NO. 21 USC FOOTBALL HOSTS ARIZONA STATE IN HOMECOMING GAME

FACTS

USC (6-3 overall, 4-3 Pac-12 South) vs. Arizona State (5-4 overall, 3-3 Pac-12 South), Saturday, Nov. 10, Noon PT, Los Angeles Coliseum.

THEMES

It's Homecoming at Troy as No. 21 USC welcomes Arizona State to the Coliseum. Both teams are looking to snap short 2012 losing skids. The Sun Devils have not won in Los Angeles since 1999. USC had an 11-game winning streak over ASU snapped last year in Tempe. The Trojans are still seeking win No. 800. It's the earliest USC kickoff time in the Coliseum since 1998. The game is approaching a sellout. USC dropped its second straight offensive shootout last weekend, this time to No. 2 Oregon. QB Matt Barkley, the Pac-12 career recordholder for completions, pass TDs and total offense, needs just 15 passing yards for that league career standard. Soph WR Marqise Lee, a strong Biletnikoff Award candidate who is riding a pair of impressive receiving and all-purpose yardage outputs versus Arizona and Oregon, leads the Pac-12 in all-purpose yards (first nationally), receptions (second), receiving yards (second) and kickoff returns. He is joined in Troy's aerial show by WR Robert Woods, USC's career receptions leader. Other Trojan offensive standouts are Rimington Award nominee C Khaled Holmes and Penn State transfer TB Silas Redd. USC's defense, which is in the national Top 8 in sacks and tackles for loss, features All-American S T.J. McDonald (the team's top tackler), CB Nickell Robey, LBs Dion Bailey and Hayes Pullard and sack specialist DE Morgan Breslin. New Arizona State head coach Todd Graham brings in a Sun Devil team that is coming off a loss at Oregon State, upping its losing streak to 3 games. ASU's offense features dual-threat QB Taylor Kelly, who is in the national Top 20 in passing efficiency. The Sun Devils runners—DJ Foster, Cameron Marshall and Marion Grice—also figure often in the passing attack, along with such receivers as H-back Chris Coyle and WRs/returners Jamal Miles and Rashad Ross. The Arizona State defense is among the nation's best at stopping the pass and getting to the quarterback, thanks to the play of DT Will Sutton, the Pac-12 leader in sacks and tackles for loss, LBs Brandon Magee, Chris Young and Carl Bradford and FS Keelan Johnson. The game will air live nationally on the Pac-12 Networks. USC's record-setting London Olympians will be saluted at halftime. The men's and women's swimming teams from USC and Arizona State will meet at Troy on Friday and Saturday. USC's basketball teams also open up their 2013 seasons over the weekend, the men on Friday and the women on Sunday.

RANKINGS

USC is ranked 21st in the AP poll and 22nd by USA Today. Arizona State is not ranked.

SERIES

USC has an 18-10 edge in its series with Arizona State (Troy's 2005 road victory was later vacated due to NCAA penalty). The Trojans had an 11-game series winning streak (the longest in the series) snapped last year. In Los Angeles contests, USC is 9-4, including wins in the last 6 L.A. clashes (with the wins in 1980-85-98-2001-02-04-06-08-10 and the losses in 1983-86-91-99).

Last year on a warm evening in Tempe, Arizona State scored 3 unanswered touchdowns in the game's final 20 minutes to end an 11-game losing streak to turnover-prone No. 23 USC with a 43-22 victory. It also snapped a 5-game Tempe winning streak by USC, which was playing its first road game of 2011. With USC leading 22-21 late in the third quarter, the Sun Devils marched 76 yards to a touchdown on a 3-yard run by TB Cameron Marshall. Marshall then scored on a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter as ASU drove 82 yards after sacking QB Matt Barkley and recovering his fumble deep in Sun Devil territory. Then, on USC's next offensive play, Barkley threw an interception under pressure that LB Shelly Lyons returned 41 yards for the final score. The Trojans trailed 21-9 at halftime. Marshall scored on the game's fourth play, a 70-yard run. USC got on the board late in the first quarter on a 41-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari. ASU scored early in the second quarter on a 2-yard toss from QB Brock Osweiler to WR Gerrell Robinson. But USC responded on the ensuing drive with a 29-yard Heidari field goal. The Trojans threatened on their next possession, but a Barkley pass was picked off deep in ASU territory and the Sun Devils converted it into a touchdown on Osweiler's 3-yard toss to WR Jamal Miles. USC came out on fire in the second half but couldn't sustain it, scoring on its first 2 drives: a 24-yard Barkley pass to WR Marqise Lee and then a 10-yard run by TB Marc Tyler to forge its only lead of the game. The statistics were nearly even, with USC having a slight edge in total yards (402 to 392) and first downs (23 to 22) as the Trojans held the ball for 32:09. But ASU didn't have a turnover to USC's 4 and the Trojans squandered opportunities in the red zone, with 2 turnovers there and twice having to settle for short field goals. Troy also was penalized 10 times for 87 yards and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. Tyler ran for a game-best 149 yards on 22 carries (123 of those yards came in the second half), WR Robert Woods had 208 all-purpose yards (including 131 on 8 catches and 75 on a pair of kickoff returns) and Barkley was 21-of-33 for 227 yards. LB Dion Bailey had a game-best 10 tackles (with a sack). For ASU, Marshall rushed for 141 yards with his 3 TDs on 25 carries, Osweiler completed 78.1% of his passes (25-of-32) for 223 yards with the 2 scores and Miles caught 9 passes for 55 yards. The temperature was 98 degrees at the 7:15 p.m. kickoff and dropped only into the high 80s by game's end. A freak windstorm also blew throughout the stadium during part of the first half.

In 2010 in the Coliseum, in a game that hinged on a number of big plays by the special teams, PK Joe Houston hit a late field goal and then Arizona State missed a subsequent 3-pointer to give the Trojans a 34-33 victory. It was USC's 11th consecutive win over the Sun Devils. It also was the Trojans' first 1-point victory since doing so over Stanford in 1995 and Troy's most points scored in a 1-point win. Houston, who missed a pair of short field goals in the first half, nailed a 29-yarder with 3:06 to play to culminate a 9-play, 68-yard drive after the Sun Devils had taken their first lead of the game. But ASU quickly moved down the field to set up a 42-yard field goal attempt by PK Thomas Weber, who hooked the ball wide left with 1:34 to play. Arizona State got on the board just 1:37 into the game on a 10-yard scoring pass from QB Steven Threet to WR Gerrell Robinson, 3 plays after the Sun Devils opened the contest with a 54-yard reverse pass to the USC 18-yard line. The Trojans got a pair of touchdowns late in the initial half, the first on a 15-yard pass from QB Matt Barkley to TB Marc Tyler and then on a 2-yard Barkley toss to WR David Ausberry. After ASU's game-opening 72-yard TD drive, USC held the Sun Devils to just 70 yards the rest of the first half. USC opened up a 22-7 lead early in the second half when LB Malcolm Smith intercepted a Threet pass and ran it back 74 yards for a touchdown (the longest scoring interception return by a Trojan since Kevin Arbet's 75-yarder against Louisiana Tech in 1999), followed by QB Mitch Mustain's 2-point conversion pass to Ausberry. But ASU answered on its following series as Threet hit Robinson for a 21-yard score. USC responded right back as FB Stanley Havili took a Barkley pass 22 yards for a touchdown and a 29-14 lead late in the third quarter. However, Arizona State then went on a 19-point run. CB LeQuan Lewis took the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a TD (the longest against USC since a 100-yader by Iowa's C.J. Jones in the 2003 Orange Bowl). Then, early in the fourth quarter, CB Omar Bolden picked off a Barkley pass and returned it 66 yards for a score (the longest scoring interception return against Troy since Washington's Dashon Goldson had a 76-yarder in 2005 and the first time since the 2003 Oregon State game that both a Trojan and an opponent had scoring interception runbacks in the same game), but ASU's 2-point attempt failed. ASU scored again on its next possession as Threet found WR Jamal Miles on a 9-yard touchdown. But OT Tyron Smith blocked Weber's PAT kick attempt and CB Torin Harris returned it for a 2-point defensive PAT with 6:59 to play (USC's first defensive PAT since Micah Phillips' in 1994 versus Oregon State) to bring USC within 33-31, setting up Houston's game-winning field goal on the Trojans' ensuing possession. Statistically, the teams were even (USC had 402 total yards and 24 first downs while converting 4-of-15 third downs, while ASU had 398 total yards and 22 first downs while going 4-of-13 on third downs) but USC held the ball for 36:48. Both teams had 4 sacks. Barkley was 26-of-37 for 215 yards with the 3 TDs, but was intercepted off twice (his other pick was in the end zone after USC had recovered a blocked punt at the ASU 9). Tyler ran for 119 yards on 12 carries and caught 5 a team-best 5 passes for 32 yards, while TB Dillon Baxter rushed for 52 yards on 17 carries and had 4 receptions for 24 yards while making his first career start. S T.J. McDonald had a game-high 13 tackles and blocked a punt (he partially blocked another punt and also downed a punt at the ASU 4). Malcolm Smith added 7 tackles (with a sack) and forced a fumble to go with his scoring interception return, while CB Shareece Wright had 6 tackles (1.5 sacks) and 2 pass breakups. For ASU, Threet was 24-of-40 for 228 yards with 3 TDs and 2 interceptions, WR T.J. Simpson had 8 catches for 95 yards and WR Kerry Taylor added 6 receptions for 64 yards, and TB Cameron Marshall had 57 yards on 9 carries and TB Deantre Lewis had 55 yards on 12 tries.

CONNECTIONS

USC has 4 players on its roster from Arizona (DE Devon Kennard of Desert Vista HS, C-OG Cyrus Hobbi of Saguaro HS, SNP Peter McBride of Chaparral HS and S John Auran of Brophy College Prep), while the Sun Devils feature 46 Californians...ASU wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator DelVaughan Alexander lettered as a wide receiver at USC in 1993 and 1994, then was a USC assistant in 1996 and 1997...ASU women's tennis coach Sheila McInerney played for the Women of Troy from 1977 to 1980.

SCHEDULE

As usual, USC's 2012 schedule is challenging. The Trojans face 8 teams that played in a bowl in 2011, 6 teams that won at least 7 games last year and 4 squads that are guided by new coaches. Troy plays 6 home games in the Coliseum in 2012. USC opened with a Sept. 1 home contest against Norm Chow-led Hawaii, just the third time that the Warriors played the Trojans in the Coliseum. Troy then made its first visit to the New York City area since 2000 when it met Syracuse on Sept. 8 in 82,500-seat MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. USC then began Pac-12 play by facing the Bay Area schools, traveling to Stanford on Sept. 15 (the Pac-12's first conference game of 2012) and hosting California on Sept. 22. After a bye, USC resumed league play with a Thursday game at Utah on Oct. 4 (its first time there since 1917), followed by a trip to Washington and CenturyLink Field on Oct. 13. The Trojans returned to the Coliseum for an Oct. 20 game against Colorado, then went to Arizona (under new mentor Rich Rodriguez) on Oct. 27. Troy opened the month of November with home games against 3-time defending league champion Oregon on Nov. 3 and Arizona State (and new coach Todd Graham) on Nov. 10. USC then plays its traditional rivals, first facing new coach Jim Mora's UCLA team in the Rose Bowl on Nov. 17 and then hosting Notre Dame on the Saturday (Nov. 24) of Thanksgiving weekend. USC's home games against Oregon and Notre Dame were sold out by mid-August of 2012, its home opener against Hawaii sold out a week before kickoff and its home game against Colorado sold out 2 weeks prior to kickoff; Troy's home game against Arizona State has limited tickets available. The 4 home sellouts in 2012 are the most in a season since 2008, when there were 5 (the school record is 6 in 2006).

