NATIONAL RANKINGS

Arizona State (18-9) remained solid in all three national polls after the series win over Arizona. ASU remained at No. 15 by Baseball Weekly/ESPN, moved up three spots to No. 20 by Baseball America and is currently No. 19 by Collegiate Baseball. The Sun Devils have now been ranked in the national polls for 47 consecutive weeks. Washington is not ranked, but was No. 24 in Baseball America's preseason poll.

THE STORYLINE

The Sun Devils continue Pac-10 play with a week-end series against Washington at Hohokam Stadium in Mesa. The Devils are fresh off a Pac-10 opening series win over Arizona and are off to a 18-9 start in 2002. ASU has won eight of the last nine vs. the Huskies and own a 9-3 advantage in the all-time series. The first meeting between the two schools was in 1998 when UW took two of three at Husky Ballpark in Seattle. ASU currently leads the conference in fielding (.969 fielding percentage) and pitching (3.65 ERA). Andre Ethier was named the Pac-10 Player of the Week after hitting .417 with two key hits in the series against the Wildcats. Mike Esposito leads the pitching staff with five wins and a 2.62 ERA.

What's On Tap:

The 15th-ranked Arizona State baseball team returns home for a Pac-10 series against the University of Washington Huskies (11-8-1). The three-game conference series will be played Thursday through Friday to eliminate playing on the Easter holiday. The Devils are 18-9, 2-1 after taking two of three from rival Arizona last weekend in Tucson. Following the series with UW, ASU will travel to Las Vegas for a single game with UNLV and then take back to the road for a three-game set with Washington State in Pullman. ASU will play three of its first four conference series on the road this year.

Quick Hits:

- Head coach Pat Murphy recorded his 600th career Division 1 victory in the 10-0 win over UNLV (3/8).
- Senior Jon Sheaffer is third on the team in batting at .351 and has at least one hit in 18 of his last 21 games.
- Steve Garrabrants is 10-for-18 to lead off the game for ASU, with five singles, four doubles, a home run and two walks.
- Friday night starter Mike Esposito is 3-1 with a 1.08 ERA in his last four starts. He leads ASU with a 2.62 ERA.
- Freshman Jeff Larish put his redshirt season aside and is hitting .417 (5x12) in four games this year.
- After the home series with Washington, ASU will play 13 of the next 17 games on the road.
- ASU leads the Pac-10 in pitching with a 3.65 team ERA. The starters have a 3.48 mark, with relievers at 3.94.
- ASU's team batting average of .298 marks the first time since April 5, 1998 that the team average has dropped below .300.
- ASU is 10-4 in night games with a team .282 batting average and a 3.06 team ERA. ASU is hitting .312 in day games.
- Through 27 games, ASU has three complete games. The Devils had only one all of last year (Jon Switzer).
- The Devils have scored in the first inning in 16 of their 27 games (59%)
- Robbie McClellan is 3-0 as a starter with a 2.93 ERA. He is second in the Pac-10 with 51 strikeouts in 44.0 IP.
- The Sun Devils have used 19 different lineups this year, including a string of 11 straight different batting orders.
- ASU has scored in a NCAA record 402 consecutive games dating back to April 7, 1995. The old record was 349.
- In his eight appearances out of the bullpen (9.0 IP), sophomore Ryan Schroyer has struck out 17 batters.
- ASU has outscored its opponents 194-119 this year, with the sixth inning (34 runs) being the most productive.

Recapping Last Week:

Despite being outscored 23-20 in the three games, the Sun Devils walked away from their annual in-state rivalry with the Arizona Wildcats winning two of three games in Tucson. It was the third straight year ASU opened Pac-10 play on the road and also the third year in a row it won two-out-of-three to start the conference slate. ASU battled back from a 7-2 deficit by scoring three runs in the top of the ninth inning in a series-opening 9-7 win. On national TV, the Devils went up 2-0 by handing the Wildcats a convincing 10-6 win. Arizona salvaged the series with a strong pitching performance from starter Marc Kaiser to win Sunday's series finale 10-1. Sophomore Andre Ethier earned Pac-10 Player of the Week honors by hitting .417 in the three games, including two big hits that helped lead the Devils to both victories. Junior Dennis Wryick was 3-for-5 with two doubles in his only start and freshman Dustin Pedroia was 6-for-13 (.462) in the series.

Schroyer Strong Out of Bullpen:

Arizona State sophomore pitcher Ryan Schroyer opened his 2002 season in style by being named the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and Collegiate Baseball National Pitcher of the Week after his 11-strikeout performance against Southern Utah on Feb. 1. Schroyer, a sophomore who was 2-2 and was a honorable mention freshman All-American in 2001, allowed only three hits in 6.2 shutout innings to help lead ASU to the 12-0 defeat of Southern Utah. A high school All-American at Canyon del Oro in 2000, Schroyer was a 16th round selection of the Detroit Tigers in the MLB June Amateur Draft. Schroyer has since been moved into the closer role where he has recorded an amazing 17 strikeouts in just 9.0 innings of work out of the bullpen. For the season he is 1-1 with three saves and a 3.14 ERA. He has struck out 42 batters in just 28.2 innings of work. He has allowed only three hits and one run in his nine innings of relief.

