAS—JUNE 7

With their backs to the wall, the Sun Devils would pull off another rout of Texas, 13-2, to advance to the title game. Arizona State would score most of its runs in chunks—four in the second and six in the eighth. Devil hitters chased Longhorn starter Dave Seiler after 1.2 innings. ASU's Jeff Ahern picked up the win, despite allowing nine walks through five innings. Texas would strand 13 runners in the game. Randy Newman notched his first save for the Devils, going 4.0 innings and allowing only one run. Shortstop Donnie Hill went 4-for-4 at the plate with two runs scored and two RBI. Third baseman Mike Sodders turned in a 3-for-4 performance with one run scored.

ASU VS. OKLAHOMA STATE—JUNE 8

Arizona State would claim its fifth NCAA title with a 7-4 win over Oklahoma State, avenging the earlier extra-inning loss. ASU pounded the Cowboy pitching staff for 13 hits before a crowd of 13,239 and capitalized on four OSU errors. Reliever Kevin Dukes would pick up his second win of the series, pitching 8.2 strong innings and allowing only two hits and two runs while striking out six. For the Devils, left fielder Stan Holmes, who was named Outstanding Player of the CWS, went 2-for-4 with a run scored and an RBI. Designated hitter Mike McCain turned in a 1-for-2 performance with an RBI as well. ASU's Alvin Davis, Mike Sodders, Lemmie Miller and Kevin Dukes were named to the all-tournament team. The potent Sun Devil offense batted .325 for the tournament with nine home runs in six games.

SUN DEVIL BASEBALL 2006

Media Information

The Arizona State Media Relations Office is located in the Carson Student-Athlete Center on the first floor (behind team store). Assistant media relations director Randy Policar is the main contact between local and national media and the ASU baseball office. All media questions should be directed to Policar via e-mail (randy.policar@asu.edu) or by phone at (480) 965-6594. Credential requests, statistical questions and all interviews will be handled by Policar.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for the working press, radio and television should be made as early as possible, with at least two days' notice prior to game day. Requests should be made in writing if possible, and can picked up prior to the game at the Sports Information Office or held at the Will Call window at Packard Stadium for game-day pickup. Please contact Randy Policar (randy.policar@asu.edu) for all credential requests.

PARKING

Parking passes are available to members of the working media through the ASU Media Relations Office. Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis. All media are encouraged to arrive as early as possible to avoid parking problems. Media parking will be allocated in front of Packard Stadium in a marked lot. Please contact Randy Policar for parking requests.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Accredited photographers holding passes will be admitted to shoot in designated areas on the field and in the stands. Please be advised that any person taking photographs at an ASU event must have a photo or media credential. Still photographers are asked not to restrict views of fans if at all possible. A diagram of areas where photographers can work will be provided.

TELEVISION

Facilities are available for network broadcasts. Please contact the Media Relations Office for more information.

RADIO

Space is available in the Packard Stadium press box for the opposing team's radio broadcast. One (1) complimentary phone line will be provided in the visiting radio booth. For more questions or the installation of additional phone lines, please contact Mitch Otto in the Sun Devil Sports Network at (480) 727-8380. The visiting radio section will be labeled at Packard Stadium with two seats available for a play-by-play and color analyst.

PHONE LINES

The Packard Stadium press box is limited in terms of phone lines during the game, but all media and SIDs will have access to an outside phone line to file a story. A phone line will not be provided for the visiting SID for live stats or for use during games. The lines are local only, so if you need a long-distance line, please make arrangements in advance. A fax machine is also available in the press box vicinity to send box scores to local and national media outlets following the game. The main Packard Stadium press box phone number is (480) 727-7253.

INTERVIEWS

On game days, Arizona State head coach Pat Murphy and his players will be available for postgame interviews following a 10-minute cooling-off period. Murphy will meet with the media outside the ASU dugout (third-base side) immediately after talking with the team in the locker room. Requested players will be escorted to the dugout by ASU sports information personnel after Coach Murphy meets with the press. Please provide ASU SID Randy Policar with any names of players you wish to talk to in the seventh inning.

PRACTICE INTERVIEWS

Arizona State players are also available following practice on nongame days at Packard Stadium. Reporters who wish to interview players before practice should be at the field between 2 and 2:30 p.m. (practices will normally start around 2:30 p.m. at Packard Stadium). Please note that Mondays will usually be the off day for the team. Please contact the ASU Media Relations Office to arrange off-day player phone interviews as well as all interviews with head coach Pat Murphy.

WWW.THESUNDEVILS.COM

Media, fans and alumni can catch up with all of the latest Arizona State baseball information via the Internet at www.thesundevils.com. Information and statistics are updated in a timely manner, and schedules, rosters, player bios and Sun Devil history are also available.

LIVE STATS

All home games and a majority of ASU's road games can be viewed over the Internet at www.TheSunDevils.com with a live statistical feed.

THE SUN DEVIL SPORTS NETWORK:

In the spring of 1999, ASU athletics agreed to a partnership with a new multimedia right-holder, the Sun Devil Sports Marketing. This group, is part of Viacom Sports Marketing. KDUS 1060 AM will carry approximately 35 games over the air and Internet. Tim Healey enters his sixth year of play-by-play for the Sun Devil baseball program, with longtime ASU beat writer and ASU historian Bob Eger providing color commentary. Legendary Arizona Diamondbacks Broadcaster Jeff Munn will also fill in when Healey is on the road with the ASU Men's Basketball team. All games that will be broadcast over the air can also be heard live over the Internet at www.TheSunDevils.com.