ON TV

USC is one of America's most televised teams. The Trojans have appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 433 times, including 299 of the past 301 games (USC's last 140 games have been televised live, a school record). USC also had a streak of 111 consecutive games on some form of live television from 1988 to 1997 (snapped against Oregon State) and another streak of 48 in a row from 1997 to 2001 (broken against California).

FUN FACT I

USC's noon kickoff time this Saturday versus Arizona State is its earliest in the Coliseum since an 11:30 a.m. start in the 1998 season opener against Purdue (a 27-17 Trojan win). The last time USC played as early as noon was the 2010 game at Washington State (a 50-16 USC victory).

FUN FACT II

For the second year in a row, Arizona State is the only "State" opponent on USC's schedule. Before that, the last time that happened was in 1980 when the Sun Devils were the Trojans' only "State" foe.

LAST GAME

RB Kenjon Barner and No. 2 Oregon had historic offensive performances to help the Ducks post a 62-51 shootout victory over No. 18 USC before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national FOX audience. The 113 combined points made it the highest scoring game in USC history (it was the third highest scoring game ever between AP ranked teams) and the Ducks' 62 points were the most ever allowed by Troy. USC's 51 points were its most in a losing effort. It was Oregon's 12th consecutive win since falling to the Trojans in Eugene in 2011, as well as the Ducks' 13th straight road victory and their 22nd consecutive game scoring 30-plus points. The teams combined for 1,345 total yards (730 by Oregon and 615 by USC), with UO's total yardage setting an Oregon school record and breaking a 66-year-old USC opponent record. Oregon averaged 8.8 yards on its 83 plays and USC was at 7.7 yards on its 80 plays. The Ducks 426 rushing yards were the most against USC since Texas A&M had 486 in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl. Oregon's 9 touchdowns and 8 PATs also were USC opponent records, while its 37 first downs tied a Trojan opponent standard. Barner set USC opponent records for rushing yards (321), touchdowns (5) and points (30) on 38 carries (he also had 2 catches for 26 yards). His rushing yardage was an Oregon game record. Oregon redshirt freshman QB Marcus Mariota tied the USC opponent record for TD passes (4) while completing 20-of-23 passes (87.0%) for 304 yards with no interceptions and he added 96 yards on 15 carries. PK Rob Beard's 8 PATs was a USC opponent mark. WR Josh Huff had 6 catches for 125 yards with 2 scores. USC WR Marqise Lee had 408 all-purpose yards (the 16th most in NCAA history), including a Pac-12 record 251 on a school-record 8 kickoff returns and 157 with 2 TDs on 12 receptions. QB Matt Barkley completed a school record-tying 35 passes on 54 attempts for 484 yards and 5 TDs with 2 picks. In the process, he set Pac-12 career records for completions and total offense and he also became the first Pac-12 player to have 4 seasons with 2,500 yards of total offense. WRs Nelson Agholor (162 yards) and Robert Woods (71 yards) each had 6 receptions and a TD catch. TB Silas Redd had 92 yards on 18 carries, plus a 20-yard catch. Oregon scored touchdowns on its first 5 possessions, starting with a 16-yard Mariota pass to RB De'Anthony Thomas 65 seconds into the game. After USC responded with a 39-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari, Mariota hit Huff on a 21-yard score and then, after getting intercepting a USC red zone pass in the end zone, the Ducks marched 80 yards with Barner finishing with a 27-yard TD run to put UO up 21-3. The teams then traded touchdowns on the next 4 possessions, with Barkley's 75-yard bomb to Lee on the first play of that sequence followed by a 5-yard Barner run, a 7-yard Barkley-to-Woods pass and a 14-yard Mariota pass to WR Daryle Hawkins. On the first play after Beard missed a 41-yard field goal, Barkley threw a 76-yard scoring bomb to Agholor to make it 34-24 Oregon at halftime (the teams combined for 864 total yards in the first half), although Troy failed to capitalize on a Duck fumble late in the half by coughing up the ball itself at the UO 23. USC got within 3 points on the opening series of the second half on a 3-yard Redd TD run, but Oregon responded with a 9-yard Barner TD rush. USC countered with Redd's 3-yard scoring run only to see Mariota hit Huff for a 36-yard TD on the next possession to give the Ducks a 10-point cushion. USC had the game's first punt on its next drive and Oregon answered with a 5-yard Barner TD run to make it a 17-point game. USC came right back as Barkley hit TE Randall Telfer for a 3-yard TD with 5:27 to play and forced Oregon's first punt on the ensuing series, but the Trojans went 4-and-out deep in their territory to set up Barner's fifth TD, a 22-yarder with 1:58 to go. USC closed the scoring on a 3-yard Barkley pass to Lee with 1 second to play. Three Trojans had double digit tackles: LBs Lamar Dawson (11) and Dion Bailey (10) and S T.J. McDonald (10). USC had 3 sacks. USC's points, total yards, passing yards (484) and first downs (31) were the most Oregon surrendered in 2012. Its 9 kickoff returns were a school record. Oregon, which had 10 penalties, converted 7-of-11 third downs (and both of its fourth downs). USC converted 8-of-13 third downs.

LANE KIFFIN

Third-year USC head football coach Lane Kiffin is regarded as one of the game's brightest young coaches. At just 37 (he is the fourth youngest current FBS head coach), he already has been a head coach at football's top levels, both professionally and collegiately. He is known for his high football IQ, as well as for being a master playcaller, a vibrant leader and a superb recruiter. The one-time Trojan offensive coordinator who then became the head coach of the Oakland Raiders and the Tennessee Volunteers returned to the USC program on Jan. 12, 2010, when he was named its head football coach. His 3-year record at USC is 24-10 (.706), and he is 31-16 (.660) in 4 years as a college head coach. Only College Football Hall of Famers Howard Jones and John Robinson (with 19 wins) had more victories in their first 2 years as a Trojan head coach than Kiffin's 18. Among Kiffin's signature USC wins are road victories at No. 18 Arizona in 2010 and at both Notre Dame and No. 4 Oregon in 2011. Six of his 10 USC losses were by a total of 25 points, with 4 coming on opponent scores late in the game (2 on field goals at the gun, 1 in triple overtime and 1 on a TD with 2:23 to go) and 2 on TDs in the game's final 10 minutes.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT LANE KIFFIN

Steve Greenberg, Sporting News: "He performed as well as any coach in America in 2011."

David Leon Moore, USA Today: "Lane Kiffin is just flat out getting it done, in recruiting, in organizing and in play-calling. The coaching has been excellent. When a team gets better and better and better all season, that says a lot about coaching."

Ted Miller, ESPN.com: "USC returned to the nation's elite in Year Two under coach Lane Kiffin. With no hope for a conference or national title or even the postseason (in 2011), Kiffin had the Trojans playing their best football."

John Taylor, NBCSports.com: "Considering the sanctions with which Kiffin and the football program had to deal, the coach that everybody loves to hate has done an outstanding job."

Richard Cirminiello, CollegeFootballNews.com: "Troy is back. And much faster than anyone could have imagined. USC is on the verge of reclaiming its old familiar spot as a Pac-12—and national—contender following a month (November 2011) of domination that'll go down as one of the most crucial in recent program history. With nothing tangible to play for, such as bowl berths or hardware, the Trojans used November to build a head of steam, and recapture some of its lost swagger in the wake of the sanctions levied by the NCAA."

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "Kiffin has more than proved he can develop quarterbacks and expose defenses as a play-caller."

Greg Biggins, ESPNRise.com: "To the recruits and parents we've talked to, USC hired Vince Lombardi."

ASSISTANT COACHES

The Trojan staff features 3 new full-time assistant coaches: Tennessee's 1998 national championship quarterback and NFL veteran Tee Martin (wide receivers), former Nebraska assistant and North Carolina defensive coordinator Marvin Sanders (secondary) and Scottie Hazelton (linebackers), who was the defensive coordinator for North Dakota State's 2011 NCAA FCS national championship team. They join holdovers Ed Orgeron (defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive line), Monte Kiffin (assistant head coach), Kennedy Polamalu (offensive coordinator/running backs), John Baxter (associate head coach/special teams), Clay Helton (passing game coordinator/quarterbacks) and James Cregg (offensive line). Justin Mesa returned as the tight ends graduate assistant, while Shawn Howe became the defensive line graduate assistant after serving as a defensive administrative assistant in 2011. New graduate assistants are former USC special teams standout Ross Cumming (special teams/linebackers) and former Drake assistant Mark Watson (secondary).

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Nine starters returned on offense from 2011: quarterback Matt Barkley, wide receivers Robert Woods and Marqise Lee, tailback Curtis McNeal, center Khaled Holmes, guards Marcus Martin and John Martinez, tackle Kevin Graf and co-starting tight ends Randall Telfer and Xavier Grimble. Others back with starting experience are tailback D.J. Morgan, tackle-guard Jeremy Galten and tailback Tre Madden, along with Penn State tailback transfer Silas Redd. USC will look to build upon 2011's outstanding offensive showing. The Trojans return a 3,500-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers, a 1,000-yard rusher (plus a transfer who had a 1,000 yards) and a pair of tight ends who combined for 9 touchdowns. USC's passing (294.2), total offense (456.8) and scoring (35.8) averages last year increased from 2010. Only its rushing average (162.6) showed a slight decline from 2010 (-26.7). The Trojans were sixth nationally in passing efficiency (161.1) and in the nation's Top 25 in passing (15th), scoring (16th) and total (21st) offense. USC's yards-per-play average (6.5) was the third highest in school history, while its averages for total offense and passing offense were the fourth highest and its scoring offense average was the fifth highest. Troy's 8 sacks allowed were the fewest at USC since records were kept in 1987 (despite not starting a senior on the offensive line) and ranked the Trojans second nationally in 2011. USC led the Pac-12 in fewest penalty yards and was in the league's Top 3 in first downs, third down conversions and time of possession.

BARKLEY

USC is led in 2012 by one of the best players in college football, senior quarterback Matt Barkley (206-of-316, 65.2%, 2,750 yds, 30 TD, 10 int in 2012). He is a contender for the Heisman Trophy as he enters his fourth year as a starter (he was sixth in the 2011 Heisman voting). He is among 16 semifinalists for the 2012 Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award. He is among 10 finalists for the 2012 Senior CLASS Award, given to the top senior student-athlete who excels in community, classroom, character and competition, and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. Last season when he was a finalist for the Manning Award and Wuerffel Trophy, he set a Pac-12 record for touchdown passes (39) and a USC record for completion percentage (69.1%) while becoming just the fourth Trojan signalcaller to pass for more than 3,500 yards in a season. He also set 4 USC game records (35 completions, 468 passing yards, 6 TD passes and 470 yards of total offense).

***He currently is 11th nationally in passing efficiency (163.3, second in Pac-12 and within range of Mark Sanchez's USC season mark of 164.6 set in 2008) and 21st in total offense (298.7, third in Pac-12).

***He owns 19 USC career, season and game records, 9 of which are Pac-12 marks (see list below).

***He is the Pac-12 career recordholder for total offense (11,701), completions (961), touchdown passes (110, 10th on the NCAA list) and rushing/passing TDs (116) and is the only player in league history to have 4 years of 2,500 yards of total offense.

