SUN DEVILS (14-14; 7-11 in Pac-10) PLAY IN NIT AT UNLV ON TUESDAY ON ESPN2 Winner to face South Carolina/Virgina winner on March 18 or 19

Tuesday, Mar. 12-vs. UNLV (20-10)	8 p.m. PT	Thomas and Mack Center	ESPN2
NIT First Round	9 p.m. MST	Las Vegas, Nevada	KFYI 550 AM

SUN DEVILS ENTER POSTSEASON: The Arizona State men's basketball team (14-14; 7-11 in Pac-10) will play the UNLV Runnin' Rebels on Tuesday, March 12, at 8 p.m. PT/9 p.m. MST in the first round of the National Invitational Tournament. Tim Healey and ASU Hall of Famer Lionel Hollins have the radio call on the Sun Devil Radio Network, while Bob Carpenter and Jimmy Dykes have the call on ESPN2. ASU beat four NCAA Tournament teams, including three from the Pac-10, this season as ASU beat Oregon 95-88 on Jan. 6, No. 10 Arizona 88-72 on Jan. 23 and won at No. 20 UCLA 69-68 on Feb. 16. It marked the first time ASU has topped Arizona and UCLA in the same season since 1985-86. The Sun Devils were 13-9 on the year in mid-February but three key injuries and a streak of games to finish the year against six straight ranked teams put ASU at 14-14 to finish the regular season. ASU went 4-9 against NCAA Tournament teams as it also beat Utah 71-62 on Dec. 4 and finished the season by playing 11 of its final 13 games against NCAA Tournament teams. The game against UNLV will mark ASU's first game against an unranked opponent since Feb. 9 when ASU beat Washington.

ASU and UNLV have met twice, with the Sun Devils winning both games. ASU beat UNLV 79-70 on Dec. 5, 1998, at America West Arena in Phoenix in Rob Evans first season at ASU and also won 84-81 on March 20, 1975, in the NCAA Tournament in Portland. Current Sun Devils Kenny Crandall (nine points on three three-point field goals) and Chad Prewitt (five points, five assists and nine rebounds) were the only two current Sun Devils to play in the game in 1998. UNLV is 20-10 on the year and 16-3 at home and lost in the Mountain West Conference Championship game in Las Vegas on Saturday to San Diego State 78-75.

TOUGH GAMES DOWN THE STRETCH: ASU's six-game stretch to finish the regular season was the first time in school history it played six straight ranked teams. ASU's 1974-75 team played four straight ranked teams, also to finish the season. ASU beat No. 19 Arizona 107-92 to conclude the regular season that year and then went on to the NCAA Tournament where it beat No. 10 Alabama 97-94 in Tempe. ASU then played in Portland where it beat No. 16 UNLV 84-81 before losing to top-ranked UCLA 89-75.

NIT: ASU will make its eighth appearance in the postseason NIT and has a 3-7 (.300) mark ...ASU's last appearance was in 1999-2000, when it beat New Mexico State 83-77 on March 15 in Tempe but lost at North Carolina State 60-57 on March 21...overall, ASU is 20-27 (.426) in postseason.

THE INJURY BREAKDOWN: The Sun Devils are led by All-Pac-10 honoree Chad Prewitt, who has led ASU in scoring in 15 of the past 20 games and averaged 18.9 points and 7.3 boards in Pac-10 play, both sixth in the league. Prewitt played the last three games with a partially torn ligament in his right (shooting) elbow which he hurt on Feb. 25 in practice. Prewitt showed the ability to shoot the three this year, as he is 24-of-49 (.490) from beyond the arc in the past 13 games. He hit 5-of-7 at Stanford on Jan. 31 and was 5-of-5 at UCLA on Feb. 16. Prewitt had a career-high 33 points vs. Washington on Feb. 9, the most points by a Sun Devil since Eddie House had 40 vs. UCLA on Feb. 17, 2000, a span of the past 65 games. He also is 18-of-24 (.750) from the free throw line in his past four games.

Senior Awvee Storey and sophomore Kenny Crandall returned to the lineup late in the year after missing games with injury. Storey was poked in the eye on Feb. 9 against Washington and has a swollen left retina and a laceration of the lower left eyelid. He missed the next three games before returning for the Feb. 28 Cal game. Storey has started 15 games and is averaging 15.7 minutes per game. He has notched eight double-figure scoring games this year. He led the Pac-10 in rebounding last year at 9.1 caroms per contest.

ASU also was without Crandall for six games as he sprained a ligament in his right foot on Jan. 31 at Stanford. Crandall is averaging 19.2 minutes per game after returning last week. He is 35-of-82 (.427) from the three-point stripe on the year. In Pac-10 play, he was 21-of-46 (.457). He averaged 7.3 points and shot 50 percent from the field in Pac-10 tilts (28-of-56).

SCRIBE AWARD: Jeff Faraudo of the Oakland Tribune surveyed 25 beat writers of Pac-10 basketball on various topics at the end of the regular season and ASU senior Chad Prewitt was voted the league's most underrated player. Prewitt got nine votes, outdistancing Luke Jackson and Luke Ridnour of Oregon, Phillip Ricci of OSU who each to two votes. Prewitt also got one vote for league's best interview while Curtis Millage got a vote for the top defensive player.

