

SUN DEVIL WBB NCAA TOURNAMENT NOTES

- Arizona State is making its 13th all-time appearance in the NCAA Tournament, its 10th under head coach Charli Turner Thorne.
- ASU's overall record in the NCAA Tournament is 14-12, including a 12-9 record under Turner Thorne.
- The Sun Devils have won at least one NCAA Tournament game in seven of their last eight tournament appearances (2002, '05, '06, '07, '08, '09, '14), most recently last season when they defeated Vanderbilt in the first round before falling to top-seeded Notre Dame in the second round. Both games were contested in Toledo, Ohio.
- ASU's No. 3 seed in this year's NCAA Tournament matches its highest in school history. ASU was also the No. 3 seed in the Greensboro Regional in 2007.
- Prior to its Elite Eight berth in 2007, the furthest ASU had reached was the round of 16 (1982, 1983 and 2005). In both 1982 and '83, the No. 4 seed Sun Devils lost to the eventual national champion in the round of 16 (Louisiana Tech in 1982 and USC in 1983).
- ASU's first NCAA appearance in the Charli Turner Thorne era came in 2001. As the No. 11 seed in the Midwest Regional, the Sun Devils fell to No. 6 seed LSU in the first round. Turner Thorne earned her first victory in the NCAA Tournament the following year after the Sun Devils (No. 9 seed) defeated Wisconsin (No. 8 seed) in the first round of the Midwest sub-regional, 73-70. ASU would fall to the top seed, Vanderbilt, in the second round, 61-35.
- As the No. 5 seed in the Tempe Regional in 2005 the Sun Devils advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in 22 years after upsetting No. 4 seed Notre Dame, 70-61. In that game the Sun Devils overcame a 13-point, first-half deficit. In the Sweet 16 against North Carolina, the Sun Devils led by as many as 10 points and were within two points, 62-60, with 9:29 remaining before the Tar Heels closed out the game with a 17-12 run.
- As a No. 4 seed in 2006 ASU defeated Stephen F. Austin in the first round in Tucson (80-61) before falling to Utah in the second round (86-65).
- ASU earned a No. 3 seed in the Greensboro Regional in 2007 and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in school history, posting a school record 31 wins along the way. The Sun Devils denied the upset bids of No. 14 seed UC Riverside (first round) and No. 6 seed Louisville (second round), overcoming double-digit deficits in the final 10 minutes of both games before going on to defeat Bowling Green (67-49) in the Sweet 16. ASU's season ended with a 64-45 loss to Rutgers in the Greensboro Regional Final.
- As a No. 6 seed in 2008, ASU defeated Temple (61-54) in the first round before bowing out with a 67-59 loss to Duke (No. 3 seed).
- In 2009, ASU (a No. 6 seed in the Trenton Regional) earned its second Elite Eight berth in three years. ASU defeated No. 11 Georgia and No. 3 Florida State in Duluth, Ga., before knocking off the No. 2 seed Texas A&M in the regional semifinal in Trenton, N.J. ASU was defeated by eventual national champion UConn in the Trenton Regional final.
- In 2011, ASU (No. 7 in the Dayton Regional) lost to Temple, 63-45, in a first-round game contested in Salt Lake City.
- ASU's 10 NCAA Tournament appearances ('01, '02, '05, '06, '07, '08, '09, '11, '14, '15) are the second-highest total in the Pac-12 behind Stanford since the 2000-01 season.
- The highest seed ASU has ever defeated is #2 Texas A&M in the 2009 Trenton Regional Semifinal.
- ASU has faced #1 seed six times (0-6).

The ninth-ranked Arizona State women's basketball team will be hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time since 2005 on Saturday (3:30 p.m. PT) when Ohio visits Wells Fargo Arena.

The Sun Devils (27-5, 15-3 Pac-12 - No. 3 seed in Greensboro Regional) and the Bobcats (27-4, 16-2 MAC - No. 14 seed) will be meeting in the second of two NCAA First Round games taking place in Tempe on Saturday. The day will start off at 1 p.m. PT when No. 21/20 Texas A&M (24-9, 10-6 SEC - No. 6 seed) faces UALR (28-4, 18-2 Sun Belt - No. 11 seed). The winners of Saturday's games will meet at Wells Fargo Arena on Monday (time TBD) for the right to advance to the Sweet 16, which begins on Friday, March. 27 in Greensboro, N.C.

The Sun Devils are 2-1 in NCAA Tournament games played in Tempe. They won first round games in 1982 and 1983 and lost in the regional semifinals to North Carolina in their most recent NCAA Tournament home game in 2005.