Ethier Named Pac-10 Player of the Week:

Sophomore right fielder Andre Ethier was named the Pac-10 Player of the Week for his performance in the three-game series against Arizona. Ethier, from Phoenix, Ariz., hit .417 in ASU's series win at rival Arizona, including the two hits to lead the Sun Devils to a pair of victories. In the opening game against the Wildcats, he hit a two-run single in the ninth inning to cap ASU's five-run comeback, lifting the Sun Devils to 9-7 win. In Saturday's 10-6 win, Ethier hit a two-run home run in the seventh to break a 4-4 tie, leading ASU to a 10-6 win. For the weekend he was 5-for-12 with five runs scored, a double, a home run and five RBI. For the season he leads the 15th-ranked Sun Devils in hitting at .369 (38x103) with 10 doubles, two triples and two home runs. He has recorded 11 multi-hit games and has a hit in 20 of his 27 games played this year. The Player of the Week honor is the first for Ethier in his career, and the 64th selection all-time for Arizona State.

Last Year vs. The Huskies:

Arizona State swept a three-game series from the Washington Huskies last year in Seattle. The Devils opened the series with a thrilling 11-6 win in 10 innings on May 12, 2001. Chris Duffy highlighted a five-run 10th frame with a grand slam home run. ASU took the second game 7-3 behind a strong game from second baseman Brooks Conrad and then earned the series sweep with a 17-1 pounding in the rain-soaked finale. Ryan McKenna led ASU, going 5-for-8 (.625) in the three games.

Sun Devil Baseball 2002

The All-Time Series vs. The Washington Huskies:

Arizona State leads the all-time series with the Huskies 9-3. The two schools met for the first time in a three-game series at Husky Ballpark in Seattle. The Huskies took two of three in that series, but have only one since in the last nine games. Winning eight of the last nine games, ASU also has a streak of two-straight Pac-10 series sweeps.

Scouting the Huskies:

The Huskies enter the three-game series with a 11-8-1 record and are off to a 2-0 start after defeating in-state rival Washington State in a pair of non-conference victories Monday and Tuesday. UW will start Sean White (1-2, 4.07) Thursday, freshman lefty David Dowling (0-1, 2.63) Friday and staff ace Shawn Kohn (6-0, 2.25) in the series finale Saturday. The Huskies are led offensively by short-stop Tila Reynolds who is hitting .412 with seven doubles, two triples, one home run and 11 RBI. Jay Garthwaite is coming off a solid series vs. the Cougars and is second in hitting at .377 with a team-leading seven home runs.

A Very Young Team Indeed:

The Sun Devils feature a very young team in 2002, with 22 of the 33 players on the roster listed as underclassman. Losing seven of its top position players from the 2001 team and several top pitchers, a very young team Sun Devil team will take the field this year. The normal starting lineup has five sophomores, two true freshman and at least one senior on the field. When the Devils made the cross country trek to Tallahassee for the FSU series, 13 of the 27 on the travel roster were making their first road trip as a Sun Devil. The starting lineup this weekend figures to have three freshman, five sophomores and one senior. The starting rotation figures to have one sophomore and two juniors, one of which is a newcomer after transferring from a junior college. To show how young ASU really is, when they played at Arizona last weekend, only two players (Wyrick and Kartler) had played in Tucson before with the last series in 2000.

McClellan Strong in Starting Role:

Despite having his roughest outing of the year Friday vs. Arizona, junior Robbie McClellan has been solid so far this year. McClellan is 3-0 as a starter with a 2.93 ERA and 25 strikeouts in 27.2 innings. McClellan, from Liberal, Kan., became the first Sun Devil to notch back-to-back complete games since 1999, striking out a career-high 10 batters in a seven-inning win against UNLV. He allowed just four hits and did not allow a run in the 10-0 win over the Rebels. He also went all nine innings in a 7-2 win over Loyola Marymount (3/2). McClellan is tied for the team lead in wins with a 5-2 record and has a 3.48 ERA in 44.1 innings pitched. Has struck out 51 batters and walked 22. He became the 43rd selection all-time for Arizona State as Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week. McClellan is nicknamed "The Child" by his teammates for his boyish looks.

Home Sweet Home:

The Devils return home this weekend for a three-game set with Washington before taking to the road for a stretch of 13 out of 17 games on the road. The Devils are 2-5 this year on the road, enduring a three-game sweep at Florida State and losing a 8-7 tilt against New Mexico State in Las Cruces. ASU is 16-4 at home this year, going 13-4 at Hohokam Stadium in Mesa and 3-0 at Packard Stadium on the ASU campus. While the hitting has been similar with a .304 batting average at home and a .279 mark on the road, the difference seems to lie in the pitching, with a combined 7.06 ERA on the road and a stellar 2.53 mark in home games. ASU was 25-9-1 at home last year and 11-9 on the road.

Sun Devils About To Become Road Warriors:

After the three-game series this weekend at Hohokam Stadium, the Devils will then endure a tough stretch of 13 of their next 17 games on the road. After playing Thursday-Saturday at home, ASU will play a single game Monday at UNLV, then travel to the Palouse for a three-game Pac-10 series with Washington State in Pullman. After a another Pac-10 series at UCLA, the Devils return home to play Cal (Apr. 19-21) before taking to the road again for a non-conference road trip for a single game at Oklahoma (Apr. 24) and two games at Notre Dame (Apr. 26-27).

Sun Devil Baseball Successful in March:

The Sun Devil Baseball program has an all-time 622-245-1 record in the month of March dating back to the 1959 baseball season. Head Coach Pat Murphy, who recently picked up his 600th career Division I victory, is now 74-52-1 in the month of March in his eight years at ASU. Looking ahead to the month of April where the Devils will play the meat of their Pac-10 schedule, ASU is 514-217 dating back to 1959.