***He is second behind Heisman winner Carson Palmer on the Pac-12's and USC's career lists for passing yardage (he has 11,804 yards, 15 shy of breaking the record and 20th on the NCAA list) and pass attempts (he has 1,491, 78 shy of breaking the record).

***His 64.5% career completion rate is just shy of Heisman winner Matt Leinart's USC record of 64.8%.

***His 30 TD passes in 2012 is tied for second most in the nation.

***His 30 TD passes through 9 games in 2012 is ahead of his pace from 2011 (28) when he set the Pac-12 season TD pass record.

***His 206 completions in 2012 is 16th on USC's season list and his 2,688 yards of total offense is 15th on that season chart.

***He has thrown at least 1 TD pass in 40 of his 45 career games, at least 2 TDs in 28 games, at least 3 TDs in 19 games, at least 4 TDs 11 times and at least 5 TDs 8 times (the only Trojan to have done so), including 4 times with a school record 6 TDs.

***He has thrown for at least 200 yards in 30 career games (a school record 14 times over 300 yards, as well as a school record 4 times over 400 yards).

***He has 45 career starts (he is 33-12 as a starter).

—He hit 20-of-41 passes for 254 yards but threw 2 interceptions at Stanford.

—He was 22-of-34 for 192 yards and 2 TDs (with 2 picks) against California.

—At Arizona, he threw for a USC record 493 yards on 31-of-49 passing with 3 TDs (he was 21-of-29 for 321 yards at halftime) to give him his USC record-tying third 400-yard passing day and he had 497 total yards, also a USC record, as he set the Pac-12 career mark for most rushing and passing TDs (111).

—He completed a school record-tying 35 passes on 54 attempts (1 shy of the USC record) for 484 yards and 5 TDs (including 75- and 76-yarders) with 2 picks against Oregon as he set Pac-12 career records for completions and total offense (and he became the first Pac-12 player with 4 seasons of 2,500 total offense yards).

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MATT BARKLEY

Oregon head coach Chip Kelly: "He was the best quarterback we faced (in 2011). I thought Matt was outstanding. A couple of those deep balls were right on target. He always seemed like he had the answer. Every time we came back and scored, he came back with an answer."

Ted Miller, ESPN.com: "There isn't a better representative for college football heading into 2012 than Barkley. Beyond his being the leading 2012 Heisman Trophy candidate and almost certain top-10 NFL draft pick in 2013, and even his volunteer work, he was Pac-12 All-Academic second team. How can you not be impressed with all that?"

David Leon Moore, USA Today: "Barkley's circumstances, skill and personality have admirers thinking he can be the greatest Trojan of them all. He has the second-best GPA on the team. He is active in the inner-city community, working with underprivileged children. And he was a tremendous, classy spokesman for the team the past two years as it served its NCAA probation. Also, he is becoming legendary on the field."

Andy Staples, SI.com: "His return makes Barkley, who probably deserved an invitation to New York last year, a Heisman contender. His decision is great for college football because college football fans get to watch a phenomenal athlete for one more season. Barkley didn't owe anything to USC. He had every right to turn pro. But he made the best choice for himself."

Hawaii head coach Norm Chow, a former USC offensive coordinator: "Carson (Palmer) and Matt (Leinart) were great players, smart players, tough players and good young men. Matt Barkley fits that bill. Matt Barkley is bit like Carson and Matt....everything that is good in college football, I think Matt is."

Arizona head coach Rich Rodriguez: "He's obviously been one of the best quarterbacks in the history of the Pac-12. He's likely to be the first pick in the NFL draft. We're facing one of the all-time greats and also a tremendous leader."

OTHER QUARTERBACKS

Two untested young quarterbacks are battling to be Barkley's backup: high-potential redshirt freshmen Max Wittek (5-of-6, 83.3%, 55 yds, 1 TD in 2012) and Cody Kessler (2-of-2, 100.0%, 9 yds in 2012), with Wittek being named No. 2 at the end of fall camp. Also available are 3 walk-ons in seniors John Manoogian, who took a few end-of-game snaps in 2 contests last fall, and Emon Saeed, who got into a game last season as a wideout for 1 snap, and freshman Conner Sullivan.

—While seeing their first USC action, Wittek completed all 3 of his passes for 22 yards and Kessler took the game's final snap against Hawaii.

—Wittek played the final series at Syracuse, against California and at Utah, but did not throw a pass.

—Kessler served as the holder against Utah and Washington.

—Wittek completed 2-of-3 passes for 33 yards, with a 24-yard TD toss, against Colorado, while Kessler served 2-of-2 for 9 yards.

TAILBACKS

USC features a trio of high-quality tailbacks in 2012. Last season's co-starting tailback, bruising Marc Tyler (he had 1,751 career rushing yards and 5 100-yard games), will be missed. Senior Curtis McNeal (52 tcb, 334 yds, 6.4 avg in 2012, plus 4 rec, 64 yds, 16.0 avg) returned after becoming USC's 27th 1,000-yard season rusher. He posted a quartet of 100-yard outings as a co-starter in 2011. The short but elusive McNeal's 6.9-yard average per carry last season was the best by a Trojan since 2005. He had USC's 5 longest runs of 2011, including 3 in excess of 60 yards. He is also an effective kickoff returner. He has 5 career 100-yard rushing games. Sophomore D.J. Morgan (35 tcb, 189 yds, 5.4 avg, 1 TD in 2012, plus 1 rec, 24 yds, 24.0 avg, 1 TD) started USC's first 2 games of 2011 and then saw backup action the rest of the way. He was the first USC freshman tailback to start an opener in 5 years. He entered the 2012 season finally 100% after a serious knee injury in his 2009 senior year of high school. He also competed on a limited basis for the USC track team in 2012, placing fifth in the high hurdles at the Pac-12 Championship. Just before 2012 fall camp opened, junior tailback Silas Redd (135 tcb, 732 yds, 5.4 avg, 9 TD in 2012, plus 6 rec, 99 yds, 16.5 avg and 1 tac) transferred to USC from Penn State after running for 1,241 yards there last fall and he is eligible to compete for Troy in 2012. He has 10 career 100-yard rushing games (the first 7 were at Penn State). Redshirt freshman Javorius "Buck" Allen (6 tcb, 32 yds, 5.3 avg in 2012), a physical-style tailback, is also available. Then there are 4 walk-ons: senior Robert Mojica (he transferred this fall from SMU, where he saw frequent action as a cornerback), junior John Akiba (4 tcb, 17 yds, 4.3 avg in 2012) and sophomores Alec Jaffe and Taylor Ross. Sophomore Tre Madden was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and was very impressive before suffering a knee injury that will sideline him in 2012. He played on special teams in 2011 and even started once at strongside linebacker for an injured Dion Bailey.

—Against Hawaii, Redd ran for 56 yards on 9 carries, with a 31-yard TD, and caught a 41-yard pass in his first game as a Trojan after transferring from Penn State, while Morgan added 25 yards on 7 carries and McNeal getting 10 yards on 5 tries along with a 20-yard reception.

—Redd had a game-high 107 yards on 15 carries at Syracuse, while McNeal added 63 yards on 11 tries and Allen had 6 yards on 2 carries.

—Redd scored a pair of 1-yard TDs while rushing for 17 yards on 13 carries at Stanford and McNeal had 37 yards on 7 carries.

—Against California, Redd rushed for a season-high 158 yards on 21 carries (7.5 yards per carry) with a 33-yard TD (he also caught a pass for minus 2 yards) and McNeal had 115 yards on 10 carries (with a 62-yard gain) to give USC its first pair of 100-yard rushers in a game since the 2008 Washington State contests, while Allen added 12 yards on 2 carries and Akiba had a 3-yard run.

—Redd had a game-best 77 yards on 17 carries with a 3-yard TD at Utah, while Morgan added 46 yards on 9 tries and Akiba had 12 yards on 2 rushes.

—Redd had a game-high 155 yards on 26 carries, with an 11-yard TD (he also had a 57-yard non-scoring run on USC's first play of the game to set up a field goal), and he added a tackle at Washington, while McNeal had 58 yards on 11 carries.

—Morgan had 52 yards on 10 carries and caught a 24-yard TD against Colorado, while McNeal added 16 yards on 3 tries, Allen had 14 yards on 2 carries, Redd had 13 yards on 3 rushes and caught a 16-yard pass and Akiba had a 2-yard run.

—Morgan had 63 yards on 9 carries with a 3-yard TD at Arizona, while Redd had 57 yards on 13 rushes with a 10-yard TD and also caught 2 passes for 24 yards.

—Redd had a team-best 92 yards on 18 carries with 2 short TDs and caught a 20-yard pass against Oregon, while McNeal added 35 yards on 5 carries and caught 3 passes for 44 yards.

FULLBACKS

The Trojans needed to develop a new fullback in 2012 because Rhett Ellison moved on to the NFL, where he was a fourth round selection. In his career, the versatile Ellison played both fullback and tight end (he had 53 career receptions) and was a top special teams performer (he earned 2011 All-Pac-12 first team laurels as a special teamer). His replacement is 250-pound redshirt freshman Soma Vainuku (7 tcb, 26 yds, 3.7 avg in 2012, plus 7 rec, 40 yds, 5.7 avg and 5 tac). Backing up Vainuku are freshman Jahleel Pinner (1 tac in 2012), a prep All-American who arrived this fall, and redshirt freshman Charles Burks, who moved from defensive end in 2012 fall practice. Also in the fullback grouping are walk-ons Hunter Simmons, a junior who saw brief action in 4 contests in 2010, and senior Chandler Larsen, who can also play tight end.

—Vainuku had 2 catches for 23 yards and a tackle against Hawaii.

—Vainuku had a 6-yard catch, a run for 0 yards and 2 tackles at Syracuse, while Pinner made a tackle.

—Vainuku had 6 yards on 2 carries at Stanford.

—Vainuku had 10 yards on 2 carries and added a tackle against California.

—Vainuku had 2 catches for 3 yards at Utah.

—Vainuku had a 5-yard catch at Washington.

—Vainuku had a 3-yard catch at Arizona.

—Vainuku had 10 yards on 2 carries, plus a tackle, against Oregon.

WOODS AND LEE

USC has the best pair of wide receivers in college football in 2012 in junior Robert Woods (59 rec, 656 yds, 11.1 avg, 10 TD in 2012, plus 1 tcb, 76 yds, 76.0 avg and 7 PR, 40 yds, 5.7 avg and 2 tac) and sophomore Marqise Lee (88 rec, 1,286 yds, 14.6 avg, 12 TD in 2012, plus 4 tcb, 44 yds, 11.0 avg and 23 KOR, 677 yds, 29.4 avg, 1 TD). The Biletnikoff Award candidates, who both had 1,000 receiving yards last fall, combined in 2011 for the most receptions (184) and receiving yards (2,435) by a pair of Trojans in a season. And they became the first Trojan duo with at least 10 catches each in a game when they did so versus UCLA in 2011 (they did it again at Syracuse in 2012). They own the USC game record for most receiving yards by 2 players (438 versus Arizona in 2012). Woods had 7 100-yard games in 2011 and Lee added 4. They also are being used again in USC's return game in 2012 (both have scoring kickoff returns in their careers).

