UP NEXT

The Arizona State women's basketball team kicks off the postseason portion of its 2009-10 campaign this Friday when it begins play in the State Farm Pac-10 Women Basketball Tournament. As the No. 5 seed by virtue of their regular-season finish in the Pac-10, the Sun Devils (17-12, 9-9 Pac-10) will face fourth-seeded California (17-12, 11-7 Pac-10). Game time from the Galen Center in Los Angeles is scheduled for 11 a.m. PT/noon MT.

ASU's trip to LA represents the second time in as many weeks that the Sun Devils will find themselves in the City of Angels after dropping a pair of close games last week at UCLA (63-59) and at USC (62-52).

After falling behind by nine points to the Bruins with 2:37 remaining the Sun Devils staged a last-minute rally that eventually saw them with a chance to tie or go ahead in the closing seconds before the Bruins thwarted ASU's last-second shot opportunity. Two days later at USC the Sun Devils led by seven at the half and found themselves ahead 46-45 with five minutes remaining before the Trojans closed the game with a 17-6 run to get the win.

Senior guard Danielle Orsillo (13.5 ppg) and junior guard Tenaya Watson (12.0 ppg) led ASU's offensive effort in the two games.

Friday's game will be the third meeting between ASU and California this season. The Sun Devils needed late-game heroics to pull out wins in both contests. In the first meeting on Jan 30 in Berkeley, Calif., the Sun Devils used a 14-2 run in the final four minutes to overcome a 10-point deficit. Orsillo capped the rally by scoring the game-winning basket with five-tenths of a second left to give ASU a 63-61 win. Two weeks ago in Tempe the Sun Devils outscored California 13-0 in the final four minutes to erase a six-point deficit and win 57-50.

Orsillo averaged 18.5 points and connected on 50 percent of her shots (16-32) in the two games. while posts Kali Bennett (7.5 rpg), Kayli Murphy (6.5 rpg) and Becca Tobin (6.5 rpg) combined to average 20.5 rebounds in the two games.

The winner of Friday's quarterfinal will face the winner of the quarterfinal featuring top-seeded Stanford vs. Arizona/Washington State on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. PT/3:30 p.m. MT.

RADIO

Friday's Pac-10 quarterfinal against California can be heard live on The Fan AM 1060. Coverage will begin at noon in the Valley. Veteran broadcaster Jeff Munn is in his sixth season as the voice of ASU women's basketball.

Arizona State Head Coach Charli Turner Thorne

• The winningest coach in Sun Devil history (268-166) and No. 4 in the Pac-10 in most career wins (308), Charli Turner Thorne has led the Arizona State women's basketball team to the NCAA Tournament seven times in the last nine years, including the last five seasons in a row. The seven NCAA appearances are four more than what ASU had in the 15 years prior to Turner Thorne's arrival in Tempe.

• In 2009 Turner Thorne guided the Sun Devils to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in the last three seasons.

• With 26 wins in 2008-09, Turner Thorne joined former Washington head coach Chris Gobrecht and current Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer as the only other coaches in Pac-10 history (since the 1986-87 season) to have led their respective schools to five (or more) consecutive 20-win seasons.

• In 2006-07 Turner Thorne guided the Sun Devils to a school record 31 wins, including a school record 16 Pac-10 wins, and led them to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. The Sun Devils concluded the 2006-07 season ranked No. 8 in the final USA Today/ESPN coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, their highest FINAL rankings in each of the respective polls in school history.

• In 2005-06 Turner Thorne guided ASU to a 25-7 record and also led the Sun Devils to their seventh consecutive postseason berth. During the second half of that season Turner Thorne led ASU on a school record 10-game winning streak after leading the Sun Devils to a school record-tying nine-game winning streak earlier in the season (also led ASU to its first Top 10 ranking in 22 years).

• In 2004-05 directed ASU to a 24-10 overall record and its first NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 22 years.

• Led her 2001-02 team to a 25-9 record, which at the time had tied the single-season school record for most wins.

• Guided ASU to a share of the Pac-10 title in 2001 and the inaugural Pac-10 Tournament title in 2002, the first league championships in school history.

• Led Northern Arizona University to consecutive winning seasons in 1994-95 and 1995-96, the first coach in school history to accomplish that feat.

• As a player, lettered four years at Stanford where she played under Tara VanDerveer.

• During the summer of 2009 Turner Thorne served as the head coach of the USA Women's World University Games Team which went undefeated (7-0) and captured the gold medal at the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia. It was Turner Thorne's second time working with USA Basketball. In the summer of 2007 Turner Thorne served as an assistant coach on USA Basketball's U21 World Championship Team which won the gold medal at the FIBA U21 World Championship in Moscow, Russia.

• Is currently vice president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) Executive Committee.

