SUN DEVIL SOFTBALL

No. 15/15 ARIZONA STATE HOSTS FINAL HOMESTAND
AGAINST No. 8/7 WASHINGTON & No. 2/2 UCLA

ON TAP: The No. 15/15 Arizona State Sun Devils (30-20; 7-11 Pac-10) will close out their final home games of the year at Farrington Stadium, taking on No. 8/7 Washington (40-13-1; 7-11 Pac-10) on Friday, May 9 at 7:00 p.m. The Devils will then finish up with a double-header against No. 2/2 UCLA (43-5; 15-3 Pac-10) on Saturday, May 10 starting at 7:00 p.m. The Washington Game will be televised by Fox Sports Net via tape-delay on Sunday, May 11 at 11:00 a.m. Also, the 64-team regional announcement will be made on Sunday as well at 7:00 p.m. on ESPNEWS.

LAST TIME OUT: ASU had a solid weekend on the road as they took two out of three from the Bay area schools, defeating Stanford, 1-0 and splitting with California, 1-10 and 1-0. Freshman Ashley Werschky pitched arguably her best game of her career as she limited No. 15 Stanford to four hits and no runs, while also making several nice fielding plays to get potential base runners out on her way to her third combined shutout with four strikeouts. ASU got on the board first in the fourth inning on a hit and two Stanford errors. Kristin Farber opened the inning by reaching first on an error by the shortstop. Kara Brun then hit a shot to deep right centerfield to move Farber to second. Now with two outs, Keri Pulcifer worked the count full and then hit a ground ball to the second baseman, but she could not come up clean with the ball as Farber came around to just beat the throw home for the eventual 1-0 win. Desiree Serrano pitched the final third of an inning to record her seventh save of the year. In the first game against Cal, the Bears hit three home runs, scoring three runs in the first and third innings and four more in the fourth inning to win easily. ASU answered in the second inning with its only run of the game when Pulcifer hit a solo home run to left field to cut the lead to 3-1. In the final game against Cal, Phelan Wright hit a solo home run to left centerfield in the top of the ninth inning to provide the only scoring. Werschky picked up the win in relief after entering the game in the top of the sixth inning. She threw 3 2/3 innings of scoreless three-hit ball. Serrano, ASU's starter, re-entered the game in the bottom of the ninth to record the game's final out and her eighth save of the year.

THREE TO SAY GOODBYE: Seniors Kara Brun, Jennifer Forner and Adriana Garcia will be playing their final games this weekend at Farrington Stadium. During their four-year careers (Garcia with two), the trio have won 155 games and advanced to four regionals, including last year's semifinal finish at the College World Series.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: For the second straight year, senior short-stop Kara Brun was one of 25 finalists for national player of the year honors. The Amateur Softball Association, the National Governing Body of Softball in the United States, announced its initial watch list for the 2nd annual USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award. Brun and junior third baseman Phelan Wright were among the initial 40 players selected to be on the watch list. Last year, Wright was one of 10 finalists for the inaugural player of the year honor, while Brun was one of the 25 finalists. The award is considered the Heisman Trophy in women's collegiate softball and is the only national player of the year award.

*TEAMS IN BOLD INDICATES 2003 OPPONENTS.

