What Is Strive Without Limits?

Sun Devil volleyball's team motto in 2013 is to Strive Without Limits.

“Each day, each of us has an opportunity to put our signature on this program. Where we go is completely within our control and without limit.”

StriveWithoutLimits

In 2012, the volleyball program finished 20-14 overall, the most victories under head coach Jason Watson and since the team went 20-8 in 1993. Highlighting the wins were two upsets over Top 25 opponents and winning three preseason tournaments.

The team had 11 conference honors by season's end, including a First Team All Pac-12 nod to freshman Macey Gardner. Record book performances from Gardner, Erica Wilson, Stephanie Preach and Allison Palmer aided the Sun Devils to a finish in the NCAA Tournament - the first trip for ASU since 2006.

ASU enters the 2013 season with a 13th ranked freshman class, 16 nationally televised matches on the schedule and national volleyball team experience in the summer by three athletes and assistant coach Linda Hampton-Keith.

Fans will get to watch 13 home matches in 2013 as another strong roster vies for a postseason run.

TOP FIVE MOMENTS FROM 2012

Making the NCAA Tournament Provo, Utah, Nov. 30, 2012

ASU faced Oklahoma in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, eventually falling 3-2 after a 13-15 heart-breaking fifth set. Four Sun Devils finished the match in double-digit kills and capped the year breaking three single-season records.

Upsetting No. 5 Washington Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21, 2012

Led by 19 kills from Macey Gardner and 46 assists from Allison Palmer, ASU pulled the upset in four sets: 25-19, 16-25, 25-23, 25-20.

Upsetting No. 6 USC Tempe, Ariz., Nov. 2, 2012

The Sun Devils made quick work of the Trojans, sweeping them 3-0 for the fourth time in series history. It marked the first Top 25 win since 2010 and was the eighth of nine sweeps in 2013.

Preseason Tournament Wins

Winning three tournaments in the non-conference portion of the season allowed the team to record its best start since 2009, at a 11-2 record. 10 athletes won tournament awards too!

Pac-12 All-Academic

Three Sun Devils were Pac-12 All-Academic, giving ASU the most all-time in volleyball in the Pac-12 with 50 total honorees.

With the help of our academic advisor Natalie Thackrah, our program has excelled in academics. In 2012 we posted an APR score of 978 and in the summer of 2013 we improved that score with a single year score of 1000 (100%). Four of our student-athletes posted perfect 4.0 grade point averages!

