Struggling Sun Devils Looking To Get Back On Track After Losing Eight of Last 11 Games. 12-22 Cougars Come To Town.

What's On Tap:

The No. 15 Arizona State Sun Devil baseball team will try to rebound this weekend with a three-game Pac-10 series against the Washington State Cougars (12-22, 4-5). The Sun Devils have struggled as of late, losing eight of their last 11 games. They carry an overall 22-12-1 record into this weekend's action and sit in eighth place in the Pac-10 with a 5-7 record. ASU was dealt its third consecutive Pac-10 series loss this past weekend, dropping two of three at Southern California. For the second consecutive weekend the Sun Devils won the Sunday game to stave off its first series sweep since April 1999. Losing its last three conference series is new territory for ASU, not having lost a Pac-10 series all last year in a 17-7 Pac-10 championship season in 2000. Freshman Rod Allen continues to lead ASU at the plate with a .416 batting average. Allen was 6-for-10 in the USC series and is hitting .424 in Pac-10 play. All-American catcher Casey Myers continues to have a banner senior season, hitting .408 with five home runs and leads the Sun Devils with 22 multi-hit games. He needs only 29 RBI to match the ASU and Pac-10 career records. The Sun Devils carry a six-game winning streak vs. the Cougars into this weekend's series and have won eight of the last nine dating back to 1998. While the Cougars are 11-22 overall, they have been swinging a hot bat as of late, hitting .354 in Pac-10 play. In their last six Pac-10 games, WSU is hitting an amazing .389 vs. UCLA and Arizona. ASU fell five spots in the Baseball America poll from No. 10 to No. 15

The All-Time Series With The Cougars:

The Sun Devils and Cougars have met 22 times in the all-time series, with Arizona State holding a commanding 19-3 edge. ASU and WSU have played in Tempe in all but the three games that were held at Bailey-Brayton Field in Pullman last year. The Sun Devils swept the series from the Cougars last year, posting wins of 24-3, 3-1 and 14-8. The Devils outscored the Cougs 41-12 in the series last year, with Mike Lopez having an incredible weekend at the plate with a .727 batting average (8x11). ASU has won the last six games vs. Washington State and eight of the last nine dating back to 1998.

The Record Is In The Books. ASU Has Scored In 352 Straight Games:

The Arizona State baseball program made history last Saturday when they scored at least one run in its 350th consecutive game. The Devils broke the 12-year-old record in a 5-1 loss to USC exactly six years to the day when they were last shut out. ASU was shut out 9-0 on April 7, 1995 at Dedeaux Field. The one run scored Saturday marked only the seventh time during the streak that ASU has scored only one run. The record is still in tact at 352 straight games. ASU was neck-in-neck with Wichita State who was not shut out in 332 games, but when the Shockers fell 1-0 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette ASU took over the national lead. Coastal Carolina held the record at 349 games set from 1983-1989. ASU also had a stretch of 278 games without being shut out from 1990 to 1994, meaning the program has only been limited to no runs three times dating back to 1990.

Media Exposure:

The Friday and Saturday day games can be heard over the airwaves on XTRA 910 AM and over the internet at www.thesundevils.com. The voice of Arizona State Sun Devil athletics, Tim Healey, will bring you the play-by-play with longtime Arizona sportswriter Bob Eger providing the color analysis. Thursday's game will be televised in the Phoenix area on Cox Cable 9. While Thursday's game won't be broadcast by ASU, fans can access the WSU broadcast at www.wsucougars.com with Alex Webster calling all the action. All three games can also be viewed over the internet with Live Stats at ASU's official athletic site, www.thesundevils.com.

Around The Horn With ASU Baseball:

Arizona State broke the NCAA record by scoring a run in its 350th consecutive game on Saturday at USC... with 11 runs Sunday, the streak is now at 352... the Sun Devils broke the streak Saturday, exactly six years to the day when they were last shut out (April 7, 1995) against the same team (USC) at the same field (Dedeaux Field)... the one run Saturday was only the seventh time during the streak in which ASU has managed only one run... ASU also had a streak of 278 in the early 1990's, meaning ASU has not scored a run in only three games dating back to the 1990 season... ASU avoided a sweep with the win Sunday and have now not been swept since April 1999... the seven losses in Pac-10 play equals the entire total from the 2000 Pac-10 Championship team... ASU has already played the top three teams in the conference in Oregon State, USC and Stanford... the 17 hits vs. USC on Sunday was the most since March 9 vs. South Florida... the seven doubles was a season high... Casey Myers now has 22 multi-hit games on the year and 88 in his illustrious career... with 254 career RBI, he is 29 from tying the ASU and Pac-10 record of 283 set by former Sun Devil Andrew Beinbrink... Myers was 6-for-12 in the USC series, lifting his Pac-10 average to .364... he is hitting .408 on the year... junior Chris Duffy recorded multi-hit games in every game vs. USC and was 7-for-15 overall in the series... freshman first baseman Jeremy West hit his sixth home run of the year Friday to overtake the team lead from Myers... West was 3-for-8 vs. USC and is hitting .365 on the season with 26 RBI... ASU is out-scoring its opponent 302-183... the Devils also lead the Pac-10 in hitting with a team batting average of .337... senior third baseman Mike Lopez hit two doubles Sunday, increasing his team-leading total to 15 on the year... his 3-for-3 game Monday vs. Fullerton raised his batting average to .355... Andy Torres, who is 8-3 on the year, picked up his first career save Sunday against the Trojans, throwing 3.1 shutout innings, allowing only one hit... senior Ty Johnson had his best outing of the year Friday, allowing only two hits and two runs in 3.2 innings... it was Johnson's first Pac-10 outing of the year and first outing overall in over a month after having part of his right index finger cut off after having his hand get stuck in a pitching machine... Johnson was ejected from that game for hitting a USC batter and has served two games of a four-game mandatory Pac-10 suspension... the series vs. WSU will be played Thursday through Saturday to observe Easter Sunday... Freshman Rod Allen is the hottest Sun Devil, leading the team with a .416 batting average... in the last five games ASU is hitting .308 with 14 extra base hits and three home runs... in the last 10 games ASU is batting only .269 with 22 doubles and three home runs... freshman first baseman Jeremy West leads the team with six home runs on the year... Aaron Klusman threw a career-high 2.1 innings Monday vs. Cal State Fullerton, striking out five and not allowing a hit... Nick Walsh made his second start of 2000 and the first of his career in the field (RF)... ASU is 11-5 when Casey Myers hits in the third spot in the lineup, while 11-7-1 when he hits cleanup.

