NED: ASU is wearing "NED" in black on its uniforms in honor of former Sun Devil coach Ned Wulk, who passed away on Nov. 15 at the age of 83. Ned won 406 games as ASU's coach from 1957-82 and is the school's 2003 Pac-10 Hall of Honor inductee. Ned's 1980-81 team, which included Byron Scott, Alton Lister and Fat Lever, posted a 20-point victory (87-67) at top-ranked and unbeaten Oregon State on March 7, 1981, in the final game of the regular season. The 20-point win is tied for the second-largest road win over the top-ranked team in AP poll history.

SUN DEVILS (10-16; 4-13) CONCLUDE SEASON IN TUCSON Ike Diogu leading Pac-10 in points (22.9) and minutes (36.9) per game

Sun., Mar. 7-@ #22 Arizona (18-8; 10-7) 2 p.m. MST Tucson, Ariz./CBS (KPHO-5)
All games on radio in Phoenix on ESPN 860 AM.

SUN DEVILS FINISH IN TUCSON: The Arizona State men's basketball team (10-16 and 4-13 in the Pac-10), finishes its season on Sunday, March 7, with a 2 p.m. contest against Arizona which will be broadcast by CBS (KPHO-5 in Phoenix), with Ian Eagle and Jim Spanarkel calling the action. UA leads the series against ASU 131-73, with ASU's last win an 88-72 victory over the 10th-ranked Wildcats on Jan. 23, 2002, its biggest margin of victory vs. UA since 1982. Only two current Sun Devils (Jason Braxton and Kenny Crandall) played in that game. The Sun Devils, with seven first-year players in the rotation, have been led all season by preseason All-American Ike Diogu, who is averaging a Pac-10 best 22.9 points and 36.9 minutes per game and is grabbing 8.7 rebounds per game (tied for second in the Pac-10). The sophomore has scored in double digits in all 58 career games, the best active streak in the nation. Diogu is averaging 11.3 free throw attempts per game on the year and already has broken the 40 year-old Pac-10 season record for free throws made with 240. He has 29 career 20-point games, 14 career double-doubles (seven this year) and 10 other games with nine rebounds. This season, he has five 30-point games, 17 20-point games and 45 blocks. The Garland, Texas, native is fourth in the league in offensive boards (3.19 per game), second in blocks (1.73) and fifth in free throw percentage at .816. He is averaging 37.6 minutes in the past 16 games and has led ASU in scoring in 12 of the past 13 contests.

DEVIL DATA: ASU enters this week fifth in the nation in free throw attempts at 28.1 per game...ASU's top three scorers (sophomore Ike Diogu, junior Stevie Moore and senior Jamal Hill) are shooting 378-of-464 (.815) from the free throw line...ASU shot 71.4 percent from three at USC (10-of-14) on Jan. 17, the fourth-best mark in school history...the Sun Devils have used 13 starting lineups this year...ASU is shooting 73.7 percent from the free throw line, currently the fifth-best mark in school history and fourth in the Pac-10...ASU went 19-of-20 (.950) from the free throw line against UCLA on Feb. 12, which set the school single-game mark for 20 attempts...redshirt freshman Kevin Kruger has provided a spark in the past eight games, averaging 28.4 minutes, 11.3 points and shooting 21-of-49 (.429) from the three-point stripe in that time. He is the team's third-leading scorer in those eight games...ASU played back-to-back overtime games against UCLA (Feb. 12) and USC (Feb. 14) for the first time since the 1985-86 season...redshirt freshman Serge Angounou played his best game since his knee injury last year against Oregon on Feb. 21 with 12 points (5-of-11 shooting) and five boards in 32 minutes.

A MIXED BUNCH: Thirteen players getting a starting nod, 13 starting lineups, seven newcomers playing significant minutes, a player who has not played in 15 months notches 50 minutes in his first two games in early January and a starting freshman guard who was averaging 21.6 minutes per game breaking his nose and missing nine games has contributed to ASU's struggles. ASU lost 477 games of experience from last year when its six seniors graduated, as those players accounted for 117 minutes per game and Ike Diogu is the only returning starter from the NCAA win over Memphis. Tron Smith had started six of the first seven games but broke his nose in practice over the holiday break and had surgery on Jan. 6 and missed nine games recovering from surgery and then pneumonia. Serge Angounou, who missed all of last season with a knee injury, returned for his first game action on Jan. 8 vs. Stanford after rehabbing since his injury on Nov. 13, 2002, in an exhibition game.

VS. WASHINGTON STATE: ASU had just 22 rebounds, its fewest since March 4, 1995, and shot just 7-of-21 (.333) from the field in the second half in an 83-70 loss in Tempe on Feb. 26 to Washington State. The Sun Devils led 41-37 at the half, but WSU outscored ASU 46-29 in the second stanza. Ike Diogu led ASU with 28 points, including a 10-of-14 effort from the field. Jamal Hill added 14 while Stevie Moore added 10 off the bench.

