2002-03 ARIZONA STATE WOMEN'S GOLF

May 8-10 NCAA West Regional Championships
Karsten Golf Course • Tempe, Ariz.

Coming off a fifth-place showing at the Pac-10 Championships, the Arizona State women's golf team returns to action this week, playing host to the 2003 NCAA West Regional Championships. The NCAA West Regional, which is free to the public, will be held Thursday-Saturday, May 8-10 at par 72, 6,256-yard Karsten Golf Course in Tempe. Open since 1989, Karsten Golf Course has played host to a number of national tournaments, including the 2000 NCAA Women's West Regional, the 1998 NCAA Men's West Regional and the 1992 NCAA Women's Championships. The 27th-ranked and sixth-seeded Sun Devils will be looking to finish in the top five for the ninth time in 11 years of NCAA regional action. This year marks Arizona State's 11th consecutive invitation in 11 years of NCAA regional action, while the Sun Devils have won the NCAA West Regional three times, most recently in 1997. This year's NCAA West Regional features 15 teams ranked in the top 50 in the latest Golfweek/Sagarin rankings including three of the top five teams in the nation and nine of the top 30.

Live scoring will be available for each round of the 2003 NCAA West Regional at www.golfstatlive.com, while complete results will also be available on ASU's official web site at www.the-sundevils.com.

About the NCAA West Regional

The participants will play 18 holes each day Thursday through Saturday, May 8-10 beginning at 7:30 a.m. Pacific from tees No. 1 and No. 10. The final group tees off at 1:20 p.m. each day. First- and second-round pairings are predetermined based on seeding, while final-round pairings will be based on team results after the first two rounds. The top four scores from each five-person team will count toward the team score each round.

Last year, Pepperdine and UCLA tied for first with three-round totals of 19-over 883 at the NCAA West Regional which was held May 9-11 at the Stanford Golf Course in Palo Alto, Calif. California (889), Arizona (890) and Stanford (901) rounded out the top five. Arizona's Lorena Ochoa captured individual medalist honors with a six-under total of 210.

ASU's Karsten Golf Course last played host to the NCAA West Regional in 2000. That year, eventual national champion Arizona won the NCAA West Regional with a three-round total of 876, besting runner-up San Jose State (881) by five strokes. Arizona State's Miriam Nagl captured individual medalist honors in 2000 with a three-day total of seven-under 209.