A Tough Schedule in 2002 For ASU:

The Sun Devils face a tough schedule in 2002, with 12 combined games against teams that participated in the 2001 College World Series (3 - Tennessee, 3 - USC, 3 - Stanford, 3 - Cal State Fullerton). ASU will play 22 of its 55 (40%) scheduled games against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament last year. The Devils schedule includes road contests against Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Florida State, Stanford and UCLA. Arizona State is listed as having the ninth toughest schedule in the nation on www.Boydsworld.com. So far this year the Devils are 5-5 against teams ranked in at least one of the national polls at the time they played. ASU's 5-5 record against ranked teams does not include playing Oklahoma, which moved from

ASU HEAD COACH

Pat Murphy

Since inheriting the Sun Devil program in August of 1994, Arizona State Baseball Head Coach Pat Murphy has carefully nurtured the tradition of excellence in Tempe, at the same time establishing himself as one of the top collegiate head coaches in the nation. He has guided Arizona State to top-12 national rankings in three of the past five years, including an appearance in the 1998 College World Series national championship game. Murphy is 287-152-1 in his eight seasons in Tempe and posts an all-time 22-16 record in NCAA Tournament action. With a career 660-323-4 record in 17 seasons as a head coach, Murphy is the winningest active baseball coach under the age of 43 at any collegiate level. He also became the youngest collegiate coach to reach 500 career victories (with 75 percent of the wins at the Division I level) on March 22, 1998, with a 7-6 victory over California. Murphy recently recorded his 600th career Division I victory.

Memorable Moments in 2002

- ASU battles back from 7-2 deficit by scoring seven runs in the last four innings in a 9-7 come-from-behind win over rival Arizona in the Pac-10 opener for both teams (3/22).
- Steve Garrabrants belted his first career home run vs. Tennessee (2/9) on the very first pitch of the game. The home run came in his 161st career at-bat. He added a solo HR vs. Florida State (2/16).
- Mike Esposito threw his first career complete game in his start vs. Tennessee (2/9).
- The Sun Devil 1-4 hitters combined to hit for the cycle in the first inning in the 8-1 win over Tennessee (2/9). Garrabrants homered, Pedroia doubled, Allen singled and West tripled.
- ASU scored seven runs in the eighth inning to erase a 2-0 lead by Oklahoma State and won the game 7-2 (3/10). Rod Allen had the big hit with a three-run double with the bases loaded.

Feb. 2	Oregon State 7, SUU 1
Feb. 2	ASU 5, Oral Roberts 4
Feb. 3	ASU 6, SUU 2

unranked to No. 18/22 in the polls after taking two of three from the Devils.

The Streak Continues. ASU Enters Weekend With Scoring Streak at 402:

The Arizona State baseball program made history on April 7, 2001 when they scored at least one run in its 350th consecutive game. The Devils broke the 12-year-old NCAA record in a 5-1 loss to USC exactly six years to the day when they were last shut out. ASU was shut out 9-0 on April 7, 1995 at Dedeaux Field. The one run scored in Sunday's 11-1 loss to Arizona marked only the 12th time during the streak that ASU has scored only one run. The streak continues at 402 consecutive games with ASU scoring in each of the 27 games this year. The Devils have extended the streak early in a majority of its games, with a run in the first inning 16 times in 2002. ASU was neck-in-neck for the record with Wichita State, which had not been shutout in 332 games, but had its streak ended with a 1-0 loss to Louisiana-Lafayette in the middle of the 2001 season. Coastal Carolina previously held the NCAA record at 349 games set from 1983-1989. ASU also had a stretch of 278 games without being shut out from 1990 to 1994, meaning the program has only been shutout in three games dating back to 1990.

One, Two and Three-Run Misery:

Playing one of the nation's toughest schedules this year, Arizona State has had a handful of close games that haven't gone their way. In fact, of the squad's nine losses this year, seven have come by three or less runs. ASU is 2-2 in one-run games and 1-4 in two run games this year.

The Sunday Story:

If Arizona State took away Sunday, they would only have five losses on the year. But as it is, the final day of the week and each series for ASU does exist, but the 4-4 record could be drastically better. ASU has led in two of its crucial Sunday games vs. Florida State and Cal State Fullerton that could have drastically changed its position in the national polls. The team is hitting only .246 and pitching for a 4.63 ERA on Sunday's... each time wearing the "Maroon ASU" jersey. The Sun Devils will not play this Sunday due to the Easter Holiday!

Devils Better Score Early and Often:

The Sun Devils have had good success this year when scoring before their opponent, going 13-5 in those games. Even more importantly, when ASU scores in the first inning they are 13-3. Five runs or more seem to be the magic number for the Devils, as ASU is 18-3 in games when scoring five or more runs.

You're The Best, Mike Esposito:

While not claiming to be the best, sophomore Mike Esposito comes out to the song from the Karate Kid soundtrack labeled, "You're the best," before each of his starts. A song held special to his heart because the man singing the song is his father, Joe Esposito, who is currently a lounge singer in Las Vegas and has numerous other songs to his credit. Espo, a fifth-round pick by the Cincinnati Reds out of high school, is off to a strong 5-3 start and leads ASU with a 2.62 ERA in 48.0 innings pitched this year. The hard-throwing right-hander has really turned it up a notch as of late, allowing only three earned runs in his last 25.0 innings pitched in his last four games. Over that stretch he is 3-1, including a career-high nine strikeout performance in a 11-1 win over St. John's. Esposito pitched for Team USA last summer where he was 3-1 with a 1.56 ERA.

