The Sun Devils will be represented by Shane McGough (133), Nathan Hoffer (141), Kevin Radford (184) and Levi Cooper. McGough, Hoffer and Radford are all redshirt freshmen and will be experiencing their first-ever NCAA Championship experience while Cooper is advancing to the NCAA Championships for the second conscutive season after earning All-America honors in 2011.

OPENING WHISTLE

- Shane McGough, Nathan Hoffer and Kevin Radford all earned one of just four atlarge bids in their respective weight classes to earn a trip to the NCAA Championships
- ASU's victory over CSU Bakersfield was the first road win for ASU in over a year and the first Pac-12 road victory since the 2009-10 season.
- Levi Cooper leads the team with 22 victories on the season and has placed in each of the team's tournaments this year
- Nathan Hoffer was the first member of the team to reach double digit is dual wins, earning his 10th against Oklahoma State. His 12 dual wins on the season were tops of the team, despite being a freshman
- Levi Cooper upset the top-ranked returning NCAA Champion in Zach Rey of Lehigh at the Northeast Duals

- Redshirt freshman Shane McGough has logged 13 of his 18 victories this year with bonus points (8 falls, 4 majors, one tech fall)

- Cooper (HWT) is the only Sun Devil ranked by all of the major ranking services
- Seventeen Sun Devils have experienced their first collegiate action this season, representing the overwhelming majority of competitors

IN THE RANKINGS - TEAM

The Sun Devils entered the season unranked for the first time since the 2008-09 season. This comes despite finishing sixth at the NCAA Championships last year, though the loss of national champions Anthony Robles and Bubba Jenkins and the very young team the Sun Devils will be fielding are likely to blame for their omittance. The team did not receive any votes in the most recent NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll.

FOLLOW LIVE:

The competition will be streamed live on espn.go.com with cameras set up on each mat. The first session will begin opn Thursday at 12 p.m. EST and continuing with a night session at 7 p.m. EST. HEAD COACH SHAWN CHARLES

On May 8, 2009, the Sun Devil wrestling program brought back one of its own by hiring Shawn Charles to lead the program that he competed for from 1990-93. An Arizona native and one of the more successful Sun Devils in program history, Charles is just the sixth head coach in the program's 47-year history.

Charles brings a wealth of knowledge to the program following coaching stints as a head coach (Fresno State, 2005-06 & Phoenix College, 1995-96) and as an assistant coach (Missouri, Brown, Nebraska, Central Michigan and Iowa State). During his time on the sidelines, he has worked with 42 individuals that have earned NCAA All-America accolades with five competitors securing individual national titles. Charles was also named the Pac-10 Coach of the year last season after leading the team to a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Championships.

As a student-athlete at ASU, Charles earned All-America honors four times in his career and was a two-time national finalist at 126 pounds. Charles also was a two-time individual Pac-10 Champion and helped his team to three Pac-10 Championships (1990, 1991, 1993) and three Top 6 finishes at the NCAA Championships. In 1993, he graduated from ASU with a B.S. in Computer Information Systems to cap a collegiate career that saw him win 103 career matches and compete in the NWCA East-West All-Star Classic twice.

As an international competitor, Charles claimed 14 titles, including victories in tournaments in Iran, Manitoba, Slovakia, Bulgaria and Turkey while also winning the U.S. Open, the NYAC International and the Pan-American Championships. Along with several U.S. national titles, Charles twice placed second at the World Team Trials and was an alternate on the 1996 U.S. Olympic team.

IN THE RANKINGS - INDIVIDUAL

Returning All-American Levi Cooper is the only Sun Devil consistently ranked by all of the major ranking services, and did himself a huge favor in upsetting former No. 1 Zach Rey at the Northeast Duals. The victory rocketed Cooper from the mid-teens in most rankings to the top-10 across the board, peaking at No. 4 by The Open Mat. Cooper got back into the win category after getting swept in Oklahoma with a pin against Bakersfield's Frankie Hurtado and finished the season with with an overtime victory over Stanford's Dan Scherer before taking second the Oregon State's Clayton Jack at the Pac-12 Championships.

A LOOK BACK: 2011 NCAA Championships

2011 marked one of the most successful season in Arizona State wrestling history. The Sun Devils posted two national champions and three All-Americans combined on their way to a sixth-place finish at the competition. Anthony Robles earned his third All-American award and first career National Championship at 125 pounds on his way to being named the NCAA Tournament's Most Outstanding Wrestler for the performance. Teammate Bubba Jenkins won his own national title at 157 pounds, defeating Penn State' David Taylor by pin at 4:41. Notable about the performance was the fact that Jenkins once competed at for Penn State and Taylor was the student-athlete that replaced Jenkins at 157 pounds on the Nittany Lions roster after Jenkins transferred. Levi Cooper earned his first All-America honor at the heavyweight division with an eighth-place finish overall.