THE WRIGHT STUFF: Junior All-American third baseman Phelan Wright enters the 2003 season as one of the premier softball players in the country. After posting outstanding numbers as a freshman and as a sophomore, Wright continues to post great numbers. One of 40 finalists for National Player of the Year honors, Wright is currently batting at a .336 clip with a team-leading 46 RBIs (a career-high and 19 coming with 2 outs) and 15 home runs, a new single-season record at ASU. Wright also accomplished an ASU record (as far as the books indicate) by slugging three home runs in three straight at-bats against SW Texas State. In addition, she is currently ASU's all-time leader in career batting average (.383). Last year Wright led the team throughout the year in batting average (.405/4th Pac-10), hits (75/6th Pac-10) and doubles (17/3rd Pac-10). She finished second in home runs (8), RBIs (40) and batted .350 in the pitching rich Pac-10 Conference. Wright also led the team in multi-hit games (23), multi-RBI games (11) and posted the team's second longest hitting streak at 10 games. She was also one of 10 finalists for National Player of the Year honors and was named first-team All-Pacific Region and All-Pac-10. Wright also was named to the NIST All-Tournament team and the Region III All-Tournament team. As a freshman, Wright was named the team's Offensive Player of the Year after leading ASU in batting average (.399/average was the highest posted by a freshman in the Pac-10 since 1999), hits (67) triples (2) and slugging percentage (.530). She also earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors, Louisville Slugger/NFCA National Player of the Week honors and Pac-10 Player of the Week honors. In 21 Pac-10 games she batted an amazing .418 in the pitching rich conference and posted the team's longest hitting streak at 13 games (fifth longest in the Pac-10). Wright produced a team-high 18 RBIs with two outs and finished tied for second on the team with 17 multi-hit games and third in multi-RBI games (6). She batted .530 at the National Invitational Tournament, earning all-tournament honors and led the team in postseason batting average at a .455 clip, earning Region III All-Tournament team honors.

HEAD COACH LINDA WELLS: The Sun Devil softball program continues its success on the national scene under the tutelage of 14th-year head coach Linda Wells, one of the most prominent and successful coaches in NCAA history. Wells, who is currently the seventh-most successful active coach in NCAA Division I history with 849 victories, has led the Sun Devils to 10 (six consecutive 1997-02) NCAA Regional appearances in 13 seasons, including two trips in the past four years to the College World Series (1999/2002). While at Arizona State, Wells has compiled 498 wins (seven short of the all-time record) and has had seven players earn a total of 10 All-American awards. Wells' vast coaching experience and tireless work ethic has not gone unnoticed by the country or by the world as she was named the head coach of the Greek Olympic National Team that will compete in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. Wells, who has previous international experience, was selected among several highly qualified coaching professionals to lead the host team into the games. Wells' achieved a coaching milestone that few can or will ever obtain, winning 800 career games. The Sun Devils earned Wells her 800th win with an 11-1 win over Rutgers (3/16/02). The 2002 team, arguable her most talented and successful, also tied a school-record in the national polls, finishing at No. 3 and for posting the most wins in a single season with 46. The 2002 season also marked the second appearance for Wells in the Women's College World Series where they finished third, the best in school history since the NCAA established the current format. Players again flourished under Wells as she produced two All-Americans, five All-Pac-10 players, two All-Pacific Region players and two Academic All-American players. Wells also had two players earn National Player of the Week honors and five Pac-10 Pitcher/Player of the Week honors. With the addition of five All-Pac-10 selections in 2002, Wells has now coached 64 all conference players during her tenure at Arizona State, averaging five All-Pac-10 selections every season. Wells has coached 31 career .300 hitters at ASU in her 12 seasons, averaging a combined .330 — not an easy accomplishment in the pitching-rich Pac-10 where games are traditionally low scoring.

BEHIND THE PLATE: Senior Adriana Garcia, who is having her best year as a Sun Devil, leads a trio of catchers in 2003. Only one of two players to play in all 50 games this year, Garcia is currently hitting at .296 and has already surpassed all of last year's totals by hitting eight home runs (third-highest on the team) and posting 29 RBIs (also third-highest). She has also thrown out 14 base runners, picked off another while recording 27 assists and a .993 fielding percentage. Last year Garcia played in 60 games, making 57 starts with five doubles, 21 RBIs, while 17 of her 21 RBIs came with two outs. Defensively, she picked off eight base runners and made only two errors in 268 chances for a team-high .993 fielding percentage. Prior to ASU, Garcia earned 2001 NFCA/NJCAA Division I Diamond Sports National Catcher of the Year honors and was a 2001 first-team All-American. The two-time all-region and all-conference selection, Garcia played two years at Arizona Western College in Yuma, Ariz. where she batted .448 with six home runs and 68 RBIs. Garcia recorded a fielding percentage of .991, while throwing out 29 base runners attempting to steal.