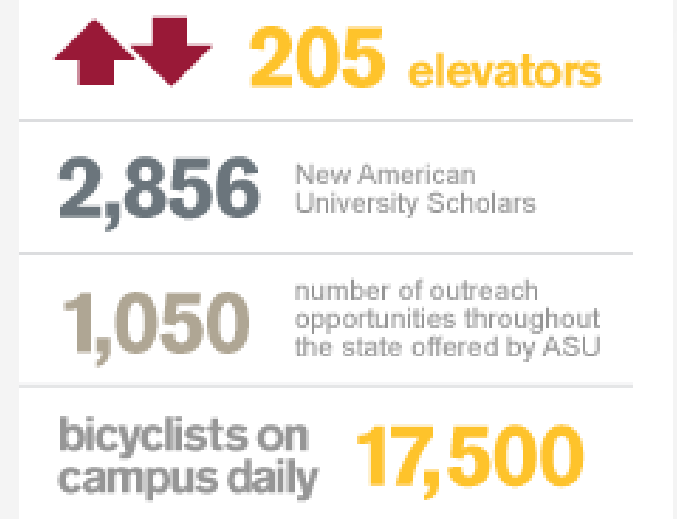

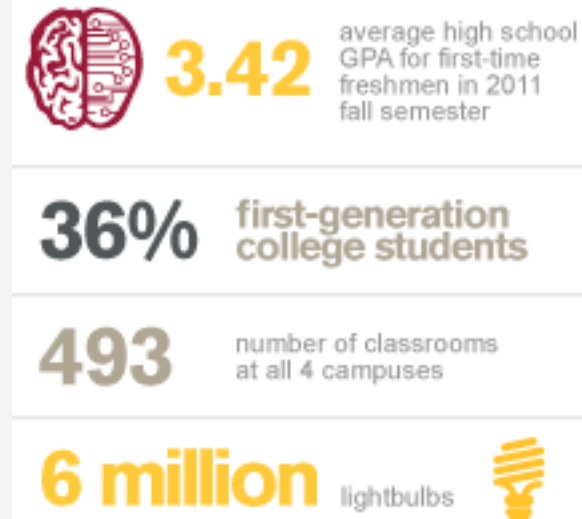

What helped us get there? Head coach Jason Watson says its our resources, our history of academic success and culture.

Academic EXCELLENCE

Our team has a lot to be proud of, including:

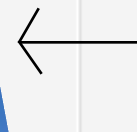

- Three Pac-12 All-Academic honorees in 2012
- A Barrett Honors College scholar in Caitlyn Francis
- ASUVB leads the Pac-12 in All-Academic honorees with 50 all-time
- Team average GPA of 3.42

DYK: Volleyball is one of 10 sports that every school in the Pac-12 sponsors?

The summer before the 2013 season, Macey Gardner was a member of the Pac-12 All-Star team that played in China. Here she is after a match. —————→

On TV With THE PAC-12 NETWORK

As the Pac-12 Network heads into Year Two, 90 matches are scheduled to be broadcast live on the Conference's Networks, 15 are Arizona State's - six of which will be played at home in Wells Fargo Arena. Both matches against our rival Arizona will be aired on TV, representing our Pac-12 opener on Sept. 24 in Tempe and our final regular season match of the year on Nov. 29 in Tucson.

Seven conference teams earned NCAA Tournament bids in 2012. We made our first appearance since 2006 and played close to home at the BYU site. A lot of our fans traveled and it's a goal to make it back to the post-season in 2013 to give our fans extended time in the Fall to watch us play!

The Pac-12 Network did a great feature on "The 12 Best: Women's Volleyball Games of 2012" with your Sun Devils earning three of those nods. Ringing in at No. 11 was our Nov. 23 win over Arizona that secured our spot in the NCAA Tournament.

No. 10 on the countdown list was a sweep of sixth-ranked USC on Nov. 2. All the way up at No. 7 was a five-set thrilling win at California on Oct. 28.

Starting July 9, the Pac-12 Networks launched its own Twitter handle, @Pac12Networks that is focused on events and produced content like features and spotlights - including work done by our ASU athletics staff!

With the advent of the new thesundevils.com website, pac12.com and all the outlets on social media, we hope to give you more access into Sun Devil volleyball.

Tiebreaker third set is to 15

Rally scoring, win by two points

Two people on the “court”

In sand dual meets, winning team is one that wins three of five matches with a school’s field of five doubles teams

NCAA requires 40 institutions to sponsor sand volleyball for a NCAA Championship, we were program No. 33!

On July 8, 2013, Sun Devil Athletics announced the addition of sand volleyball as the 22nd program at ASU.

Jason Watson will also serve as the head coach of the sand volleyball program, assisted by Jackie Scarduzio.

We mark the 33rd DI institution to sponsor the sport! Fifteen schools competed in sand volleyball in 2012 and when we reach 40 sponsored programs, the NCAA will sponsor an NCAA Championship.

In the Pac-12 Conference, Arizona, California, Stanford, USC and UCLA all have sand volleyball programs. At the high school level, Arizona is lauded as the first state to add sand volleyball as an officially sanctioned sport.

We are happy to announce the addition of the program and now all that hard work in our Spring sand tournaments in prior years (pictured above from 2013) will help us prepare for what coach Watson says is “an exciting expansion for our student-athletes.”