TELEVISION/RADIO

Saturday's NCAA Tournament game can be seen live on ESPN2. Dave Pasch (play by play) and Debbie Antonelli (analysis) will call the action.

The game can also be heard live on NBC Sports Radio AM 1060. Coverage will begin at 3 p.m.. Veteran broadcaster and the state of Arizona's 2010 Broadcaster of the Year Jeff Munn is in his 11th season as the voice of ASU women's basketball. He will be joined on the broadcast by former Sun Devil head coach Maura McHugh.

SERIES HISTORY VS. OHIO, TEXAS A&M AND UALR

Saturday's contest vs. Ohio will be the first meeting between the Sun Devils and the Bobcats. In fact, of the other three teams in the Tempe field, Texas A&M is the only school that ASU has ever competed against. The Aggies have taken four of the five prior games, including the most recent meeting, a 72-62 decision contested at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic on Dec. 19, 2009. Texas A&M also took the first three games of the series, which were all played prior to 1994.

ASU's lone win in the series came in the game with the most at stake: the 2009 Trenton Regional semifinal. The Sun Devils, the No. 6 seed, upset the Aggies, the No. 2 seed, 84-69. Briann January scored a game-high 22 points for the Sun Devils, who shot 62 percent for the game. Current Sun Devil graduate assistant Sybil Dosty was ASU's starting center in the win.

HOW DID SUN DEVIL WBB EARN NO. 3 SEED IN 2015 NCAA TOURNAMENT?

- In 2014-15 ASU got off to its best start (18-1) and conference start (7-0) in school history. Previous best starts: 14-1 in 1982-83/best conference start: 5-0 in 2007-08. In addition, ASU reached 20 wins faster than any team in program history (22 games). ASU's current win total of 27 is the second highest total in school history surpassed only by the 31 wins collected by the 2006-07 squad.
- On Dec. 22 ASU made its first appearance of the season in the AP Top 25, entering the poll at No. 25. Since then they either moved up or remained steady all but one week. They concluded the regular season ranked No. 9 in both the AP and USA Today Coaches' poll. ASU's highest ever AP ranking was No. 8 in 2007.
- ASU's earlier 14-game winning streak (started on Nov. 30 and ended on Jan. 25) was its second longest in school history. Only the 2008-09 team won more games in succession (15). Most recently, the Sun Devils won six straight games before falling to Stanford, 59-56, in the semifinals of the Pac-12 Tournament.
- The Sun Devils have now won 28 of 31 home games going back to last season, including a 14-2 record this season. ASU allowed an average of only 55.2 points per game at home this season while outscoring the opposition by an average of 13.3 ppg. In its last four home games of the season ASU's opponents averaged only 47.2 ppg.
- ASU has had the same starting lineup in all but five games this season: G Elisha Davis, G Katie Hempen, G Promise Amukamara, F Kelsey Moos and F Sophie Brunner. Quinn Dornstauder started her first career game at Oregon State (Feb. 13) in place of Kelsey Moos (injured elbow). She would go on to start five games before Moos returned to the starting lineup on Mar. 1.
- ASU has had 15 or fewer turnovers 21 times this season, including a season-low seven at Oregon State (Feb. 13). The Sun Devils are on pace to shatter the school record for fewest turnovers per game, 16.4, set by the 2011-12 team. Coming into Saturday's game, ASU is averaging 13.9 turnovers per game, 2.5 fewer than the current record.
- ASU has won the battle of the boards in all but nine games.
- Nine Sun Devils have scored in double figures this season. Of those nine, six have posted double-digits in scoring multiple times. Leading the way is Katie Hempen, who has scored in double figures 21 times. Also scoring in double figures have been Sophie Brunner (20x), Promise Amukamara (19x), Elisha Davis (13x), Quinn Dornstauder (11x), Kelsey Moos (8x), Peace Amukamara (1x), Arneicia Hawkins (1x) and Eliza Normen (1x).
- Promise Amukamara (All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Defense), Sophie Brunner (All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 Defensive Honorable Mention) and Katie Hempen (All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention) all earned Pac-12 honors this season as votes on by the league's head coaches.
- The top rebounding guard on the team (3.8 rpg), Promise Amukamara was ASU's leading scorer during its earlier 14-game winning streak (13.1 ppg) and was also the leading scorer during its recent six-game winning streak (12.5 ppg).
- Brunner has scored 20 or more points five times this season, including a career-best 26 points vs. Arizona (Jan. 10). Brunner was named to the Pac-12's All-Tournament Team after averaging 14.0 points and 7.5 rebounds while hitting 59 percent of her shots in ASU's two P12 Tournament games.
- Elisha Davis has had five or most assists 15 times, including a career-high 11 at Illinois State (Dec. 16). Equally important is she has had 18 games with two or fewer turnovers – 2 (7x), 1 (7x), 0 (4x).
- Katie Hempen, who has knocked down 3 or more 3-pointers 12x this season, broke former Sun Devil and current Indiana Fever guard Briann January's single-season record for most 3-pointers (65) after hitting four vs. Colorado on Mar. 1. Hempen currently has 68 triples this season.
- Kelsey Moos, who missed four games due to injury in February, has had seven or more rebounds 13 times this season. Moos returned to starting lineup vs. Colorado (Mar. 1).
- Quinn Dornstauder, who started five games in the absence of Kelsey Moos, currently leads the Sun Devil bench in both scoring (7.7 ppg) and rebounding (5.0 rpg).
- ASU was picked to finish seventh in the Pac-12 by the coaches and sixth by the media and ended up finishing second. Last season ASU was picked to finish 10th (coaches) and ninth (media). They would go on to finish fourth, were ranked as high as No. 11 in the AP poll and would advance to the second round of NAAs, their 14th postseason appearance in 15 seasons.

