COACH CHARLES / NOTES

HEAD COACH SHAWN CHARLES

On May 8, 2009, the Sun Devil wrestling program brought back one of its own by hiring Shawn Charles to lead the program that he competed for from 1990-93. An Arizona native and one of the more successful Sun Devils in program history, Charles is just the sixth head coach in the program's 47-year history.

Charles brings a wealth of knowledge to the program following coaching stints as a head coach (Fresno State, 2005-06 & Phoenix College, 1995-96) and as an assistant coach (Missouri, Brown, Nebraska, Central Michigan and Iowa State). During his time on the sidelines, he has worked with 39 individuals that have earned NCAA All-America accolades with three competitors securing individual national titles.

As a student-athlete at ASU, Charles earned All-America honors four times in his career and was a two-time national finalist at 126 pounds. Charles also was a two-time individual Pac-10 Champion and helped his team to three Pac-10 Championships (1990, 1991, 1993) and three Top 6 finishes at the NCAA Championships. In 1993, he graduated from ASU with a B.S. in Computer Information Systems to cap a collegiate career that saw him win 103 career matches and compete in the NWCA East-West All-Star Classic twice.

As an international competitor, Charles claimed 14 titles, including victories in tournaments in Iran, Manitoba, Slovakia, Bulgaria and Turkey while also winning the U.S. Open, the NYAC International and the Pan-American Championships. Along with several U.S. national titles, Charles twice placed second at the World Team Trials and was an alternate on the 1996 U.S. Olympic team.

QUICK FACTS ON CHARLES

- ASU's first 4x NCAA All-American in wrestling (90-93)
- 2x Pac-10 Champion (126 pounds)
- Graduated from ASU in 1993 (BS, Computer Info. Sys.)
- Has coached 40 NCAA All-Americans & 3 champions
- Has helped teams place Top 10 at NCAA's seven times
- 3x Arizona HS State Champion (Tucson Santa Rita)

NCAA HISTORY

Since becoming a varsity program in 1962-63, Arizona State has had at least one wrestler represent the program at 46 of the possible 49 NCAA Championships (which includes the 2011 tournament), including the last 37 in a row. The Sun Devils have placed among the Top 10 nationally 18 times and earned five trophy finishes (Top 4), including the 1988 NCAA Championship crown and runner-up finishes in both 1989 and 1990.

WESTERN WIN

Since 1928, the NCAA has conducted a wrestling championship with 11 different schools claiming the crown. In 1988, Arizona State won the title and still is the only Western team to have done so in the history of the event. Based on geographical location, when removing ASU from the list, the most western team to win a title would be Oklahoma, who has won seven. The schools that have won crowns include Oklahoma State (33), Iowa (22), Iowa State (eight), Oklahoma (seven), Minnesota (three) and the following schools with one each: Arizona State, Cornell College (Iowa), Indiana, Michigan State, Northern Iowa and Penn State.

KEYSTONE COMPETITIONS

The 2011 Championships mark the third time ASU has competed in the national event in the state of Pennsylvania with the other two times coming in 1968 and 1999. ASU finished tied for 28th in 1968 at Penn State with Gary Seymour finishing sixth at 190 to become an All-American. In 1999, also at PSU, Eric Larkin (133) and Steve Blackford (165) both finished fourth to become All-Americans.

WHO'S IN?

Arizona State automatically qualified six individuals to the Championships as each of the six finished within the allotment places at the Pac-10 Championships on February 27. Pac-10 champions Anthony Robles (125) and Jake Meredith (184) will be joined by runners-up Bubba Jenkins (157) and Luke Macchiaroli (197) while both Eric Starks (174) and Levi Cooper (285) finished third to earn the final spots at their respective weights. Meredith had to win his weight class as it was the only way to earn an automatic berth at 184.

HIGHLY REGARDED

The NCAA released the tournament brackets and seeds for each weight class last week with Anthony Robles earning the No. 1 spot at 125 pounds and Bubba Jenkins securing the No. 4 position in the 157 bracket.

ROBLES IS THE 10TH

With his top-seeding at 125 pounds, Robles is the eighth different Sun Devil (10th time overall) to be selected as the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Championships at his weight and is the first to earn that distinction since 2003 when Eric Larkin capped a perfect 36-0 season with his lone title at 149 pounds. Current Sun Devil head coach Shawn Charles also was one of those top seeds in program history, earning that position in 1993 at 126 pounds before finishing second. Overall, when a Sun Devil is the No. 1 seed, he is has won the title six times and placed second, third or fourth one time each.

SEEDING HISTORY FOR ASU

With Robles and Jenkins both being seeded in their weight classes, Arizona State has earned a Top 12 seed 139 times in program history, dating back to the 1966 Championships where Glenn McMinn Sr. (#4 at 115), Buzz Hayes (#3 at 147) and Charlie Tribble (#3 at 177) all earned seeds in the tournament. The selections this season also give ASU at least on seeded wrestler in the NCAA Championships for 36 years in a row.