Now That's The Way to Start the Game.... And An Inning:

The Sun Devil leadoff hitter in the game is off to a great start in 2002, and a main reason why the Devils have scored at least one run in the first inning in 15 of their 24 (63%) games this year. The Sun Devil leadoff hitter, 18 times being Steve Garrabrants, four times being Dustin Pedroia and one time each being Doug Schutt and Jon Sheaffer, has recorded a hit in the first at-bat of the game in 14 of ASU's 24 games. Garrabrants is 10-for-17 (.588) with five singles, four doubles, a walk and a home run to his credit, while Pedroia is 3-for-4 and Schutt is 1-for-1 with a single. Garrabrants has also had great success when he is the leadoff batter in an inning, not just the start of the game, going 15-for-30 (.500) with five doubles and both of his home runs.

Injury Update:

Starting second baseman and leading hitter Steve Garrabrants has sat out the last five games before the Arizona series with a shoulder/upper back injury that he developed after being hit by a pitch in the St. John's game (3/9). He played in the first two games vs. U of A, but sat out Sunday. ASU is 2-4 without Garrabrants during that stretch. The sophomore is expected to play this weekend. Freshman Miguel Sanchez (1-0, 2.38) underwent successful Tommy John surgery last week and will be out until next April. Freshman Matt Leaf is also recovering from Tommy John surgery and should be ready by opening day in 2003.

Jeff Larish Makes Strong Sun Devil Debut:

Freshman infielder Jeff Larish had not dressed for a game this year and was in the stands as a redshirt candidate before finding out he would be the starting third baseman in ASU's Mar. 16 game vs. Oklahoma. Larish made the most of the opportunity, going 3-for-4 with a triple and run scored in his ASU debut vs. the Sooners. For the season he is hitting .417 (5x12) with two triples. The freshman starred at Tempe McClintock High School last year and was a 32nd-round draft choice of the Chicago Cubs last June.

Sun Devil Baseball 2002

Going Young At Catcher:

ASU head coach Pat Murphy experimented with junior Dennis Wyrick behind the plate, but after 10 starts, appears to be leaning towards freshmen Joel Bocchi and Tuffy Gosewisch. Wyrick had five passed balls in his 10 starts, as ASU's starting shortstop the last two years never looked completely comfortable behind the plate. Gosewisch is hitting .156 with 10 starts behind the plate and Bocchi is 2-for-18 in his five starts. Senior Cesar Castillo has also started two games behind the dish and has been a great late-inning substitution for ASU this year.

Murphy Picks Up Career Division 1 Victory #600:

With a convincing 10-0 win over UNLV in seven innings on March 8, Sun Devil Head Coach Pat Murphy reached the 600 plateau for Division I victories in his 15 years of coaching at the top level of collegiate baseball. Murphy has now fashioned a career 660-323-4 record in his 18 seasons as a head coach, with 55 of those wins came at Maryville (Tenn.) College and Claremont-Mudd Scripps. In his 15 years at the D1 level, Murphy has averaged nearly 40 wins per year and is 288-152-1 in his eight-year ASU career. He will coach in his 1,000th career game on April 27, 2002 when he returns to play his former school, Notre Dame, in South Bend, Ind.

Sparkplug Garrabrants Expected Back in Starting Lineup:

Sophomore Steve Garrabrants was off to a torrid start to the 2002 season before being sidelined and is hoping to bounce back from a shoulder injury this weekend. Starting ASU's first 19 games, Garrabrants sat out a string of five straight games before the Arizona series after being hit by a pitch vs. St. John's. He was unable to play Sunday vs. the Wildcats, but is expected to play this weekend against Washington. He is currently second on the team in hitting at .358 and has five doubles, two home runs and 12 RBI. He is second with 10 multi-hit games and has nine extra base hits. As ASU's leadoff hitter, Garrabrants is an amazing 10-for-18 to lead off the game for the Devils.

Wyrick Comes Up Clutch in Pac-10 Play:

Junior Dennis Wyrick is ASU's most veteran play with 387 career at-bats. While battling for playing time this year and learning a new position at catcher, Wyrick has still maintained a solid .333 (18x54) batting average in 20 games this year. A career .339 hitter, Wyrick has been even more amazing in Pac-10 play. After going 3-for-5 with a career-high two doubles in Saturday's 10-6 win over rival Arizona, he is now hitting .378 (51x135) in his Pac-10 career.

Making the Most of his Senior Year: Jon Sheaffer:

Senior center fielder Jon Sheaffer is making the most of his final year as a college student-athlete. Sheaffer, who played football and baseball for ASU last year after transferring from South Mountain CC, played in only 30 games last year, making three starts. This year is a different story though, as Sheaffer has started 22 of ASU's 27 games in center field and is currently third on the team in hitting with a .351 batting average with five doubles and 17 RBI. He has recorded a hit in 20 of his 25 games this year, including a streak of 18 of his last 21 games. He recently had a career-high 13-game hitting streak snapped in which he combined to go 17-for-40 (.425) with 11 runs scored and 10 RBI. He has been clutch this year hitting .444 (8x18) with runners in scoring position and an even more amazing .556 (5x9) with runners in scoring position with two outs. He is also 1-for-1 with four RBI with the bases loaded this year.

These Former Devils Were In Big League Camps:

Eleven (11) former Sun Devils were in the big league camps for Major League Baseball's annual Spring Training. Former Sun Devil (1983-85) San Francisco Giants slugger Barry Bonds is coming off his record-breaking 2001 season in which he set the MLB record with 73 home runs. Of the 11 Devils in big league camps, only three (Bloomquist, Bonds and McKay) are playing in the local Cactus League in Arizona.