COMBINE THE TWO: With Crandall and Storey out of the rotation, ASU statistically was without 35.6 minutes, 13.3 points and 6.2 rebounds per game (stats before the injured players returned). Players stepped up, as Storey actually only played two minutes vs. Washington State on Feb. 7 due to a lower back sprain. Curtis Millage, who leads the team in minutes played at 29.8 per game, is the only Sun Devil to play 40 minutes when he went the distance against Washington on Feb. 9. Donnell Knight played a season-high 28 minutes at Arizona while Chad Prewitt played a career-high 38 vs. Washington en route to his career-high 33 points. Knight posted back-to-back double-digit points for the only time this year with 14 points and 10 boards vs. Washington State and 10 points vs. Washington. He has made his past 10 free throws. Also, senior Brad Nahra played a career-high 32 minutes in the win at No. 20 UCLA on Feb. 16 and had four assists.

QUICK NOTES: ASU is 14-3 (.824) when it leads at the half but 0-10 when it trails and 0-1 when tied (at Cal, tied at 29)...freshman point guard Jason Braxton averaged 8.6 points in the 10 games against ranked opponents and is averaging 25.7 minutes in the past 13 games...junior point guard Kyle Dodd has 66 assists and just 20 turnovers on the year, a ratio of 3.30-to-1. In the past 20 games, he has 44 assists and just 14 turnovers...ASU is 26-4 (.867) under Evans when it shoots at least 50 percent, including a 16-2 (.889) mark in the past two seasons...Awvee Storey earned his Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies with concentrations in communications and sociology at ASU's Dec. 15 mid-year commencement...sophomore Justin Allen played a season-high 16 minutes vs. Washington State on Feb. 9. He is 7-of-15 (.467) from beyond the three-point stripe in the past eight games...after starting the season 3-of-19 (.158) from beyond the three-point stripe in the first seven games, Curtis Millage is 27-of-74 (.365) in the past 21 games...ASU averaged 16.78 assists per game in Pac-10 play, first in the loop.

EXHIBIT A: Chad Prewitt is the first four-year player in Rob Evans' tenure at ASU and it is tough to remember any Pac-10 player improving any more than "Big Red" from a freshman to a senior season. ASU has been void of four-year players in its recent history, with only Eddie House (1996-2000), Jeremy Veal (1994-98), Quincy Brewer (1992-97) and Ron Riley (1992-96) playing four seasons beginning with the 1992-93 season. Prewitt, who is the 27th Sun Devil to score 1,000 points with 1,167, is averaging 17.3 points per game this year and is shooting .531 from the field. He is averaging 18.8 points and 7.8 boards in the past 20 games. Prewitt has 12 20-point games on the year (28 games) after posting just two in his first three seasons (89 games). A note on his improvement: Prewitt scored more points in the Jan. 4-6 weekend sweep of the Oregon schools (52 points) when he earned Pac-10 Player of the Week than he did his whole Pac-10 freshman season (1998-99), as he had 46 points in 18 games.

ONE MORE IMPROVEMENT NOTE: How big of a improvement has Prewitt made to become the 18th leading scorer in ASU history? Only one other player in ASU's top 25 chart scored less in his first year. ASU 1988 Hall of Fame inductee Fat Lever is currently 19th on the ASU scoring chart with 1,137 points but averaged just 3.6 points in his freshman year of 1978-79. Lever ended up averaging 9.2 points in his sophomore year, 11.6 in his junior year and 16.6 in his senior year for a 10.1 career average. Prewitt averaged just 4.1 points in his freshman year.

REDHAGE AT THE LINE: Junior Shawn Redhage, tied for the fourth-best free throw percentage mark in ASU history, has made 30-of-40 (.750) from the line this year. Redhage had a season-high 13 points at California on Feb. 2 is averaging 16.9 minutes and 6.2 points in the past 14 games and is shooting 52.9 percent (37-of-70) from the field in that time. He played a season-high 24 minutes at Washington State on Jan. 12 and posted eight points and also played 24 minutes vs. Washington on Feb. 9. He had seven assists vs. UCLA on Jan. 17 and had eight points and six boards at UCLA on Feb. 16 in 15 minutes.

LAST YEAR: ASU tied for sixth in the Pac-10 in 2001 after being picked eighth in the media poll. After starting Pac-10 0-7, ASU went 5-6 after February 1, when Chad Prewitt was back at full strength. ASU played 15 games against NCAA teams and were 5-0 against non-conference NCAA teams, beating Conference USA champion Charlotte, Big South champion Winthrop, MWC champion BYU, MAC champion Kent State and MCC champion Southern Utah.

A VOTER: Rob Evans is one of the 31 coaches on The USA TODAY/ESPN Board which votes on the Coaches Top 25. The 2001-02 panel also includes Jim Boeheim (Syracuse), Bob Huggins (Cincinnati), Gene Keady (Purdue), Dave Odom (South Carolina), Oliver Purnell (Dayton) and Gary Williams (Maryland).

