PRACTICE ROUND LOCKER ROOM QUOTES – Arizona State

Katie Hempen, Arizona State Guard:

On the team focus to prepare for tomorrow: "We are focusing a lot on us, what we need to do on defense and offense to get prepared. We are trying to focus on what their strengths and weaknesses are and see how we can get them out of their offense and defense."

On team changes to prepare for the Trojans: "We aren't making any changes really, we are focusing on ourselves."

On team strengths and how they are going to use them to defeat UALR: "I think our strongest strength right now is the fact that we are together. Using our toughness is really important and staying together on and off the court."

Promise Amukamara, Arizona State Guard:

On the team focus to prepare for tomorrow: "Just focusing on ourselves and what we need to do offensively and defensively for the game."

On team changes to prepare for the Trojans: "We have three key areas that we need to focus on for this game -- rebounding, not fouling, and taking care of the ball."

On team strengths and how they are going to use them to defeat UALR: "I think our togetherness and willing to work is playing an effective roll for this tournament. I think our defense in the first game was really awesome and we need to build off what we did in the first game."
