Sun Devils Take on Texas A&M In NCAA First Round at Baylor

The No. 22 Arizona State Sun Devils earned their nineteenth consecutive NCAA berth, as they were selected to compete against the No. 34 Texas A&M Aggies in the first round of the tournament on the campus of Baylor University in Waco, Texas on Friday. The winner of the matchup will advance to the second round against the winner of host Baylor (fifth-seed) and Texas Southern on Saturday.

MATCH-UP

The Aggies enter the tournament with a 15-11 overall record and a 9-2 mark in the Big XII. The Aggies finished tied for second in the Big XII with Texas and behind regional host Baylor. Their number one singles player, Anna Lubinsky, enters the match ranked No. 57 in the country with a 23-14 record. The Sun Devils and the Aggies have hooked up only once in the recorded history of the program, with the Devils winning an 8-1 decision on neutral court on March 3, 1992.

The Sun Devils have never faced either regional host Baylor or Texas Southern in the McInerney era.

SCHOOL-RECORD 19 STRAIGHT

The Sun Devil women's tennis team set a school record with its nineteenth straight team selection to the NCAA tournament. The 19 narrowly edges the previous record the men's golf team held with 18 consecutive selections and marks the 21st selection in Coach McInerney's 22 years at the helm of ASU. She has 8 times led her team to the round of 8 and 18 to the Sweet 16.

NCAA SINGLES AND DOUBLES SELECTIONS

The NCAA Selection Committee also announced its 64 singles and 32 doubles selections for the NCAA tournaments held following the team championship later this month. Junior Roxanne Clarke was selected as the fifth alternate in the singles tournament. Clarke was also selected with partner Kady Pooler to compete in the NCAA Doubles championship. Pooler and Clarke were selected as one of 17 at-large bids in the field of 32. The singles and doubles competitions begin May 23 at the Taube Tennis Center in Stanford and run through May 28.

CLARKE NAMED TO ALL-PAC-10

Junior Roxanne Clarke was selected to the All-Pac-10 honorable mention team this week. The South African native finished the regular season ranked in the top 75 and posted 20 victories in both singles and doubles play. She also won Pac-10 Player of the Week honors on two occasions this season, once for singles on March 27 and once with partner Kady Pooler for doubles on February 26.

WHERE THEY STACK UP

In the final regular season Fila ITA poll, ASU found itself ranked No. 22. It marks the 19th straight poll in which the Sun Devils have been in the top 30, every poll of the 2006 season, and their 16th straight in the top 25.

TO BE THE BEST...

The Sun Devils have without a doubt played one of the toughest, if not the toughest, schedule in the country this year, combining a difficult non-conference slate with the powerhouses that form their schedule in the Pac-10 South. The Sun Devils have played six matches against top 10 teams (1-5) and 10 matches against the top 25 (4-8). Against ranked opponents this year, the Devils are 8-8, having only played five unranked teams.

MAKING HISTORY, TWO AT A TIME

The Sun Devils' No. 1 doubles players Kady Pooler and Roxanne Clarke have thus far cemented their names in the ASU record books after an incredible season so far. Their win total of 26 marks the single-season win record for any double team in ASU history. As well, their win percentage of .742 (26-9) is currently the third-best single season mark in school history (min. 20 matches). They advanced to the Pac-10 sems before falling to No. 1 Yelsey and Barnes, the nation's top-ranked team, and are currently ranked No. 16 in the national ITA doubles poll. There were also selected as an at-large bid to the NCAA doubles tournament:

INDIVIDUAL RANKINGS

The Sun Devils have two ranked singles players currently and one ranked doubles team. Roxanne Clarke rose one spot to 64 and Sabrina Capannolo shot up the rankings to No. 72 (from 106). Roxanne Clarke and Kady Pooler moved up five spots in the doubles poll to No. 16 after reaching the Pac-10 semi-finals.

20-20 CLUB

With her two singles wins and two doubles wins against the Washington schools, junior Rebecca Rankin won her 21st singles match and her 20th doubles match to become the second Sun Devil on this year's squad to record 20 victories in both categories, joining junior Roxanne Clarke.

HONORS FOR COACH MAC

Sheila McInerney was named the Phoenix Womens Sports Association's 2005 Female Coach of the Year at the university level. She will be honored on Feb. 11 at the PWSA's annual banquet which corresponds with the end of ASU's Women and Girls in Sports Week. McInerney was honored not only for her accomplishments during her 22 seasons at ASU, but also for her contribution to "helping girls and women find their power through sports."

AT THE HELM

Coach Sheila McInerney enters her 22nd season at the helm of the Sun Devil program, the seventh longest tenure of any head coach at ASU, after leading last year's team to its 18th consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. In her 21 seasons, McInerney has led her team to 20 berths in the tournament. Prior to last year's exit in the second round, McInerney had led eight straight teams to the Sweet 16. She holds a career record of 333-210 (.613) and has posted three 20-win seasons in her career. ASU has finished in the top-10 of the nation an astounding 13 times under McInerney's tutelage.

Stanford University welcomes the best men's and women's collegiate tennis players this May for the 2006 NCAA Championships. Veteran coaches and players that have been to Palo Alto know and appreciate the knowledgeable tennis crowds that pack the Taube Family Tennis Center. This will be the fifth time the Stanford women's program will play host to the NCAA Championships, and the second time that the Stanford men's program has hosted the NCAA Championships, although it will be the first time since 1962. This year's NCAA Championships will feature the women's team tournament from May 18-22, with the men's team tournament running concurrently from May 19-23. Both team championships will be followed by the singles and doubles championships from May 23-28 for the women and from May 24-29 for the men.

ESPN2 will provide tape delay programming of the team championship round, with the women's title match airing on May 30 and the men's title match airing on May 31.