The Wild, Wild West:

Sophomore first baseman Jeremy West has been swinging a hot bat all season, ranking third with a .351 batting average and leads the team with six home runs. He has 32 RBI (1.19 avg. per game) and also leads ASU with 19 extra base hits. He tied a career high with four RBI vs. LMU (3/2) and has recorded a hit in 20 of his 26 games played this year. West leads all Sun Devils with 12 career home runs and is a combined 76-for-234 in his career. He is in the midst of a career-high seven-game hitting streak in which he has gone 10-for-28 (.357).

Sun Devil Baseball 2002

A Cubs/Sun Devil Doubleheader?:

With ASU sharing Hohokam Stadium with the Chicago Cubs this spring for their spring training, baseball fans had the unique opportunity on three occasions to enjoy a Major League-College baseball doubleheader. Sunday marked the third of the three doubleheaders, with the Cubs beating the Chicago White Sox 3-0 and ASU falling to Oklahoma 7-5. ASU was 2-1 when the Cubs had a game earlier in the day at Hohokam Stadium.

Allen and Esposito Earn Preseason All-America Awards:

Sun Devil players Rod Allen and Mike Esposito both earned preseason All-America honors by various college baseball publications. Allen, set an ASU freshman record in 2001 by hitting .389, was named a first-team preseason All-American by Collegiate Baseball. Esposito, who recorded a 5-2 record in 2001 and is coming off an impressive summer with Team USA, was named to a third-team preseason All-American by Baseball America. Allen has struggled at the plate as of late and is hitting .267 on the year. He is second on the team with five home runs and is eighth in the Pac-10 with 25 RBI. He has recorded a hit in 20 of 27 games this year. Esposito is 5-3 with a 2.62 ERA in his eight starts, including a complete-game victory over Tennessee (2/9). Esposito has given up only three earned runs in his last four starts and 25.0 combined innings.

Murphy's Teams Know How To Score:

A true icon of the Pat Murphy system is scoring runs. The Sun Devils have done plenty of that since he arrived in 1995. ASU has led the NCAA in scoring in two of the last three years, averaging 11.32 runs per game in 1999 and 10.97 runs per game in 2000. The Devils paced the Pac-10 in 2001, hitting at a .327 clip and averaging 8.26 runs per game to rank 17th in the nation. ASU also led the nation in batting average with a team total of .356 in 1999 and fell just percentage points shy of matching that feat a second year in a row in 2000 with a .346 mark, trailing Stony Brook by one point. During Pat Murphy's eight seasons in Tempe, the Sun Devils have been a scoring machine with 4,043 runs, averaging 9.19 runs per game and hitting at an overall .329 clip. Below is an offensive team breakdown of Murphy's ASU teams:

Year	G	AB	R	H	HR	BA
1995	55	1939	395	595	35	.307
1996	56	2075	552	702	73	.338
1997	61	2252	540	735	56	.326
1998	64	2277	557	723	57	.318
1999	60	2199	679	782	67	.356
2000	59	2134	647	738	86	.346
2001	58	2049	479	669	33	.327
2002	27	8967	194	267	16	.298
Totals	440	15,821	4,043	5,211	423	.329

Hohokam is ASU's Home Away From Home in 2002:

While a $2 million renovation will begin in late March to Packard Stadium, the Sun Devils will call Hohokam Stadium in Mesa home for the 2002 season for all but three home games. Hohokam Park is also the spring training home of the Chicago Cubs and the Arizona Fall League home of the Mesa Solar Sox. The facility will provide ASU with a first-class facility while Packard Stadium undergoes renovation. Hohokam Park, which opened in 1997, has a seating capacity of 12,623, with 8,000 theater-style seats.

Why Not #9 Murphy:

Most who are close to the ASU Baseball program know what the No. 9 means to head coach Pat Murphy. Often his slogan to "Play all 9 Innings", Murphy and No. 9 are synonymous with each other... until this year. In a preseason meeting with team, Murphy gave a speech on how you have to be able to give up anything for the team. In this case, he even offered up his prize No. 9, knowing no one would take it. That is, until ASU's sophomore Steve Garrabrants raised his hand and said, I'll take it, and with that, the leader of the Devils is willing to give up anything for the team and will wear No. 7 this year.

Is it HoHoKam or Hohokam... Stadium... or Park:

While it can be up for debate on the actual spelling of Hohokam Stadium, the City of Mesa has recognized the official spelling of Hohokam Park to be without the capital H and capital K in the middle of the word. The group that call themselves the HoHoKam's use the capital letters, but the actual group of Native Americans that the park is named after is spelled 'Hohokam.' To extend the debate, is it Hohokam Park or Hohokam Stadium. While both are acceptable, the games are played in Hohokam Stadium, which is located in Hohokam Park.

Hitting For The Cycle... in the First Inning:

In what may be one of the rarest feats of Arizona State baseball history, the Devils led off the Feb. 9 game vs. Tennessee in grand fashion with the first four hitters combining to hit for the cycle in the first inning. Leadoff hitter Steve Garrabrants led off the game with a first-pitch home run, then Dustin Pedroia followed with a double, then Rod Allen singled and to cap off the amazing event, Jeremy West tripled to give ASU the early 2-0 lead.