Offensive Powerhouse ASU Tops In Scoring in NCAA Last Two Years:

Arizona State has led the NCAA in scoring each of the last two years, averaging 11.32 runs per game in 1999 and 10.97 runs per game last year. ASU also led the nation in batting average with a team total of .356 in 1999. The Sun Devils .346 average in 2000 fell just percentage points shy of matching that feat a second year in a row, trailing Stony Brook by one point. ASU out-hit Stony Brook 738-500. During Pat Murphy's seven seasons in Tempe, the Sun Devils have been a scoring machine with 3,672 runs, averaging 9.42 runs per game. 2001 has been no different for ASU, leading the Pac-10 by scoring 8.63 runs per game and hitting .337 as a team. The 8.63 runs per game not only leads the Pac-10, but is 13th in the NCAA. The .337 team batting average ranked eighth in the nation behind UC Santa Barbara's .357 mark at the beginning of the week.

Sun Devil Baseball 2001

Blame It On The Rain:

Rain in Arizona, yeah, that's right, and it has put a damper on the 2001 baseball season so far. Record amounts of rain in the Southwest have forced three cancellations at Packard Stadium, with two more being cancelled when ASU traveled to Fullerton to play the Titans. ASU has already made up one game with St. Mary's (6-4, L) and have a make-up game with Cal State Fullerton scheduled for April 9. The Sun Devils have also added a game with Nevada in Reno on May 16 at 3 p.m. ASU switched the game with New Mexico State from April 19 to April 17 so they can play Oral Roberts in Tulsa after the Oklahoma game. The Sun Devils will play three games in three different cities during that stretch of games with New Mexico State, Oklahoma and Oral Roberts. ASU was lucky to get all three games in at Oregon State. A 41-minute rain delay marred Saturday's game, and both the Sunday and Monday games were delayed at the start because of rainy conditions.

How ASU Faired vs. the WSU Cougars in 2000:

The Sun Devils swept the Cougars last year in Pullman. They opened the three-game series with a convincing 24-3 win. Jon Switzer picked up the win by allowing only two runs in six innings. Jeff Phelps opened the game with a first-inning grand slam home run. In a weekend marred by rain and cold weather, ASU outscored the Cougars 41-12. The middle game of the weekend provided a good game with the Devils coming out on top 3-1. Chad Pennington tossed eight solid innings, allowing only one run, while closer Eric Doble pitched a perfect ninth. Sunday saw the Devils close out the sweep with a wild 14-8 victory in a game played just under four hours. Mike Lopez led all players during the weekend, going 8-for-11 at the plate (.727) with five runs scored, three doubles, a triple, a home run and seven RBI. Casey Myers was 6-for-12 with six runs scored. In addition to outscoring the Cougars, ASU also out-hit WSU 50-34 and out-pitched the Cougs 4.00 to 12.67 (ERA).

Sun Devils Endure "Power Outage" at the Plate, But Still Rank High In NCAA:

While much of the state of California has endured a serious shortage of power, it seems as if the Arizona State baseball team is also suffering through its own "power outage." The Sun Devil offense had collectively gone 280 combined at-bats, dating back to the fourth inning of the Sunday South Florida game (3/11) without a home run before Casey Myers went deep in the first inning vs. Stanford on Sunday. ASU is last in the Pac-10 with 17 home runs on the year. Regardless, ASU still leads the Pac-10 in hitting at .337 and has the second best slugging percentage at .470. ASU also leads the league in scoring with 302 runs. In the last 14 games ASU has seen its team batting average drop from .372 to its current mark of .337. Rod Allen

Road Warriors:

With a tough schedule to start the Pac-10 season with three of their first four league series on the road, the Sun Devils will traveled to USC last weekend for a tough three-game series in which ASU dropped two of three. ASU has now played the top three Pac-10 teams in the standings in consecutive weeks. This weekend's series with Washington State will start a stretch of games in which ASU will play four team and seven games in the next eight days. After ASU plays the Cougars, ASU will then take back to the road to play three mid-week games in three different cities. The Sun Devils will play Tuesday (Apr. 17) in Las Cruces, NM at New Mexico State, then Wednesday (Apr. 18) at Oklahoma in Oklahoma City and then finally at Oral Roberts on Thursday (Apr. 19) in Tulsa, Okla. ASU will also travel to Knoxville, Tenn., to play the Volunteers May 1-2. After the four games last weekend on the road, ASU is 5-6 on the road, with nine more games to be played away from Packard Stadium.