BAD LUCK: Since 1990, 49 of 50 Pac-10 teams who have won at least 11 conference games have been selected to the NAAs. The exception? ASU in 1992-93, when it was 11-7 and tied for third. Also, 53 of 55 teams since 1990 who have posted 18 wins and 10 Pac-10 wins have qualified. Again, the odd teams out were ASU in 1992-93 and 1999-2000.

TURNING 20: Here's the list of ASU players since the 1990-91 season (past 12) that have turned in the most 20-point performances:

ASU IN THE PAC-10 TOURNAMENT: Arizona State is now 3-5 (.375) in the Pac-10 Tournament, which last happened from 1987-1990, after its loss to No. 15 Arizona on March 7.

In 1987 at Pauley Pavilion, eighth-seeded ASU beat ninth-seeded Washington 76-60 and then fell to top-seeded UCLA 99-83.

In 1988 at McKale Center, seventh-seeded ASU fell to 10th-seeded Washington 96-82.

In 1989 at the Forum, 10th-seeded USC beat seventh-seeded ASU 94-82.

Eighth-seeded ASU pulled off one of the biggest upsets in Pac-10 Tournament history on March 9, 1990, in Tempe. After beating ninth-seeded Washington 57-51 on March 8, ASU topped No. 1 seed Oregon State 83-75 before falling to fourth-seeded UCLA 79-78 on March 10. It marks the only loss in the history of the Pac-10 Tournament for the No. 1 seed (9-1). Alex Austin earned Pac-10 All-Tournament honors, the only Sun Devil to earn the accolade.

SHOOTING AND DEFENDING THE THREE

BETTER: ASU made 38 more three-pointers in its Pac-10 games (99) than it did last year (61). ASU shot 36.1 percent (99-of-274) from the three-point stripe in Pac-10 play (fifth in the league) and held opponents to just 31.7 percent (91-of-287) from beyond the arc (second in the loop). Last year, the Sun Devils shot just 26.3 percent from beyond the arc in Pac-10 play (61-of-232) and its opponents shot 37.6 percent (109-of-290). Both marks were last in the Pac-10 in 2000-2001.

STREAK BUSTER: ASU ended a 15-game losing streak at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion that dated to 1987 and Rob Evans is a coach who knows about ending a road losing streak. Almost five hoop seasons to the day (Feb. 14, 1998), Evans' Ole Miss Rebels went to Lexington and beat seventh-ranked Kentucky 73-64, the first win for Ole Miss in Lexington since Feb. 11, 1927. That victory broke a 41-game road losing streak at Kentucky.

ASU'S SCOTT ENTERS PAC-10 HALL OF HONOR:

The Pac-10 Conference honored 10 former coaches and student-athletes with their induction into the Pac-10 Hall of Honor during the 2002 Pac-10 Tournament. ASU's inductee was current New Jersey Net head coach Byron Scott. Scott, a 1988 inductee into the ASU Hall of Fame, was an Associated Press second-team All-American and All-Pac-10 pick in 1983 and led the Sun Devils in scoring in 1981 and 1983. He scored 1,572 points in his career, the fifth-best mark in ASU history. He was the fourth overall pick by San Diego in the 1983 NBA draft and played 14 seasons in the NBA, winning three NBA titles with the Los Angeles Lakers (1985, '87, '88). Other individuals inducted include: Sean Elliott (UA), Pete Newell (Cal), John Dick (Oregon), Gary Payton (OSU), Hank Luisetti (Stanford), John Wooden (UCLA), Bill Sharman (USC), Bob Houbregs (Washington) and Craig Ehlo (Washington State).

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS: A look at various preseason Pac-10 predictions for ASU:

*6th-- Street & Smith's, Basketball News, Basketball America, The Sporting News, Lindy's

*7th-- Pac-10 Media Poll, Athlon's, Basketball Times, Oakland Tribune (Jeff Faraudo)

*8th-- ESPN.com, Los Angeles Daily News (Billy Witz), Portland Oregonian (Ken Goe), Seattle Times (Bob Sherwin)

ABOUT THOSE RANKINGS NOTES: ASU's win over tenth-ranked Arizona marked its first win over a ranked team since it won at fourth-ranked Stanford 90-87 on Jan. 31, 1998, ending a streak of 26 straight losses to ranked foes. Not only were a lot of those opponents the best in the Pac-10, but the best in the nation as well. ASU faced 15 top-10 teams in that time, including eight teams in the top five. ASU also faced a No. 1 ranked Stanford team twice in that time, both times in Palo Alto.

SHELL AND ALLEN UPDATES: Tanner Shell, who averaged 9.1 points per game in Pac-10 games including a 24-point effort at USC, broke his left hand in practice in late December last year and missed the remainder of the 2000-2001 season and took a medical redshirt. In 1999-2000, he had six double-figure scoring games and averaged seven points per game. His 9.1 points per game in Pac-10 play was third on the team. Shell took an indefinite leave of absence from the team on Nov. 27 this year for personal reasons. Also, Justin Allen redshirted last season as he recovered from Hodgkin's Disease and is back on the court this season. Allen posted a season-high 16 minutes in the Feb. 7 win over Washington State.
