#22 Sun Devils To Continue Pac-10 Play; Host #36 Oregon

THIS WEEK

The No. 22 Sun Devil Women's Tennis team (10-9, 3-3 Pac-10) remains at home this weekend to host Pac-10 foe the 36th-ranked Oregon Ducks (12-8, 0-5 Pac-10). The match is set to start at noon on Saturday, April 14 at the Whiteman Tennis Center. The Sun Devils are looking to see a familiar face as their Assistant Coach for ten years, Paul Reber comes into town as the current Head Coach of the Oregon Ducks.

SCOUTING THE DUCKS

The 36th-ranked Oregon Ducks are currently holding a 12-8 overall record and a 0-5 Pac-10 record under first-year Head Coach and former stand-out tennis player at ASU, Paul Reber. The Ducks head into town with a roster packed with experience as they boast only two freshman and six returners.

UP NEXT

The Sun Devils will remain home next weekend as they host the second half of the 'Duel in the Desert' as in-state and Pac-10 rivals Arizona travel up to Tempe to take on the Sun Devils next Saturday, April 21 at 1 p.m. PT. Last time against the 'Cats this year, ASU came out with a 6-1 win in Tucson.

LEGENDS OF THE FALL

The Sun Devils had a very strong showing during their 2006 fall season. For the first time in the program's history, Kady Pooler and Roxanne Clarke teamed up to win an All-American Doubles title at the Riviera/ITA All-American Championships. They also currently hold a #12 national ranking. At the ASU/Thunderbird Classic Tournament in late October, senior Sabrina Capannolo, now ranked No. 72 by the ITA, advanced to the final round of the tournament, taking second place.

IT TAKES TWO

The Sun Devils' No. 1 doubles team of Kady Pooler and Roxanne Clarke entered the season ranked No. 8 nationally by the ITA, and have since risen as high as the No. 6 doubles duo in the nation before falling to their current rank of 12. The duo of juniors performed remarkably well during the fall season, collecting an 8-3 record, as well as winning the first All-American Doubles Championship in ASU program history on October 8, 2006 at the Riviera/ITA Women's All-American Championships over Catrina and

TO BE THE BEST...

As always, the Sun Devils will play one of the toughest schedules in the country, possibly the toughest in program history this year, combining a strong non-conference slate with the always powerful Pac-10 Conference schedule. This year, the Sun Devil's will face 8 teams currently ranked in the Top-25, including two matches against No. 1 Stanford, No. 7 Cal and No. 8 USC.

WHERE THEY STACK UP

In the ITA's eleventh poll of 2007, the Sun Devils were ranked No. 22 as a team. Last year, the Sun Devils finished ranked No. 24 in the country after posting an 13-9 overall record and advancing to the NCAA tournament. It marks the 13th straight poll that the Devils have been in the top 30.

AT THE HELM

Coach Sheila McInerney enters her 23rd season at the helm of the Sun Devil program, the sixth longest tenure of any head coach at ASU, after leading last year's team to its 19th consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. In her 22 seasons, McInerney has led her team to 21 berths in the tournament. Prior to the last two year's tournament rounds, McInerney had led eight straight teams to the Sweet 16. She holds a career record of 333-211 and has posted three 20-win seasons in her career. ASU has finished in the top-10 of the nation an astounding 13 times under McInerney's tutelage.