Three-Position Pedroia:

True freshman third baseman Dustin Pedroia has been a sparkplug at the plate and nearly flawless in the field. With his average well above .350 before the Florida State series, Pedroia had a good series vs. Arizona (6x13) to improve his average to .314 on the year with seven doubles, one triple and a home run. The slick-fielder has made only one error in 93 total chances for a .989 fielding percentage. At the plate he has recorded hits in 19 of ASU's 27 games and has nine extra base hits (7 2B/1 3B/1 HR). Pedroia has already started three positions this year and figures to be ASU's starter at shortstop the rest of the way. He has started 14 games at third base, eight games at second base and the last five at shortstop this year. He recently had a nine-game hitting streak snapped in which he hit .353 (12x34).

Ethier At Bat:

Newly named Pac-10 Player of the Week Andre Ethier came to ASU, left ASU, and is now back at ASU, and boy, ASU is happy. The sweet-swinging Ethier leads the team in hitting through 27 games with a .369 (38x103) batting average. Ethier has 11 multi-hit games on the year, five of which have been three-hit affairs and one a four-hit game. After earning All-State honors at St. Mary's High School as a senior in 2000, Sun Devil right fielder Andre Ethier followed his dreams and came to Arizona State University to play baseball. With playing time not working out, Ethier decided to play his freshman year at Chandler-Gilbert CC. Making a name for himself by hitting .468 at the JC level last year, Ethier spurned an offer from the Oakland Athletics after being drafted in the 37th round and came back to Arizona State. He is one of only three Devils to start all 27 games for the Sun Devils, with 26 coming in right field and one start coming at first base. He has a hit in 20 of 27 games this year.

This Sergio Garcia Doesn't Golf:

Senior infielder Sergio Garcia has a familiar name, but this Sergio Garcia is not a golfer. Garcia will fill in the role as ASU's valued utility man, able to play third, second and his most familiar position, shortstop. Garcia transferred from Oklahoma where he hit .311 for the Sooners last year and was an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection. Garcia has started the last 10 games for the Devils in filling in for Steve Garrabrants and is hitting .259 (7x27) over that stretch. For the season Garcia is hitting at a .310 clip (13x42) with two doubles and six RBI.

2002 Newcomers Highly Touted By National Publications:

The group of 17 players that make up the newcomers for the 2002 season have been highly touted as the No. 8 recruiting class in the nation by Collegiate Baseball and the No. 11 class by Baseball America. The group includes Ian Kinsler (Central Arizona CC), Andre Ethier (Chandler-Gilbert CC), Dustin Pedroia (Woodland, Calif.),

Sun Devil Baseball 2002

(Horizon HS) and Robbie McClellan (Seward County CC).

The Apollo Connection:

Arizona State and Apollo High School in Glendale has formed quiet a relationship. Former Sun Devil All-American and Major Leaguer Bob Horner started the tradition back in the late 1970's and still holds the ASU career record for home runs with 56. Current Los Angeles Dodger Paul Lo Duca, who was the Sporting News College Player of the Year in 1993 and holds the ASU single-season batting average record at .446 was also a prep standout at Apollo High School. The latest in the line of ASU players to come from Apollo High School is freshman infielder Nick Cadena. Cadena broke the school and state home run records for a career set by Horner and also bettered several of Lo Duca's long-standing records. To add to the connection, ASU Baseball beat writer Paul Coro of the Arizona Republic is also an Apollo graduate.

Arizona State On The Tube:

Fox Sports Net will televise four Pac-10 Baseball games this year, including the March 23 game between Arizona State and Arizona in Tucson. The game, originally scheduled for 1 p.m. at Frank Sancet Field, has been pushed back to a 2 p.m. start to accommodate the TV start time. Arizona State also played Florida State on Feb. 16 on Fox Sports Arizona at 12 p.m. MST. Fox Sports Arizona just picked up the Sunday (Apr. 7) game vs. Washington State. Listed below is a complete schedule of Pac-10 Baseball games scheduled to air on Fox Sports Net in 2002. Please check your local listings for exact start times and channel:

- Sunday, April 7, 2002 — Arizona State at Washington State, 1 p.m. (Fox Sports Arizona)
- Saturday, April 13, 2002—USC at Stanford, 1 p.m. PT
- Saturday, May 4, 2002—UCLA at Washington, 1 p.m. PT
- Saturday, May 11, 2002—Oregon State at California, 1 p.m. PT

Monday's With Murphy at Boston's:

New for the 2002 baseball season is a weekly coaches radio show for ASU head coach Pat Murphy. Held every Monday from 6-6:30 p.m. on XTRA 910 AM, Murphy and the voice of ASU Baseball, Tim Healey, will preview upcoming ASU Baseball games and talk Sun Devil baseball. A roundtable discussion on ASU and College Baseball is held from 5:30-6 p.m. and is open to the public and all media. Selected players and ASU assistant coach Mike Rooney will also be present at the weekly event. There will not be a coaches show on Apr. 1 as the Devils will play a non-conference game at UNLV in Las Vegas.

ASU And Team USA Connections:

Arizona State baseball has had a long-standing tradition of sending players to play for the USA National team during the summers. ASU has had six players don the Red, White and Blue for Team USA since 1984, with the first being Oddibe McDowell in the 1984 Olympics played at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles. Jim Austin played for Team USA in 1990 and ASU has had four players play with Team USA in the last four years. 1999 Pac-10 Player of the Year Willie Bloomquist played in the summer of 1998, 2000-2001 Pac-10 Player of the Year Casey Myers played in the summer of 2000 and was also a member of the Team USA Junior National Team before arriving at ASU in 1998. Current Tampa Bay Devil Ray prospect Jon Switzer was also a member of the 2000 National Team and current pitcher Mike Esposito was 3-1 with a 1.56 ERA last summer. Current Sun Devils Dennis Wyrick and Ryan Schroyer also played for the Team USA Junior teams during their respective prep careers.

