ASU NOTES: The Sun Devils won national championships in 1990 and 1996. ASU is led by 18th-year coach Randy Lein, the 1996 National Coach of the Year and a seven-time winner of Pac-10 Coach of the Year (five times at ASU and twice at USC).

LEAGUE IS GOOD: There are eight Pac-10 teams in the 30-team field, the most of any conference. ASU is seeded 20th and will play with 19th-seeded California and No. 21 Oregon State. It marks the second straight year the Pac-10 has had the most teams in the championships, as last year seven teams made the 30-team finals. ASU will tee off No. 10 at 7:20 a.m. in the first round and off No. 1 at 12:30 p.m. in the second round.

FAST FACT: ASU is the only school to win both the men's and women's golf titles in the same season (1990).

HOPING FOR DEJA VU: The Arizona State University men's golf team (#16 Golfweek/#16 Golfstat/#9 Nike/Golf Coaches) competes in the NCAA Championships held June 1-6 in Chattanooga, Tenn., at The Honors Course (par-72, 7,395 yards) and hosted by the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. The site brings back good memories for Sun Devil 18th-year head coach and 2008 National Golf Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee Randy Lein as he led ASU to the 1996 team title at The Honors Course. The Sun Devils have won two NCAA titles, as it also won the 1990 title under 2002 ASU Hall of Fame and 2009 NGCA Hall of Fame inductee Steve Loy.

THE FORMAT: The 2010 NCAA Championships will see the team champion determined via match play for the second straight year, as 2009 was the first time the winner wasn't awarded by total strokes since 1965. The top eight teams after 54 holes of stroke play will advance to match play, with the quarterfinals being held June 4, the semifinals on June 5 and the championship match set for Sunday, June 6. During the match-play portion, each match will be worth one point with all five players participating. The first team to win three points within the team match will win the match. The NCAA individual champion will be crowned after the first three-rounds of stroke play competition (June 1-3).

SUN DEVILS CHATTER: In the past 17 seasons (since Randy Lein took over the ASU duties) 12 different team champions have been crowned and Lein is the only coach to have two individual champions in that time (freshman Alejandro Canizares in 2003 and junior Todd Demsey in 1993). ASU also has finished in the top six nine times in those 17 years and has qualified for the NCAA Championships in 26 of the past 27 seasons, missing only in 2002, including each of the past eight seasons, tied for the third-best mark in the nation in that time.

THE HEAD COACH: Randy Lein, a 2008 NGCA Hall of Fame inductee, notched the top team accolade in 1995-96 - the NCAA title - to his collection as the Sun Devils won the title in Chattanooga, Tenn., with a three-stroke victory over UNLV at the Honors Course. In his 18th season as ASU's coach, Lein has guided ASU to 43 tournament victories (including a school record six in 1995-96), eight Pac-10 titles, five NCAA West Regional wins and ten top-10 finishes at the NCAAs including the 1996 title. In addition, Lein has tutored NCAA medalists Todd Demsey (1994) and Alejandro Canizares (2003) and 18 All-Americans (39 occasions): Todd Demsey (3), Chris Hanell (3), Paul Casey (3), Cade Stone, Chris Stutts, Joey Snyder (2), Scott Johnson (2), Darren Angel (2), Jeff Quinney (3), Matt Jones (2), Chez Reavie (3), Alejandro Canizares (4), Niklas Lemke (3), Benjamin Alvarado Holley (2), Jesper Kennegard (2), Knut Borsheim (1), Scott Pinckney (1) and Stephan Gross (1). He has won Pac-10 Coach-of-the-Year five times (1993, 1995, 1996, 1999 and 2000) while at ASU and twice at USC (1980 and 1986). Lein (pronounced "Line") is a 1975 graduate of Cal State Northridge.

ASU Men's Golf • 2010 NCAA Championship

IT ISN'T EASY: ASU has made the NCAA Championship in the past eight seasons and in 17 of 18 seasons under Randy Lein, but it sure isn't getting easier with the 30-team, three-round regional format. Using Golfweek's rankings through the regionals, five top 30 teams are not going to Chattanooga, a list that includes No. 13 Georgia, No. 18 South Carolina, No. 25 San Diego State, No. 28 Colorado State and No. 30 Alabama. In 2009, nine top-30 teams did not advance to the NCAA Championships after regional action.

IT ISN'T EASY, PART TWO: Arizona State is one of just a dozen teams to play in the past two NCAA Championships and that have advanced in 2010. UCLA, Stanford, USC, Oklahoma State, Washington, Florida, Texas A&M, Illinois, Texas, Virginia and Oregon are the others.

START IT OVER: Back in 2002, Randy Lein saw ASU's 18-year NCAA championship consecutive streak snapped in a season that had injuries and bad luck. ASU is back in the saddle with eight straight, and to show you how competitive the NCAA men's golf championships is, that streak already is tied for the third-best active streak, as Georgia had a 12-year streak snapped this year and Wake Forest had a five-year run ended. Only four teams have made the NAAs in each of the past eight seasons.

CURRENT CONSECUTIVE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP APPEARANCES

Oklahoma State, 1947-2010, 64

Florida, 2001-2010, 10

Arizona State, 2003-2009, 8

UCLA, 2003-2009, 8

TOP 10: Lein's 10 top-10 NCAA finishes in his 17 years is second only to Clemson and Oklahoma State for the most in that span. In that time, there have been 12 different NCAA team champions, while ASU and Oklahoma State are the only schools to have two NCAA medalists in his 16 years. ASU has finished in the top six nine times under Randy Lein.