This Is Sun Devil Baseball...

- Casey Myers has been a run-producing machine in 2001 with 48 on the year, and with 254 in his career needs just 29 RBI to match the ASU and Pac-10 career record of 283. Myers has hits in 27 of ASU's 35 games, including 22 multi-hit affairs.
- The Sun Devil baseball program has finished ranked in the top 12 in the nation in three of the past four seasons; a feat matched by only six other college programs during that time. They have been ranked in the top 12 25 consecutive weeks in at least one national poll.
- ASU has had four Academic All-Americans in the last two years, more than any other college baseball program in the nation.
- ASU is averaging 8.63 runs per game this year and is leading the league by hitting .337 as a team. The Devils have scored 10 or more runs 16 times.
- ASU's 10 stolen bases vs. Southern Utah (2/1) set a school record breaking the old record of nine set in 1982. Mel Stocker had four that game to tie a school record. On the year ASU has 76 stolen bases.
- Switzer's eight (8) consecutive strikeouts vs. Southern Utah was the second most in school history, as was ASU's 21 combined K's that same game. Switzer now has 82 combined K's in 67.0 innings.
- Freshman Rod Allen is hitting .416 after going 6-for-10 in the USC series. He is hitting .424 in Pac-10 play.

Chris Duffy Makes An Immediate Impact:

Junior Chris Duffy started the season with some bad news by spraining his right MCL before the Alumni game. After a month of intense rehab, the highly touted JC transfer from South Mountain CC saw his first action of his ASU career in the Creighton series and has fared well since his return by racking up a team-high 19-game hitting streak. The speedster had his 19-game streak snapped in the Saturday game vs. Stanford, but after a mini 0-for-7 slump, Duffy racked up three multi-hit games vs. USC. Duffy extended his hitting streak with one hit in each of the three games vs. Oregon State, two of which were perfectly executed drag bunts, and ran the streak to 19 games with a double vs. Stanford on Friday. It ended with an 0-for-4 game vs. the Cardinal. During the streak, Duffy hit .378 (28x74) with 19 runs scored, 16 RBI, four doubles and a triple. Duffy, who was the nation's top base stealer at the JC level last year with 59, is described as a five-tool player and will play center field for ASU. Duffy is rated as one of the top 100 prospects in the nation by Baseball America (62) and earned the distinction of having the best outfield arm and best speed in the Pac-10's preseason outlook by Baseball America. Duffy hit .409 at South Mountain last year and was a 43rd round draft choice of the Boston Red Sox. Duffy also has three outfield assists, cutting down runners at home plate each time, and has recorded at least one hit in each of his 18 starts. The junior, who is listed as a switch hitter, is also experimenting to become a full-time left-handed hitter. In his first game batting all lefty vs. Cal (3/18), Duffy was 2-for-5. Duffy is hitting .350 on the year with 12 multi-hit games and four doubles.

Memorable Moments in 2001:

- Down 3-2 in the top of the seventh, pinch-hitter Nick Walsh delivers a two-out, two-run single through the left side of the infield to help lift the Sun Devils to a 5-3 win over then No. 18 Cal State Fullerton (2/23)
- Jon Switzer strikes out 13 of the 16 batters he faces vs. Southern Utah en route to a 10-2 win over the Thunderbirds. He struck out eight consecutive in that game to rank second in the ASU record books and as a team ASU fanned 22 SUU batters to also rank second in the record books. (2/2)
- Mel Stocker steals home and makes great diving catch in right field vs. Oregon State (3/24)
- Mike Lopez goes 4-for-5 with three doubles and seven RBI in a 14-4 win over Creighton (2/18)
- Down 2-1 in the top of the ninth, Walsh comes through again with another two-out, two-run single to help lead ASU to a 4-2 come-from-behind win at Cal. Walsh grew up near Oakland (3/17).
- In possibly the weirdest and best play of 2001, second baseman Brooks Conrad slipped on his way to catch a pop fly, but on his way to the turf cleverly kicked the ball up into the air while on his back where right fielder Jonah Martin then snagged the ball to record the third out of the inning. With ASU leading 2-0 at the time, the hit would have tied the game scoring two runs for OSU (3/26).
- ASU snaps a four-game losing streak by defeating No. 1 Stanford 6-5 in a total team effort. (4/1)
- ASU breaks an NCAA record with a run on April 7, 2001. The 5-1 loss vs. USC broke the NCAA record having not been shutout in 350 consecutive games. The streak is currently at 352 games.

Injury Bug Bites the Sun Devils:

Several Sun Devils are hampered by injuries. Preseason All-American closer Eric Doble has pitched only once since the LSU series and was roughed up for two runs and two hits in less than an inning worked vs. Cal State Fullerton. Doble tore a torn tendon in his right middle finger against LSU and has not progressed since. First baseman Jeff Phelps has been sidelined with a torn hamstring throughout the season, but has played as of late. He tweaked the injury at Oregon State, but played all three games vs. Stanford and will start this weekend vs. WSU.