The quick Woods, who is starting for his third season, became Troy's career pass catching leader (235 receptions, fifth on the Pac-12 chart) midway in his 2012 junior season. He was a consensus All-American and Biletnikoff finalist in 2011 when he caught a Pac-12 record 111 receptions and set a USC game mark with 17 catches. He was the only unanimous selection on the 2011 All-Pac-12 first team. He was one of just 2 players in the nation last season in the national Top 16 in receptions, receiving yards and all-purpose running. He had 4 games last fall with double digit receptions. He is one of only 3 Trojans in history to have a pair of career 200-yard receiving outings. He currently is tied for 25th nationally in receptions (6.6, tied for fourth in Pac-12). His 59 catches in 2012 is 22nd on the USC season list. He also ranks fourth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,364 yards). He has 10 100-yard receiving games in his career, including a school-record tying twice with 200 yards, 6 career outings with double digit receptions and 11 career games with multiple TDs (including a USC record 4 against Colorado in 2012). His 15 games with 8-plus receptions is a school record. His 31 career TDs is second most at USC (tied for fifth on the Pac-12 career list). He has a reception in his past 29 games.

The high-leaping Lee earned Freshman All-American first team and Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Co-Player of the Year notice in 2011. His 11 TD catches (10 of which were at least 24 yards) were the most nationally by a freshman last fall. His 73 receptions were the second most ever by a USC freshman and his 13 grabs against UCLA tied the Trojan freshman record. He also competed for the USC track team, placing fourth in the long jump at the 2012 Pac-12 Championship (he ran a leg on Troy's sixth place spring relay squad) and then qualifying for the NCAA Championship with a personal-best 25-5 ½ leap at the NCAA West Preliminary Rounds (he was 17th at the NAAs). He is among 16 semifinalists for the 2012 Maxwell Award. He made the 2012 Sporting News and Phil Steele's Mid-Season All-American first teams. He currently is first nationally in all-purpose yards (223.0, first in Pac-12), second in both receptions (9.8, first in Pac-12) and receiving yards (142.9) and 11th in kickoff returns (29.4, first in Pac-12). His 1,286 receiving yards in 2012 is second most in the nation and his 12 TD catches is third most. His 88 catches in 2012 is tied for fifth on the USC season list. He is tied for 10th on USC's career pass catching list (161 receptions) and is eighth on USC's career kickoff return list (962 yards). He has 10 career 100-yard receiving games (with a school-record tying twice with 200 yards), including a 3-game stretch from 2011 to 2012 (Oregon, UCLA, Hawaii) with 608 receiving yards that is the most prolific in USC history (he had another 3-game stretch with 605 receiving yards), plus a school record 7 career games with double digit receptions and 6 career contests with multiple TDs. He has 2 career scoring kickoff returns. He has had at least 8 receptions in 12 games in his career, including 9 in a row at one point (last 4 of 2011, first 5 of 2012). He has had 18 receiving TDs in the past 13 games, with at least 1 in 10 of those contests. His pair of 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2011 and 2012) equals a school record.

—Lee had 297 all-purpose yards against Hawaii, including 197 on 10 receptions (with 8 for 176 yards in the first half), as he turned a hitch route into a career-long 75-yard TD on the game's first play and then he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score on USC's first possession of the second half to become just the second Trojan with a 100-yard scoring kickoff return (joining Anthony Davis, who did so twice in 1974), earning Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National All-Purpose Performer of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and Paul Hornung Award Weekly Honor Roll, while Woods caught 6 passes for 42 yards with 2 TDs (20 and 2 yards) and had a tackle.

—For the second time in their careers, Lee (11 catches for 66 yards with a school record-tying 3 TDs) and Woods (10 catches for 93 yards with 2 TDs, including a 29-yarder) became the only USC duo with at least 10 catches in a game when they did so at Syracuse. Woods had 200 all-purpose yards, including a 31-yard punt return that led to a USC fourth quarter TD after the Orange had pulled within 5 points and then a 76-yard reverse on the following series that led to another USC TD, and Lee had a 23-yard reverse run and returned 3 kickoffs for 40 yards.

—Lee had 8 catches for 100 yards and 3 kickoff returns for 59 yards at Stanford, while Woods had 4 receptions for 38 yards.

—Lee caught 11 passes for 94 yards with 2 TDs (11 and 3 yards) and returned 2 kickoffs for 41 yards against California, while Woods had 5 grabs for 30 yards.

—Lee had a game-best 12 receptions for 192 yards, with a career-long 83-yard TD, and added an 11-yard rush at Utah to earn College Football Performance Awards National Wide Receiver of the Week, while Woods had 6 catches for 69 yards (with a 6-yard score) and he also returned 3 punts for 9 yards.

—Woods had 5 catches for 88 yards (both game bests) at Washington, while Lee had 2 receptions for 32 yards and returned a kickoff 24 yards.

—Against Colorado, Woods had 8 receptions for 132 yards to set the USC career receptions record (220) and his 4 TD catches (39, 29, 17 and 3 yards) was a school record and Pac-12-tying single game record to earn College Football Performance Awards National Wide Receiver of the Week, while Lee caught 6 passes for 103 yards (including a 55-yard TD on the game's second play), had a 9-yard run and returned 2 kickoffs for 39 yards.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT ROBERT WOODS

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "Woods is a beast and will beat any cornerback on any team."

Stanford head coach David Shaw: "For a guy like Woods, you don't say you're going to shut him out. What you do say is you want to limit him. You want to make sure when he catches the ball, you have guys around him, you gang tackle him. You keep him from making the big play and the momentum-changing play. You just try to corral and minimize the yards he gets after the catch because if you don't he can be special. Woods is about the best route running receiver I've seen in college football in 10 years. The guy can run every single route and he makes it look easy. He's been playing at a high level. He's a guy who can take over a game. And you don't usually say that about a receiver. I'm a guy who spent nine years in the NFL evaluating every receiver who came into the draft every single year. He's as good of a route runner at this age as I've ever seen."

Former NFL scout Dave Razzano: "He is a difference maker as both a receiver and kick returner. He has size, speed and outstanding hands. He can get open anywhere on the field. He is both a deep threat and a possession type who is not afraid to catch balls over the middle in traffic. He has some of the best hands I have seen on tape. He has an uncanny ability to pluck the ball quickly and burst upfield. He is a semi-long stride runner with a definite second gear burst in the open. A young talent with unlimited potential. He has future NFL star written all over him."

Former USC All-American and NFL star Keyshawn Johnson: "Robert Woods is extraordinary in terms of his skill set. He has big hands. He runs extremely good routes."

An unnamed NFL scout: "He has soft hands with the ability to accelerate and go get the ball. He finds the soft spots against zone defenses."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MARQISE LEE

Vincent Bonsignore, Los Angeles Daily News: "He delivered a performance so powerful (at Arizona) we should be talking about him being a serious Heisman Trophy candidate."

USC head coach Lane Kiffin: "I think he'll be the best USC receiver ever when it's all said and done. I've been saying that for a year now."

Oregon head coach Chip Kelly: "He may be the best receiver I've had the opportunity to coach against. He's impressive on film, but even more impressive when you watch him in person."

UCLA head coach Jim Mora: "He's not an NFL prospect, he's an NFL for-sure. He could start in the NFL right now."

Former Dallas Cowboys personnel director Gil Brandt: "Keyshawn (Johnson) caught a lot of passes because of muscle. Lee is going to catch passes because he has flat-out more ability and speed."

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "Sonofagun if Marqise Lee isn't the most exciting player in college football, I don't know who is."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT ROBERT WOODS AND MARQISE LEE

Stanford head coach David Shaw: "In all the years I was in the NFL and studied college wide receivers, and since I've been here at Stanford studying different offenses, I've never seen a college team with two guys like this. There's never been (a pair like them) in the modern era. There are three explosions for a receiver. There's explosion off the ball, explosion into the cut, and explosion after the catch. Usually, they decrease, with the last one not as big as the two before. With Woods, all three are explosive. It's like Joey Galloway in his prime. You see the same thing from Marqise Lee, except a bigger version."

Gary Klein, Los Angeles Times: "Woods and Lee could be on track to set a new college football standard for receiver tandems. And they're doing it without an apparent need for ego gratification...They are the talk of college football. And by the time they are done, perhaps a Trojans tandem for the ages."

OTHER WIDE RECEIVERS

Speedy sophomore George Farmer (1 rec, 7 yds, 7.0 avg in 2012), a high school teammate of Woods and Lee, figures to get key playing time at wideout in 2012. Last fall, he worked at both receiver and tailback. The others in the wide receivers mix are junior De'Von Flournoy (1 rec, 21 yards, 21.0 avg in 2012) and redshirt freshman Victor Blackwell (1 rec, 9 yds, 9.0 avg in 2012), as well as 7 walk-ons in senior Eric Matranga, junior Cody Skene, soph Spencer Darlin, redshirt freshman Troy Cardona, a converted safety, and first-year freshman Cole Cottrell, George Katrib (1 tac in 2012) and Christian Tober. Joining the wide receiver corps in the fall as a freshman was prep All-American Nelson Agholor (14 rec, 269 yds, 19.2 avg, 1 TD in 2012, plus 1 tcb, 7 yds, 7.0 avg and 4 KOR, 106 yds, 26.5 avg and 2 tac).

—Agholor had 6 catches for a game-high 162 yards, with a 76-yard TD, plus a 15-yard kickoff return against Oregon.

TIGHT ENDS

USC is loaded at tight end in 2012. Last year's co-starters, sophomores Randall Telfer (9 rec, 74 yds, 8.2 avg, 3 TD in 2012, plus 1 BLK FG) and Xavier Grimble (20 rec, 253 yds, 12.6 avg, 4 TD in 2012, plus 3 tac), returned after combining for 9 TDs. Telfer's 26 catches in 2011 set a record for USC freshmen tight ends. Then there are soph Christian Thomas, who missed the last 10 games of 2011 with a hip injury, and redshirt freshman Junior Pomee (1 KOR, -3 yds, -3.0 avg in 2012, plus 1 tac), along with junior walk-ons Kevin Downey Jr., Bryson Lloyd and J.T. Kerr (a transfer this fall from Nebraska). Prep All-American Jalen Cope-Fitzpatrick (2 rec, 12 yds, 6.0 avg in 2012) joined this group in the fall as a freshman.

—Grimble had 2 catches for 38 yards against Hawaii, while Telfer had an 11-yard TD catch.

—Grimble fought off 4 tacklers to score on a 22-yard reception at Syracuse.

—Telfer had 4 catches for 20 yards at Stanford and Grimble added a 19-yard reception.

—Grimble (38 yards) and Telfer (17 yards) each had 2 catches against California.

—Grimble had 5 catches for 23 yards and a tackle against Oregon, while Cope-Fitzpatrick had a 4-yard catch and Telfer had a 3-yard TD catch.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Four-fifths of USC's offensive line returned in 2012, which bodes well for the Trojan offense, but the one loss was a huge one. Troy had to develop a new left tackle, as 2-year starter Matt Kalil declared for the NFL draft following an All-American first team junior season that saw him win the Pac-12's Morris Trophy. He was the fourth pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. Anchoring the line in 2012 is senior center Khaled Holmes, the top Rimington Award candidate who is starting on the line for his third season. He also is an Academic All-American prospect. Both guards returned, sophomore Marcus Martin on the left side after earning Freshman All-American first team honors in 2011, and junior John Martinez on the right side. Martin was the first USC true freshman to start at guard since 2004. Junior tackle Kevin Graf is back after starting 2011 at right tackle. Assuming Kalil's left tackle spot is sophomore Audrey Walker, who saw action in 11 games last fall. The only other Trojan lineman with significant playing experience is senior tackle-guard Jeremy Galten, who appeared in all 12 games last year and even started the 2011 opener. He was the first player since 1990 to go directly from a junior college and start an opener at guard for USC (and the first to start on the line since 2004). Other offensive linemen looking to get into the mix are senior center Abe Markowitz (foot injuries sidelined him most of the past 2 seasons), who also shot puts on the USC track team, plus junior tackle-guard David Garness (he is sidelined after back surgery), sophomore center-guard Giovanni Di Poalo, who missed last year with a shoulder injury, and redshirt freshman center-guard Cyrus Hobbi. There are also several walk-on linemen: soph tackle-guard Nathan Guerfler, who got into 4 games last year, and redshirt freshmen guard-centers Erick Jepsen and John Katnik. Freshman tackle Chad Wheeler graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this past spring. Three prep All-Americans arrived in the fall as freshmen: tackle Zach Banner and tackle-guards Jordan Simmons and Max Tuerk.