• Graduated from Stanford in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and later earned her master's degree in education from Washington in 1990.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- ASU returns two starters – forward Kayli Murphy and guard Danielle Orsillo – from last year's active roster that went 26-9 and earned the program's second Elite Eight berth in the last three years. Of ASU's returning players, only seniors Kayli Murphy and Danielle Orsillo and junior Becca Tobin saw significant playing time last season.
- The Sun Devils are without last season's leading scorer Dymond Simon as she spends the season rehabbing from the knee injury she suffered in the 2009 regular-season finale at Stanford. Also missing for the 2009-10 season because of injury is junior guard Markisha Patterson, who transferred to ASU from Central Arizona where she was a teammate of guard Tenaya Watson, who also transferred to ASU.
- The Sun Devils will be the No. 5 seed in this year's Pac-10 Tournament. They have been seeded fifth on one other occasion -- 2004 (lost to UCLA in quarterfinals). The No. 5 seed has never played in the Pac-10 final. Last season USC (#6) became the lowest seed to ever play in the championship game while ASU (#3 in 2002) and UCLA (#3 in 2006) are the lowest-seeded teams to ever win the Pac-10 Tournament.
- ASU will be seeking its second Pac-10 Tournament title. The Sun Devils won the inaugural Pac-10 Tournament in 2002, defeating Stanford in the championship game, 70-63. They have appeared in the final in three of the eight Pac-10 Tournaments, most recently in 2007 when they lost to Stanford, 62-55.
- Despite finishing in fifth place in the Pac-10 this season, ASU has still won 76 percent (68-22) of its Pac-10 contests since the 2005-06 season.
- ASU leads the all-time series with Cal 29-27 following its two wins this season. The Sun Devils' 63-41 triumph last March in Berkeley, snapped Cal's four-game winning streak in the series. Prior to Cal's winning streak, the Sun Devils had won 13 of 16 meetings.
- This will be the third time in four seasons and the fourth time overall that ASU and California have met in the Pac-10 Tournament. Cal won the first meeting 46-38 in 2003. The teams then met in the semifinals in 2007 (ASU 60-53) and again in 2008 (Cal 65-61).
- Currently ASU's leading scorer averaging 14.5 points per game, senior G Danielle Orsillo has scored in double figures in all but four contests this season. Last month Orsillo set a new career best in scoring in back-to-back contests as she scored 26 points at Oregon State (Feb. 11) only to surpass that mark with 29 at Oregon (Feb. 13). Her final scoring tally at Oregon represented the most points by a Sun Devil since G Kylan Loney scored 32 against Arizona in 2004.
- Orsillo currently ranks No. 6 in program history with 1,351 points. She needs 13 points to pass Kristen Kovesdy (2003-06) for 5th place, 20 points to pass Sherry Poole (1984-87) for 4th place and 24 points to pass Molly Tuter (1994-97) for 3rd place.
- ASU's 120 blocks this season are the second-highest number in school history. The Sun Devils would need 15 more blocks to break the single-season record for the fourth consecutive season. Currently 5th place on ASU's all-time career list with 76 blocks, junior Becca Tobin needs four more rejections to pass Rachel Holt (1997-00) for 4th place.
- Tobin (26-28) and senior F Kayli Murphy (36-41) have combined to make 62 of their last 69 free throws (.899).

SUN DEVILS LOOK TO REMAIN AMONG THE BEST

Over the last several years ASU has developed into one of the most successful programs not only in the Pac-10, but around the country as well. Since 2000, the Sun Devils have finished first or second in the Pac-10 a combined six times, and have finished lower than third only once. Nationally, ASU is one of 20 schools whose current streak of NCAA appearances is 5 or more, one of 15 schools that has qualified for the Sweet 16 three or more times in the last five seasons and one of 9 schools that has qualified for the Elite Eight at least two times in the last three years.

DEVILS BRING THE 'D'

If there is one thing ASU head coach Charli Turner Thorne's teams have become known for over the years it is defense. Earlier this season the Sun Devils set season bests for points allowed (37) and blocks (9) in their 74-37 win over Furman on Dec. 28.

Last season six of ASU's nine Pac-10 opponents either scored their fewest points of the season against ASU or tied their lowest point total of the season. In Pac-10 play the Sun Devils led the league allowing only 53.0 points per game. In the last two years the Sun Devils have set single-game Pac-10 records for the fewest points ever allowed by a Pac-10 team (75-23 win over UC Irvine on Dec. 6, 2008) and the fewest points allowed in a Pac-10 game (59-30 win over Washington State on Feb. 21, 2008).

Since the 2005-06 season the Sun Devils have held the opposition to 50 or fewer points 38 times (7x this season), including three times in their last seven contests (49 points allowed at Oregon State - Feb. 11 and vs. Arizona - Feb. 20 and 50 vs. Cal - Feb. 27).

ORSILLO, TOBIN AND MURPHY EARN PAC-10 RECOGNITION

Three Arizona State women's basketball players were recognized by the Pac-10 on Mar. 10 as the conference announced its annual awards for the 2009-10 season as voted on by the league's head coaches.