The Espo Report:

Possibly the best news of the season for the Sun Devils is the fact the RHP Mike Esposito (Las Vegas) is back in the starting rotation. A reliever on strict pitch counts through much of the early season, Esposito made his return as a starter vs. LSU. Leaving the game with a lead against the Tigers, Esposito made good in his second start of the year, picking up the win against South Florida with 3.1 solid innings. Only 11 months from successful Tommy John surgery, Esposito turned in possibly ASU's most impressive pitching performance of the season. Despite picking up the no-decision vs. Cal, the hard-throwing right-hander allowed only four hits and two runs in seven innings against California. He struck out six and did not walk a batter in his start. Esposito is 2-2 on the year after winning Sunday's game vs. USC with a 4.59 ERA in 33.1 innings. He has struck out six batters in three of his last four starts and has 31 on the year. His start vs. Stanford (3/30) came exactly one year to the day after his Tommy John surgery. Esposito was a fifth-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Reds in 1999 and was ASU's opening day starter in 2000 before going down with the injury. Esposito is scheduled to start Friday or Saturday vs. Washington State.

42 Years of Sun Devil Baseball:

While the history of baseball at Arizona State University goes back all the way to the early 1900's, the school officially began sponsoring varsity baseball in 1959. In 42-plus years of varsity baseball at Arizona State, the program has built a legacy matched by few in the college baseball world. With a 1,879-748-1 all-time record, Arizona State has recorded winning seasons in all but one year, advanced to the College World Series 18 times, won five national championships, won six Pac-10 titles, produced 13 Players of the Year and three Golden Spikes Award winners, and has gone to the NCAA Tournament 24 times. Under current head coach Pat Murphy, the Sun Devils have finished in the top 12 in three of the last four years and finished second in the nation in 1998. They have been ranked in the top 12 in the nation in at least one national poll for the past 25 consecutive weeks.

Sun Devil Baseball 2001

The Wild, Wild West: Jeremy West:

With a batting average as high as .452 batting average three weeks ago, ASU freshman first baseman Jeremy West has had a rough transition to Pac-10 pitching. After going 1-for-11 in the Cal series to start his Pac-10 career and 3-for-8 last weekend at USC, West is now hitting a very respectable .365. West had a career weekend at the plate, going 8-for-12 in the South Florida series. The product of Silverado High School in Las Vegas, Nev., West has recorded a hit in 21 of 33 games this year and leads the team with six home runs. The sweet-swinging West was hot prior to the Cal series, hitting .667 (10x15) in the four games prior to visiting Berkeley with two doubles, two triples and two home runs. West had a career night at the plate Mar. 9 vs. South Florida, going 4-for-5 with two RBI that night, falling just a double short of the elusive cycle. West has started 25 games during his freshman campaign, with 16 coming at first base and seven at designated hitter.

Danger...Rod Allen On Deck:

One of the biggest surprises of the 2001 season has been the stellar production of freshman designated hitter Rod Allen. A likely redshirt candidate to begin the season, Allen caught fire at the plate in non-conference action and has since been a regular producer in the Sun Devil lineup. The product of Desert Vista High School in Phoenix, entered the week with the second highest batting average in the Pac-10. Much of his success came when Allen built up a 17-game hitting streak that was snapped March 24 vs. Oregon State. Allen was 27-for-60 during that stretch of games and had his batting average up to as high as a team-leading mark of .452. After having his streak ended at 17 games, Allen went into a 0-for-10 slump, before ending it with a 3-for-4 game against Stanford last Sunday. He continued his hot hitting vs. USC, going 6-for-10 vs. the Trojans in front of several family and friends. He grew up in Culver City, Calif., and his mom still resides in Southern Calif. Allen is now hitting at a team-leading clip of .416 with 37 hits (89AB), nine doubles, two home runs and 22 RBI. His two-run blast vs. Creighton (2/17) cleared both fences in left field and landed on Rio Salado Drive for his first collegiate home run. He added a two-run homer vs. South Florida. The son of former major leaguer Rod Allen, Sr., who is also a broadcaster for the Arizona Diamondbacks, Allen hit .419 his senior year at Desert Vista while leading them to a state championship. With seven multi-hit games, Allen has started 19 games with 13 coming at designated hitter and six in left field. He has hits in 22 of 27 games and ranks fifth on the Sun Devils with 12 extra base hits. He is hitting .424 in Pac-10 play (14x33) with two doubles.

Pat Murphy at ASU:

Arizona's State has had only three coaches in its illustrious history. The latest to join the legacy is Pat Murphy who has enjoyed great success since arriving in Tempe six years ago in 1995. Murphy has guided ASU to a 254-135-1 (.653) and posted an impressive 94-82 record in the tough Pac-10. ASU has advanced to postseason play in three of the six years under Murphy, including a 2nd place finish at the College World Series in 1998. With his 254 wins at ASU, Murphy has the third best winning percentage of Pac-10 coaches. Murphy is six wins shy of 100 career Pac-10 victories. Of all active Division I coaches, Murphy entered 2001 ranked 14th with a career .675 winning percentage.

The Ultimate Team Player: Dennis Wyrick:

Slumps come and go, and for Sophomore shortstop Dennis Wyrick the slump is here. After entering the weekend series in Southern California, Wyrick was hitting .425. After going hitless in 14 at-bats vs. the Trojans and Cal State Fullerton, Wyrick is now hitting .362. Wyrick has had his ups and downs in 2001 so far, riding a hot bat at the plate and suffering through some rough patches in the field. When the rest of the ASU lineup was slumping, Wyrick hit .500 (6x12) during the Oregon State series with a double and a RBI, Wyrick followed that with a stellar series against top-ranked Stanford. In the three games he hit .556, going 5-for-9 with two doubles, two runs scored and three RBI. Over the last five games before USC he was hitting .500 (8x16). For the year the Azusa, Calif., native is hitting .362 (34x94) with 16 runs scored, six doubles and 13 RBI. His six doubles are already four more than his 2000 season total of two in which he earned freshman All-America honors. Wyrick had a career-long seven-game hitting streak snapped vs. USC. He collectively went 12-for-24 (.500) with four runs scored and three doubles during the streak.