—Walker, Martin, Holmes, Martinez and Graf started against Hawaii, Syracuse, Utah, Washington and Colorado.

—Walker, Martin, Hobbi, Martinez and Graf started at Stanford.

—Walker, Markowitz, Holmes, Martinez and Graf started against California.

—Tuerk, Martin, Holmes, Martinez and Graf started against Arizona and Oregon as Tuerk became the first-ever USC true freshman to start at left tackle (and the first to start at tackle since Winston Justice in the last 12 games of 2002).

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Seven defensive starters returned from 2011: safeties T.J. McDonald and Jawanza Starling, linebackers Dion Bailey, Hayes Pullard and Lamar Dawson, cornerback Nickell Robey and co-starting ends Wes Horton and Devon Kennard. Others back with starting experience are cornerbacks Torin Harris and Anthony Brown, tackle George Uko, safety Drew McAllister and linebacker Tony Burnett. USC's top 4 tacklers from 2011 are back, as are its leaders in interceptions, pass deflections and fumble recoveries. The Trojans' 2011 numbers improved from 2010 in rushing (111.4), total (374.8) and scoring (23.6) defense, with the rushing defense and sack (2.6) averages ranking in the national Top 20. USC held 8 of its 12 opponents to 17 points or less last fall. USC was in the Pac-12's Top 3 in red zone defense. But Troy must improve on its pass defense, which allowed 263.3 yards a game in 2011 after allowing 259.5 the previous year (those are 2 of the 4 highest totals in school history).

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's defensive front suffered the most losses of any position unit from 2011, as 3 starters moved on. All-Pac-12 first team end Nick Perry, a 2-year starter, left for the NFL (he was a first round pick) after a junior season that saw him be a finalist for the Hendricks Award and finish 10th nationally in sacks with 9.5. Tackles Christian Tupou, a 3-year starter, and 2-year starter DaJohn Harris also are gone. Senior ends Wes Horton (23 tac, 4 for loss, 4 sack, 2 dfl, 1 FR in 2012) and Devon Kennard, who shared starts in 2011, figured to both start in 2012 but Kennard tore a chest muscle prior to the start of 2012 fall practice and is sidelined. Horton, with 28 starts spread out over the past 4 seasons, has 12 sacks among his 97 career tackles. Kennard, with 135 career tackles, has 18 starts over the last 4 years (including some at middle and strongside linebacker). Last year's often-employed backup tackles, sophomores George Uko (18 tac, 5 for loss, 3 sack, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2012), who started twice in 2011, and J.R. Tavai (14 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 dfl in 2012), entered this season as starters, although Tavai at end in place of Kennard. Three redshirt freshmen are challenging for playing time at tackle—Christian Heyward (3 tac, 1 FR in 2012), Antwaun Woods (15 tac, 4.5 for loss, 3 sack in 2012), who has emerged as the starting nose tackle, and converted center Cody Temple, who is sidelined with an ankle injury—along with walk-ons Zack Kusnir, a senior, and sophomore Yonatan Aviv. Ends looking to get into the playing rotation are junior Kevin Greene (5 tac, 2 for loss, 2 sack, 2 FF, 1 FR in 2012) and redshirt freshman Greg Townsend Jr. (13 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1.5 sack in 2012). Then there is junior end Morgan Breslin (39 tac, 14 for loss, 8 sack, 1 FR, 2 dfl in 2012), a junior college All-American who enrolled at USC this past spring after leading the state's jucos in sacks and tackles for losses the past 2 years. He currently is tied for 15th in sacks (0.9, fourth in Pac-12) and tied for 16th tackles for loss (1.6, tied for third in Pac-12). Freshman end DeVante Wilson, who was set to enroll at USC for the 2011 fall semester after a prep All-American career but tore knee ligaments and took off that semester while recuperating, came aboard in the spring of 2012 but will miss the 2012 season after suffering a knee injury in 2012 fall camp. Also available at end are walk-ons Michael

Arakelian, a junior, and first-year freshmen Ryan Bernstein and Jeff Miller. Bolstering the line as first-year freshmen ends are prep All-Americans Leonard Williams (26 tac, 8.5 for loss, 5.5 sack, 2 FR, 2 dfl in 2012), who is also being used at tackle, and Jabari Ruffin, who can also play linebacker.

—Against Hawaii, Breslin had 5 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), to become the first junior college transfer to start on the USC defensive line since end Marcus Bonds did so in 4 mid-season games in 1994, while Townsend added 3 tackles (including a sack), Tavai had 3 tackles (0.5 for a loss), Uko had 2 tackles (1.5 for a loss, with a sack), Williams had 2 tackles (with a sack), recovered a fumble and had a deflection and Heyward had a fumble recovery (to set up a USC TD).

—At Syracuse, Breslin had 5 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), Williams had 2 tackles with a sack, Tavai had 2 tackles (1 for a loss), Woods, Uko, Townsend and Greene each had 2 tackles and Heyward had 1 stop.

—At Stanford, Horton had 5 tackles, Breslin had 3 tackles (1 for a loss), Uko had 1 tackle and Williams also had 1 stop as he became the first USC true freshman to start at defensive tackle since Shaun Cody did so against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl.

—Breslin had 4.5 tackles for loss (including 3.5 sacks) among his 6 tackles against California to earn College Football Performance Awards National Defensive Player of the Week and National Defensive Lineman of the Week honors and become the first Trojan with that many since Lawrence Jackson set school records for tackles for loss (5.5) and sacks (4, tied with 3 others) against Arizona State in 2007, while Uko and Williams each added 3 tackles for a loss (2 sacks) among their 4 tackles, Horton had 3 tackles (with 1 sack), Woods had 3 tackles (0.5 sack) and Townsend had 1 tackle.

—At Utah, Breslin and Williams each had 5 tackles, including 1 for a loss (Breslin also recovered a fumble to set up a USC TD), Horton had a sack among his 4 tackles, Uko had 3 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and Townsend had a tackle.

—Against Colorado, Wood had 6 tackles, including 3 for losses (with 1.5 sacks), Breslin had 6 tackles, Greene had 2 sacks among his 3 tackles and also had 2 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery, Williams had 2 tackles and a deflection before getting ejected for a flagrant penalty, Townsend had 2 tackles (with 0.5 sack), Heyward had 2 tackles, Uko had a tackle and deflection and Horton had a tackle.

—Horton had 5 tackles and 2 deflections at Arizona, Williams had 3 tackles, Breslin had 2 tackles and 2 deflections, Uko and Townsend each had 2 tackles and Woods and Tavai each had 1 stop.

—Against Oregon, Breslin had 2 tackles for loss (with a sack) among his 5 tackles, while Horton had 4 tackles (with a sack), Williams added 3 tackles and Uko and Townsend each had 2 tackles.

LINEBACKERS

Troy returned a trio of acclaimed sophomore starters at linebacker in 2012 in Dion Bailey (62 tac, 7 for loss, 1 sack, 4 int, 2 dfl, 1 FF in 2012) on the strong side, Hayes Pullard (58 tac, 4.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 int for TD, 1 FF in 2012) on the weak side and Lamar Dawson (47 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 FF, 2 dfl in 2012) in the middle. In their careers, Bailey has 143 tackles and 6 interceptions, while Pullard has 139 tackles. And there is some capable young depth behind them. Butkus Award candidates Bailey and Pullard were 2011 Freshman All-American first teamers and were the first freshmen to lead USC in tackles. They each posted a USC season-high 14 tackles in a game in 2011. Bailey was the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year. Bailey currently is tied for 12th nationally in interceptions (0.4, tied for fourth in Pac-12). His 4 interceptions are second most by a linebacker in the nation in 2012. Dawson emerged as the starter for the final 4 games of 2011 after backing up Chris Galippo, who had 166 tackles and 6 interceptions in his career while starting 28 times. Angling for playing time are seniors Tony Burnett (16 tac, 1 for loss, 1 int in 2012), a converted cornerback who played often in extra defensive back formations and on special teams (he also won a pair of 2012 triple jump competitions for the Trojan tracksters), and Dallas Kelley, juniors Marquis Simmons (4 tac in 2012), who sat out most of 2011 with a neck injury, and Simone Vehikite (7 tac in 2012) and redshirt freshman Anthony Sarao (25 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl in 2012). Then there are walk-ons Will Andrew (7 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 FR in 2012), Luke Freeman, Kyle Yatabe and Julian Coleman, all juniors, senior Doug Scott and first-year freshman Nick Schlossberg. Freshman Scott Starr (2 tac in 2012), a prep All-American, graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this past spring, but he is sidelined with a neck injury.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Three-fourths of USC's starting secondary returned in 2012, as did most of the backups from 2011. The secondary is led by hard-hitting senior free safety T.J. McDonald (team-best 76 tac, 5 for loss, 3 dfl, 1 int, 1 BLK FG in 2012), a 2011 All-American and All-Pac-12 first team selection who is starting for his third year. He is a leading candidate for the Thorpe Award and Lott Trophy. He led the Trojans in interceptions (3) last fall and was third in tackles (67) after being the team's tackle leader in 2010. He is among 15 semifinalists for the 2012 Thorpe Award and 20 quarterfinalists for the 2012 Lott Trophy. He has 239 stops and 7 picks in his career. Like McDonald, senior strong safety Jawanza Starling (28 tac, 1 for loss, 1 FR, 1 FF, 3 int, 4 dfl in 2012) is starting for his third season. He will long be remembered for his 80-yard fumble return for a touchdown that swung the momentum to USC's favor in last year's victory at Notre Dame. Junior Nickell Robey (37 tac, 3 dfl, 1 int for TD, 1 FF, 1 BLK PAT in 2012, plus 8 PR, 76 yds, 9.5 avg), a lockdown cornerback, is starting for his third season and is a Thorpe Award nominee after winning All-Pac-12 first team honors in 2011. He led the Trojans in pass deflections (9) and was fourth in tackles (63) last year. In his career, he has 148 tackles, 7 interceptions and 16 deflections. He has returned 3 interceptions for TDs in his career, tying the USC career record first set by All-American Charles Phillips (1972-74). He also was one of Troy's top punt returners last fall, a task he is handling again in 2012. Last spring, he also competed for the Trojan track team at times, finishing second in the long jump at the USC-UCLA dual meet. Two of the 3 players who manned the other cornerback spot in 2011—junior Torin Harris (28 tac, 1 for loss, 6 dfl in 2012) and sophomore Anthony Brown (15 tac, 2 dfl, 1 BK P in 2012, plus 1 PR, 21 yds, 21.0 avg, 1 TD)—returned this season. Harris started the first 4 games of 2011 before being sidelined by a shoulder injury, then Brown took over for the next 2 games before a broken ankle knocked him out of action. Other experienced safeties are senior Drew McAllister (17 tac, 1 int, 1 FR, 2 dfl in 2012), who has 2 career starts, and junior Demetrius Wright (9 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2012). Also available at cornerback are senior Brian Baucham (6 tac, 1 dfl in 2012), who sat out 2011 while ineligible and currently is sidelined with an undisclosed injury, and redshirt freshman Ryan Henderson (5 tac in 2012). Then there are 7 walk-ons: junior safeties John Auran and Luis Nevarez, junior cornerback William Tober (2 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2012), redshirt freshman cornerback Christian Sutto and first-year freshmen Elijah Steen and Rob Dooley (both safeties) and cornerback Ryan Dillard (3 tac in 2012). Sophomore safety Josh Shaw (12 tac, 1 int, 2 dfl in 2012) transferred to USC this past spring from Florida, where he played in 10 games last season (starting once). He was granted a hardship waiver by the NCAA and is eligible to play in 2012 without having to sit out a year after transferring. Adding to the secondary mix are junior safety Gerald Bowman (8 tac, 1 int in 2012), a juco transfer, plus prep All-American Kevon Seymour (5 tac in 2012) and Devian Shelton, both freshman cornerbacks.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT T.J. McDONALD

Tony Pauline, SI.com: "The Trojans have a storied history of sending talented defensive backs into the NFL, and McDonald is next in line. His cover skills are good enough that he can be relied upon to play over the slot receiver, and he displays a large degree of toughness against the run. McDonald is easily the most complete next-level secondary prospect from USC since Troy Polamalu."