One day after being named to the media's 15-member All-Pac-10 Team, senior guard Danielle Orsillo earned the same honor from the coaches as well. Also earning recognition were junior forward Becca Tobin, who was named All-Pac-10 honorable mention and senior forward Kayli Murphy, who earned honorable mention notice on the Pac-10's All-Defensive Team.

A starter in ASU's last 64 games, Orsillo has scored in double figures 36 times in her last 43 contests going back to last season. Currently 10th in the Pac-10 in scoring, averaging 14.5 points per game, Orsillo leads the Sun Devils in scoring, 3-point field goals (25) and steals per game (1.8) and is second in assists per game (2.4) and free throw percentage (.828). Currently in sixth place on ASU's all-time scoring list with 1,351 points, Orsillo has scored 20 or more points four times this season, including a career-high 29 points at Oregon on Feb. 13.

Tobin has started 27 of 29 games for the Sun Devils in 2009-10 and concluded the regular season fourth in the Pac-10 in blocks per game (1.3), fifth in field goal percentage (.505) and 12th in rebounds per game (6.3). The team leader in free throw percentage (.839), Tobin has led or tied for the team lead in rebounding 13 times this season and has scored in double figures 14 times, including a career-high 20 points at Oregon on Feb. 13.

The leader among ASU's post players with 33 steals, Murphy has played a big part in the Sun Devils' success on both sides of the floor this season. A starter in all 29 games, Murphy finished the regular season second on the team in rebounds per game (5.9), field goal percentage (.510) and minutes per game (27.2 mpg) and fourth in points per game (7.4). Defensively, Murphy's contributions helped the Sun Devils finish third in the Pac-10 in scoring defense (59.7 ppg).

CHARLI TURNER THORNE WINS HER 300TH

In addition to giving ASU its first Pac-10 win of the season, ASU's 64-59 win over Washington State on Jan. 9 also represented the 300th career win for Sun Devil head coach Charli Turner Thorne. Now in her 14th season at ASU, Turner Thorne has collected the majority of her 308 wins in Tempe, where she is 268-166. Prior to arriving at ASU, Turner Thorne was 40-40 in three seasons at Northern Arizona.

While 300 wins is impressive on its own merit, a closer look at Turner Thorne's coaching career makes her success look even more remarkable. At NAU, she took over a program that had posted only one winning season in 19 years. She would go on to become the first coach in program history to lead the Lumberjacks to back-to-back winning seasons.

In 1996 Turner Thorne accepted the top position at ASU where she took on the challenge of coaching a squad that had not won more than eight games in three years. Fast forward to the present day and Turner Thorne is the winningest coach in ASU women's basketball history. Along the way she has led the Sun Devils to seven NCAA Tournament appearances (all in the last nine years), including the only two Elite Eight appearances in school history (both coming in the last three years).

ALWAYS FEELING AT HOME

Since 2004 the Sun Devils have won 84.4 percent (76-14) of the games they have played at Wells Fargo Arena. In addition, under Turner Thorne ASU has also proven to be nearly as effective when it is playing away from home. Since the 2006-07 season the Sun Devils have won nearly 70 percent of their games when they were the visiting team or made a trip to a neutral site.

ADRIANNE THOMAS SIGNS WITH ASU

Charli Turner Thorne announced on November 11 that Adrienne Thomas signed a national letter of intent to study and play basketball at Arizona State.

"I could not be more excited about the addition of Adrienne Thomas," Turner Thorne said. "She is a powerful, explosive scoring combo guard who will fit in perfectly with our up-tempo offense and aggressive pressuring defense."

"Adrienne is an extremely tough and smart competitor who has had outstanding coaching through her high school and club programs. I predict she will adapt to the college game very quickly. Besides being one of the top guards in the country, Adrienne comes from an amazing family who has instilled in her great core values including impeccable character and strong leadership. She will be a great Sun Devil."

A 5-9 guard, Thomas will be coming to ASU from Summit High School in Fontana, Calif., where she has earned Sunkist League MVP honors three times. In 2009 Thomas, who has scored in double figures 32 times the last two seasons, earned All-Sunkist League First-Team and All-CIF Southern Section First-Team recognition after leading her team to the state semifinals.

As a sophomore in 2008, Thomas helped Summit to its first CIF sectional championship game and the state quarterfinals. With her FBC club team she was named to the All-Tournament Teams of the adidas Womanhood National Championships, Summertime Invitational and adidas Super 64.

"Adrienne is a superstar on the court, off the court, in the classroom and in the community," said Summit girls basketball coach Alexis Barile. "On the court she's the type of player that won't allow our team to lose. In crunch situations she's the one that pulls us together and makes sure we win. She has a refuse-to-lose mentality. She's going to fit into the ASU program very well as a person first and then as a basketball player."