Bobby Winkles Field:

The Baseball Field at Packard Stadium was officially named Bobby Winkles Field last Saturday as part of a special weekend honoring ASU's first varsity baseball coach. Winkles Field was officially named during a special ceremony before Saturday's game with LSU. Around 90 of Winkles former players joined a sellout crowd at Packard Stadium to honor Winkles and his tremendous strides to put ASU baseball on the map. Winkles was ASU's first varsity coach, compiling an impeccable 524-173 record during his 13-year career at ASU. He guided the Sun Devils to three national championships (1965, 67,69) and tutored future major league greats Rick Monday, Reggie Jackson and Sal Bando. ASU is 5-3-1 on the newly named Bobby Winkles Field. ASU recently played its 1,000th career game at Packard Stadium, posting an all-time 777-225-1 record at the home of Sun Devil baseball dating back to April 7, 1972.

Casey Myers An All-American On The Field And In The Classroom:

One of the best hitters in college baseball, Casey Myers, has not disappointed in living up to that title this year. Despite a recent slump, Myers is hitting at a .408 clip (58x142) with 11 doubles, five home runs and 48 RBI. The senior catcher has hits in 27 of ASU's 35 games this year, 22 of which have been multi-hit games. Myers already has 48 RBI on the year to lead the Pac-10 and is quickly approaching the school and Pac-10 career record. With 254 in his four-year career, he is just 30 short of breaking both records set by former Sun Devil Andrew Beinbrink. Dating back to the start of 2000, Myers is hitting .411 (156x380) with 145 RBI and 23 home runs in 94 combined games. Myers is quickly reminding players why he is one of the best players in all of college baseball. A legitimate candidate for Player of the Year honors. Myers, who hit .412 last year and was a finalist for the National Player of the Year award, is now within one of second place in the ASU record books for career RBI. Behind the plate Myers has been instrumental in the success of the ASU pitching staff, calling all the pitches. He is also just 14 short of second place in the Pac-10 books (John Gall, Stanford). Myers needs 47 more RBI to rank among the top seven run-producers in college baseball history; a list that includes Robin Ventura, Joe Carter and Pete Incaviglia. Defensively, the 2000 Collegiate Baseball Defensive Player of the Year has also been solid, carrying a .991 fielding percentage into this weekend's action. In addition to his 22 multi-hit games this year, he has 88 in his career, including 34, three-hit games. He hit 18 home runs (second on the team) behind teammate Mitch Jones and now has 36 in his career to tie for seventh in school history. The school record is 56 set by Bob Horner. Myers has quietly done an excellent job behind the plate as well, calling the pitches himself and making the pitching staff step up to the next level. He has been named conference player of the week three times during his career at ASU. He reached base safely (hit, walk, HBP) in 54 of 59 games in '00. Myers led the squad in multiple-hit games (31) and multi-RBI games (29). His multi-hit games included three, four-hit affairs. He hit safely in 50 of 59 games. Myers was clutch with 26 two-out RBI and hit .417 with the bases loaded. He hit .466 (48x103) with runners in scoring position and .459 with runners on base. Myers finished his junior campaign ranked 30th in the nation in batting average (.412), third in RBI (97), and 35th in home runs (.31 per game). So far in 2001, Myers has not disappointed with a .408 average, five home runs, 48 RBI, 11 doubles and has recorded 22 multi-hit games and 15 multi-RBI games.

More On Myers: As asset for the program throughout his career in Tempe, Myers has also been stellar in the classroom. The math whiz that scored a perfect 800 on the math portion of the SAT out of high school, Myers has maintained a near-perfect GPA as a math/accounting major at ASU. He was an Academic All-American in 1999 and 2000, and received college baseball's highest academic honor last year when he was named the GTE/CoSida Academic All-American of the Year. In addition to being named the Academic All-American of the Year, All-American and Pac-10 Player of the Year in 2000, Myers was also named the Collegiate Baseball National Defensive Player of the Year with a .996 fielding percentage. In November, Myers was named the top amateur athlete in the state of Arizona by the March of Dimes.

Drafted Devils:

A total of 17 players on the 2001 Arizona State squad have been taken in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft. Since the inception of the draft in 1965, ASU has had more players chosen (289), more first-round draft picks (21) and more No. 1 picks (3) than any other school in the nation. Eight (8) players from the 2000 Pac-10 Championship team were drafted last June. ASU's three No. 1 picks were Rick Monday (1965), Floyd Bannister (1976) and Bob Horner (1978, Atlanta).