HOW THEY GOT HERE

Levi Cooper was the only Sun Devils that didn't have to sweat out the week-and-a-half between the Pac-12 Championships and the NCAA at-large announcement. Cooper earned one of two automatic bids awarded to the Pac-12 in the heavyweight division with his runner-up finish at the Pac-12 Championships. Hoffer, McGough and Radford did not earn automatic bids and had to wait until the NCAA released its championship field last week to know their fates. All three freshmen earned an at-large bid at their weight class - one of only four available at each of the weight classes to advance to this weekend.

HANGING WITH MR. COOPER

After Levi Cooper's surprise falter in his second match of the season against Eastern Michigan's Wes Schroeder, the redshirt junior ripped off 13 consecutive victories in a streak that included an upset of top-ranked returning champion Zach Rey of Lehigh at the Northeast Duals. The streak came to an end in Las Vegas but Cooper has still established himself as one of the top heavyweights in the nation and will look to return to his All-America status attained last year. Cooper earned his 50th career victory in a decision over #18 Kyle Frey in Las Vegas. Cooper has also placed in all four tournaments the team has competed in this season after his runner-up finish in Boise. Cooper will face Michigan State's Steve Andrus in the opening round this weekend. Cooper defeated Andrus 7-4 in the team's season opener at the Eastern Michigan Open back in early November.

TOUGH MCGOUGH

Shane McGough has begun to rise as the most exciting of ASU's young wrestlers this season, winning 13 of his 18 victories this season with bonus points - two of those coming at the Pac-12 Championships. Head coach Shawn Charles has praised the redshirt freshman as being that fire that gets people up and cheering on the bench and has gotten the crowd into the home matches this season. His 18 victories on the season rank him third on the team in a tie with Kevin Radford. His 84 points scored on the year, though, ranks him second on the squad behind only Levi Cooper's 92. McGough will take on the tournament's ninth-seeded Cashe Quiroga in the first round.

DON'T MESS WITH THE HOFF

Another Sun Devil on a hot streak is redshirt freshman Nathan Hoffer. After a fourth-place finish at the Eastern Michigan Open to start the season, Hoffer reeled off victories in six straight duals. The youngster had an up-and-down Decmeber and January but looks to be getting back on pace in winning five of his last seven duals, including an upset of #12 Josh Kindig against Oklahoma State. Hoffer became the first member of the team to reach double digits in dual meets and currently has 12 dual wins and 20 overall victories, second most on the team and most among the freshman. His 12 duals victories led the team and he had a solid showing in Boise on his way to a third-place finish. The Anchorage, Alaska, native didn't catch the easiest of draws though and will take on the No. 2 seed Kendrick Maple of Oklahoma. Maple defeated Hoffer 12-0 earlier this season in ASU's dual in Norman and was ranked No. 1 at the time.

PRETTY RAD, DUDE

Kevin Radford began making a case for being one of the top freshman on the team with an early-season upset upset of #18 Max Thomusseit before staying competitive with top-ranked Robert Hamlin. His consolation quarterfinal apperance at the Las Vegas Invitational showed his ability to bounce back from an early loss and Radford followed that up by posting a 4-2 record at the Reno Tournament of Champions tht saw him defeat No. 20 Matt Ryan of West Virginia and top-ranked NJCAA competitor Austin Morehead of Clackamas. Radford was the standout of the past weekend as the only Sun Devil to sweep his two duals, including an upset of #20 Erich Schmidtke of Oklahoma to improve to 13-10 on the season. His 18 wins rank him third on the team in a tie with Shane McGough. Radford finished 18-12 and will face Penn's Erich Smith, who Radford defeated earlier this season in a 5-2 decision. With a victory, Radford would likely face the top-seeded Joe LeBlanc of Wyoming in the second round.

STARKS ENTERPRISES

Eric Starks is one of the rarities on the team in that he brings NCAA Championship experience and is one of few seniors on the team and his return to the mat after a long absence due to injury will look to spark the Sun Devils heading into the conference championships. Starks earned on of just two Sun Devil victories against Oklahoma this past weekend in a major decision of Nolan McBryde. Starks is one of two Sun Devils who will be celebrating Senior Day on Sunday. Starks earned his 50th career win early this season against Army's Collin Wittmeyer and wrapped up his collegiate career with a third-place finish at 174 pounds at the Pac-12 CHampionships.