Gosewisch A Common Name At ASU:

If the last name and number you see behind the plate for ASU this year looks familiar, don't worry, you aren't having flashback to the late '90s. Tuffy Gosewisch, the brother of former Sun Devil Chip Gosewisch, wears the same No. 39 as his brother and carries the same tough mentality on the field. The older Gosewisch played for Pat Murphy from 1996-99 as a catcher and infielder, hitting at a career .338 clip and playing in 160 career games. Tuffy Gosewisch was an all-state catcher at Horizon High School in Scottsdale last year. After starting the year with only one hit in his first 18 at-bats, Tuffy has come around as of late with four hits and two RBI in his last eight at-bats. He is now hitting .192 (5x26) on the year and has been invaluable behind the plate as a solid defensive catcher.

Homegrown Devils:

A total of 20 of ASU's 33 players hail from the state of Arizona. Rod Allen (Phoenix), Joel Bocchi (Phoenix), Nick Cadena (Glendale), Cesar Castillo (Yuma), Andre Ethier (Phoenix), Steve Garra-brants (Phoenix), Tuffy Gosewisch (Scottsdale), Mike Guerrero (Mesa), J.J. Jackson (Chandler), Bryce Kartler (Phoenix), Ian Kinsler (Tucson), Aaron Klusman (Phoenix), Jeff Larish (Tempe), Matt Leaf (Peoria), Jered Liebeck (Glendale), Josh Perrault (Mesa), Ryan Schroyer (Casa Grande), Doug Schutt (Gilbert) and Josh Smith (Lake Havasu) are all native Arizonans. The team is also represented by players from Alaska (1), California (5), Colorado (1), Illinois (2), Kansas (1), Nevada (2) and New Mexico (1).

A Classy Act By These Padres:

Before the Saturday game of the Cal State Fullerton series, four San Diego Padre players stopped by unannounced to talk to both the Titans and Sun Devils about the affects of drinking and driving and wearing a seatbelt. Former CSF All-Americans Phil Nevin and Mark Kotsay were joined by all-star closer Trevor Hoffman and Padre pitcher Kevin Jarvis as they talked to both teams after losing teammate and good friend Mike Darr in an alcohol related accident before the start of spring training in the Phoenix area.

How They Have Finished:

Arizona State has finished four seasons ranked in the final Collegiate Baseball national poll since 1990, ranking 10th of all college baseball programs. The schools with the most Top 10 Collegiate Baseball finishes are listed below:

1.	Florida State	11
2.	LSU	10
3.	Miami	8
4.	Stanford	7
5.	Clemson	6
5.	Cal State Fullerton	6
7.	Oklahoma State	5
7.	Wichita State	5
7.	USC	5
10.	Arizona State	4

Frequent Flyers... and Drivers:

With the three-game series at Florida State in Tallahassee, ASU embarked on its first of many roadtrips this season. The Devils traveled a total of 3,572 miles last weekend, flying from Phoenix to Atlanta and then on to Tallahassee. For the season ASU will log 10,192 miles in the air, with flights to Oklahoma City, Chicago, Spokane, Wash., Las Vegas and San Jose, Calif. In addition, ASU plans to make two big bus trips this year to Las Cruces, N.M. (770 miles round trip) for the Mar. 12 game at New Mexico State and to UCLA (792 miles round trip) for the three-game Pac-10 series in April. In all, ASU will drive 2,136 miles on a bus this year to get to games.

Calling All Lettermen

Prior to the 2002 baseball season, the Arizona State Baseball Media Guide, the official source of ASU Baseball information, only referred to records and lettermen dating back to 1959. Although 1959 is the year Bobby Winkles officially took over the program, making the sport have varsity recognition at ASU, baseball in Tempe dates back to 1907. Integrating the research of Barry Sollenberger from his book, "Bulldog Baseball," lettermen and records prior to 1959 have been added to the ASU Baseball Media Guide. The list of letterman is ever evolving, so if you know of any name that should be on the list of a player that played in at least one VARSITY game, please contact the ASU Media Relations office at jeff.evans@asu.edu.

Success in the Classroom As Well As On The Field:

ASU has long enjoyed much success on the diamond, and with 18 College World Series appearances, it is known as one of the gems of college baseball. But lately academics, as well as on-field talent, has shown its true colors in the storied program. Pat Murphy's Sun Devil squads have produced four Academic All-Americans over the past three years (Willie Bloomquist, Mark Ernster, Jeff Phelps, Casey Myers), including Myers being named the Academic All-American for college baseball in 2000 and 2001. The four players honored as National Academic All-Americans is the most by any college baseball program in the nation over the last three years.

ASU Owns Pac-10 Player of the Year Award:

Since the old Pac-10 North (formerly Washington State, Washington, Oregon State, Portland State) and the Six-Pac joined to form the unified Pac-10 baseball conference in 1999, Arizona State has enjoyed much success with a combined 43-29 record in league play. Even more impressive is that no one other than an ASU player has won the annual Pac-10 Player of the Year award. Willie Bloomquist won the inaugural award in 1999, while Casey Myers took home the hardware in 2000 and 2001 to become only fourth player in Pac-10 history to win the award twice in a career. In all, ASU has won nine (9) Pac-10 Player of the Year Awards dating back to 1978 (Myers (2), Bloomquist, Jacob Cruz, Paul Lo Duca, Linty Ingram, Oddibe McDowell, Alvin Davis, Mike Soddors) and two Pac-10 Pitchers of the Year (Noah Perry and Marc Barcelo).

