The Arizona State women's gymnastics team travels north to Salt Lake City to take on No. 5 Utah on Friday March 23rd. RQS • Defined

Beginning in 2002, team and individual rankings were determined by a Regional Qualifying Score (RQS).

To compute RQS, gather the top six scores of the season, of which at least three must be away-scores (no more than three home scores). Of those six scores, drop the highest mark, add the remaining scores and then divide the sum by five.

The RQS system helps seed the Top 18 teams into NCAA Regionals.

Returning All-American -

Sophomore Nicole Harris comes back to the Sun Devil squad as the lone returning All-American. Last season Harris capped her stellar season by gathering second team All-American status on beam after scoring a 9.875 at the NCAA Championships in Corvallis, Ore. Harris shined at Oregon State when she won the all-around competition with a score of 39.400. Along with winning the all-around, Harris also vaulted her way to tie for first on the vault with a career-best 9.900. The sophomore also scored season-high scores on bars (9.850) and beam (9.875) to take first in both events. At UNO's Classic, Harris recorded her career-high on beam, a 9.950. Harris continued to shine at Arizona, where she won her second all-around competition of the season with a 39.125. The sophomore also won bars, tying her season-high 9.850. She finished second on beam with a 9.850. Against Washington, Harris tied her season-high on bars again as well as set a new floor personal record with a 9.900.

Ti(ana) Time-

After competing mainly on bars last season, sophomore Tiana Jean has stepped up and become a solid competitor on three events this season. Steadily improving each week, the sophomore from Mesa, Ariz., posted career-best scores of 9.850 on beam and 9.800 on floor this past week against Arkansas. Jean also posted the team's second-highest bar score of the season against Washington with a career-best 9.875.

Droppin' Dimes--

Three weeks ago against Washington, senior captain April Boone scored her first 10.0 on beam. Her perfect scored marked the only 10.0 on beam in the country thus far this season. This is her second career 10 as Boone scored a 10.0 on vault last season.

Beaming Devils---

The Devils posted the highest team beam score in the nation with a 49.575 three weeks ago against Washington. Five of the six women competing posted career-highs including April Boone's 10.0. Senior Cassandra Jusino scored her career-high on the event with a 9.950. Sophomores Ashlee Hinkle and Ashley Toner also tallied career-highs of 9.900. Another career-high was recorded on beam by Tiana Jean who posted 9.825. No 1 Florida has also posted the same score as the Sun Devils.

Fantastic Fans --

The Sun Devils have had two of their largest crowds since 2001 this season. Three weeks ago, 2,008 fans came out to watch the Sun Devils topple the Washington Huskies. Earlier this season, a crowd of 1,834 watched ASU take on UCLA.

Injury Update --

The Sun Devils have been plagued with injuries this season. Sophomore Tia Orlando will not compete this season due to rehabilitating a torn ACL. Junior Josie Hancock is retiring from gymnastics due to chronic injuries.

The Sun Devils suffered a devastating loss when senior all-arounder Lauren Powell tore her anterior cruciate ligament while practicing beam. The senior has been one of the most consistent on the all-around this season and has also posted one of the season-high scores on bars this year as well. "We are very devastated as a team for Lauren," head coach John Spini said, "The other girls are going to need to step up."