BRUN'S AN ALL-TIME HIT: Senior shortstop Kara Brun, who was featured on espn.com (<http://sports.espn.go.com/ncaa/index>), has made a huge impact while wearing the Maroon and Gold, offensively and defensively. Brun, who has a team-leading 13 doubles this year, is currently the all-time record holder with 50. She also became ASU's all-time home run hitter, currently at 34 and all-time RBI producer at 164. Brun leads the team in batting average (.390), runs (39), hits (60) and is second in home runs (10). At the National Invitational Softball Tournament, Brun, who hit safely in all six games, led the team in every offensive category, batting .591 (13 x 22) with three home runs, three doubles, seven runs scored and seven RBIs. She had a 1.136 slugging percentage and a .485 on-base percentage. Brun also did not strikeout in 22 at bats and did not commit an error in 20 chances. For her efforts she was named the Pac-10 Player of the Week and to the All-NIST Tournament Team. Brun, one of 25 finalists for National Player of the Year honors as a junior, led the team in home runs (10), RBIs (52) and finished second in hits (72). The 52 RBIs was also a single-season record along with her 10 home runs. Brun was a first-team All-Pac-10 selection and struck out only 14 times in 206 at bats (once every 15 ab). She also turned a Pac-10 and team-high 17 double plays, as well as leading the team and Pac-10 with 168 assists. Academically, Brun is just as impressive, earning second-team Verizon Academic All-American acclaim, first-team Academic All-Pacific Region and first-team Academic All-Pac-10 honors. She also earned Pac-10 Player of the Week honors (2/25). As a sophomore, Brun earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors, as well as the team's Defensive Player of the Year while recording a 12 game hitting streak, second longest on the team and eighth longest in the Pac-10. She batted .311 with 59 hits, a team-high 34 runs and posted team-highs in RBIs (42) and doubles (10). Brun finished second on the team in home runs (6), had a .458 slugging percentage and recorded a team second-best 15 RBIs with two outs. Defensively, she turned 14 double plays, good for fourth in the Pac-10 and led the team with 129 assists. As a freshman, Brun earned All-Pac-10 second team honors, selected to the Region V All-Tournament team and was named the team's Freshman and Defensive Player of the Year.

RUNNING WITH THE DEVIL: Junior Kristin Farber looks to continue her fast pace from last year when she led the team for the second straight year in stolen bases (21). This year, Farber is 9-for-13, and in her two-plus year career, Farber has been cut down only six times in 52 chances and is fourth all-time with her 46 steals. Named to the 2002 WCWS All-Tournament Team, Farber also posted the team's longest hitting streak (third longest in Pac-10) at 16 games and batted .330. In her initial season she was named the team's Freshman of the Year, earning second-team All-Pacific Region accolades and was named honorable mention All-Pac-10 after finishing fifth in the Pac-10 with 16 stolen bases.

GOING DEEP ALL-TIME: This season, the Devils have hit 45 home runs, shattering the all-time mark of 31 set in 2000. Eight different players have hit home runs while six different players have slugged multi-home runs with Phelan Wright (15) Kara Brun (10) and Adriana Garcia (8) leading the team. ASU has hit at least one home run in 27 games and have tallied multi-home runs in 10 different games. In addition, the Devils have hit three grand slams to date (Wright, Pulcifer, Evans). The 45 home runs is fifth-best in the Pac-10 Conference.

NEW TOP-25 RANKINGS: In addition to the USA Today/NFCA Top-25, a second Top-25 poll will be released by ESPN/USA Softball. The poll is voted on by NCAA Division I coaches representing 15 ASA regions and 12 collegiate conferences. The poll is also voted on by selected media members. In this release the rankings are in the order of the USA Today/NFCA Poll/ESPN.com/USA Softball.

TOUGH SCHEDULE/TOUGHER CONFERENCE: As in any season, Arizona State will face many of the nation's top teams and traditionally holds a high RPI. Last year, ASU was second in the Pac-10 in most games played against top-25 teams (34). This year is no different as ASU will have played 30 regular-season games against nationally ranked teams in the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN/USA Softball Collegiate Top-25. Within the toughest conference in the nation, the Pac-10, ASU will face a nationally-ranked team nearly every time out. Seven of the eight Pac-10 teams are ranked in the top-25, including four of the top seven and six of the top-15. The Pac-10 holds a 202-47-1 (.810) record against non-conference teams.