Former NFL scout Dave Razzano: "One of the more talented safeties to come out of USC in the last decade, McDonald combines size, speed and aggressiveness to make his presence felt in every game he plays. He is a big time hitter who can create turnovers on his own with his aggressive style of play. He also displays the necessary speed/burst to come off the hash and break up plays downfield with very good timing and anticipation. He can go up and get the ball in compete situations due to his leaping ability. He shows up most in the run game as he is quick to react up field and stuff running lanes as he appears to relish the physical part of the game. The leader of the USC secondary comes to play each and every Saturday and will undoubtedly take his game to the next level in the future."

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

USC's placekicker (Andre Heidari) and punter (Kyle Negrete) are back from 2011, as are its leading kickoff (Robert Woods, Marqise Lee) and punt returners (Woods, Nickell Robey) and its holder (Matt Barkley). But the Trojans have a new snapper. The Trojans continued to make big plays on special teams in 2011. For the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks (1 was returned for a touchdown). Troy led the Pac-12 in field goals and PATs, allowed only 10 punt returns, had a scoring kickoff runback and turned a fake punt into a 35-yard gain. But conversely, USC allowed 2 kick returns for TDs, ranked only 38th nationally in punt returns and 79th in kickoff returns, converted just 1-of-4 2-point tries and had a net punting average of just 37.4 yards.

SPECIALISTS

Senior Kyle Negrete (44.3 avg in 2012, plus 2 tac) returned after an effective 2011 campaign. The candidate for the Burlsworth Trophy is a master at directional punting, as 19 of his 39 punts in 2011 pinned foes within the 20-yard line (none were touchbacks, the best ratio in the nation) and only 10 were returned. None of his 56 career punts has been a touchback. Some 13 of his 27 punts in 2012 have pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and 8 of his punts have traveled 50 yards. He is one of 11 FBS players named to the 2012 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, recognized for their commitment to making a difference in their communities. He is backed by redshirt freshman Kris Albarado. USC has one of the nation's top young placekickers in sophomore Andre Heidari (30-of-31 PAT, 7-of-10 FG in 2012). Now a Groza Award candidate, he earned Freshman All-American and All-Pac-12 first team notice in 2011 after hitting 15-of-17 field goals and all 50 of his PATs. His 88.2% field goal percentage was third best in the nation last fall (tops among freshmen) and his 50-yard field goal versus Stanford was USC's longest since 1990. He hit 9 consecutive field goals at one point last year and was 4-of-5 on 3-pointers at at least 40 yards. Almost a third of his 76 kickoffs pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (10 were touchbacks). Behind him is walk-on sophomore Craig McMahon (3 tac in 2012), who kicked off twice last year and is handling that duty this year, and walk-on first-year freshman Alex Wood (8-of-8 PAT in 2012). Chris Pousson, who flawlessly handled USC's short snaps for the past 4 years and the long snaps for the last 2 seasons, graduated. Redshirt freshman Peter McBride (1 tac in 2012) inherited both jobs, with senior walk-on quarterback John Manoogian backing him. Senior quarterback Matt Barkley returned for his second season as the holder on all placekicks and his quarterbacking ability has come in handy whenever the Trojans use an unorthodox formation for 2-point conversions. But redshirt freshman quarterback Cody Kessler has assumed the holding role midseason. USC sports some dangerous return men. Junior wide receiver Robert Woods (7 PR, 40 yds, 5.7 avg in 2012), who set school season records for kickoff returns and yardage in 2010 and led the Trojans in that category for the second consecutive year in 2011, is fourth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,364 yards). He also shared punt return duties last fall with junior cornerback Nickell Robey (8 PR, 76 yds, 9.5 avg in 2012). Sophomore wide receiver Marqise Lee (23 KOR, 677 yds, 29.4 avg, 1 TD in 2012) also got into the kickoff return act last year, even returning one for a touchdown. Lee is 11th nationally in kickoff returns (29.4, first in Pac-12. Lee is eighth on USC's career kickoff return list (962 yards). Others with experience as returners who might be used again this year include senior tailback Curtis McNeal and soph wide receiver George Farmer. Some redshirted or new players also might be tried as returners in 2012, including freshman wide receiver Nelson Agholor (5 KOR, 121 yds, 24.2 avg in 2012), who has been deep on kickoffs.

—Against Hawaii, Negrete averaged 45.7 yards on his 3 punts, with a 50-yarder, and one pinned the Warriors within the 20, while Heidari hit a 28-yard field goal, all 4 of his PATs and his kickoff pinned the Warriors within the 20 and McMahon kicked off 7 times, with 3 touchbacks and 1 pinning the Warriors within the 20.

—At Syracuse, Negrete averaged 50.0 yards on his 3 punts (all 3 pinned the Orange within the 20), with a career-long 65-yarder, Wood hit all 6 of his PATs and McMahon kicked off 7 times, with 3 touchbacks.

—At Stanford, Negrete averaged 42.5 yards on his 6 punts, with 3 pinning the Cardinal within the 20, while Wood nailed both of his PATs and 1 of McMahon's 3 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20.

—Against California, Heidari returned after missing the previous 2 games with a knee injury that required arthroscopic surgery and nailed both of his field goals (40 and 41 yards) and all 3 of his PATs, while Negrete averaged 43 yards on his 2 punts and McMahon kicked off 6 times, with 2 touchbacks.

—At Utah, Negrete averaged 38.5 yards on his 2 punts (with a 53-yarder that pinned the Utes within the 20), Heidari hit all 5 of his PATs and a 32-yard field goal (but missed from 40 and 44 yards) and also kicked off twice (both pinned the Utes within the 20) and McMahon had touchbacks on all 5 of his kickoffs.

—At Washington, Negrete averaged 39.7 yards on his 6 punts, including a 59-yarder, and 3 pinned the Huskies within the 20, Heidari hit all 3 of his PATs and was 1-of-2 on field goals (making a 23-yarder) and McMahon kicked off 5 times, with 2 touchbacks.

—Against Colorado, Heidari hit a 37-yard field goal and 5 of his 6 PATs as well as kicking off 5 times (pinning CU within the 20 once and getting 2 touchbacks), Negrete boomed a 64 yard punt to pin the Buffaloes within the 20 and McMahon pinned CU within the 20 once and had 2 touchbacks among his 4 kickoffs.

—At Arizona, Negrete averaged 48.7 yards on his 3 punts (with a pair of 54-yarders), while Heidari hit all 4 of his PATs and had touchbacks on 5 of his 6 kickoffs.

—Against Oregon, Heidari hit a 39-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 9 kickoffs were touchbacks (another 2 pinned the Ducks within the 20), while Negrete hit a 43-yard punt to pin the Ducks within the 20.

The penalties include: public reprimand and censure; four years of probation through June 9, 2014; post-season ban for the 2010 and 2011 seasons; one-year show cause penalty (through June 9, 2011) for an assistant football coach; vacation of wins, a loss and the individual records of a former football player from December 2004 through the 2005 season and the reconfiguration of the records of the University and the head coach to reflect those actions; limit of 15 initial scholarships and 75 total scholarships for each of the 2012-13, 2013-14 and 2014-15 years; $5,000 fine; disassociation of a former football player; prohibit non-university personnel from traveling on team charters, attending practices and camps, and having access to sidelines and locker rooms.

***USC's 2012 captains, as elected by their teammates during fall camp, are: QB Matt Barkley, S T.J. McDonald, CB Nickell Robey and C Khaled Holmes. Barkley, who also was a captain in 2010 and 2011, is USC's first-ever 3-time captain. McDonald, who also was a captain in 2011, is USC's 11th 2-time Trojan captain (along with Foster Wright in 1896 and 1898, Logan Wheatley in 1899 and 1901, Dan Caley in 1902-03, Chad Morton in 1998-99, Troy Polamalu in 2001-02, Matt Leinart in 2004-05, Dallas Sartz in 2005-06, John David Booty in 2006-07, Jeff Byers in 2008-09 and Barkley). He joins his father, Tim McDonald (USC's captain in 1986), as the only father-son captains in Trojan history.

***The new John McKay Center, a $70-million, 110,000-square-foot facility directly west of Heritage Hall on the USC campus, opened in late July of 2012. It houses meeting rooms, coaches offices and a locker room for the football program, as well as the Stevens Academic Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes), a weight room, an athletic training room and a state-of-the-art digital media production facility for all of USC's sports.

***"Trojans," one of the most iconic monikers in sports history, marked its 100th anniversary in 2012 as the nickname of USC's athletic teams. "Saying you are a Trojan is not just a moniker, it is a way of life," said Pat Haden, USC's Charles Griffin Cale Director of Athletics' Chair. The unveiling of the Trojans nickname 100 years ago occurred without fanfare. On Feb. 24, 1912, Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen R. Bird referred to the USC track team as "Trojans" in the opening paragraph of a preview story about that week's meet between USC and Occidental. "The Oxy Tiger will be seen in action for the first time this season, in the clash with Dean Cromwell's U.S.C. Trojans on the Bovard cinder trail," Bird wrote. Previously, USC teams had been called by various names, including the Methodists and Wesleyans, nicknames that were not looked upon with favor by university officials. In fact, in the weeks leading up to Bird's historic Feb. 24 article, stories in the Times referred to USC teams as the Cards, apparently in reference to one of USC's school colors (cardinal). Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Bird to select an appropriate nickname. "At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," Bird recalled in a 1950-era document he authored. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them. "I came out with an article in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck. "The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

***USC is the only FBS school never to have had surnames on the back of its jerseys.

***USC is 1 win shy of the 800th victory in the program's history. The Trojans currently are 799-317-54 for a winning percentage of 70.6% (14 wins and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty). The 799 wins are ninth most among NCAA FBS schools and the 70.6% is eighth best.

***USC has not been shut out in its past 190 games, breaking the previous school record of 186 set from 1967 to 1983 (14 wins and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty). USC's last shutout loss was in 1997 at Washington, 27-0.

***USC is 190-56-10 (.762) in seasons that the Summer Olympics have been held (2 wins—including 1 bowl win—later vacated due to NCAA penalty). The Trojans won 4 national titles (1928, 1932, 1972, 2004) and played in 11 bowls (winning 8) during those Olympic seasons.