Sun Devil Baseball 2002

Golden Spikes Common At Arizona State:

While Mark Prior of USC was the recipient of the 2001 Golden Spikes award as the nation's top amateur baseball player, it should be noted that three Arizona State players have won the award. Bob Horner, who was a standout at ASU from 1976-78, won the inaugural award in 1978. Oddibe McDowell, who was a member of the first Team USA baseball team to compete in an Olympics, won the award in 1984. Mike Kelly, who ranks second in ASU history with 46 home runs from 1989-91, won the award in 1991. In all, 13 players that have worn the Maroon and Gold have been named a Player of the Year for college baseball.

ASU Leader of the Pac When It Comes to Player of the Week:

Arizona State has amassed 43 Pac-10 Pitchers of the Week and 63 Players of the Week since 1981. That total leads all Pac-10 member schools. The Sun Devils had two players honored as Pac-10 POW last year with Mike Esposito taking home the Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honor on May 5 and Mike Lopez won the Pac-10 Player of the Week on April 28. Robbie McClellan won the first Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honor this year.

Arizona State in Postseason Play:

The Sun Devil baseball program has created a dynasty in college baseball that has been matched by few. With 18 appearances in the College World Series, ASU ranks fifth for the most trips to Omaha. Arizona State has advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 25 of the program's 42 varsity seasons (dating back to 1959), amassing an incredible 122-49 (.730) record. ASU's five National Championships rank as the second most of any NCAA school. In addition to ASU's five national championships, the Sun Devils have also turned in five second-place teams and three third-place finishes.

Sun Devil Baseball 2002

Drafted Devils:

A total of 17 players on the 2001 Arizona State squad have been taken in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft. Since the inception of the draft in 1965, ASU has had more players chosen (303), more first-round draft picks (21) and more No. 1 picks (3) than any other school in the nation. Eight (8) players from the 2000 Pac-10 Championship team were drafted last June. ASU's three No. 1 picks were Rick Monday (1965), Floyd Bannister (1976) and Bob Horner (1978, Atlanta).

Player	Year	Team	Round Drafted
Rod Allen	2000	Reds	34th round
Bret Berglund	2001	Royals	46th round
Nick Cadena	2001	Royals	42nd round
Mike Esposito	1999	Reds	5th round
Andre Ethier	2001	Athletics	37th round
Steve Garrabrants	2000	Twins	42nd round
Mike Guerrero	2000	Red Sox	36th round
Bryce Kartler	2001	Cardinals	20th round
Ian Kinsler	2000	Diamondbacks	29th round
	2001	Diamondbacks	26th round
Jeff Larish	2001	Cubs	32nd round
Jered Liebeck	1999	Diamondbacks	45th round
Josh Perrault	2000	Diamondbacks	40th round
	2001	Marlins	42nd round
Ryan Schroyer	2000	Tigers	16th round
Jon Sheaffer	1999	Reds	29th round
Josh Smith	2001	Brewers	20th round
Dennis Wyrick	1999	Tigers	35th round

Horner Ranks Second As Player of the Century:

Former Sun Devil greats Bob Horner and Eddie Bane were honored by Baseball America by being placed on the publication's "Team of the Century." Horner, an ASU great under Jim Brock from 1976-78, hit .383 for his career and belted a school record 56 home runs. Horner was listed second on the team behind Oklahoma State slugger Pete Incaviglia (1983-85). Bane, a top pitcher for the Sun Devils from 1971-72, posted a career 40-4 record and a 1.64 ERA. Bane was listed as the ninth best player of the 20th Century by Baseball America. The top 10 players of the century were voted on by fans, coaches and baseball writers and are listed below:

1. Pete Incaviglia (Oklahoma State)
2. Bob Horner (Arizona State)
3. Robin Ventura (Oklahoma State)
4. Burt Hooten (Texas)
5. Dave Winfield (Minnesota)
6. Phil Stephenson (Wichita State)
7. John G. Olerud (Washington State)
8. J.D. Drew (Florida State)
9. Eddie Bane (Arizona State)
10. Derek Tatsuno (Hawaii'i)

91 Years of Sun Devil Baseball Tradition:

While the history of baseball at Arizona State University goes back all the way to the early 1900's, the school officially began sponsoring varsity baseball in 1959. Prior to 2002, the ASU Baseball Media Guide referred only to those players that played from 1959 to present. ASU now officially recognizes those players, coaches and seasons from 1907-1950. In 90-plus years of baseball at Arizona State, the program has built a legacy matched by few in the college baseball world. With a 2,230-1,094-6 all-time record, Arizona State has advanced to the College World Series 18 times, won five national championships, won six Pac-10 titles, produced 12 Players of the Year and three Golden Spikes Award winners, and has gone to the NCAA Tournament 25 times. Under current head coach Pat Murphy, the Sun Devils have finished in the top 12 in three of the last five years and finished second in the nation in 1998. They have been ranked in the top 20 for 40 consecutive national polls.

Seven Devils Earn Freshman All-America Honors in 2001:

Seven Sun Devils earned freshman All-America honors during the 2001 season. Rod Allen and Jeremy West both earned first-team acclaim from Collegiate Baseball and Allen was also named to the Baseball America Freshman All-America team. Allen set an ASU freshman record with a .389 batting average and became the first Sun Devil freshman in school history to be named a first-team All-Pac-10 player. Mike Esposito, Aaron Klusman, Ryan Schroyer, Steve Garrabrants and Nick Walsh were all named to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America team as honorable mention selections.