SERRANO ON FIRE: In 43 appearances (Pac-10 high), freshman pitcher Desiree Serrano is now 17-13 overall with six shutouts (four combined), eight saves (Tied for the Pac-10 high and all-time in the Pac-10 in a single season) and 198 strikeouts (63 looking — second in the Pac-10), while holding opponents to a .212 batting average. Serrano was named the Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week for the second time this season, picked up her sixth save of the year against No. 6 California and pitched a complete game three-hitter against No. 16 Stanford to post her 17th win of the year. Against Cal, Serrano came in relief in the fifth inning and pitched the final three innings, allowing only four hits with three strikeouts to help record the combined 1-0 shutout. The next night versus Stanford, Serrano pitched her 17th complete game of the year as she limited the Cardinal to three hits and one run with four strikeouts as ASU won 2-1. Overall, Serrano went 1-0 with a save, worked 10 innings (0.70 ERA), giving up seven hits, one run with seven strikeouts. To open Pac-10 play against the Oregon schools, she recorded a perfect 0.00 ERA, going 2-0 with one shutout, one combined shutout and a save to propel ASU to its best start in conference play since joining the Pac-10 in 1987. Overall in three appearances, Serrano pitched 14.1 innings, allowed eight hits, no runs, walked only three batters while striking out 14. At the NIST Tournament, Serrano recorded a 4-0 record, including a shutout in 30 innings with 37 strikeouts. In addition, Serrano posted shutout wins against No. 8 DePaul and No. 21 Ohio State at the NFCA Leadoff Classic. Serrano recorded four of Arizona State's five wins, including her first career no-hitter as she led the Sun Devils to a perfect 5-0 record to take the Louisville Slugger Classic Tournament title and win Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors. On the weekend, Serrano went 4-0 with a 0.31 ERA in 22 innings of work. She allowed only nine hits and one earned run while striking out 26 batters. In her no-hitter against Iowa, Serrano faced one batter over the minimum, and was just an infield error short of a perfect game as she struckout five Hawkeye's to record ASU's first no-hitter since Kirsten Voak accomplished the feat (2/29/01). In her opening win against Illinois State, Serrano did not allow an earned run while striking out 10 Redbirds. In the Sun Devils other game against Illinois State, Serrano came in relief and pitched the final three innings for the win, allowing just one hit with four strikeouts.

DEVIL NOTES: Arizona State was picked to finish sixth in the 2003 Pac-10 Pre-season Coaches Poll ... the Sun Devil preseason ranking of No. 13 is the lowest beginning ranking since the 1999 preseason poll tabbed ASU No. 15. ASU's 3-0 start to the Pac-10 season was they best since joining the conference in 1987 ... ASU is holding opponents to a .155 average with the bases loaded (9-for-58) and has held Pac-10 opponents to a .050 average in 20 chances ... ASU is hitting .435 with the bases loaded (three grand slams) ... ASU's nine game winning streak (2/14-28) was the longest in two years ... Kara Brun's 17 game hitting streak was a team high and the third longest in the Pac-10 ... Brun has struckout only eight times in 154 at bats (1:20) ... the Devils have hit one less home runs (45) than doubles (46) this year ... ASU is fifth in the Pac-10 with a .271 batting average ... ASU is second in the Pac-10 in turning double plays with 19.

STADIUM & FIELD AWARDS: For the second time in the past three years, Arizona State was the college/university winner of the NFCA/Turfage Grounds Crew Field Maintenance award for the 2002 season. Dedicated in April, 2000, Alberta B. Farrington Stadium is a 1,500 seat facility that includes 500 back seats. Among the stadium's many features are sunken dugouts, home/visitor/umpire locker rooms, offices, trainers room, concession stands, a team shop and a team room. Arizona State also won the 2000 NFCA/Turfage Grounds Crew Field Maintenance award. The field maintenance staff is headed by Pete Wozniak. Award winners were chosen by a panel of independent judges made up of grounds maintenance professionals selected by the NFCA and Turface. Farrington Stadium was also awarded "The Crescordia" (To Grow In Harmony) honor in 2000. The honor is for Environmental Excellent in building and structures awarded by the Valley Forward Association and Honeywell.