***USC is 206-63-14 (.753) during presidential election years (1 win later vacated due to NCAA penalty). Coming into the 2012 season, the Trojans were 118-26-5 (.809) in years when Republicans won the White House and 82-34-9 (.700) when Democrats won. USC has won 4 national championships (1928-32-72-2004) during presidential election years. Since 1929, USC has played in the Rose Bowl during the term of every U.S. President except Barack Obama.

***USC, which in 2012 played a Thursday (Oct. 4) game at Utah, has a 23-10-3 (.681) record on Thursday, including 11-6-3 on Thanksgiving. Ten of the Thursday games have been bowls (1925 Christmas Festival, 1948-53-70-2004-09 Rose, 1987 Citrus, 1993 Freedom, 1998 Sun, 2003 Orange), with Troy going 7-3. The 5 non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday games were wins against Oregon State (in Portland) in 1926 and at Boston College in 1988, a loss at Oregon State in 2008 and wins at Hawaii in 2010 and at California (in AT&T Park) in 2011. USC has opened its season 3 times (1891, 1988, 2010) on a Thursday.

***Former USC All-American end Hal Bedsole, who helped the Trojans win the 1962 national championship and twice was Troy's season leader in receiving and scoring, was named to the 17-member 2012 Football Bowl Subdivision Class of the College Football Hall of Fame. Also named to this year's class was former USC assistant coach R.C. Slocum (1981), who was selected based on his 14-year tenure (1989-2002) as Texas A&M's head coach, where he won 72.1% of his games (123-47-2). They are the 38th and 39th inductees with USC ties, including 30 players, in the College Football Hall of Fame. A Trojan has been elected into the Hall in 10 of the past 13 years. Bedsole and Slocum will be inducted at a Dec. 4 dinner in New York City and then enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in ceremonies in the summer of 2013. One of the original "big" (6-5, 221 pounds) wide receivers in college football, Bedsole was a consensus All-American on USC's 1962 national championship team. A 3-year letterman (1961-63) and 2-time All-Conference first teamer (1961-62), his 82 career catches was a USC record at the time. He had 1,717 career receiving yards with 20 touchdowns. He still owns the USC career record for highest average per catch (30 or more receptions) at 20.94. Nicknamed "Prince Hal" because of his self-assured, outspoken ways, he led the Trojans in receiving and scoring in 1961 (27 catches, 38 points) and 1962 (33 catches, 68 points). He established USC season records for receptions in 1961 and again in 1962. He was the first Trojan to have 200 receiving yards in a game (201 yards versus California in 1962, a school record which stood for 21 years). He caught 2 touchdown passes in USC's win over Wisconsin in the 1963 Rose Bowl. A second round draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings (he was also drafted by the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, he played tight end in Minnesota for 3 seasons (1964-66), then was a radio broadcast sales manager and was in business marketing. He was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

***In addition to its local radio coverage on 710 ESPN Radio in Los Angeles and various Southern California markets from Fresno to San Diego, USC signed a multi-year agreement in 2012 with ESPN Radio in which the network will have exclusive national broadcast rights for all Trojan home football games. Every USC home game can be heard outside of the local radio network on ESPN Radio affiliates nationwide and streaming on ESPN Radio.com, the ESPN Radio Mobile App, Slacker, and TuneIn. It is ESPN Radio's first nationally exclusive broadcasting agreement with a college football program and only the second such agreement in the industry (Notre Dame and IMG Sports). The ESPN Radio-USC agreement also provides Spanish-language rights for ESPN Deportes Radio, the country's first and only 24/7 national Spanish-language sports radio network, with every USC home and away game being cleared in the LA market. USC Sports Properties will retain the right to sell local radio inventory in packages as part of its overall sales efforts for USC athletics. ESPN Radio will present USC games on up to 300 affiliates nationwide. USC game broadcasts also are aired nationally on satellite radio on SiriusXM Radio.

***Whenever USC games are shown on FOX in 2012, they will also air live in Spanish on FOX Deportes, the No. 1 U.S. Latino sports network. The network's coverage of 17 games (14 regular-season games live in Spanish, primarily from the Pac-12 or Big 12 conferences, plus the Pac-12 and Big Ten Football Championship games and the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic) is the most-ever carried in one season in the history of U.S. Latino media.

***USC's 2 conference "misses" in 2012 (as in 2011) are Oregon State and Washington State. Before last season, the last time USC did not face Oregon State was 2005 and the last time it missed Washington State was 2001, while the last time USC played neither OSU nor WSU in a season was 1980.

***For the second consecutive year, USC's 2012 schedule features only 1 "State" opponent (Arizona State). Previously, the last time that happened was in 1980 when the Sun Devils were the Trojans' only "State" foe.

***USC first started playing football in 1888, but 100 years ago in 1912 the university was in the second of a 3-year run when it fielded rugby teams in place of football.

***Sixteen USC football players spent 5 days in Haiti during 2012 spring break in May to build houses and deliver more than 2,000 pounds of supplies for orphanages and schools as part of the efforts of Hope Force International, an organization that specializes in quick strike disaster relief. They centered their efforts around the Sous Savanne community, an area that was hard hit by the country's catastrophic 2010 earthquake. The Trojans who went were: QB Matt Barkley, S T.J. McDonald, WR Robert Woods, C Khaled Holmes, CB Nickell Robey, DE Devon Kennard, LBs Dion Bailey and Hayes Pullard, P Kyle Negrete, LBs Scott Starr and Luke Freeman, S Josh Shaw, C-OG Cyrus Hobbi, DE Kevin Greene and QBs Max Wittek and Cody Kessler. For an eye-opening video recap of the trip, go to: <http://www.usctrojans.com/blog/2012/05/haiti-2012-usc-trojan-football.html>.

***In addition to the above-mentioned Haiti trip, numerous USC football players have participated with other Trojan student-athletes in community service activities. Last year, many players were part of the Community Bowl at nearby Weemes Elementary School (they spent a winter Saturday reading to and doing art projects with the young students, as well as organizing games and helping re-paint the school), and they also swam at the Swim With Mike swim-a-thon to benefit the USC Physically Challenged Athletes Scholarship Fund and visited patients at USC University Hospital. QB Matt Barkley and P Kyle Negrete have a long history of community service. Both spent 2010 Christmas break in Nigeria visiting orphans, widows, villagers and prisoners, doing construction work, distributing supplies and gifts and sharing daily fellowship. Barkley was one of 11 FBS players named to the 2011 Allstate American Football Coaches Association Good Works Team (recognized for their commitment to making a difference in their communities). While in high school, he helped build homes for the poor in Mexico, volunteered at an orphanage in South Africa and spearheaded the Monarchs For Marines program that raised money for the families of wounded and fallen soldiers. While at San Diego, Negrete created "Best Buddies," a mentoring program for student-athletes to befriend people with autism (he still mentors Joel Anderson, a noted autistic young adult artist).

***TE Randall Telfer was among USC's representatives at the 2012 NCAA Career in Sports Forum, where student-athletes explored and learned about careers in sports, with a primary focus on intercollegiate athletics. DEs Devon Kennard and Kevin Greene were among USC's representatives at the 2011 APPLE (Athletic Prevention Programming and Leadership Education) Conference in Austin, Tex., designed to promote student-athlete health and wellness.

***USC currently has 8 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. QB Matt Barkley enrolled in the spring of 2009, PK Andre Heidari, QBs Cody Kessler and Max Wittek, SNP Peter McBride and FB Soma Vainuku all enrolled in the spring of 2011 and LB Scott Starr and OT Chad Wheeler both enrolled in the spring of 2012. Since 1999, 22 Trojans have graduated at least a semester early from high school and come to USC (including 1 who graduated a full year early). Also, TB Silas Redd, who transferred to USC from Penn State in the fall of 2012, graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at Penn State in the spring of 2010.

***C Khaled Holmes received his bachelor's degree in the spring of 2011 and is working on a master's degrees in communication management. TB Robert Mojica received his bachelor's degree from SMU in the spring of 2012 and the transfer is working on his MBA at USC.

***QB Matt Barkley was ranked No. 2 (behind Kobe Bryant) on the 2012 Los Angeles Times' L.A. Sports Star Power Rankings list, derived partly on ratings based on Q Scores' popularity, General Sentiment's social media presence and Forbes Magazine's most powerful athletes.

***The Twitter handles of many of USC's football players are listed in the depth chart of these game notes.

***Eight Trojans previously played at other 4-year schools: TB Silas Redd (Penn State), S Josh Shaw (Florida), TE J.T. Kerr (Nebraska), TB Robert Mojica (SMU), DT Zack Kusnir (San Diego State), LB Doug Scott (Western Michigan), LB Kyle Yatabe (Willamette) and DE Michael Arakelian (Chapman).

***FB-DE Charles Burks had some of his artwork displayed at the 2012 "Artletics" on-campus exhibits that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

***Who's the fastest among the 2012 Trojans? It might be WR Robert Woods (bests of 21.01 in the 200 and 46.17 in the 400), who at the 2010 California state was second in the 400 and third in the 200 (he also was third in the 400 in the 2009 state meet). Or perhaps TB D.J. Morgan (bests of 10.6 in the 100, 21.8 in the 200 and 13.28 in the 110-meter high hurdles), who won the 2009 California state high hurdles and was second in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles (he also won the highs at the 2009 IAAF World Youth Championships). ***Speaking of track and field, several other Trojan footballers shined in high school at their state meets. CB Brian Baucham won the 300-meter intermediate hurdles title at the 2008 California state meet despite taking up the event in just the final 6 weeks of his senior season. C Abe Markowitz was second at the 2008 Hawaii state meet in the shot put and discus. OT Kevin Graf was third in the shot put at the 2009 California state meet. LB Tony Burnett was a jumper and sprinter on the 2010, 2011 and 2012 track teams, C Abe Markowitz was a thrower on the track squad in 2009, 2010 and 2012. S Jawanza Starling was on the baseball team in 2010.

***FB Hunter Simmons previously participated in rugby as a member of the 2008 USA Under-18 National Rugby Team that competed in England and DE Morgan Breslin also played rugby while in high school. WR Cody Skene and FB-TE Chandler Larsen were members of their high school's state championship lacrosse team in 2007 (TBs Silas Redd and Taylor Ross, S Rob Dooley and LB Nick Schlossberg also played lacrosse as preppers).

***C Abe Markowitz is a member of one of Samoa's royal families, the Aiga Sa Malietoa, and he was selected as a "Talking Chief" of the family. He also is a cousin of the King of Tonga.

***OT-OG David Garness, who prepped at Bartlett High in Anchorage (Ak.), could become the first Trojan letterman to claim Alaska as his home. Last season, LB Lamar Dawson, from Boyle County High in Danville (Ky.), became just the second Trojan letterman from Kentucky (joining LB Kurt Barber, who lettered 1988-91 after prepping at Paducah Tilghman High). TB Silas Redd, from King Low Heywood Thomas School in Stamford (Ct.), could become just the fifth Trojan letterman from Connecticut (joining LB-G Pat Cannamela and LB-DE Willie Hall, both All-American first teamers, and OLB Garry Cobb and DT Vinny Van Dyke).

TB Tre Madden's real first name is Curtis, TE Junior Pomee's is Kapelieli and assistant coach Tee Martin's is Tamaurice. TB Javorius Allen goes by the nickname of "Buck."

***Three Trojans have the first name of Cody: QB Cody Kessler, WR Cody Skene and DT Cody Temple.

***There are 3 Trojans with the last name of Simmons—FB Hunter Simmons, OT-OG Jordan Simmons and LB Marquis Simmons—but they are not related, nor are DT Antwaun Woods and WR Robert Woods. However, WR Christian Tober and CB William Tober are brothers.