VS. WASHINGTON: Washington jumped out to a 44-29 halftime lead in winning in Tempe for just the second time in 17 tries and for the first time since 1997 on Feb. 28, as it topped ASU 96-72, as the Sun Devils gave up a season-high 96 points. Ike Diogu led ASU with 27 points while Jamal Hill added 14. ASU was just 8-of-21 (.381) from the field in the first half and shot just 24-of-39 (.615) from the free throw line, its worst outing since Dec. 29.

A BUILDER: When Rob Evans arrived in the spring of 1998, many talked about his final two years at Ole Miss when he went 42-16 (.724) and won two SEC West titles with a program that had been to just one NCAA Tournament. Before those seasons, Evans took a program many called "below ground" and had a 44-65 (.403) mark in his first four years. At ASU, Evans was 60-60 in his first four years before going 20-12 last year. Evans is 104-125 (.454) in his first four years of building a program and is now 72-44 (.621) after the rebuilding process.

FRESHMEN: When Tron Smith and Keith Wooden started the opener vs. Arkansas-Little Rock, it marked the first time two Sun Devil freshmen had started an opener in the past 13 seasons. The last time ASU had two freshmen in the opening day lineup was Nov. 23, 1990 (Jamal Faulkner and Stevin Smith). It marked only the third and fourth time a freshman had started in the past 11 openers at ASU. Prior to Ike Diogu (2002-2003), Donnell Knight (1999-2000), Smith and Wooden, the last freshman to start an opener was Ron Riley in 1992-93.

IKE IN 2002-2003: Ike Diogu, the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year and the only freshman to earn All-Pac-10, averaged 19.9 points and 9.6 rebounds in the final 14 games last year. Diogu was the only player who ranked in the Pac-10's top five in scoring (19.0 ppg./third) and rebounding (7.8 rpg./fifth). The Garland, Texas, native set ASU freshman records for starts (32), points (607), field goals made (209), rebounds (249) and minutes (1,030) and set school records for free throws made (180) and attempted (245). He shot 60.8 percent from the field (209-of-344), tied for first in the Pac-10, and finished at 63.8 percent (120-of-188) in the 18 Pac-10 games, first in the league. Diogu's 60.8 percent field goal shooting was the eighth-best mark in the nation.

IKE'S UPGRADES: Ike Diogu has posted some better numbers from last year in a few of the overlooked statistics. He is 14-of-37 (.378) from the three-point stripe this year after going 9-of-24 (.375) last year. He is shooting 81.6 percent from the free throw line after shooting 73.5 percent in 2002-2003. His rebounding numbers are up (7.8 per game to 8.7), and he surpassed last year's blocks total with 45 (31 last year) and assists total with 43 (26 last year).

ROB EVANS: Rob Evans (176-169/.510) is in his sixth season at Arizona State (12th overall) after being hired on April 7, 1998. The 1997 SEC Coach of the Year spent six seasons at Ole Miss, compiling an 86-81 (.515) record. He led the Rebels to a 42-16 record in his final two seasons after going 44-65 (.403) in his first four, winning two SEC West titles, and led Ole Miss to back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 1937-38. The 57-year old Evans is a 1989 graduate of New Mexico State, where he captained two NCAA Tournament teams, is a 1989 inductee of the Athletic Hall of Fame and was named to the school's All-Time team. He is 90-88 (.506) at ASU. Evans' Ole Miss squads were known as tough man-to-man teams which ranked 13th in the nation in 1997-98 in rebounding at +6.6. Ole Miss held opponents to just 30 percent from the three-point stripe, best in the SEC, and to just 40.6 percent from the field. He is 133-100 (.571) in the past seven seasons.

LEVER ASU'S CHOICE FOR 2004 PAC-10 HALL: Athletic Director Gene Smith and Rob Evans announced that the Sun Devil family will induct Lafayette "Fat" Lever into the Pac-10 Hall of Honor in the spring of 2004. The Hall of Honor inducted its first class in 2002 at the Pac-10 Tournament Hall of Honor Banquet. Byron Scott was ASU's initial inductee while Ned Wulk was inducted in 2003. The Pac-10 Hall of Honor was created to recognize athletes and coaches who have made significant contributions to the tradition and heritage of the Pac-10. This year's banquet will be held on March 10, the night before the Pac-10 men's basketball tournament begins.

Lever is a 1988 ASU Hall of Fame inductee who was a four-year letterman from 1978-82 who returned to school and finished his B.A. in Education in 1996. A three-year starter, Lever earned second-team Associated Press All-American honors in 1981-82. He earned All-Pac-10 accolades in 1980-81 and 1981-82 and led ASU in assists and steals for three straight seasons. His 1,137 points ranks 19th on the school's career scoring chart. In 1979-80, the Sun Devils finished 22-7, second in the Pac-10 at 15-3, with a national top-20 ranking in both wire service polls and an NCAA Tournament berth. In 1980-81, ASU went 24-4 and concluded the season with an upset-victory at undefeated, top-ranked and Pac-10 champion Oregon State. The 11th overall pick in the 1982 NBA Draft by Portland, Lever played with the Trail Blazers from 1982-84, the Denver Nuggets (1984-90) and the Dallas Mavericks (1990-94).