27 WINS AND COUNTING

ASU's 67-48 win over Washington State in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament on March 6 was its 27th win of the season, giving this year's squad sole possession of second place for the most wins in school history.

Prior to the win over the Cougars, this year's Sun Devils were tied with the 2008-09 team that won 26 games (26-9) on its way to the program's second Elite Eight berth in three seasons. The 2008-09 team actually started the season with an 8-6 record, including an 0-2 record in Pac-10 play, before reeling off a school record 15 straight wins. This year's team came just short of tying the consecutive wins mark after winning 14 straight games, which included its last seven non-conference games and its first seven Pac-12 contests.

The first Sun Devil team to qualify for the Elite Eight was the 2007 squad, which holds the school record for most wins in a season with 31 and the most wins in Pac-10/Pac-12 play with 16.

Another characteristic the three winningest teams in school history have shared is their ability to be successful on the road. Both the 2006-07 team and this year's squad accomplished the feat of winning 10 of 11 games on the road, tied for the best mark in school history. The 2008-09 team won nine of 13 on the road. Of the 29 wins the three teams combined for in true road games, perhaps none was more impressive than the one captured by this year's Sun Devils on Jan. 19 when they traveled to Stanford and became the first ASU team to leave Maples Pavilion with a win since 1984. But there's more. Prior to the 60-57 win at Stanford, ASU went to Cal and defeated the Bears 67-52, the largest margin of victory by a team at Haas Pavilion this season. By the time the weekend was over, ASU had become the first school in the conference since 2000-01 to travel to the Bay Area and win both games.

DEVIL DEFENSE LEADS THE WAY

While the Sun Devils made great strides last season in returning to the NCAA Tournament following a 13-18 season in 2012-13, head coach Charli Turner Thorne made it a point of emphasis in the offseason that the 2014-15 team would start to play defense more like some of the great Sun Devil teams in recent memory. The defining characteristics of those defenses: Ball pressure, excellent position defense without fouling and excellent work on the boards.

The results have been nothing short of phenomenal.

Entering the 2015 NCAA Tournament, the Sun Devils are giving up 9.6 fewer points this season (55.6) compared to last season (65.2).

In terms of conference games, ASU gave up 11.8 fewer points during the Pac-12 season in 2015 (55.1) compared to last season (66.9).

The Devils have also shown improvements from last season to this season in opponent 3-point FG percent ( $30.9/25.4 = -5.5$ ), opponent rebounds per game ( $34.9/31.3 = -3.6$ ), field goal attempts per game ( $57.0/51.9 = -5.1$ ) and fouls given per game ( $19.5/15.3 = -4.2$ ).

ASU will come into the NCAA Tournament leading the Pac-12 in scoring defense (55.6 ppg - 24th in the nation), 3-point FG percent defense (25.4 - fifth in the nation) and rebounding defense (31.3).

In addition, ASU has held the opposition to 25 or fewer points in a half 25 times this season. It has also held the opposition to 25 percent or less from 3-point range 16 times. ASU has given up more than three triples in a game only nine times this season.

During its recent six-game winning streak ASU had given up an average of only 52.3 ppg. The opposition shot only 21.4 percent from 3-point range during that stretch while averaging 17.2 turnovers per game.