***Frankie Telfort, a 2009 USC freshman linebacker signee from Gulliver Prep in Miami (Fla.), did not receive medical clearance because of a heart defect (hypertrophic cardiomyopathy), but he has remained with the Trojans as a student assistant coach.

***Student assistant coach Frankie Telfort spent a month in the summer of 2012 teaching football to youngsters in Tokyo, Japan, as part of a coaching internship.

***In 2009, USC was named "Team of the Decade" by both CBSports.com and Football.com, as well as the "Program of the Decade" by SI.com, plus was No. 1 in CollegeFootballNews.com's "5-Year Program Rankings" and was ranked No. 2 in ESPN.com's "Prestige Rankings" among all schools since 1936 (behind Oklahoma).

***USC's current coaching staff has a combined 38 years of experience coaching in the NFL. Monte Kiffin spent 26 years coaching in the NFL, followed by Kennedy Polamalu (6), Lane Kiffin (3), James Cregg (2) and Ed Orgeron (1). ***Defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach Ed Orgeron has been recognized as one of the country's top recruiters. In 2012, Sporting News selected him as the nation's No. 2 recruiter and Rivals.com named him one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters. In 2011, he was named the Scout.com/FOXSports.com National Recruiter of the Year, ESPN/ESPN The Magazine named him the top recruiter in college football (and third best in all of collegiate athletics) and Rivals.com ranked him as the second-best recruiter of the previous 10 years (2002-11).

***PROJECT TROJAN, a unique free mobile application for iOS and Android devices that highlights and promotes the 2012 USC football team to fans and media by providing statistical information, videos and interactive games and chats, is available for download from the iTunes Store (search "Project Trojan") and Google Play. Fans get unprecedented access to this year's highly-ranked Trojans through social and video platforms. Under the Trojan Buzz header, fans are able to participate in live chats with their favorite players, coaches and legends. Media and postseason awards voters are able to closely follow the Trojan honors candidates under the Awards Watch section, which features easily sortable data, biographic information and highlight videos. The app is loaded with exclusive video content, including two featurettes, "Matt Vs.," in which Heisman Trophy quarterback candidate Matt Barkley takes on athletes from other USC sports to learn their game and test his mettle, and "Playbook," which provides a breakdown of the game-changing play in the previous week's football contest. An interactive photo booth enables fans to customize and share a picture of themselves in Trojan football gear and accessories. USC merchandise and tickets also is available for purchase within the app. As the season develops, USC will continue to release exciting features on the app. Barkley, All-American safety T.J. McDonald and Rimington Award center candidate Khaled Holmes were among several Trojan players who provided concept and design input on the PROJECT TROJAN app.

***WE PLAY, an innovative all-sports USC marketing and branding campaign that utilizes various distribution platforms to present a vibrant and thought-provoking image of Trojan athletics, was launched by the Trojan athletic department in August of 2012. WE PLAY images will be released throughout the 2012-13 season on billboards, videoboards, print ads and athletic department publications, as well as on TV and radio commercials and Trojan websites and social media, including the recently-redesigned USCTrojans.com official site. The iconic WE PLAY logo features cardinal-colored letters W, E, P and Y and gold-colored L and A emblazoned atop stylized black-and-white photos, with images of USC athletes and moments colorized within the photos. The concept for the WE PLAY campaign and all of its design elements were produced entirely in-house by USC athletic department staff.

***USC, which has produced more Olympians, gold medalists and overall medalists than any other U.S. university, was represented by 41 current, former and future athletes in the 2012 London Olympics (they competed in 7 sports and represented 18 countries). They won more total medals (25, including 12 golds, 9 silvers and 4 bronzes) in London than any American university, making these Games the most successful in Trojan history. USC's 25 total medals and 12 gold medals are school records for a single Olympics, breaking the previous highs of 24 total medals at the 1984 Los Angeles Games and 10 golds at both the 1948 London Games and the 2008 Beijing Olympics. Troy's 12 gold medals in London (and its 41 Olympians) tied with Stanford for the most by a university in 2012. USC continued its streak of having won a gold medal at every Summer Olympics from 1912. If USC athletes had competed as a country in 2012, they would have placed sixth in the gold medal standings at the London Games and 11th in overall medals. Since 1904, 418 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games (they have won 628 places on Olympic teams), taking home 135 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics from 1912), 87 silver and 65 bronze. If USC competed as a country, its 287 total medals would be 16th among all countries (while its 135 gold medals would be 12th). USC Olympians have represented 57 different countries and have participated in 28 different sports.

***Speaking of the Olympics, 2 former football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: fullback Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and right tackle Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600-meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

***The USC athletic department, one of the nation's most successful and storied collegiate athletic programs, launched this August a $300 million fundraising drive called the "Heritage Initiative." Funds raised for the initiative—the most ambitious in the department's history—will ensure that the university's student-athletes have access to state-of-the-art facilities for honing their athletic skills and continuing to achieve academic success. The Initiative will support capital projects, annual scholarships for student-athletes, academic support and programming costs, endowments, and recruitment and retention of coaches and staff. The USC athletic department is approaching the halfway mark in achieving its fundraising goal. The Initiative will include the department's 125th anniversary season in 2013-14 and is part of USC's overall $6 billion fundraising campaign, which was announced last fall. The Campaign for the University of Southern California is one of the largest fundraising campaigns in the history of American higher education. John Robinson, one of USC's most popular and successful football coaches, and Barbara Hedges, who developed the USC women's athletics program during her tenure as a Trojan athletics administrator, will serve as co-chairs of the "Heritage Initiative."

***A campaign to reduce tailgate waste at USC homes games in 2012 was launched by USC's athletic department, Office of Sustainability and Facilities Management Services. The Tailgate Waste Diversion Education program will have student facilitators educate tailgaters on how to sort their waste and divert recyclable and compostable materials from the waste stream, creating a more sustainable and aesthetic game day experience for all Trojan football fans. The Zero Waste Tailgate Certification program is designed to build enthusiasm and promote friendly competition among fans as they make changes to create a zero waste tailgate experience. More information is available at <http://green.usc.edu/node/5160>.

S T.J. McDonald's father, Tim was a 2-time (1985-86) All-American and 4-year (1983-86) letterman safety at USC, where he was the team MVP his final 2 seasons, was Troy's 1986 captain and helped the Trojans win the 1985 Rose Bowl. WR Christian Tober and CB William Tober are brothers. FB Soma Vainuku's cousin is former USC All-American (2005-08) linebacker Rey Mauuluga. Assistant coach Kennedy Polamalu's nephew, Troy Polamalu, was a 2-time (2001-02) All-American first team safety at USC.

***Speaking of genes: WR-TB Nelson Agholor's father, Felix, played soccer in Nigeria. QB Matt Barkley's father, Les, lettered for 4 years (1976-79) in water polo at USC, captaining the Trojans his final 2 seasons and earning All-American second team notice in 1979, while his brother, Sam, is a sophomore hurdler on USC's track team. S Gerald Bowman's cousin, Maalik, Wayns, is a senior guard on Villanova's basketball team. CB Anthony Brown's cousin, Bryan Harper, is a freshman cornerback at Arizona. CB Ryan Dillard's cousin is Detroit Lions wide receiver Calvin Johnson, who played at Georgia Tech. OG-C John Katnik's uncle, Norm Katnik, was a 2-year starting center at Arizona (1978-79). DE Devon Kennard's father, Derek, was an All-American offensive lineman at Nevada (lettering from 1981 to 1983) who then played 2 years in the USFL (Los Angeles Express) and 11 seasons in the NFL (St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals, New Orleans Saints and Dallas Cowboys), including on the Cowboys' 1995 team that won the Super Bowl, while his brother, Derek Jr., was a 4-year (2000-03) football letterman at Nevada. ## ANNIVERSARIES

The 2012 season marks the anniversaries of several significant USC football seasons:

—The 90th anniversary of USC's first bowl team: The 1922 Trojans, coached by Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, went 10-1, including a 14-3 victory over Penn State in the Rose Bowl. It was the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Pasadena stadium. USC was a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam (nearly resulting in a pre-game fight between Henderson and Nittany Lions coach Hugo Bezdek), and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

—The 80th anniversary of USC's 1932 national championship team, regarded as one of the greatest teams in college football history. The Trojans breezed to their second consecutive national championship in 1932 as the Howard Jones era reached its pinnacle. The line, one of the greatest in Trojan history, included All-Americans Tay Brown, Aaron Rosenberg and Ernie Smith. The offense, directed by Homer Griffith and featuring back Cotton Warburton and ends Ray Sparling and Ford Palmer, was potent despite losing star Orv Mohler to injury. Meanwhile, the defense shut out its first five opponents and allowed only 13 points all season (while the offense scored 201). USC smashed Pittsburgh 35-0 in the Rose Bowl.

—The 50th anniversary of USC's 1962 national championship team, as John McKay led USC to its first national championship in 30 years and inaugurated one of the greatest dynasties in college football history. McKay's third team featured the talented quarterback tandem of Pete Beathard and Bill Nelsen, who combined to pass for 18 touchdowns while tossing only three interceptions. A then-school-record 11 of those touchdowns went to consensus All-American end Hal Bedsole, who also set the standard for passes caught (33) and yards receiving (827). The ground attack was run from the I-formation, led by the versatile Willie Brown at tailback and co-captain Ben Wilson at fullback. The Trojan defense allowed only 92 points all season. All-American linebacker Damon Bame led a unit that had three shutouts (including a 25-0 blanking of Notre Dame) and allowed more than 10 points only twice during the regular season. Troy capped the year by outlasting Wisconsin, 42-37, in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history.

—The 40th anniversary of USC's 1972 national championship team, considered to be John McKay's finest at USC and one of the greatest college teams of all time. USC averaged 39 points per game (scoring 467 points) and never trailed in the second half. The defense intercepted 28 passes, limited the opponents to 2.5 yards per rush and never gave up a run longer than 29 yards. Senior Mike Rae and sophomore Pat Haden handled the quarterback duties. Sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 1,191 yards despite not starting until the eighth game. All-American fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham was an outstanding blocker and a tremendous leaper, especially in goal-line situations. Tight end Charles Young was equally adept blocking and receiving, while split ends Lynn Swann, Edesel Garrison and J.K. McKay were excellent pass catchers. Sophomore linebacker Richard Wood burst onto the scene with 18 tackles in the season-opener on his way to garnering All-American honors. John Grant and Jeff Winans anchored the defensive line, while Artimus Parker, Charles Phillips and Charles Hinton led the secondary. USC's smallest margin of victory was nine points (versus Stanford). The Trojans beat No. 4-ranked Arkansas 31-10, No. 18 Washington 34-7, No. 14 UCLA 24-7, No. 10 Notre Dame 45-23 and No. 3 Ohio State 42-17. USC was unanimously chosen No. 1 in the final AP and UPI polls, the first team to be so honored.

—The 10th anniversary of Carson Palmer's 2002 Heisman Trophy season. After a 21-year drought, Palmer became USC's fifth Heisman Trophy winner (and the first from the West Coast since 1981), as well as Troy's first quarterback winner ever. A 4-year starter, he set or tied 33 Pac-10 and USC total offense and passing records, including becoming the league's career leader in total offense and passing yards. In 2002, he completed 309-of-489 passes (63.2%) for 3,942 yards and 33 TDs, all USC records. He threw for 300-plus yards in a USC-record 7 games that season, including 3 in a row. He completed at least 60.0% of his passes 9 times.