THREE TIMES FOR ROBLES

With his title at 125 pounds on February 27 in Corvallis, Ore., Robles became the program's 14th different wrestler to capture the Pac-10 title three times in his career. The Outstanding Wrestler of the Championships, Robles became the first Sun Devil to win three Pac-10 titles since Patrick Pitsch secured his third at 165 in 2008. Including ASU's Western Athletic titles, Robles is the 18th different three-time conference champion.

GOING FOR THREE... AGAIN

While he successfully captured his third Pac-10 title, Robles now heads to the NCAA event looking to become the 13th Sun Devil to earn three All-America honors in a career with four of those men earning four honors in their career. The last name added to the list came in 2003 when Eric Larkin earned his fourth honor with the national title at 149 pounds. The last three-time All-American on the list came in 2001 when Steve Blackford finished fifth at 165 pounds after taking fourth and third in the years before.

ROBLES CLIMBING HIGHER

With his title in Reno, Robles not only remained undefeated on the season, but he also collected the 100th victory of his stellar career, moving to 100-23 all-time at Arizona State. Following the Pac-10 Championships, Robles is now 117-23 all-time and ranks tied for 10th in career wins while his 53-6 record in dual matches gives him the 10th-most wins in a career. If Robles posts a 5-0 record this week-end and wins the national title at 125 pounds, he will cap his career with 122 wins and rank eighth on the all-time list at ASU, leaving him one win shy of tying 2003 NCAA Champion Eric Larkin (the last ASU national champion) who is sixth all-time with 123 wins.

ROBLES ROLLING

So far this year, Robles has won 31 matches with 29 producing bonus points for the team, including 22 wins by technical fall. Excluding his two wins by fall, Robles has outscored his opponents 439-20 in the other 29 matches, having not been scored on in 18 of those wins, and defeating his foes by an average of 14.45 points. On average, Robles is scoring 15.14 points in his matches while allowing just 0.69 points per match to his opponents. Looking back at the previous three seasons, Robles' margin of victory was 5.21 as a freshman, 7.96 as a sophomore and 8.12 as a junior, more than five points less than this season. And, his 22 wins by technical fall this year are fewer than only one of his teammates' overall wins (Levi Cooper, 24-9).

LEADING THE NATION

Those 22 wins by technical fall stand as the most in the nation. The next closest wrestler in technical fall wins this year is David Taylor (Penn State, 157), who has 14. When looking at the 125 weight class, Robles has won 22 tech falls with the second most belonging to Brad Pataky (Penn State), who has five.

RETURNING

When Bubba Jenkins takes to the mats in Philadelphia, it will mark a pair of returns for the senior. Before coming to Tempe, Jenkins competed for three years at Penn State, which is about four hours away from Philadelphia. Jenkins also will be returning to the national stage after sitting out the 2010 tournament. He was the runner-up at 149 in 2008 and will look to go out on top this year as the No. 4 seed.

STARKS BOUNCES BACK

In Reno, Eric Starks opened the tournament with a loss by fall (4:06) to Andre Petrosky of North Carolina. Despite the loss, Starks bounced back and ripped off seven wins in a row, including three bonus-point victories, to finish third overall at 174 pounds, his first tournament placement of the season. The closest match he had in the consolations was a three-point decision (10-7) before defeating Nick Purdue of Ohio, 6-1, for third place.

ROSTER / NOTES

TURNING THE CORNER

Jake Meredith is starting to get noticed, thanks in large part to his performance at the Las Vegas Invitational, where he finished eighth overall at 184 pounds with a 4-3 record, including an upset victory (3-1) over No. 18 Tommy Spellman of Virginia Tech to reach the medal rounds. Nationally ranked this week, Meredith's lone losses came to a pair of nationally ranked foes, including one to No. 4 A.J. Kissel of Purdue and twice to No. 15 Luke Rebutus of Navy (a pair of 3-1 decisions).

BIG TURN AROUND FOR COOPER

Heading into this season, heavyweight Levi Cooper was starting to compete for his third Pac-10 team in as many years, starting with Portland State in 2009 (program was cut after the season) and CS Bakersfield last year (redshirted). The last time he took the mat for PSU was at the 2009 Pac-10 Championships where he finished seventh and with an 11-15 overall record. This year, Cooper currently holds a 24-9 record, has upset to national Top 15 wrestlers and is ranked among the Top 20 in four ranking services. After falling in the quarterfinals as the top seed in the Pac-10, Cooper rebounded to win two in a row, finish in third place and automatically qualify for the NCAA Championships.

ALL-STAR WINS

Although the results don't count toward their season and career records, both Anthony Robles and Bubba Jenkins dominated at the 45th NWCA All-Star Classic in Fresno, Calif., as the Sun Devil posted the only two wins by something other than a decision. First up was No. 3 Robles, who scored a 20-2 technical fall over No. 4 Zach Sanders (Minnesota) at 125 pounds. Then, Jenkins took to the mat at 157 pounds as the No. 6 Sun Devil upset No. 1 Adam Hall (Boise State) with a 12-4 major decision. Only three other matches contested saw a wrestler win by four or more points at the annual exhibition event.

NEXT TIME OUT