Sophie Brunner (2015 Pac-12 Defensive Honorable Mention/1.84 steals per game - seventh in the Pac-12) and Promise Amukamara (2015 Pac-12 All-Defensive Team/1.75 steals per game - ninth in the Pac-12) are both among the league's top 10 in steals per game. Brunner is the only post player in the top 10. In addition, her eight steals vs. Colorado (Mar. 1) represent the most by a player in the Pac-12 this season. Brunner also had seven steals vs. Cal on Feb. 8.

Arizona State head women's basketball coach Charli Turner Thorne was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year, according to an announcement by the Atlanta Tipoff Club on March 3.

This season Turner Thorne has led the Sun Devils to their best start in school history (18-1), their best conference start in school history (7-0), a second-place finish in the Pac-12 and 27 wins entering the NCAA Tournament, which is the second-highest number of wins in school history.

The all-time winningest coach in program history and No. 2 in the Pac-12 in career wins (352), Turner Thorne has turned Sun Devil women's basketball into one of the nation's premiere programs since taking over in 1996-97. Included in ASU's earlier run of 13 consecutive postseason appearances (2000-12) were a school record five-consecutive NCAA Tournament bids from 2005-09. During that time the Sun Devils qualified for the Elite Eight on a pair of occasions, making ASU one of only 15 programs in the country to have qualified for the Elite Eight at least two times between 2007-12.

In 2013-14, Turner Thorne helped the Sun Devils post one of the best turnarounds in the country as they went from a 13-18 record and a ninth-place Pac-12 finish (5-13) the previous season to a 23-10 record and fourth-place Pac-12 finish (11-7). Included among ASU's 23 wins last season were three triumphs over Top 25 teams.

On Jan. 25, 2013, Turner Thorne became the third Pac-12 coach to reach 300 victories following ASU's 60-53 win over USC, a game in which ASU came back from 16 down in the second half.

A closer look at Turner Thorne's path to 300 puts into perspective the incredible 180-degree turnaround Sun Devil women's basketball has undergone since she came to ASU. To reach 150 wins it took Turner Thorne 272 games (150-122 - .551) as she rebuilt a program that had an aggregate record of 20-60 in the three years prior to her arrival and only two NCAA Tournament wins in its history. It would take her 215 games to get 150 more wins. Since picking up her 150th win at ASU, Turner Thorne is 202-90 (.701). Included in those wins are nine of Turner Thorne's 12 NCAA Tournament victories.

This weekend, Turner Thorne leads the Sun Devils into the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in her ASU tenure. Among schools that qualified for the 2015 NCAA Tournament, ASU's 10 NCAA bids since 2000 are the second-most in the West.

SUN DEVIL WBB AMONG NATION'S BEST IN THE CLASSROOM

In addition to the success it has enjoyed on the court over the years, the Sun Devil women's basketball program has been equally brilliant in the classroom where it has earned national recognition for its academic achievements. While the team's current success on the court is receiving the most attention, the program learned in December of another great accomplishment that it is just as proud of as it concluded the fall semester with a cumulative team GPA of 3.47.

Just like the continued success they are experiencing on the court, the Sun Devils have not skipped a beat when it comes to hitting the books. Last season the Sun Devil women's basketball team was among the top 25 women's basketball programs listed on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) 2014 Academic Honor Roll.

ASU's combined team GPA of 3.412 in 2013-14 was No. 21 among NCAA Division I institutions. In addition, ASU was one of only three teams (DePaul and Florida Gulf Coast) among the WBCA's top 25 that also participated in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

But it doesn't stop there. Last March it was revealed that the Sun Devils had the highest combined number (3) of first- (1 - Joy Burke) and second-team (2 - Elisha Davis and Deja Mann) honorees represented on the Pac-12's All-Academic Team. Also earning Pac-12 honorable mention recognition were Promise Amukamara, Katie Hempen and Eliza Normen.

Since the 1996-97 season, head coach Charli Turner Thorne's first season at ASU, the Sun Devils lead the Pac-12 in the number of first-team All-Academic conference awards (15) and the combined number of first- and second-team All-Academic conference awards (34).