JACOB'S LADDER

Injuries are part of the game when it comes to wrestling and everyone has to be ready to go in case a teammate goes down. That was the case for true freshman Jacob Graham as he has had to fill for returning NCAA Competitor Eric Starks at 174 pounds for the past couple weeks. Graham, the only true freshman to compete for ASU so far this season, was solid in his collegiate debut, going 2-2 in a run that including the team's fastest pin of the season in 43 seconds against Shawn Seppalla of Western Wyoming in Graham's first collegiate bout. Graham went on to put #5 Nick Heflin on his back in a losing but spirited effort and showed another gutsy effort against Oregon State's Ty Vinson, pinning the Beaver with about 10 seconds left despite trailing the bout by four points at the time.

FILLING THE GAP

Injuries are a part of wrestling and the key to a good team is the ability for others to step up when a starter goes down. Like Graham, redshirt freshman Kyle McIn- tosh has been asked to fill such a hole at the 149 weight class and has performed admirably in the circumstances. McIntosh scored an exciting comefrom-behind victory against Boise State's Steven Hernandez for his first career victory and used his flair for the dramatic for another third period victory against lowa State's Lucas Swalla less than a week later. McIntosh will compete at 157 pounds this weekend and will be a dark horse on one of the conference's weaker weight classes.

FINDING HIS HOME

Levi Cooper's early career was not an easy one. The redshirt junior out of Hubbard, Ore., started as a freshman at Portland State in 2008, compiling an 11-15 record before the program was discontinued at the conclusion of the year. Cooper would go on to compete at CSU Bakersfield the following year but found himself transferring to Arizona State after redshirting his year with the Roadrunners. As a sophomore last year, Cooper burst onto the scene to the tune of an eighth-place All-America finish at last year NCAA Championships and is the Sun Devils' lone returning All-American and one of just nine upperclassmen on the roster as he gets set to compete in a second year for a program for the first time in his career.

YOUNG GUNS

A look at ASU's probably starters heading into the season gives one every indication they need as to why the Sun Devils didn't receive much love in the preseason rankings. Thus far this year, 17 different student-athletes have made their Division I debuts. To put that number into perspective, there are only 27 student-athletes on the current roster. Between injuries and just having a young team across the board, many of the wrestlers are getting thrown in the fire and having to prove themselves right off the bat. Several have answered the call, a promising sign, as the team will need the youth to step up heading into the meat of the season.

DON'T COUNT THEM OUT

Just because there is tons of youth on the 2011-12 roster doesn't mean there is any shortage of talent. The redshirt freshmen all had a year to learn and grow under the likes of the now-departed Anthony Robles and Bubba Jenkins and saw just what it takes to be a top-10 caliber team. The freshmen on the team have compiled a 104-1268 record on the year, led by double digit victories from Nathan Hoffer, Shane McGough, Tommy Burriel and Kevin Radford.

NEW FACES

Mention has already been made of the 17 true or redshirt freshmen that have seen time this year, but that's just the start oh how young the Sun Devil roster is this year. Of 31 student-athletes on the team's roster at the beginning of the year, just nine were upperclassmen and only four are seniors. There are a total of 11 redshirt freshmen on the team and 10 true freshmen, making up two-thirds of the ASU roster. The brand new faces on this year's team include: Kory DeBerry (Tucson, Ariz.), Jake Gentzler (Andover, Kan.), Jacob Graham (Phoenix, Ariz.), Rush Hall (Hoover, Ala.), Mat Malnoske (Anchorage, Alaska), Preston McCalmon (Lafeyette, Ga.), Lucio Murillo (Tucson, Ariz.), Kevin Radford (Fayetteville, N.C.), Alex Schmersahl (Centralia, Mo.) and Blake Stauffer (Neosho, Mo.).

Roster / Notes

SENIOR SEASONS

Four individuals on the roster are entering their final seasons in the Maroon and Gold. The list includes 2011 NCAA participants Eric Starks and Jake Meredith (2011 Pac-10 Champion) as well as Arizona-native Kyle DeBerry. David Prado, who should find a role as a starter at 125 pounds this year is also set to graduate.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

In the history of the program, 29 different families have supplied the Sun Devils with multiple wrestlers, including a pair of brothers this year and a second-generation Sun Devil. Brothers Kyle and Kory DeBerry are the 27th set of brothers to be members of the Arizona State program with Kory joining his senior brother after winning four consecutive state titles at Sunnyside High School in Tucson, a feat Kyle accomplished at the same school just five years earlier.

COACHING ADDITIONS

The 2011-12 season will see the addition of two additional coaches with Travis Pascoe joining the staff as an assistant coach, replacing Ben Askren, while recently-graduated national champion Anthony Robles will be a part of the team in a volunteer coach role while he continues his post-collegiate career of motivational speaking. Pascoe had served as a volunteer coach at Oregon State for the past five seasons and will bring a wealth of knowledge to the team's heavyweights, having been an All-American and hour-time NCAA qualifier during his collegiate years at Nebraska.