Horner Ranks Second As Player of the Century:

Former Sun Devil greats Bob Horner and Eddie Bane were honored by Baseball America by being placed on the publications' "Team of the Century." Horner, an ASU great under Jim Brock from 1976-78, hit .383 for his career and belted a school record 56 home runs. Horner was listed second on the team behind Oklahoma State slugger Pete Incaviglia (1983-85). Bane, a top pitcher for the Sun Devils from 1971-72, posted a career 40-4 record and a 1.64 ERA. Bane was listed as the ninth best player of the 20th Century by Baseball America. The top 10 players of the century were voted on by fans, coaches and baseball writers and are listed below:

1. Pete Incaviglia (Oklahoma State)
2. Bob Horner (Arizona State)
3. Robin Ventura (Oklahoma State)
4. Burt Hooten (Texas)
5. Dave Winfield (Minnesota)
6. Phil Stephenson (Wichita State)
7. John G. Olerud (Washington State)
8. J.D. Drew (Florida State)
9. Eddie Bane (Arizona State)
10. Derek Tatsuno (Hawai'i)

Bloomquist Earns Minor League All-Star Award:

Willie Bloomquist (1997-1999) showed signs he would be a great professional ball player during his time at ASU. After his first full season of professional ball, the 1999 Pac-10 Player of the Year turned in a banner season split between Single-A Lancaster and Triple-A Tacoma in the Seattle Mariners organization. The second basemen hit a blistering .379 at Lancaster to earn Single-A all-star status and was overall a second-team Minor League All-Star as selected by the writers at Baseball America. After having a great spring training last year with the M's, Bloomquist has reported to the Big League camp with the M's in Peoria, and has a shot at making the opening day roster.

Preseason Awards Plenty for Sun Devils:

Several Sun Devils received honors from various preseason college baseball publications. Casey Myers was a unanimous Preseason All-American as the Devils cracked the polls at No. 6 in the nation. Eric Doble was named a third-team preseason All-American by the NCBWA and Jon Switzer was also coveted as a preseason All-American. In Baseball America's annual Pac-10 review, five players received all-conference recognition. Myers, Doble, Switzer, in addition to Chris Duffy and Jeff Phelps were named to the team.

ASU And Team USA:

Junior lefty Jon Switzer (Houston, Texas) was among 20 invitees to the 2000 USA Baseball Team Trials and was one of two ASU players to represent the Red, White and Blue last summer. Switzer was joined by three other Pac-10 players: USC's Mark Prior, UCLA's Josh Karp and Stanford's Brian Sager at the trials, and junior catcher Casey Myers was also selected to play for the team. Myers (Casa Grande, Ariz.) was a member of the junior national team in '96 and was a '98 national team invitee. Myers ended up hitting .310 with Team USA and Switzer was 1-0 with a 2.41 ERA.

Arizona State Claims Pac-10 Championship in 2000:

For the first time in league history, three teams finished in a tie for first place in the conference standings in 2000. ASU, Stanford and UCLA all notched a 17-7 record in Pac-10 play. By virtue of a tie breaker (ASU won both conference series against Stanford and UCLA), the Sun Devils received the Pac-10's automatic bid to postseason play. It was their first conference championship since 1993 and sixth since joining the Pac-10 in 1978. Stanford and Pac-10 runner-up USC advanced through the NCAA Tournament and made appearances at the College World Series in Omaha. Stanford was the eventual runner-up.

Two Sport Stars:

If you think you heard the names of a couple of ASU baseball players' names being called over the Sun Devil Stadium loudspeaker during football season, that wasn't a joke. Three players, Skyler Fulton, Jon Sheaffer and Eric Keefner all double as players on the ASU football team. Sheaffer (WR) and Fulton (RB) saw action on special teams, while Keefner (LB) was named the Scout Team MVP. Kevin Tommasini (1996-97) and Jason Verdugo (1994-97) were the last Devils to double as a player on the diamond and on the gridiron.

Murphy Garners Pac-10 Coach of the Year Award In 2000:

Head coach Pat Murphy was voted the Pac-10 Coach of the Year by his peers for the 2000 season. The Sun Devils skipper led his squad to its sixth Pac-10 Conference title and first since 1993. ASU was picked to finish sixth in the league in the preseason coaches' poll. Murphy led the Devils to their third postseason appearance in the last four years.

Success in the Classroom As Well As On The Field:

ASU has long enjoyed much success on the diamond, and with 18 College World Series appearances, it is known as one of the gems of college baseball. But lately academics, as well as on-field talent, have shown its true colors in the storied program. Pat Murphy's Sun Devil squads have produced four Academic All-Americans over the past two years (Willie Bloomquist, Mark Ernster, Jeff Phelps, Casey Myers), including Myers being named the Academic All-American for college baseball in 2000. The four players honored as National Academic All-Americans is the most by any college baseball program in the nation over the last two years. The 2001 squad also features two players, Ty Johnson and Mike Lopez, who have already received their undergraduate degrees and are pursuing their master's. Myers, Phelps, Eric Doble and Jonah Martin are all scheduled to graduate in May.

The Assistant Coaches:

Coach Murphy has long been regarded for his winning programs and the development of college players into top pro talent. Perhaps the most forgotten skill Murphy should be praised for is his development of assistant coaches into head coaches. Four of his former assistants, Nino Giarratano (San Francisco), John Pawlowski (Charleston), Doug Schreiber (Purdue) and Brian Cleary (Cincinnati) have all moved onto the head coaching ranks. His current staff that he has assembled over the years is one of the best in all of college baseball. Jay Sferra is in his sixth year in association with the ASU baseball program and his third as an assistant coach. Sferra helps with the pitching staff and is the recruiting coordinator. Mike Rooney is regarded as one of the best assistants in the country and his on-field leadership and teaching skills make him a coveted coaching prospect for the future. Billy Jones is in his first year as a volunteer assistant coach and will head up the Sun Devil outfielders this spring. Jones was recently named the head coach for the Brewster Whitecaps in the prestigious Cape Cod League.