FREE THROWS

- ASU's two wins over Stanford during the regular season represented the first time a Pac-10/Pac-12 school swept Stanford during the regular season since 1988.
- Katie Hempen has accounted for double-digit point totals in the second half of a game eight times this season. Also proving to have a propensity for putting up big scoring totals in the second half has been Sophie Brunner. She has scored in double figures in the 2nd half six times, including 20 vs. Arizona and at Oregon State and 18 vs. Northwestern. Brunner's 24 points at Oregon State tied the second-highest point total scored by an individual player against the Beavers this season.
- ASU has finished in the top third of the conference standings 10 times since 2001.
- How is this for consistency: ASU gave up 55.6 points per game over the first 16 games of the season and 55.7 points per game over the last 16 games.

CARDIAC KIDS

One of the biggest factors in ASU's success over the last two seasons has been its one-of-a-kind resiliency and knack for finding a way to not only win close games, but also to come back when facing large deficits.

In the last two years the Sun Devils are an incredible 19-3 in games decided by five points or less and/or overtime, including 7-2 this season.

On Nov. 25 ASU overcame an eight-point deficit in the second half to win at Miami, 65-61.

The Sun Devils then used an 11-0 run in the last 2:38 to knock off Villanova 51-46 (Nov. 28).

On Nov. 30, ASU defeated Vanderbilt 72-67. On Jan. 19, ASU held off Stanford, 60-57, to win at Stanford for the first time since 1984. In the rematch on Feb. 6, ASU overcame a 12-point deficit in the second half to sweep the Cardinal for the first time since 1984.

ASU's 50-49 loss to Cal on Feb. 8 was its first loss in a game decided by five points or less this season (7-2).

On Feb. 22, ASU went to double-OT to beat USC, 76-73. On Feb. 27, ASU survived a scare from Utah to win 46-42.

In their most recent outing, the Sun Devils were unable to complete a second half comeback in a 59-56 loss to Stanford in the semifinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. It was only ASU's second loss in nine games decided by five points or less or overtime this season.

Last season the Sun Devils were 12-1 in games decided by five points or less and/or overtime.

ASU has come back to win four games this season in which it was facing a double-digit deficit – at Miami (10) vs. Vanderbilt (11), vs. Stanford (12) and vs. Utah (12).

In games vs. Cal (14 points), at Oregon State (10 points) and vs. Stanford in the Pac-12 Tournament (13 points), the Sun Devils faced large second-half deficits and nearly came back to win each contest. Against Cal, ASU came back to take a 49-48 lead with 16 seconds left, but the Bears got a tip-in at the buzzer to win the game. At Oregon State, the Sun Devils had the ball with under a minute left and down by three, but had a turnover on the possession and the Beavers would go on to win by six points. Most recently against Stanford, the Devils found themselves down by 13 with under nine minutes remaining. Their defense would start to lock Stanford down, setting the stage for a 19-5 run as the Devils would take a 56-55 lead with 2:19 remaining. Unfortunately the Devils were unable to find any points in the final minutes and the Cardinal came away with its first win in three tries against ASU this season.

SUN DEVIL WBB HONORS ALL-TIME GREAT KYM HAMPTON

Kym Hampton, a member of the Sun Devil Sports Hall of Fame who was ASU's first All-American in women's basketball and who went on to star professionally – both internationally and in the WNBA – had her No. 32 jersey honored and displayed from the rafters of Wells Fargo Arena at halftime of ASU's game vs. SMU on Dec. 6.

One of the most decorated players to ever wear a Sun Devil jersey, Hampton (1981-84) is ASU's all-time career leader (men's or women's basketball) in scoring (2,361 points) and rebounds (1,415).

Hampton was the first ASU women's basketball player to earn all-American honors (1981-1982). In addition to the aforementioned career scoring and rebounding records, Hampton set several other records, many of which still stand today, including: most career blocks (178), most points (683) and rebounds (413) in a season and most points (44), rebounds (28) and field goals (19 - tied) in a single game.

Hampton's play helped lead ASU to a four-year record of 76-34, including a pair of NCAA Sweet 16 appearances. Hampton led ASU to its first post-season appearance in 1981 as the Sun Devils advanced to the championship game of the National Women's Invitation Tournament. Hampton's 23 points enabled ASU to upset top-seeded Tennessee Tech 85-76 in the opening round. The following season, Hampton scored 31 points to pace the Sun Devils as they defeated Georgia 97-77 in their first ever NCAA Tournament game, which was played in Tempe. In 1983, Hampton tallied a double-double against Utah to help lead the Sun Devils back to the Sweet 16.

Hampton concluded her remarkable Sun Devil career in being named the 1984 Sun Angel Athlete of the Year, an award which honored academic and athletic excellence.