ALL UNDERCLASS: ASU did not have a senior in the lineup vs. Arkansas-Little Rock for the first time since Jan. 20, 2000, when senior Eddie House sat the first three minutes of an overtime loss at USC after missing the flight to Los Angeles the previous night. The only previous all-underclass lineup was on Dec. 28, 1992, when ASU topped Duquesne 103-81. The Nov. 22 game was the first in the previous 107 and just the second in the previous 326 contests where no senior Sun Devil started.

FREE THROWS: ASU is making free throws at a 73.7 percent rate, the currently the fifth-best mark in school history and the second-best in the past 17 seasons. A look at the best free throw shooting teams in Sun Devil history.

Even in Eddie House's amazing 1999-2000 season, his longest double-digit scoring streak was 10 straight. A look at the best ASU streaks beginning with the 1990-91 season:

SIGNEES: Arizona State signed two high school seniors in the early signing period. Tim Pierce (Hercules High School/Oakland, Calif.) and Craig Austin (El Camino High School/San Diego, Calif.) are expected to join the Sun Devil program in the fall of 2004.

"We are extremely pleased and excited about our fall signees. We have again recruited top-100 players, which is important at the Pac-10 level," notes ASU head coach Rob Evans, who led ASU to the 2003 NCAA Tournament. "Each year for the past four fall signing periods, a top-100 player has signed with Arizona State and that is a tribute to our staff. We have signed several good players and Tim and Craig will be able to help us immediately."

Pierce, a 6-7, 190-pound wing, averaged 28.9 points per game for Fremont High School last year and will play at Hercules High School this year. He is ranked seventh in California and is the top forward according to CalHiSports.com. Ranked No. 70 by School Sports, a publication of Sporting News, and No. 77 by Clark Francis of Basketball Times, he visited Arizona State in mid-September. Hoopmasters.com has him as No. 100, and he is ranked 122nd by RivalsHoops and is No. 37 on the website's forwards list. He played AAU ball with Oakland Slam and Jam and is a multi-year invitee to the ABCD Camp.

"Tim Pierce is athletic and can score," adds Evans. "When we recruited Tim, we knew that he was an instant impact player who has the ability to put up points both inside and outside and has the athletic ability to defend both guards and forwards. He also can shoot it from distance. We have had some good success with players from Oakland like Eddie House and Jamal Hill, and we are confident Tim will be the next Oakland product to have a successful career at ASU."

Austin averaged 14.2 points in the regular season and 19.5 in the playoffs for Carlsbad last year before transferring to El Camino for his senior year.

"Craig Austin is fundamentally sound and at 6-10 can be very efficient offensively," added Evans. "He is very skilled. Like any young player, he will need to gain experience on this level and understand how hard you have to play to be successful, but his skill level at 6-10 will give him a chance to make an immediate impact for us."

OLD NOTES: ASU's 47 free throw attempts vs. Western Michigan on Dec. 30 and Cal State Fullerton on Nov. 24 is tied for the eighth-most in Sun Devil history and is the second-most in the past nine seasons. ASU attempted a school-record 57 vs. Utah last year in the Maui Invitational...Stevie Moore's 26 points vs. Arkansas Little Rock on Nov. 22 is the most in a Sun Devil debut since junior college transfer Isaac Burton scored 28 on Nov. 27, 1993, in a 106-95 Sun Devil win over Brigham Young...Ike Diogu's 12-of-12 outing at the free throw line at USC on Jan. 17 is the first time a Sun Devil has been perfect in at least 12 free throws in a game since Arthur Thomas was 13-of-13 on Dec. 4, 1987, against San Diego State...this year marks the first time ASU has returned its top scorer in the past four seasons. ASU is one of four Pac-10 teams that returns its top scorer, along with USC (Desmon Farmer/18.7), Washington St. (Marcus Moore/18.2) and Washington (Nate Robinson/13.0)...ASU made 12 three-pointers in its loss at California on Feb. 7, its most since it made 12 against Chaminade on Jan. 6, 1997, a span of the past 228 games...ASU had just six free throw attempts at Stanford on Feb. 5, its fewest since it also had just six at UCLA on Jan. 16, 1997, a span of the past 224 games

EVANS ON USA COMMITTEE: Rob Evans is a member of the USA Basketball Collegiate Committee for the 2001-2004 quadrennium. The committee is responsible for policies and procedures for Board approval pertaining to the selection of coaches and athletes as well preparation of USA teams competing in the World University Games, FIBA World Championship for Young Men, Junior World Championship and related tournaments.

BAD LUCK: Since 1990, 53 of 54 Pac-10 teams who have won at least 11 conference games have been selected to the NCAAs. The exception? ASU in 1992-93, when it was 11-7 and tied for third. Also, 58 of 60 teams since 1990 who have posted 18 wins and 10 Pac-10 wins have qualified. Again, the odd teams out were ASU in 1992-93 and 1999-2000.