Golden Spikes Common At Arizona State:

While Kip Bouknight of South Carolina was the recipient of the 2000 Golden Spikes award as the nation's top amateur baseball player, it should be noted that three Arizona State players have won the award. Bob Horner, who was a standout at ASU from 1976-78, won the inaugural award in 1978. Oddibe McDowell, who was a member of the first Team USA baseball team to compete in an Olympics, won the award in 1984. Mike Kelly, who ranks second in ASU history with 46 home runs from 1989-91, won the award in 1991. In all, 13 players that have worn the Maroon and Gold have been named a Player of the Year for college baseball.

ASU Leader of the Pac When It Comes to Player of the Week:

Arizona State has amassed 41 Pac-10 Pitchers of the Week and 62 Players of the Week since 1981. That total leads all Pac-10 member schools. The Sun Devils had four players honored as Pac-10 POW last year (Mitch Jones -2, Brooks Conrad -2) and Jon Switzer was a three-time recipient of the award in 2000. ASU is yet to have a Pac-10 Player of the Week this year.

Arizona State in Postseason Play:

The Sun Devil baseball program has created a dynasty in college baseball that has been matched by few. With 18 appearances in the College World Series, ASU ranks fourth for the most trips to Omaha. Arizona State has advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the program's 42 seasons, amassing an incredible 116-43 (.730) record. ASU's five National Championships rank as the second most of any NCAA school. In addition to ASU's five national championships, the Sun Devils have also turned in five second-place teams and three third-place finishes.

Postseason Summary:

NCAA Appearances	24	Record in District 7	12-1
All-Time NCAA Record	121-47	CWS Appearances	18
Regional Appearances	18	CWS Titles	5
Regional Titles	12	CWS Runners-up	5
Record in Regionals	54-16	CWS Third-Place Finishes	4
District 7 Appearances	6	Record at CWS	55-30 (.647)
District 7 Titles	6

ASU Stellar In Pac-10 Play:

While Arizona and Arizona State both joined the Pacific-10 Conference in 1979 as the newest additions to the "Conference of Champions," ASU has quickly made quick gains to place its name among the top two in winning percentage of all Pac-10 schools. With a career 440-302 record combined when apart of the old Six-Pac or the combined Pac-10, ASU's .593 winning percentage falls behind just behind USC's .642 winning percentage in 77 years being affiliated with the Pac-10.

ASU Is Now 22-2 In Season Openers Since 1979:

If you think ASU's Jan. 26th game vs. Texas-Arlington was a late start for the season, well it is. In fact, it is the latest ASU has started a season since opening Feb. 2 in 1996. Despite the loss to UTA, the Sun Devil baseball program has maintained an impressive 22-2 record in season openers dating back to 1979, while head coach Pat Murphy is 6-1 in Tempe having recorded a season-opening win in six of his seven years at the helm of the Sun Devils. Murphy's teams have also greatly outscored their opponents since 1995 in season openers, 71-23. In his 13+ years as a head coach at the Division I level (Now 7 at ASU, 7 at Notre Dame), Murphy has lost only one game (UTA). One of his season openers actually came against ASU when the Irish defeated the Sun Devils 11-4 in 1993. The last time ASU lost a season opener before this year was a 9-4 setback to Hawai'i in 1993, and ASU advanced to the CWS that year.

This is ASU Baseball:

- Only one losing season in school history
- 18 College World Series Appearances
- 24 years in the NCAA Tournament
- Six Pac-10 Titles
- Five NCAA Championships
- 13 NCAA National Players of the Year
- Three Golden Spikes Award Winners
- 58 All-Americans
- 2 NCAA Coaches of the Year
- 75 Major League Players
- 21 First-Round Draft Picks
- Finished in top 12 three of past four years
- Only one losing season in school history
- Three 2001 Preseason All-Americans
- Four Academic All-Americans in last two years
- Finished in the top 12 in three of the past four years.

Rotary Smith Watch List

Five Arizona State baseball players are listed on the "watch list" for the 2001 Rotary Smith National Player of the Year Award. The annual award, which was won by ASU's Mike Kelly in 1990, is given to the top college player in the nation during the College World Series in June. Last year Mitch Jones was a finalist for the award before South Carolina's Kip Bouknight was named the winner. Casey Myers, Jeff Phelps, Eric Doble, Jon Switzer and Mike Lopez are all named as players to watch in 2001 for the award.

ASU's Rotary Smith Candidates:

Brooks Conrad (Spring Valley, Calif.)
 Mike Lopez (Glendale, Ariz.)
 Jeff Phelps (Yuma, Ariz.)
 Casey Myers (Case Grande, Ariz.)
 Jon Switzer (Houston, Texas)
 Eric Doble (Case Grande, Ariz.)

Sun Devils Had a Successful Run in the 1990's:

While ASU started the new millennium with a bang winning the Pac-10 Championship with a 44-15 record, the decade of the 1990's was one that marked great success for the ASU program. The Sun Devils compiled a 398-213 (.651) record during the decade and made three trips to Omaha for the College World Series. The 398 wins were third-best of all conference schools.

LoDuca Off To Fast Start In 2001:

While it is still early in the 2001 professional baseball season, Los Angeles Dodger starting catcher Paul LoDuca is off to a torrid start. After eight years in the minor leagues and three short stops in the big leagues, LoDuca has finally reached stardom as the Dodger starting catcher. Through the first five games the former Sun Devil is hitting .368 with one double, two home runs and seven RBI. LoDuca spent only one year in Tempe (1993), but made the most of that year. The transfer from Glendale CC set a single-season record with a .446 batting average that year. He amassed a 37-game hitting streak during the year and recorded a school-record 129 hits. He was the Sporting News National Player of the Year.