Following her ASU career, Hampton took her talents to the international stage where she excelled for more than 12 years, helping her teams win four championships along the way. Hampton reached the pinnacle of women's professional basketball in 1997 when she was chosen by the New York Liberty in the first round of the WNBA Elite Draft. Hampton started every game during the franchise's first three seasons, which included a pair of WNBA runner-up appearances. She averaged 9.3 points and 5.8 rebounds in her three years with the Liberty. She forever etched her spot in team history by scoring the franchise's first ever basket in 1997.

Hampton joins Ryneldi Becenti as the only Sun Devil women's basketball players to have their jerseys hung from the rafters of Wells Fargo Arena.

HEAD COACH CHARLI TURNER THORNE

- The winningest coach in Sun Devil women's basketball history and No. 2 in the Pac-12 in most career wins (352), Charli Turner Thorne is at the helm of an Arizona State program that has made it to the postseason 15 of the last 16 years, including a school record five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2005-09), two Elite Eight appearances in addition to an additional Round of 16 finish. ASU's 10 NCAA Tournament appearances under Turner Thorne are seven more than what ASU had in the 15 years prior to her arrival in Tempe. Has also earned a pair of gold medals with USA Basketball.
- The 2014-15 season is Turner Thorne's 18th at ASU. This year she added another achievement to her lengthy list of accomplishments at ASU as she led the Sun Devils to their best start in school history (18-1 - previous best start was 14-1 in 1982-83). In addition, ASU's current win total (27) is its second-highest in school history.
- In 2013-14, ASU recorded its 10th 20-win season (23) and its ninth NCAA Tournament berth since 2000-01. The Sun Devils advanced to the second round of the Tournament, the seventh time under Turner Thorne the Sun Devils have been among the final 32 teams or better.
- Earned her 300th win as ASU's head coach on Jan. 25, 2013. Turner Thorne joined current Stanford coach Tara Vanderveer and former Washington/USC head coach Chris Gobrecht as the only other coaches to earn at least 300 wins while coaching in the Pac-10/12. ASU's 63-60 triumph over No. 20 Syracuse on Dec. 30, 2013 was the 313th win at ASU for Turner Thorne, moving her into the No. 2 spot on the Pac-12's all-time wins list.
- In 2011 led ASU to its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance in seven years and a third-place finish in the Pac-10, ASU's ninth top-3 conference finish in 11 seasons.

• In 2009 guided the Sun Devils to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three seasons. ASU's final 26-9 record in 2008-09 included a school record 15-game winning streak.

• Since 2005-06, ASU has led the Pac-12 in the number of conference first-team all-academic awards and the combined number of first- and second-team all-academic awards.

• Is one of three coaches (former Washington head coach Chris Gobrecht and current Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer) in Pac-10/12 history (since the 1986-87 season) to have led their respective schools to five (or more) consecutive 20-win seasons.

• In 2006-07 guided the Sun Devils to a school record 31 wins, including a school record 16 Pac-10 wins, and led them to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. ASU concluded the 2006-07 season ranked No. 8 in the final USA Today/ESPN coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, their highest FINAL rankings in each of the respective polls in school history.

• In 2005-06 led ASU to a 25-7 record. During the second half of that season led ASU on a (then) school record 10-game winning streak after leading the Sun Devils to a school record-tying nine-game winning streak earlier in the season (also led ASU to its first Top 10 ranking in 22 years).

HEAD COACH CHARLI TURNER THORNE

- In 2004-05 directed ASU to a 24-10 overall record and its first NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 22 years.
- Led her 2001-02 team to a 25-9 record, which at the time had tied the single-season school record for most wins.
- Guided ASU to a share of the Pac-10 title in 2001 and the inaugural Pac-10 Tournament title in 2002, the first league championships in school history.
- Started her head coaching career at Northern Arizona where she spent three seasons (40-40 record from 1992/93 - 1995/96) and led NAU to consecutive winning seasons in 1994-95 and 1995-96, the first coach in school history to accomplish that feat.
- As a player, lettered four years at Stanford where she played under Tara VanDerveer (for three years).
- During the summer of 2009 Turner Thorne served as the head coach of the USA Women's World University Games Team which went undefeated (7-0) and captured the gold medal at the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia. It was Turner Thorne's second time working with USA Basketball. In the summer of 2007 Turner Thorne served as an assistant coach on USA Basketball's U21 World Championship Team which won the gold medal at the FIBA U21 World Championship in Moscow, Russia.
- Is a past president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) Executive Committee.
- Graduated from Stanford in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and later earned her master's degree in education from Washington in 1990.