2002 Recruiting Class Among Nation's Best:

The 2002 recruiting class that will debut on the diamond next spring (2002) has drawn rave reviews from Baseball America as one of the top three in the nation. Mike Jones and Kris Honel are listed as two of the top 10 pitching prospects out of this year's high school class. The 2001 class that debuts on the field this year was ranked as the No. 1 class in the nation by Baseball America and the No. 3 class by Collegiate Baseball. The list of players who signed NLI's with the Sun Devils is provided below:

Sun Devil Baseball 2001

Where ASU Ranked In The Nation in 2000:

ASU had a year that will go down in the NCAA record books. The Sun Devils finished second in hitting with a .346 team batting average, trailing only Stony Brook which posted a .347 average. The team went a collective 738-for-2134. The Sun Devils, however, were the most productive team in the nation in '00, leading the NCAA in scoring, while averaging 10.97 runs per game. The Sun Devils also led the nation with 37 total triples and ASU's nearest threat was Delaware with 10.02 runs per game. Here is a list of where the team and individual players ranked in the NCAA:

Team Rankings:

Scoring	1st	10.97
Batting:	2nd	.346
Fielding:	5th	.971%
Home Runs	7th	1.46 rpg
Slugging:	2nd	.561%

Varsity Squad Dominates Alumni In Annual Contest Held Jan. 20:

Led by a strong pitching performance from converted catcher Ty Johnson (Englewood, Colo.), the 2001 varsity squad defeated the Alumni 8-3 on Jan. 20 at Packard Stadium. The Alumni squad, which featured 15 players who are currently playing in the minor leagues and one former Major Leaguer (Ken Phelps) were easily handled by Johnson and lefty ace Jon Switzer (Houston, Texas). Johnson and Switzer combined to allow only three hits and one run in five innings. At the player the 2001 Devils pounded out 13 hits and were led by catcher Casey Myers who finished the day 2-for-4 with two RBI. Third baseman Mike Lopez and reserve infielder Lucas Weber (Tucson, Ariz.) also recorded two hits apiece in the winning effort. Both teams used wood bats in the game. For the Alumni, Montreal Expos product Dan McKinley was the only player to record more than one hit. Willie Bloomquist (1997-99), Mitch Jones (1999-2000) and Andrew Beinbrink (1996-99) were just a few of the past Sun Devil greats who played in the game.

Reviewing the 2000 Pac-10 Championship Season:

ASU won its sixth Pac-10 title (all since 1981) and first since 1993, after being picked sixth in the preseason poll... ASU hit the 40-win plateau for the fourth time since 1993... The 17 league wins were a five-game improvement from 1999 and it was the fifth time since 1990 with 17 or more wins in Pac-10 play... ASU was 2nd in the nation in batting, 5th in fielding percentage, and 1st in scoring in 2000... ASU led the Conference in batting average (.346), runs per game (11.0), slugging percentage (.561), on base percentage (.454), RBI (588), triples (37), walks (336), and stolen bases (92)... Sr. OF Mitch Jones broke Bob Horner's (1978) 22-year-old school record for home runs when he hit No. 26 vs. Arizona May 21. Jones finished with 27, becoming just the ninth player in Pac-10 history to hit at least 27 in a season, and seventh to do so since 1990... ASU had an extra-base hit in all but two games in 2000... ASU batters were hit by a pitch 115 times in 2000, breaking the Pac-10 record (101, UW, 1998). The mark ranks in the top-four all-time in the NCAA record books (125, Nevada in 1997)... Pac-10 Player of the Year Casey Myers finished '00 with 97 RBI, second-best in Pac-10 history, and 206 for his career, fifth-best. Myers led the Sun Devils with 98 hits, 19 doubles, 97 RBI, and a .502 on-base percentage. Myers led the Pac-10 in RBI and on-base percentage. He also ranked among the Conference leaders in hits (3rd), slugging percentage (.718, t3rd), total bases (171, 7th), runs scored (71, 9th), home runs (18, t8th), and doubles (19, t9th). Myers batted .412 for the season, second in the Pac-10 tied for 22nd-best average in single season Pac-10 history... Myers and Jones (92) ranked first and second in the Conference in RBI; third and fifth in the nation... The Sun Devils scored 10 or more runs in 31 games last season, and 20 runs nine times.

Sun Devil Baseball on the Tube:

Heading into the season, the Sun Devils are tentatively scheduled to play 11 televised games in 2001 on Cox Communications Channel 9. ASU is also guaranteed at least one game to be televised by Fox Sports Net as part of the Pac-10's agreement. With longtime ASU broadcaster George Allen and former Arizona State Assistant Sports Information Director Doug Gerlach calling the play-by-play, schedule highlights for TV games include the entire series vs. LSU (March 2-4). ASU and Arizona will play the Pac-10 Game of the Week on Fox Sports Net April 28. The tentative Cox schedule for ASU baseball is as follows:

Date	Opponent	Date	Opponent
Feb. 9	Duke	Apr. 12	Washington State
Feb. 10	Duke	Apr. 28	Arizona (Fox Net)
Mar. 2	LSU	Apr. 29	Arizona
Mar. 3	LSU	May 19	UCLA
Mar. 4	LSU	May 20	UCLA
Mar. 30	Stanford
